FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Asphalt Contractor* magazine announces Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards

Underscoring the importance of the right equipment to a contractor's bottom line, the editorial staff of Asphalt Contractor magazine selected this year's best products for its Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards. A blend of the proven, popular and new, the Top 30 reflects the breadth of products and equipment used by asphalt businesses.

Fort Atkinson, WI (May 10, 2016) – Asphalt contractors researching construction equipment purchases can find the industry's preferred products, courtesy of the editors of Asphalt Contractor, the premier magazine dedicated to asphalt producers and contractors, and visitors to ForConstructionPros.com, the construction industry's #1 web portal.

The Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards are chosen by the Asphalt Contractor editorial staff for meeting criteria that includes longevity and consistency in the market, dependability, productivity and innovation. To gauge readers' preferences, they also factored in how much interest these products received on the Buyers Guide at ForConstructionPros.com/directory.

"Equipment is the lifeblood of our readers' businesses – the right equipment choices can mean the difference between a profit or a loss on a project," says Amy Schwandt, Asphalt Contractor group publisher.

Asphalt Contractor editor, Lisa Cleaver, continued, "On today's road building projects, asphalt contractors need to possess every advantage they can. Having the best equipment in their fleets and tools in their toolboxes makes them more competitive. This year's Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards reflect those products that have the ability to add profits and increase productivity. The list also includes some exciting new introductions which offer the latest innovations. To honor products that achieve these ideals, we offer this year's Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards."

Asphalt Contractor, produced by AC Business Media, congratulates the following companies and products identified as the 2016 Top 30 Editor's Choice Awards. Additional information on the winning products can be found in the May issue of *Asphalt Contractor* or at ForConstructionPros.com.
