Global Platform connecting Athletes

With sports getting advances throughout the globe, athletes are becoming real stars. It serves as a platform for athletes, where they can showcase their profile along with their merchandise by signing up on the website and buyers and fans can purchase their favorite athlete's merchandise. This website also enables buyers to view athletes' profile without signing up or signing in.

Insights

The website was envisioned to help athletes to connect with sponsors and also enables them to sell their customized merchandise. The innovative web portal also helps buyers to purchase merchandises or sponsor athletes without creating an account on the portal. The website donates a part of revenue generated on the platform to charity. It also comes with social media integration feature.
