It is a good Retail ERP solution because it facilitates the whole process of our business right from manufacturing to retail. They've really helped us solving a number of operational challenges.

Harbir Singh Sidhu, Director, Mufti

We are using Ginesys since 2012 and it is doing great, whether it is inventory module, procurement module or sales & distribution module. Support is excellent, within 2-3 hours of reporting an issue, it gets sorted out. Lot of features has been updated according to our requirements.
