CSAC GOLFER OF THE WEEK

Christopher Donohue

Sr - Neumann University

Wilmington, DE/St. Elizabeth

Donohue led the Knights in each of their two events on the week. On Monday at the Greater Philadelphia/Rosemont Invitational, he carded a 79 to take fourth overall, four strokes off the lead. Two days later, at the Neumann Quad, he shot an identical 79, tying for second place overall.

HONOR ROLL

Sam Wilcox

Freshman - Philadelphia Biblical University

Wilcox recorded PBU's top performance of the season, as he shot a 77 to take second overall at the Alvernia Invitational on Thursday, leading the Crimson Eagles to a fourth-place finish at the 12-team event.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

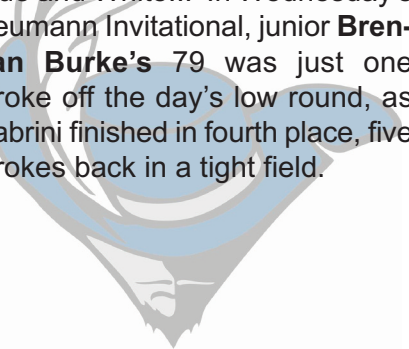

BAPTIST BIBLE DEFENDERS

On Tuesday, the Defenders will get a rematch with the University of Scranton, this time at the Defenders' home course... On Friday and Saturday, the team will compete in the CSAC Championships at the Brandywine Country Club in Delaware.

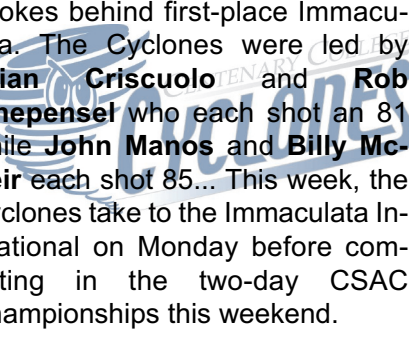

CABRINI CAVALIERS

The Cavaliers finished seventh at last week's Greater Philadelphia Invitational, 23 shots off the pace. Senior Chris Sarvadi's 85 led the Blue and White... In Wednesday's Neumann Invitational, junior Brendan Burke's 79 was just one stroke off the day's low round, as Cabrini finished in fourth place, five strokes back in a tight field.

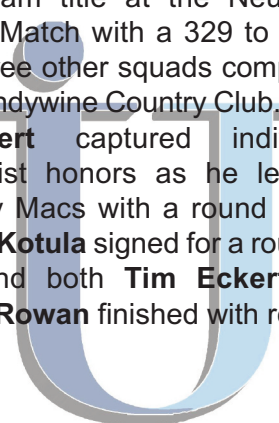

CENTENARY CYCLONES

The Cyclones took home a third place showing in the closely contested Neumann University Quad this week, finishing the match with a team score of 332, only three strokes behind first-place Immaculata. The Cyclones were led by Brian Criscuolo and Rob Linepensel who each shot an 81 while John Manos and Billy McNeir each shot 85... This week, the Cyclones take to the Immaculata Invitational on Monday before competing in the two-day CSAC Championships this weekend.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS

Immaculata's golf team captured the team title at the Neumann Quad Match with a 329 to better the three other squads competing at Brandywine Country Club. Todd Boisvert captured individual medalist honors as he led the Mighty Macs with a round of 78. Peter Kotula signed for a round of 81, and both Tim Eckert and Sean Rowan finished with rounds of 85.

KEYSTONE GIANTS

The Giants have continued to improve on their team scores on a weekly basis as the squad gets set to tee it up at the CSAC Championships this week... Freshman Sam Stewart continues to hit the hot sticks for the Giants, taking team medalist honors once again at Susquehanna, shooting an 81 to help Keystone to a third-place finish.

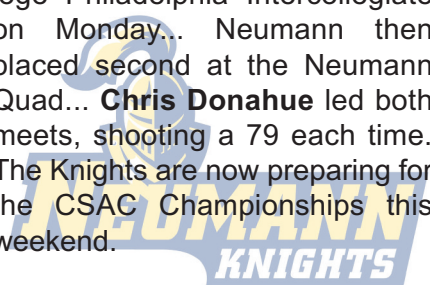

MARYWOOD PACERS

Marywood's Paul Kania finished in a tie for second place, with a nine over par 79, at the Brandywine CC in the Neumann University Invitational on Wednesday. The Pacers, who only had three golfers attend, did not have a team score or place in the event. M. Frank Major shot 83, while Matthew Janowicz finished with a 90.

NEUMANN KNIGHTS

Neumann competed in two events last week. First, the Knights finished fourth at the Rosemont College Philadelphia Intercollegiate on Monday... Neumann then placed second at the Neumann Quad... Chris Donahue led both meets, shooting a 79 each time. The Knights are now preparing for the CSAC Championships this weekend.

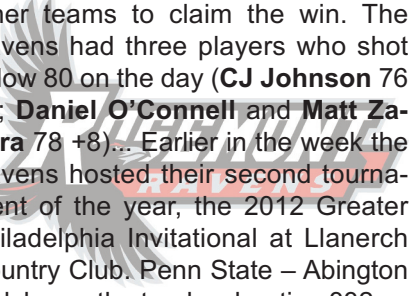

PHILADELPHIA BIBLICAL CRIMSON EAGLES

The Crimson Eagles took fourth and fifth place in their two outings this past week... On Monday, PBU finished fifth at the Rosemont Invitational, led by Garry North, who took second individually... Sam Wilcox matched that second-place finish a few days later at the Alvernia Spring Invitational in Reading, with a score of 77. The team finished 4th.

ROSEMONT RAVENS

The Rosemont golf program claimed the first tournament win in the program's history, winning the Stonewall Invitational. The Ravens bested six other teams to claim the win. The Ravens had three players who shot below 80 on the day (CJ Johnson 76 +6; Daniel O'Connell and Matt Zahora 78 +8)... Earlier in the week the Ravens hosted their second tournament of the year, the 2012 Greater Philadelphia Invitational at Llanerch Country Club. Penn State - Abington took home the trophy shooting 332 as a team. The Ravens finished in 3rd place, only five strokes off the pace.
