She was 2-for-3 with two RBI and three runs scored in the win against Cedar Crest. She had a 1.333 slugging percentage and .778 on-base percentage for the week.

CSAC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

KARISSA WOROBEY

Keystone - Sophomore
Scranton, PA/Scranton

Threw four complete games on the week, going 3-1 and added a save. Struck out a season-high 10 batters in a win over BBC, before fanning five in a loss to Scranton on Thursday. The sophomore rebounded to earn a save with a scoreless sixth in a 3-1 win in the nightcap against the Royals, then allowed just five hits and one run in two complete game wins over Notre Dame of MD and was one out away from a no-hitter in the first game.

CSAC HONOR ROLL

Marywood's Katherine King (Hopewell Junction, NY/ John Jay East Fishkill) led the Pacers to a 2-0 CSAC week with a no-hitter in the opener of a doubleheader against Rosemont. The sophomore had two complete games and picked up both wins as the Pacers swept the Ravens to improve to 9-3 on the year in the conference.

Centenary's Morgan Huizenga (Long Valley, NJ/ West Morris Central) went 4-5 (.800) with three doubles, a home run, a walk, and nine RBIs in a conference sweep of BBC. The senior right fielder led the Cyclones with a 2.000 slugging percentage, a steal, and three runs scored in the pair of wins.

AROUND THE CSAC

BAPTIST BIBLE COLLEGE DEFENDERS

The Lady Defenders have struggled the past couple of games, as they are in the midst of an eight game losing streak. After holding a lead for four innings against Centenary on Saturday, the team is looking to build off of that performance and earn their first win since April 2. Kim Caines went 3-for-4 on Saturday with a single, double, and a triple and also tallied a run scored

CABRINI COLLEGE CAVALIERS

The Cavaliers played just two games on the week, as doubleheaders against Neumann and Marywood were postponed. The Blue and White dropped its only games of the week, 7-3 and 11-2 at Delaware Valley. Cabrini clubbed 10 hits but left nine runners on base in the opener, before posting just five hits in the night cap. Junior Bethany Feinberg led the club, going 4-5 with 3 RBI on the day. The Cavaliers face a tough week ahead with a make-up game at Notre Dame (Md.) and doubleheaders against Widener, at Neumann and at home against Centenary.

CAIRN UNIVERSITY HIGHLANDERS

Kelly Hendrickson allowed only 1 hit in a 13-0 win over Trinity University (DC) followed by Jessica Goods first career win in the night cap, 20-10. The pair of wins gave the Highlanders 3 wins on the season. After a doubleheader with Centenary College was postponed due to rain, Cairn dropped back-to-back games to Immaculata, 0-8 and 1-18.

CEDAR CREST COLLEGE FALCONS

The Falcons saw a bump in the road as they split their double header with College of St. Elizabeth and then loss the makeup game to Immaculata. The Falcons are now 8-10 overall and an even .500 in the conference with a 6-6 record. The Falcons now start a pivotal stretch of 10 conference games over the next two weeks as they try to earn the final playoff spot.

CENTENARY COLLEGE CYCLONES

The Cyclones picked up another pair of conference wins this past weekend, sweeping the Baptist Bible College Defenders 11-3 and 11-0 to bring their conference record to 10-4 on the season heading into the home stretch. This week, the Cyclones have a tough task ahead as they take on No. 1 Montclair State University on Wednesday before a pair of conference games with Cabrini College and Gwynedd-Mercy College this weekend. On Saturday, the Cyclones will honor the team's four graduating seniors in their final home conference game against the Griffins.

AROUND THE CSAC

GWYNEDD-MERCY COLLEGE GRIFFINS

Kaitlyn Johnson tossed a no-hitter in game one of a CSAC Doubleheader sweep of Notre Dame of Maryland on Sunday. The Griffins won game one 4-0, and took the second, 7-0. Johnson, who struck out four, had a perfect game going into the seventh. A pair of RBI singles from Kelsey McDonough and Ave Bolli in the fourth put GM on the board. Ashley Lamont added a two-run double down the left field line to make it a 4-0 lead. In game two the Griffins gave Lamont more than enough run support, as she totaled a season-high 10 strikeouts with no walks she also added an RBI double at the plate. The Griffins are right back at it tomorrow when they host Keystone in a conference twinbill starting at 3 p.m.

IMMACULATA UNIVERSITY MIGHTY MACS

Immaculata won all three of its games last week in five innings, including two by shutout, to improved its record to 15-11 overall and 12-2 in the CSAC. Meagan Fitzgerald tossed two complete-game shutouts, earning a win against Cedar Crest and Cairn. She had a 0.00 ERA and only allowed three hits in 10 innings in the circle. Immaculata banged out 44 hits across the three games and batted .473 as a team. Nicole Curcione was 3-for-3 at the plate with two RBI in her only appearance, while Brittany Merkle batted .778 on 7-for-9, including one home-run and one triple, with eight RBI and eight runs scored.

KEYSTONE COLLEGE GIANTS

Defeated Baptist Bible 11-5 in the opening game of Wednesday's scheduled doubleheader before the nightcap was postponed because of severe weather. Sara Schraden led Keystone with a 4-5 performance at the plate and Karissa Worobey struck out a season-high 10 batters in the complete game win. After dropping an 8-3 decision to the University of Scranton in Thursday's opener, Abby Cohen hit a solo home run to start a three-run fourth inning as the Giants won the nightcap, 3-1, with Schraden earning the win on the mound and Worobey picking up the save. Keystone exploded for 30 runs in a pair of wins over Notre Dame of MD on Saturday, picking up five-innings of 12-1 and 18-0. Katie Marro had seven RBIs on the day and Worobey allowed just five hits in two complete game wins.
