BAPTST BIBLE DEFENDERS (0-5, 0-0)

Unable to pick up their first win, the Defenders went 0-4 on the week, including an overtime loss in their home opener. BBC opened up their week at NCAA Division I Delaware State, where they were handed a 63-104 loss. Getting to play at home for the first time, Abe Valentine's three pointer with 1.3 seconds sent the game into overtime, before Wilkes University would go on 17-6 run in the extra period and overtake the Defenders 100-89. Tip-off against Misericordia University in the 23rd Annual McCarthy Tire Laurel Line, the Defenders could not keep up with the Cougars, as BBC fell 49-79. Things did not get much better in the consolation game on Saturday as the Defenders took another loss, this time at the hands of Steven Institute of Technology, 56-82. Valentine was named to the All-Tournament team. BBC will return to the hardwood on December 3, when they take on Marywood University on the road.

CABRINI CAVALIERS (3-1, 0-0)

The No. 20 Cavaliers improved to 3-1 with a 3-0 week. The Blue and White scored a 91-85 win over Eastern University in Monday's Battle for Eagle Road. Senior Aaron Walton-Moss led the Cavaliers with a triple double, 20 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists. Freshman Jair Green added 20 points in the win. Cabrini then headed for Stevenson University over the weekend, for the Hoopsville National Invitational Classic. Junior Ace Henry tallied 18 points to lead five Cavaliers in double figures, as Cabrini topped Purchase College 90-65 on Saturday. In Sunday's finale, Cabrini outlasted No. 12 WPI 68-61. Cabrini used a 9-1 run late in the 2nd half to break a 55-55 deadlock to earn the win. Walton-Moss tallied 17 points, 17 rebound and six assists, while Vinny Walls added 15 points.

CAIRN HIGHLANDERS (0-3, 0-0)

The Highlanders battled with Stevenson University in their season-opener but fell 68-56 in Owings Mills, Md. The men then traveled to the Scotty Wood Tournament at Muhlenberg College Friday and Saturday where they fell to the hosts 88-43 and FDU-Florham 77-60. Cairn opens up CSAC play Monday with their home-opener against Centenary College at 7 p.m.

CENTENARY CYCLONES (1-3, 0-0)

The men's basketball team split the week (1-1) as they fell to Moravian College 83-75 before defeating Baruch College 65-62. In the win over Baruch, the Cyclones scored 31 bench points, led by Rashaan Spencer's 15 point performance followed by Andy Charles who totaled 12 points. On the week, the Cyclones were led by Senior forward, Josh Case who tallied 22 points and 10 rebounds on the week. Freshman, Myles McLeod also chipped in 18 points and 15 rebounds. Centenary opens conference play tonight as they face Cairn University in a road game at 7:00PM.

GWYNEDD MERCY GRIFFINS (3-1, 0-0)

The Griffins went 2-1 this past week against non-conference opponents. On Tuesday night, GM defeated the Wolverines of Wesley College, 85-70, in a physical match-up in front of a home crowd at the Griffin Complex. The Griffins went on to compete in the Hoopsville National Invitational Classic hosted by Stevenson University. Catholic handed Gwynedd Mercy its first loss of the season as the Griffins fell, 68-63. The Griffins closed the week with a 85-65 victory over Mary Hardin-Baylor Saturday evening. Junior Julian Hyden netted 27 points and Darnell Artis dished out 10 assists, all career highs in the victory. The Griffins will return to action on Tuesday when they welcome Keystone as both teams open CSAC play. Tip off from the Griffin Complex is slated for 7 p.m.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS (0-3, 0-0)

The Mighty Macs went 0-2 this week with a 58-50 loss at Widener and a 77-45 defeat at Division II Philadelphia University. At Widener, the Mighty Macs fought back from two double digit deficits to make it a one possession game, but they were unable to get over the hump. Junior Ron Melton had a career-high 15 points to lead the Macs and sophomore Roy Ferrell Jr. had 13. At Philly University, sophomore Matt Simon led the team with nine points on three three-point field goals. This week, IU will open their CSAC and home schedule with an 8 p.m. home game against Marywood on Monday night.

AROUND THE CSAC

KEYSTONE GIANTS (0-2, 0-0)

Keystone dropped a pair of tough games to start the season last week, falling 82-75 to Franklin & Marshall in Tuesday's season-opener before dropping a 102-69 decision at Division I St. Francis (Pa.) on Thursday. Duncan Lunsford led the Giants with 19 points against the Diplomats while James Cooper (13), Miles Dargan (10), and Darien Wingate (10) also reached double-figures against F&M. On Thursday night, Lunsford poured in a game-high 25 points against the Red Flash while Jesse Longmire netted 18 points in the loss. Keystone will open CSAC play at Gwynedd Mercy on Tuesday night before traveling to Nazareth College on Saturday

MARYWOOD PACERS (2-0, 0-0)

Marywood University shattered four individual game records and came within one field goal made of tying a fifth as the Pacers beat SUNY College of Environmental Sciences and Forestry 118-33 in their only action of the week. Shane Kellaher finished tied with Jeremy Ringland for a game-high 23 points. Marywood broke several single-game records as they scored the most points (118) in program history. The Pacers' old record was 108 in two games, on November 26, 1996 against Bard College and on February 21, 1998 against Eastern College. Marywood set new program single-game records for three pointers made (20), 3-pointers attempted (41), points (118) and assists (33). The old single-game assist record was 27. Marywood came within one made field goal of the program record for a game, 46.

NEUMANN KNIGHTS (2-2, 0-0)

Neumann went 1-1 overall last week. On Wednesday, the Knights defeated Penn State-Brandywine 91-80. DeShawn Lowman and James Butler recorded double-doubles for the Knights. On Saturday, the Knights come-from-behind bid fell just short at Eastern, 69-66. Lowman notched another double-double for the Knights. Neumann opens conference action on Tuesday when it hosts Rosemont. Saturday, the Knights will face Penn State-Abington in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Cabrini College.

ROSEMONT RAVENS (2-2, 0-0)

The Ravens lost a couple of close decisions this week, coming up short against Eastern on Tuesday (61-60) and against Wilkes in Wilkes-Barre on Saturday (70-63) to even up Rosemont's record at 2-2 for the season. Dom Scafidi continues to lead the Ravens, averaging 16.5 points and 9 rebounds/game. The Ravens open their conference schedule on Tuesday at Neumann before facing Rowan in the Coaches vs. Cancer event at Cabrini on Saturday.
