BAPTST BIBLE DEFENDERS (0-5, 0-0)

After playing five games in eight days, the Defenders had off last week. Spending their time preparing for the upcoming week, BBC will open up league play at Marywood University on Wednesday night. They will wrap up their week at home as they host Immaculata University.

CABRINI CAVALIERS (3-3, 0-0)

The No. 18 Cavaliers fell to 3-3 on the season with a pair of Top 25 losses last week. Despite 27 points and five steals by senior Aaron Walton-Moss, the Blue and White struggled in the first half in an 85-65 loss at No. 24 Scranton. Freshman Jair Green added 12 points for Cabrini. On Saturday, the Cavaliers suffered a 95-81 loss to No. 7 Dickinson in the finale of the 2014 Coaches vs. Cancer Classic. Walton-Moss led the Blue and White with 30 points, 12 rebounds, five assists, four blocks and four steals, while fellow senior Vinny Walls added 20 points. Freshman Tyheim Monroe tallied 10 points off the bench. Cabrini will open CSAC play this week as it hosts Neumann Wednesday before visiting Centenary on Saturday.

CAIRN HIGHLANDERS (0-5, 0-1)

Cairn University went 0-2 on the week as they opened conference play at home on Monday with a 68-52 loss to Centenary. Cairn was led by senior Reuben Lacy who had 13 points and 8 rebounds. Cairn then traveled to Swarthmore College on Saturday where they were defeated 73-60. The Highlanders had three players in double digits as Omar Askia scored 14 points, Don Sloan had 13 points, and JD Zamroz contributed with 12 points. Cairn will continue conference play on Wednesday as they travel to play Gwynedd Mercy University and will host Marywood on Saturday.

CENTENARY CYCLONES (2-3, 1-0)

The Centenary men's basketball team opened CSAC play against Cairn University, defeating the Highlanders 68-52. In a close matchup, Centenary went into the break holding a one-point lead (25-24). The game was kept close, until the 12th minute where Centenary jumped out on a 14-5 run for a 52-39 lead. The Cyclones never relinquished the lead to nab their first league win. Freshman guard Rashaan Spencer led the Cyclones with a game-high 16 points on 5-of-11 shooting, while Andy Charles added 14 points and nine rebounds. Paul Jones also contributed in the win with 11 points.

GWYNEDD MERCY GRIFFINS (4-1, 1-0)

Six players finished in double figures as Gwynedd Mercy cruised in their CSAC opener, defeating Keystone, 112-74, Tuesday night at the Griffin Complex. Sophomore Cedric Elleby led all scorers with a personal-best 25 points as the Griffins improve to 4-1, 1-0 CSAC. Over the weekend GM took Division I Howard to double overtime but fell to the Bison, 96-83, Saturday evening in an exhibition contest. Arron Goodman led GM with 24 points while Darnell Artis chipped in 18. Gwynedd Mercy gets back to action on Wednesday when they welcome Cairn in a CSAC matchup at 8 p.m.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS (1-3, 1-0)

The Mighty Macs got their first win of the season in their home and CSAC opener against Marywood, 61-60. Senior Mamadou Diakite hit a lay-up with thirty seconds left to give the Mighty Macs a one-point lead and the defense held in the final two Pacer possessions for the victory. Immaculata was great from beyond the arc, hitting 12 three point field goals as they went through eight lead changes in the second half. Sophomore Roy Ferrell Jr. led the way with 13 points while freshman Joshua Smith and sophomore Matt Simon each had 12 points. Diakite chipped in with ten points. The Mighty Macs will host Rosemont on Wednesday before travelling to Baptist Bible on Saturday.

AROUND THE CSAC

KEYSTONE GIANTS (0-4, 0-1)

Keystone dropped a pair of road contests last week, dropping their conference opener on Tuesday night at Gwynedd Mercy before falling at Nazareth College on Saturday. Miles Dargan paced the Giants with 20 points on four assists in Tuesday's conference-opener against the Griffins while Dan Candemeres and Duncan Lunsford chipped in 10 points apiece. Saturday against the Golden Flyers, Lunsford led the squad with a season-high 28 points to go along with nine rebounds. Jesse Longmire (16) and Dargan (12) also reached double-figures at Nazareth. Keystone will play a pair of CSAC contests this week, hosting Centenary on Wednesday before visiting Neumann on Saturday.

MARYWOOD PACERS (3-1, 0-1)

Marywood went 1-1 on the week. The Pacers rebounded from their first loss of the season with a 85-52 win over Penn State Worthington Scranton. A 22-point run in the first half left the Lions without a field goal for a 10:03 span. James Curley led the team with 18 points. Jeremy Ringland and Shane Kellaher put up identical 12-point, eight-rebound lines. On Monday, Immaculata's layup with 30 seconds late down the Pacers 61-60 in the CSAC opener. Cameron Dean was the lone Pacer in double figures with 12 points. Marywood hosts Baptist Bible Wednesday before traveling to Cairn Saturday.

NEUMANN KNIGHTS (4-2, 1-0)

Neumann went undefeated this week by going 2-0. On Tuesday, the Knights opened conference with a 49-46 win against Rosemont. Pierre Charles led the Knights with 12 points in the winning effort. On Saturday, the Knights defeated Penn State-Abington in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Cabrini College by a score of 88-57. Tyreek Riddick had 34 points including 10 three-pointers and DeShawn Lowman had a double-double to help the Knights. Neumann will face off against two conference opponents this week as they will travel to Cabrini on Wednesday before hosting Keystone on Saturday.

ROSEMONT RAVENS (2-4, 0-1)

The Ravens opened up their CSAC schedule at Neumann on Tuesday, losing a tight 49-46 to the Knights. On Saturday Rosemont competed in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Cabrini. Kyle Lafferty scored 18 but the Ravens came up short, 80-71 against the Rowan Profs. The Ravens return to their conference schedule this week, playing at Immaculata Wednesday before ending the week at home against Gwynedd Mercy on Saturday.
