BAPTST BIBLE DEFENDERS (0-8, 0-2)

The Defenders played just one game this week and fell to Messiah College 94-74. At the 11:17 mark in the first half, a Dan Decker three pointer put BBC up 21-18, but they struggled on the boards, as Messiah dominated the glass, giving themselves numerous second chance point opportunities, which they took full advantage of. Abe Valentine led all scorers with 22 points, Marqwon Wynn added 19 points and Decker chipped in 17. The Defenders will return to action on January 5, as they host Cabrini College at 7:00pm.

CABRINI CAVALIERS (5-3, 2-0)

The Cavaliers did not compete last week, as the student-athletes focused on final exams. The Blue and White will return to action on Tuesday, as it travels south to Ashland, Va., where it will face No. 22 Randolph-Macon College.

CAIRN HIGHLANDERS (0-7, 0-3)

The Highlanders were off this week due to finals and have gone on their Christmas breaks. They will return to action in January with a game at Penn State Abington on the 3rd.

CENTENARY CYCLONES (4-4, 2-1)

The Centenary men even up their overall record (4-4) with a road win over Mt. St Mary College (1-5) 69-56. It was a tight contest through the first half of play as both teams entered the break tied (33-33). The Cyclones came alive in the second half scoring 17 unanswered points to take a 50-33 lead. Centenary would hold on to their lead despite the Knights getting within seven after a 12-2 run. Freshman guard Rashaan Spencer led the offense with 14 points, while Zachary Duymich chipped in 11 points. The Cyclones return to action December 20th as they host Rutgers-Newark @ 2:00pm.

GWYNEDD MERCY GRIFFINS (7-3, 2-1)

The Griffins defeated the host King's on Friday, 66-42, and Wilkes on Saturday, 90-78, to capture the Monarch Classic over the weekend. Senior Justin Knight was named the MVP as he averaged 18 points, 4.5 rebounds, 3 assists, and 2.5 steals in both games. Sophomore Arron Goodman was also selected to the all-tournament team as he averaged 21 points and 7.5 rebounds in the two contests. The team is now off from action until January 7th when they welcome Baptist Bible in a CSAC clash at the Griffin Complex.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS (3-4, 3-0)

The Mighty Macs saw their three-game winning streak come to an end on Saturday afternoon with an 84-69 defeat at the hands of Arcadia. IU never led, but fought back from a double-digit second-half deficit to get it to within one point, but were unable to get in front. Senior Mamadou Diakite led the way with 21 points and eight rebounds, while Roy Ferrell Jr. had 12 and Joshua Smith had 10. The Mighty Macs will stay out of conference when they host Alvernia on Thursday night.

AROUND THE CSAC

KEYSTONE GIANTS (0-6, 0-3)

Keystone, who was idle this past week, will close out play of the semester at the Luck Stone Holiday Tournament hosted by Hampden-Sydney College on Thursday and Friday. The Giants will take on Sewanee: The University of the South on Thursday at 4:00 p.m. and will play either Hampden-Sydney or Kean University on Friday.

MARYWOOD PACERS (5-1, 2-1)

Marywood did not have any action this week. The Pacers return to the floor with non-conference road games at Mount St. Mary College (Tuesday) and Lebanon Valley College (Friday).

NEUMANN KNIGHTS (5-3, 2-1)

Neumann was off this week for finals. The Knights host Rowan on Wednesday to wrap up the 2014 part of the schedule. Tip-off is slated for 7:00 PM.

ROSEMONT RAVENS (3-5, 1-2)

This past Tuesday senior Dom Scafidi was presented the Sam Cozen Award at the Philadelphia Small College Coaches Luncheon. The Ravens return to the court this week with two non-conference games scheduled. On Tuesday the team travels to Arcadia to face the Knights. The team closes out the 2014 portion of their schedule on Saturday when they play Ursinus in Collegeville. After this week the team's remaining 15 games will all be against conference opponents.
