AROUND THE CSAC

BAPTIST BIBLE

The Defenders were finally able to open up their season this past week as they had two matches. On Wednesday, the team competed in a tri-match with Scranton University and King's College at Glenmaura National Golf Club. BBC finished third with a score of 431 (+147), as Jordan Greve led the team with an 89. The very next day, the team played at the same course the next day with all the same teams, except this time, Marywood University joined this time. The Pacers beat Scranton (who had won on the previous day), while the Defenders improved their score by 27 strokes, shooting a 404(+121). Greve improved his score, shooting an 88.

CABRINI

The Cavaliers scored a first place finish at the Cabrini Spring Classic, firing a team score of 310. Senior Rob Bass and freshman Rojas led the way with matching rounds of 76 at par 71 River-Crest Golf Club & Preserve. Senior Pat Rooney fired a 77 to place third, while senior Erik Fischer and junior Tommy Breslin's matching 79's were good for a fifth place tie. The Blue and White will play in the Franklin & Marshall College Invitational on Monday before hosting the Cabrini Spring Invitational on Tuesday.

CAIRN

The Highlanders will travel to the Rivercrest Golf Club to compete in the Cabrini Invitational tomorrow afternoon.

CENTENARY

Centenary junior Steve Kluemper claimed the individual title at the Alvernia Invitational after shooting a four-over par 74 on Tuesday. It was the second medalist honor of the year for Kluemper as he also won the Mason-Dixon Classic during the fall. Kluemper has posted top-four finishes in six-straight tournaments. Centenary placed 10th as a team in the 14-team field. Junior Rob Linepense fired an 82, finishing in 17th.

IMMACULATA

Immaculata did not compete in any tournaments last week. The Mighty Macs will be on the links at the Cabrini College Invitational tomorrow.

AROUND THE CSAC

After Monday's scheduled Lebanon Valley College Invitational was rained out, Keystone opened first round play on Sunday at the two-day, Mike Bello Invitational hosted by Le Moyne College at the Timber Banks Golf Course in Baldwinsville, NY with a team score of 357 to sit 14th after Day One. Alexander Farese and Race Sick both carded rounds of 84 to sit tied for 45th overall while leading Keystone on the day. The Giants will close out the Mike Bello Invitational on Monday in their only action this week.

KEYSTONE

Marywood's Devin Crowley finished with a 7-over par 78 to lead six Pacers in the top 10 as Marywood won it's own quad-match over opponents Scranton, King's and Baptist Bible College. Playing five golfers with the top four scores counting towards team finish, Marywood finished with a 334 to edge Scranton for the first time in the Pacers three-year program history. Scranton finished with a 339 while King's had a 357 and Baptist Bible a 404. The Pacers improved to 10-2 on the season with the three wins.

MARYWOOD

Neumann competed in the Alvernia Spring Invitational last week and tied for 13th out of 13 teams. Brandon Gagne led the Knights on the 6,797 yard, par 72 course with an 81 on the afternoon. Bruce Bandos shot a 91 with Ryan Dreger a stroke behind with 92. Mike Basileo rounded out the Knights with a 109. This week, the Knights will compete in the Cabrini Spring Invitational on Tuesday.

NEUMANN

The Ravens will wrap up their regular season events early this week. On Monday the team will play at the Bent Creek Country Club, hosted by Franklin and Marshall College. On Tuesday they will participate in an event hosted by Cabrini at the Rivercrest Golf Club in Phoenixville, Pa.
