AROUND THE CSAC

BAPTIST BIBLE

Rain postponed both matches scheduled for last week, delaying the start of the spring 2014 season. The team hopes to play on Wednesday as they take on Scranton University and then will turn around and take on Marywood University on Thursday.

CABRINI

The Cavaliers traveled to Long Island last weekend to play the famed Bethpage State Park Red Course for the Farmingdale State Spring Invitational. Cabrini placed ninth out of 12 teams after the two-day event. Senior Rob Bass led the way with a two day score of 152, to finish tied for 7th. Junior Tommy Breslin tied for 29th with a score of 159. The Blue and White will return to its home course on Tuesday as it hosts the Cabrini Spring Classic at RiverCrest Golf Club and Preserve.

CAIRN

The Highlanders hosted their first invitational of the season last Monday, taking fourth place out of six teams. On Friday, Cairn traveled to Pennsauken, NJ for the Scarlet Raptors Spring Invitational and took fifteenth for the day. The Highlanders will host their next invitational on April 10th at the Makefield Highlanders Golf Club.

CENTENARY

Centenary placed fourth at the Susquehanna Invitational and 11th at the Farmingdale State Invitational last week. Junior Steve Kluemper led the Cyclones at both events. He placed second at the Susquehanna Inv., after carding a 74 and posted a two-day total of 150, tying for fourth at the FSC Inv. Kluemper has placed in the top four at all five events he has competed in during his junior season. Classmate Robert Linepensel matched Kluemper with a 73 Sunday at FSC and tied for 11th overall. The rounds of 73 by the pair are tied for the sixth-lowest rounds in school history.

IMMACULATA

Immaculata tied for eighth place at the Elizabethtown Spring Blue Jay Classic as the Mighty Macs finished with a round of 320. DeSales was the other school to shoot a 320. Aaron Harper and Peter Kotula tied for 25th place, individually, after firing rounds of 78.

AROUND THE CSAC

In their lone match of the week on Tuesday at the Susquehanna University Spring Invitational, Keystone shot a team score of 359 to place third out of six teams in the tournament. Race Sick led the Giants with a round of 86 to tie for 10th in the field while Zach Fedynich carded an 89 to place in a tie for 14th overall. Keystone will next compete in Monday's Lebanon Valley College Invitational before kicking off the two-day Mike Bello Invitational hosted by LeMoyne College which runs Sunday and Monday.

KEYSTONE

Michael Thomas' one-over par round led all scorers as Marywood University downed King's College 312-326 in men's golf action Friday afternoon at Wyoming Valley Country Club in Hanover Township. Thomas' shot a 72 on the 6,178 yard course. Marywood takes part in the Lebanon Valley College Invitational Monday before hosting King's and Scranton Thursday.

MARYWOOD

Neumann competed in the Scarlet Raptors Invitational on Friday. The Knights finished tied for seventh out of 15 teams at the Pennsauken Country Club. Brandon Gagne led the Knights on the par 70, 6,250 yard course shooting a 78. Ryan Dreger shot an 86 and Bruce Bandos had an 88. Andrew Luskin shot a 90 and Brandon Sommerman rounded out the afternoon with a 99. Neumann will participate in the Dutchmen Invitational on Monday and the Alvernia Spring Golf Invitational on Wednesday.

NEUMANN

The Ravens finished in 6th place overall at the Makefield Highlands Golf Club (hosted by Cairn University) on 3/31. Cody Kazaoka shot a 98 for the best round for the Ravens. Rosemont's next event is scheduled for 4/14.
