BAPTIST BIBLE DEFENDERS (0-13, 0-7)

Dropping both games this past week, the Defenders are still in search of their first win. On Monday, BBC fell victim to Neumann University, 56-92, despite 20 points from Abe Valentine. The junior would score 30 points Wednesday night at Keystone College, but the Giants were too much for BBC as they dropped their second game of the week, 73-90. The team will start this week at Rosemont College on Monday night and head to Cairn University, as the two long time rivals face off for the first of two match-ups this season. BBC will return home Saturday as they will host Gwynedd Mercy University.

CABRINI CAVALIERS (9-6, 6-2)

The Cavaliers extended their win streak to three games and improved to 9-6 overall and 6-2 in the CSAC with wins over Baptist Bible and Rosemont. The Blue and White saw its 25 point second half lead vanish before scoring the game's final five points in an 86-82 win at Baptist Bible. Senior Aaron Walton-Moss recorded his third triple-double of the season with 25 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists, while junior Ace Henry hit six three pointers for 18 points. On Saturday, Cabrini avenged a previous conference loss with a 103-70 home win over Rosemont. The Cavaliers shot 63% from the field in the first half and saw six players score in double figures. Freshman Tyheim Monroe had a monster game, pairing 19 points and 21 rebounds, while Walton-Moss posted his second consecutive triple-double with 10 points, 10 rebounds and 13 assists to match a program record. The Blue and White face another tough week, including a home game against Keystone before visiting Gwynedd Mercy and Immaculata.

CAIRN HIGHLANDERS (1-12, 1-6)

The Highlanders went 1-1 on the week, picking up their first win of the season and first conference win for new head coach Jason O'Connell. Cairn played tight defense against Rosemont keeping the game close, before eventually falling 67-48. The Highlanders were led by Reuben Lacy who had 15 points and 7 rebounds going 6-9 from the floor, and Omar Askia who had 12 points off the bench. Cairn picked up their first win at home against conference leader Immaculata 57-54. The Highlanders were once again led by Lacy's 18 points and 12 rebounds. Fellow seniors Askia and Darnell Clowney, hit double figure scoring with 14 and 10 points respectively. Cairn is in the middle of conference play, as they travel to Neumann Monday, play home against Baptist and travel to Keystone Saturday.

CENTENARY CYCLONES (7-7, 4-3)

The Centenary men split the week going 1-1 in CSAC play. The Cyclones defeated Gwynedd Mercy 75-67 before falling to Marywood 68-63. Centenary now stands at 7-7 overall and 4-3 in Conference. Freshman Rashaan Spencer led the Cyclones with career-high points and three pointers made on both nights. Spencer netted a game-high 19 points shooting 5-7 from three in the win over Gwynedd. Spencer bested that performance scoring 23 points shooting 7-9 from beyond the arc in the loss to Marywood. Senior Andy Charles added 25 points shooting 10-24 from the field. The Cyclones will look to bounce back as they hit the road to face Immaculata January 19th at 6:30pm.

GWYNEDD MERCY GRIFFINS (9-6, 4-4)

The Griffins had a tough 1-2 CSAC week, with a win on Monday over Marywood, 94-78, but falling at Centenary on Wednesday, 75-67, and closing out the week with a 72-71 home defeat to Neumann. Against Marywood, GM had three players with 20-plus points while hitting 14 three-pointers offensively and added 10 blocks defensively as a team. Seth Heinicke and Julian Hyden each had 22 points while Darnell Artis netted 21 along with eight assists. On Wednesday at Centenary, Artis led the squad with 12 points and five assists. In Saturday's one-point defeat to Neumann, Arron Goodman poured in 16 points while Justin Knight and Brian Hennessey each added 15. The team welcomes Cabrini on Wednesday before heading to Baptist Bible on Wednesday.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS (7-7, 5-2)

After starting the CSAC schedule off with five straight wins, the Immaculata men's basketball team had a tough week with two losses in conference play. On Tuesday, IU lost at Keystone 89-87 in a back-and-forth game. The Mighty Macs had a double digit lead in the first half, but the Giants stormed back and grabbed a double digit lead of their own in the second half before holding on in the end. Senior Mamadou Diakite had a double-double with 22 points and 10 rebounds, while Matt Simon chipped in with 16 off the bench. On the next night, IU had their second straight close loss, this time it was 57-54 to Cairn. Diakite had another double-double, his fourth straight, with 11 points and tied his own school record with 16 rebounds in the game. Junior Rodney Duncan had a three-point miss in the closing seconds to seal the defeat. This week, Immaculata will be busy with three games at home as they host Centenary on Monday, Neumann on Wednesday, and Cabrini on Saturday.

AROUND THE CSAC

KEYSTONE GIANTS (3-10, 3-4)

Keystone dealt Immaculata their first CSAC loss of the season on Tuesday with an 89-87 victory over the Mighty Macs. Duncan Lunsford scored a game-high 29 points for the Giants, who got 14 points from Miles Dargan, 12 points and eight assists from Tyreek Peebles, and 10 points from DaVaughn Roberts-Thomas in the win. In a 90-73 victory over Baptist Bible on Wednesday, Lunsford scored a game-high 33 points while Dargan netted 22 points, including the 1,000th point of his career, to carry Keystone to the win. On Saturday, the Giants dropped a tight, 82-78 decision at Brooklyn despite getting season-highs of 20 points from Dan Candemerres and 11 assists from Peebles. Keystone will play three CSAC games this week, visiting Cabrini on Monday and Marywood on Wednesday before hosting Cairn on Saturday.

MARYWOOD PACERS (9-6, 4-4)

Marywood went 1-2 on the week with losses to Gwynedd Mercy and Cabrini and a win over Centenary. Shane Kellaher averaged 22 points on the week while Alex Barr averaged 15. Marywood rallied from 25 down to Cabrini to briefly reclaim a lead before the Cavaliers held the Pacers off.

NEUMANN KNIGHTS (8-6, 5-2)

Neumann went 2-0 this week in conference action. On Monday, the Knights defeated Baptist Bible by a 92-56 score. James Butler scored 16 points for the Knights leading five players in double-digits. On Saturday, Neumann traveled to Gwynedd Mercy and left with a 72-71 victory. DeShawn Lowman led the team with 25 points. Andrew Moyer had a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. Neumann returns home after a five game road trip to tip-off against conference opponent Cairn on Monday. The Knights will then travel to Immaculata on Wednesday before returning home against Centenary on Saturday.

ROSEMONT RAVENS (7-8, 5-3)

The Ravens went 1-1 for the week. The team set a new program mark with its fifth straight conference win when they defeated Cairn on Monday. Saturday, the Ravens' loss at Cabrini halted the team's conference and overall winning streak (4 games). The week starts off at home on Monday when the Ravens host Baptist Bible. On Wednesday the squad will make the trip to visit Centenary and they'll end the week with a home game against Marywood on Saturday.
