BAPTST BIBLE DEFENDERS (2-21, 1-15)

In their final two road games of the season, the Defenders went 0-2 including losses to Neumann University and Centenary College. In Wednesday night's battle with the Knights, BBC went scoreless for an 8 minute stretch and the Knight's took full advantage, gaining 91-65 win. Adam Brinkley had a career night from beyond the arc as the junior went 4-of-6 in the first half on his way to a 14 point performance. On Saturday, the Defenders held a 13 point lead, but foul trouble slowed down the BBC offense. The blue and white would go on to lose 61-70. With their final games at home, the Defenders will host Keystone College on Monday night at 8:00pm and the welcome Cairn University to town on Wednesday night for a 7:00pm tip-off.

CABRINI CAVALIERS (15-9, 12-5)

The Cavaliers extended their win streak to a season-high six games with wins last week over Marywood and Cairn, improving to 15-9 overall and 12-5 in the conference. The victories also kept the Cavaliers 0.5 game lead in the CSAC standings intact with one game remaining. Senior Aaron Walton-Moss paced the Cavaliers to a 104-84 win over Marywood on Monday with his seventh triple-double of the season. The senior posted 30 points, 11 rebounds, 11 assists and four steals in the win. Fellow senior Vinny Walls added 23 points and freshman Jair Green 14 as Cabrini shot 62% from the floor in the win. The Cavaliers closed the week with a 101-54 victory at Cairn, as six Cavaliers scored in double figures. Walton-Moss nearly recorded another triple-double with 17 points, a season-high 18 rebounds and eight assists. Walls matched Walton-Moss with 17 points, while sophomore Ronny Paden, Green and fellow rookie Tyheim Monroe added 12 points each. Cabrini will close its regular season on Wednesday, when it welcomes Gwynedd Mercy to Nerney Field House for Senior Night.

CAIRN HIGHLANDERS (2-21, 2-14)

The Highlanders suffered three losses this week with one non-conference. The first was an overtime loss to the University of Valley Forge 77-72, next to Rosemont College 72-53, and finally to Cabrini College 102-54. With the results Cairn dropped to 2-21 overall and 2-14 in the conference. Cairn will finish out the season this week with away games against Immaculata and Baptist Bible.

CENTENARY CYCLONES (12-11, 9-7)

The Centenary men's basketball team went 2-1 on the week. The Cyclones defeated Rosemont 64-63 before losing to Gwynedd Mercy 67-62. The Cyclones then took down Baptist Bible with a 70-61 win for a 12-11 overall record and 9-7 in CSAC play. The Cyclone offense was led by senior Andy Charles who netted 40 points and grabbed 22 rebounds. Djovan Beausejour also chipped in 32 points on the week. Centenary will hit the road to face Marywood February 16th at 7pm.

GWYNEDD MERCY GRIFFINS (16-7, 11-5)

The Griffins secured two CSAC wins this week to keep pace among the very tight playoff race. On Wednesday, senior Justin Knight totaled a game-high 21 points and junior Darnell Artis added 17 points, a career-high seven rebounds, and six assists in a 67-62 win over Centenary. Knight and fellow senior Seth Heinicke were honored on Saturday prior to the 86-58 win over Immaculata on Senior Day on Saturday. Artis would tie a season high with 21 points on 6-of-12 shooting and 3-of-6 from downtown. Gwynedd closes out the regular season this week and with two wins, can clinch the top overall playoff seed and home-court advantage.

IMMACULATA MIGHTY MACS (13-10, 8-8)

The Mighty Macs saw their losing streak climb to four games after two more losses this past week. On Wednesday, Immaculata erased a double-digit deficit in the second half to send the game to overtime against Keystone, but the Giants went on a 10-0 run in overtime to take control of the game in a 95-87 defeat. Sophomore Roy Ferrell Jr. had a career-high 32 points in the loss, including a program-tying six three pointers. On Saturday, the Mighty Macs were defeated by Gwynedd Mercy, 86-58. Matt Simon tied a season-high with 16 points to lead IU. Immaculata is now locked in a three-way tie for the sixth and final playoff position with Marywood and Keystone with two games remaining in the regular season. They will have Senior Night this evening when they host Cairn before wrapping up the regular season at Neumann on Wednesday.

KEYSTONE GIANTS (8-15, 8-8)

Keystone earned a key, 95-87 win in overtime at Immaculata on Wednesday. Dan Candemeres led Keystone with 23 points and five assists, Duncan Lunsford added 15 points while DaVaughn Roberts-Thomas and Tyreek Peebles contributed 13 points apiece against the Mighty Macs. The Giants dropped an 88-75 decision to Rosemont on Saturday on Senior Day. Lunsford led the Giants with 18 points while Candemeres (14) and Miles Dargan (13) also reached double-figures in the loss the Ravens. Keystone will close out the regular season with a pair of crucial games against local rivals, visiting Baptist Bible on Monday before hosting Marywood on Wednesday in a game that will be televised locally on Fox 56 Sports.

MARYWOOD PACERS (13-10, 8-8)

Marywood went 0-2 on the week with losses to Cabrini and Neumann, both on the road. The Pacers now sit in a three-way tie for the sixth and final playoff spot and must have a strong week in their final two games. The Pacers will host Centenary Monday and travel to Keystone Wednesday looking to clinch that final playoff berth.

NEUMANN KNIGHTS (14-9, 11-5)

Neumann went 2-0 in CSAC action. On Wednesday, the Knights defeated Baptist Bible 91-65. Kevin Green led the Knights with 23 points. On Saturday, the Knights pulled away with a 72-51 victory over Marywood. Green would lead the Knights again with 20 points. The regular season comes to an end this week as Neumann hosts two CSAC opponents. On Monday, the Knights will face off against Gwynedd Mercy before hosting Immaculata in the regular season finale on Wednesday.

ROSEMONT RAVENS (13-11, 11-6)

The Ravens finished their longest stretch of road games with a 3-1 record overall, 2-1 for the week. After getting beaten by one point on Centenary's last possession on Tuesday, the Ravens snapped back with wins at Cairn and at Keystone to clinch a CSAC playoff berth. Rosemont's 11 conference wins set a new standard since the program's inception in the 2009-10 season. The team also guaranteed a CSAC record of over .500 for the season for the first time. The team's 13 overall wins ties the program's record for most wins in a season, set in the 2011-12 season (13-13).
