CSAC GOLFER OF THE WEEK

JESSE BINGAMAN
Marywood - Junior
Nazareth, Pa./Nazareth Area

Bingaman shot a 1-over par 73 to win the 2015 Revolutionary Classic by three strokes over nearly 60 other golfers. Bingaman led Marywood to a second place finish out of 11 teams and to the highest finish of five CSAC teams participating. After transferring to Marywood in January, Bingaman has been the medalist in the Pacers' two matches so far this spring. Against Occidental College on the famous Torrey Pines South course in California, Bingaman had a low round of 76 (+4).

CSAC HONOR ROLL

RACE SICK
Keystone - Sophomore
Tunkhannock, Pa./Tunkhannock

Sick led Keystone with an eight-over round of 79 in the Myrtle Beach Shootout on the par-71, 6,350-yard Fazio Course of the Barefoot Golf Club in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. He tied for eighth in the field of 51 golfers and finished just two shots above his best round from the fall in the Giants' spring opener to help Keystone place sixth out of seven teams in the tournament.
