

Obituary

Sharon Renee Cammack, 57 of Richmond, California. A loving wife, mother, friend, and a devoted worker for the United States Postal Service received her wings on May 7, 2022.

Sharon was born to Jenkins B. Woods and the late Henrie Louis Valley-Woods on March 8, 1965, in Pineville, Louisiana, where she was enrolled in the Grant Parish School System and graduated from Grant High School in May of 1984. Sharon "Renee" was baptized at an early age at the Woodland Baptist Church in Colfax, Louisiana under the leadership of Reverend Wilson Foster.

After graduating from high school, she left for California to live with her uncle Richard and aunt Mary Valley. She attended St Luke Missionary Baptist Church and started working at the Social Security Administration, later leaving Social Security to work as a clerk for the United States Postal Service for over 32 years.

It was at her Postal Service job that she met Audrey George, who invited her over for Thanksgiving dinner, where she met Audrey's son Louis Cammack, who would later become her husband, when they were married in Las Vegas, Nevada on May 10, 1994. To this union was born the light of their lives daughter, Amanda Nicole Cammack in February of 1996.

Sharon was strong, opinionated, and confident, waking up every morning telling herself, "Hello Gorgeous!" and she wasn't afraid to share her opinion about anything with anyone. A cancer survivor who never gave up and even told her doctor, "You don't know what God has planned for me."

Sharon was also there for family and friends, when they needed help or an ear to listen during hard times and good times. Filled with joy, she always had a saying when you talked to her. Some of her favorites, when asked how she was doing, she'd reply, "I'm blessed by the best!" or quoting her favorite bible scripture Matthew 17:20: So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. ", leaving you with a smile.

Being a social butterfly, she had many invitations to birthday parties, weddings, baby showers and other celebrations with family, friends, and colleagues from work.

One of her favorite pastimes was going to the Foothill Square bingo hall, where she socialized, had many friends and was often very lucky.

Sharon was welcomed into heaven by her lord and savior Jesus Christ, meeting her mother Henrie Louis Woods, who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory, a loving husband, Louis Cammack, daughter, Amanda Cammack, her father Jenkins B. Woods, sisters Anita (Fred) Ellis, Judy Carter, Deloris (Nolan Jr.) Brown, and her youngest sister Tammy Woods, along with her mother-in-law Audrey George, sister-in-law April Wilson, brothers-in-law Michael (Vicki) Wilson, Ramon (Diana) Peters, uncle and aunt, Orange and Annie Valley, Aunts Ollie Valley-Barrett and Loenna Woods, special friends Stephanie Larkin, Wanda Melton, Stephanie Carnegie, Geri Rodgers and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.