

merewether: 2291

This cool coastal suburb of Newcastle, NSW, is laden with high-quality sporting, eating and leisure-time options

CITY ROAD

picnic

Prince of Wales
1 Morgan St
princeofwales.com.au

This local pub's drive-through bottle shop has a gourmet fromagerie and deli.

eat

Don Beppino's
45 Railway St
Tel: +61 (2) 4963 3969

An old-school Italian restaurant with nonnas who prepare fresh pasta daily.

SCENIC DRIVE

FREDERICK ST

HELEN ST

MEMORIAL DRIVE

watch

Juicy Beans Cafe
1 John Parade
juicybeanscafe.com.au

Enjoy the big breakfast while gazing at pods of dolphins and, from May to November each year, whales.

drink

The Beach Hotel
Cnr Frederick and Ridge Sts
thebeachhotel.com.au

Known as "The Beaches", the art-deco pub's Sunday afternoon session is a local institution.

swim

Merewether Ocean Baths
Henderson Parade

Opened in 1935, this is the southern hemisphere's largest ocean baths complex. Closed for cleaning once a week.

take a stroll

Join hundreds of locals who walk Bathers Way along John Parade at dawn. This coastal pathway joins Newcastle's five main beaches, stretching from Merewether Baths to Nobbys Beach.

glide

Air Sports
Hickson St
air-sports.com.au

Merewether has one of Oz's prettiest beaches - see it from a tandem hang glider!