

Where to Eat, Stay, and Play on Hilton Head

With its proud reputation as one of the most fantastic vacation destinations along the east coast in the Carolinas, Hilton Head Island is absolutely packed with amazing places to eat, luxurious hotels to stay at, and fun and relaxing ways to pass the time.

No matter what type of lifestyle you are looking for, you can find the right types of restaurants, hotels, and attractions to keep you busy on Hilton Head Island. Let's jump in and check out some of the most popular options!

Hilton Head Restaurants

If you are looking for high-end dining in Hilton Head, there is no shortage of outstanding options to choose from. One of the most popular restaurants on the island is Vine, where the specialties include everything from Chilean Sea Bass and Pork Shank to crispy French duck and outstanding scallops.

Another very popular restaurant is Sunset Grille, which is located just to the north of 278 as you enter the island. Sitting with an amazing view of the water, the popular dish here is the shrimp and grits, but the pork wontons and cajun fried oysters are also outstanding.

If you enjoy small plate dining, there is a place called WiseGuys that does Tapas as well as anyone. They also serve flights of wine that allow you to really experience a taste of everything.

On the more casual side, The Sea Shack is a killer place to grab some deep fried seafood dinners, and A Lowcountry Backyard serves up some of the best southern comfort food on the island in an awesome outdoor setting.

Hilton Head Hotels

Since Hilton Head is such an extremely popular vacation destination, it's obviously going to have some pretty fantastic resort-style hotels to choose from.

One of the biggest and best of those options is Disney's Hilton Head Island Resort. Here you will find all of the fantastic attention to detail that Disney is known for. It's just like being in Disney World, except you can't ride Space Mountain.

If you are looking to stay near the iconic Harbour Town, The Inn at Harbour Town in Sea Pines Resort is as close as it gets. This first-class hotel has every amenity you could ever want and it's close to everything you could possibly want to do in Hilton Head.

One of the most visually stunning hotels on the island is Sonesta Resort. The way this property is configured along the water makes it feel more like a resort on a Caribbean island than an island in South Carolina.

Hilton Head Attractions

So what is the most popular thing to do on Hilton Head Island? Relax!

One of the best places to kick back, relax, and lounge on the beach is Coligny Beach Park. This beautiful stretch of beach also has a boardwalk and some shops nearby.

If you are more the type to relax by being active, you'll want to explore the island's many bicycle trails. You can literally get from anywhere on the island to anywhere on the island by bike, so you won't get bored quickly riding around here.

For those who prefer to relax by experiencing the arts or nature, Hilton Head offers the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina, Sea Pines Forest Preserve, and the Coastal Discovery Museum.

And if you'd rather relax out on the water, there are also plenty of options for deep-sea fishing charters, dolphin and whale watching cruises, and many exciting watersports activities.

As you can see, Hilton Head really does offer something for just about everyone. From fine dining and bicycling to jet skis and great seafood, you can have a taste of whatever lifestyle you want here on the island!
