PROFILES OF THE SPECIAL GUESTS

Elie Wiesel A United Nations Messenger of Peace since 1998, Mr. Wiesel is a Holocaust survivor who has dedicated his life to the pursuit of peace, the protection of human rights and the prevention of further acts of genocide. He is the author of 57 books, and received the Nobel Peace Prize for his work in 1986. His focus as a Messenger of Peace is on human rights.

Midori Midori made her historic debut as a violinist at the age of 11 when she was introduced as a surprise guest artist by conductor ZUBIN MEHTA at a New Year's Eve concert given by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Since being appointed as a UN Messenger of Peace in 2007, Midori has worked to advance the Millennium Development Goals and to help focus attention on the needs of youth. Through her support of music education, she hopes to inspire young people to build a sense of community and learn from each other.

Yuna Kim Ms. Kim, a Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF, is the 2010 Olympic Champion in women's figure skating. She is the first figure skater from the Republic of Korea to win a medal at the Olympic Games. She is one of the most highly recognized athletes and media figures in South Korea.

Goedele Liekens Ms. Liekens is a well-known TV personality in Belgium where she hosts a popular television show on social and relationship issues. She was appointed a UNFPA (UN Population Fund) Goodwill Ambassador in 1999 and writes on the situation of women in developing countries.

Anggun Anggun is a Goodwill Ambassador for FAO (Food and Agricultural Organization) and a singer/songwriter from Indonesia. Following her success in Indonesia, she decided to pursue an international career, left Indonesia in 1994 and finally settled in France. In 1997, Anggun made history as the first Asian artist to break into the international music scene by releasing her first international album Snow on the Sahara in 33 countries across the world.

Catarina Furtado Ms. Furtado is an actress from Portugal who was appointed as a UNFPA Goodwill Ambassador in 1999. She produced several public service announcements that have increased the public commitment of Portuguese government officials to support efforts to empower and improve the status of women.

MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Goal 1: Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger

Goal 2: Achieve universal primary education

Goal 3: Promote gender equality and empower women

Goal 4: Reduce child mortality

Goal 5: Improve maternal health

Goal 6: Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria other diseases

Goal 7: Ensure environmental sustainability

Goal 8: Develop a global partnership for development

THE INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF YOUTH

THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY has proclaimed the year commencing on 12 August 2010 as the International Year of Youth (A/RES/64/134). The Year was initiated to harness the energy, imagination and initiative of the world's youth in overcoming the challenges facing humankind, from enhancing peace to boosting economic development. The theme for the Year is Dialogue and Mutual Understanding and is aimed to encourage dialogue and understanding across generations, and to promote the ideals of peace, respect for human rights and freedoms and solidarity. More specifically, the theme also seeks to encourage young people to dedicate themselves to fostering progress, including the attainment of the UN Millennium Development Goals. More information on the International Year of Youth can be found at the Youth and United Nations website at www.un.org/youth
