

April the 11

I very much regret my beloved Berley letter

has this long remained unanswered - for the last fortnight I have been extremely indisposed with a toothache and getting on in my fever - until this day have not had it in my power to write & have suffered considerably and am much debilitated - am now free from pain and hope soon to recover the anxiety of my mind has been great in the extreme ever since the account of Mr. & Rachel's indisposition & they have my dear Rachel Rachel and all my beloved family are in full possession of health which was my tion tomorrow. Best I may will confirm my dutiful affection awaits my beloved parent.

Wish they enjoy good health to all my Dear Sister and Brother tender and abundant share of love ~~in~~ ~~the~~ that of my Father and children. Do not be uneasy about me I am this day perfectly well excuse this scrawl may you be from B. J. and happy greetings to Father
