

July 9th —

I cannot delay replying to your letter my Dear Ann and thanking you and my precious Brother for your so latitude for my well being. I am going with our brother John to Sanatoga, he has written to engage rooms for the 22nd, we shall leave on Monday 21st if nothing occurs to prevent, our sister is perfectly willing & she is so well, that I trust she will not regret me. Rosa will continue here until I return unless her Mother should desire mine to send Laura, to take her place. Joe has been on an excusion to N. Y. he returns on Monday rather more lame from extra exertion, but does not appear to have suffered in his health.

I have written my paper is out, and my pen is tired. I have written for me & we believe
 me of affectionate
 sister
 P. J.

I am very glad you have recovered the use of your pen, hope your finger will give you no further trouble.

I am glad my dear Minnie Coker is going to have the pleasure of seeing you all, her mule has always been her beau ideal of mankind, so there will be one chord of sympathy between you - she is intelligent & amiable & cheerful - but you will soon find each other out M & E you will also like her as so many agreeable & good qualities - when you have got used to his southern way of speaking in the 1st person singular - which means to include both numbers -

I met Mrs. Hunt last week in the street looking very find a little girl to wear them. Lizzie was on a journey with her father, when Mr Lee arrived. I am very glad to hear he was well when in Kentucky. She seemed to have no apprehensions about his health. but I have not heard from her, since her return home - Lizzie is quite well herself and stouter than I have ever seen her. She was as busy as Mr Blair, in political matters. her personal regard for Mrs Fremont seemed to urge her to the utmost bank of her power.

I told her Lizzie was her maid date. Then she would set on to praise the Col. Thank Dear Ben, for the new paper, telling of your son's safe return from Kansas. I thought of your painful anxiety about him, and the pains he incurred, with great anxiety - and am glad for a right understanding of his objects
