

I cannot let our dear Ben return without taking a word of kindness back with him to you my dear Sister, for I know you have had many lonely hours while we were enjoying his society. I thank you for the pleasure we have had at your expense, and for all the happiness you will bestow on him during your united lives.
We have had the rare happiness of being all