

I am tender enquiries for me, my loved Becky, claims my warmest thanks, with pleasure and gratitude; to an all wise, and merciful, restorer, I am much better, and again stirring about the natⁿ. obligated to exert myself, so much, as you were witness to, whilst here, as our faithful Jason has returned, and we are now again more smoothly, would it were, that your visit could have been prolonged, as the great comfort, and happiness I enjoyed, in your presence, is such as I cannot describe, I shall look forward, with much impatience to the promised period, which will again unite us; accept I earnestly give this trifle, and suffer the gray hair of one who loves you tenderly, to be worn on the bosom where in there is no guilt, Adieu my dear Daughter, may every happiness be yours, and with my prayers to God, to bless you, remain as usual your sincerely attached Rachel Otting

Mrs. Gratz

by a friend