Premium Pricing - Positioning

- Now you know:
- 1) Who I Am
- 2) How To Find Clients
- 3) How To Deliver The Service
- Next: How To Charge Premium Thanks To Advanced Positioning Strategies

How To Make Your Business Extraordinary

- Answer: Find your own unique spot and claim it!
- What is it your main competitors miss, neglect, ignore or do badly
- In your local area, what do other SEO/Social Media consultants miss or not offer?
- How can I be unique and stand out amongst all the other SEO Guys?

Answer: Unique Selling Proposition & Positioning

- Unique = It clearly sets you apart from your competition, positioning you as the more logical choice.
- Selling = It persuades another to exchange money for a product or service.
- Proposition = A proposal or an offer
- In order to stand out in the market place, you have to offer a unique and distinctive benefit or advantage above and beyond competitor

USP

- The best USP is a USP that addresses an obvious void, be sure though you can fulfill it
- CRITICAL Question: Why should I choose to do business with you versus any and all other options available to me including doing nothing at all?"

Real Life Examples – My Stuff

- My USP: No yearly contracts, you can cancel anytime, no BS approach, no set up fee
- Unique Guarantee: If I don't get you on the first page of Google within 3 month we'll work for free until you are there!

The Search Engine Guys.com

Search Engine Optimization

The Search Engine Guys (TSEG), a division of Cloud 8 Sixteen, is a full-service web marketing company with offices in Austin and Chicago. We only work with clients on an exclusive basis (one business per category per market). We manage over 200 web marketing campaigns for law firms and businesses located throughout the US.

It seems everyone provides SEO. How is TSEG any different?

Our clients occasionally tell us that we aren't very good at sales, which we take as a compliment. Given the unknowns, limitations, and competitive threats (not to mention scary-long time horizons) inherent to the process of SEO, the last thing anyone needs is a sales pitch! We believe it is critical to our success – and to the success of our clients – to only proceed when both parties have a sober understanding of what can and cannot be achieved via SEO. As a result of setting proper expectations, we have a healthy culture where success is the expectation, not the exception.

Exclusivity! We only provide SEO on an exclusive basis – one client per business category per market (either local, state or national). We avoid conflicts of interest by disclosing and discussing possible conflicts in the early stages of a conversation. Exclusivity allows true partnership to develop and eliminates all sorts of compromises that can occur when SEO is provided on a non-exclusive basis.

Guarantees? We offer zero promises or guarantees, other than our commitment to work our tails off with the goal of achieving dominant first-page exposure for our clients.

Staffed to deliver, not to sell.

Search Engine Optimization is ultra-competitive, unpredictable, and anything but a perfect science. Given this reality, SEO gurus have unique strategies and often debate the pros and cons of strategy X versus strategy Y. On the topic of bandwidth, however, there is absolutely no debate.
