

Drive Growth and Market Leadership Through a Turnkey Integration with DailyPay

In a world where everything is instant, leading payroll providers understand the urgent need to adapt to their clients' evolving needs. DailyPay provides your company the funding and patent-pending technology to offer daily payments without changing the way you do business.

Solve your clients' biggest problems

As an industry-leading payroll provider, you're focused on offering clients integrated solutions that solve their biggest needs. With unemployment at record lows, your clients are focused more than ever on reducing turnover and attracting talent. Give your clients what they need by enabling them to pay employees instantly.

Expand your reach and strengthen your brand

Get access to hundreds of thousands of employees across innovative employers while boosting brand loyalty. Partner with DailyPay to bring unprecedented value to your clients.

Partner with the company that can support your goals now and into the future

As the pioneer of the daily payments industry, DailyPay provides the tools and expertise you need to realize immediate value. DailyPay offers your company a scalable, burden-free solution to daily payments that keeps pace with the evolution of your organization.

Maintain your current operating model

Integrating with DailyPay is simple and allows you to maintain your current revenue and funding structure. DailyPay funds all advancements allowing your organization to offer instant payments without changing the way you do business.

Provide an effortless client experience

Connect to the most sophisticated API in the market, creating a seamless integration and effortless experience for your clients.

Learn how Ceridian and other payroll providers partnered with DailyPay.

