Chasing Perfection

Dartmouth has flirted with a perfect record in each of the last three seasons. In 2019, the Big Green won their first eight games before settling for a 9-1 record and a share of the Ivy League title. The year before, they won their first seven then lost an epic battle at undefeated Princeton, ending the season with a 9-1 record as well but a game behind the Tigers in the final standings.

Back in 2017, Dartmouth won its first five contests before getting tripped up by this week's opponent, Columbia, 22-17. The Big Green finished the year with an 8-2 record and once again wound up a game back in the standings.

Buddy Teevens, the Robert L. Blackman Head Coach, is stressing to his team not to look past a Lions team that has conference title hopes as well, especially after the Green handed them a 59-24 loss in the most recent meeting. And with this game landing between a 38-21 rivalry win at 23rd-ranked New Hampshire — Dartmouth's first in Durham in 52 years — and a showdown with Harvard (16th in the coaches poll), many people would view this contest as a trap game.

With veteran leadership like QB Derek Kyler, however, the Big Green aren't likely to take the Lions for granted. Last week, Kyler earned the Gold Helmet Award as the top Division I player in New England for completing 18-of-23 passes for a career-high 325 yards and a pair of touchdowns at UNH. His performance helped Dartmouth amass 604 yards of offense, just the fourth time the team has topped 600 since the Ivy League formed in 1956.

The running game was formidable as well with RB Noah Roper stepping up in the absence of starter Zack Bair to plow his way to 108 yards on just 16 carries. And the other half of the Big Green QB tandem Nick Howard added 96 yards and a trio of touchdowns, his fourth straight game with multiple scores on the ground.

The wide receiver positions were mostly an unknown entering the season, but sophomore Paxton Scott has established himself as a go-to receiver, leading the squad with 26 catches, 283 yard and three scores. His latest TD was his most impressive, catching a short pass, navigating the sideline and breaking four tackles to go 52 yards to the end zone at UNH. Classmate Isaac Boston has also emerged the past two weeks with 10 catches for 117 yards and a TD, while TE Joe Kramer hauled in three passes last week, including a 13-yard grab in the end zone above three defenders.

Although the defense was uncharacteristically victimized by three big plays, the Wildcats were otherwise held in check. Senior LB Jalen Mackie earned Ivy League Defensive Player of the Week honors with a team-high 10 tackles, giving him

- Dartmouth enjoyed a 26-game unbeaten streak in the series from 1972-97, going 25-0-1.
- The two teams have met on the gridiron every season they have competed since 1942 with the Green sporting a 62-15-1 mark.
- Dartmouth has a 37-5 record at Memorial Field against the Lions, winning eight of the last nine.

41 to lead the conference. And senior NB John Pupel had the game's lone takeaway with his first career interception that set up Kramer's TD.

On special teams, Connor Davis is kicking with confidence. He drilled a career-long 51-yard field goal — one yard shy of the school record — with room to spare plus extended his program-record streak of PATs to 57 consecutive makes.

Scouting the Lions

The Lions come to Memorial Field with designs on crashing the party of the three undefeated teams at the top of the Ivy League standings, entering the game with a 4-1 overall record after defeating Penn last week, 23-14. This is just the third time since the formation of the league that Columbia has won at least four of its first five contests, joining the 1996 and 2017 teams, both of which were 5-0.

The offense, averaging 24.4 points, is getting solid play from quarterback Joe Green. The sophomore transfer from San Diego State has completed 61.3 percent of his passes (73-for-119) for 797 yards and three touchdowns while throwing just one interception. The offensive line has done well protecting Green, yielding a total of only six sacks all year.

The running game has averaged more yards per game (193.8) than the air attack (164.2) thanks to the exploits of Dante Miller. The senior picks up eight yards a carry, third among FCS players, and his 550 yards lead all Ivy backs.

Columbia likes to run a possession-controlled passing game with Marcus Libman hauling in 17 throws for 125 yards. But look for some deeper routes from Ernest Robertson (10 catches, 244 yards) and Wills Meyer (14 for 238) when the Lions want to open up the field.

The defense has been quite good, ranking 27th among FCS schools in total defense and 23rd against the run. Safety Ben Mathiasmeier leads the Lions with 30 tackles, two interceptions and three pass breakups. Linebacker Cam Dillon has a conference-best seven sacks and forced a pair of fumbles, and DE Paul Akere is another pass-rushing threat with four sacks of his own.

Prolific kicker Alex Felkins has gotten plenty of opportunities to show off his leg strength, booting 8-of-14 field goal attempts. But his long is just 36 yards, and he has missed all six of his tries from 38 or further. Punter Drew Schmid has a strong leg, averaging 41.5 yards on his 25 punts, though the Lions have allowed some good-size returns.

Columbia is in its seventh season under the guidance of the dean of Ivy League coaches, Al Bagnoli (CCSU '75), who spent 23 seasons crafting a legacy at Penn by winning nine Ivy League titles. Now in his 38th season as a head coach, Bagnoli sports an overall record of 261-127 with a mark of 26-29 since joining the Lions.

Granite Bowl Trophy Back in Hanover

Back in 2000, a trophy was created to be given to the winner of the game between the only two Division I football teams in the state of New Hampshire, dubbed the Granite Bowl. But after the meeting in 2009, it was forgotten about and gathered dust somewhere in the recesses of the UNH athletics department, even after UNH won in 2014 and Dartmouth won in 2016. The trophy should have been on display in the Big Green football offices for the past five years, but Dartmouth made sure it came back on the bus with a resounding 38-21 victory over the 23rd-ranked Wildcats. The win was the Green's first in Durham since 1969 and gave them back-to-back wins for the first time since '69 and '72 while evening the series at 19-19-2.

Taking Offense

That's the good kind of offense. Dartmouth racked up 604 yards against No. 23 New Hampshire on Oct. 16, topping 600 for just the fourth time in the Ivy League era (since 1956) and first against a non-conference opponent. The 615 yards against Brown in 2016 are the most in that time span, but oddly enough, the Big Green came up short in that contest, 24-21. The other 600-yard games were against Penn in 1969 (614) and Brown again in 1968 (608). But of those four 600-yard efforts, this one was the most balanced with 341 through the air and 263 on the ground. Each of the other three had at least 400 yards on one side of the ledger (one passing, two rushing).

Team of the Week and Ranked

By defeating 23rd-ranked New Hampshire in such convincing fashion, Stats Perform selected Dartmouth as its FCS National Team of the Week. The voters also took notice as the Big Green debuted in the Stats Perform FCS Poll at No. 25 this week. Dartmouth finished both the 2018 (15th) and '19 (21st) campaigns in the national polls after beginning the seasons unranked. The coaches are just a little behind the media this year, however, with the Green the second team listed on the outside looking in. This week's poll results are listed on page eight of these notes.

Let's Go Streaking!

With the 38-21 triumph over No. 23 New Hampshire, Dartmouth extended two impressive win streaks. The Big Green have now won 19 straight games against non-conference opponents. It is the longest such win streak for Dartmouth in the Ivy League era. You would have to go back to the 1922-28 seasons to find a longer win streak against teams that did not eventually form the Ivy league (26).

In addition, the victory was the Big Green's ninth in a row on the road, the second longest among all FCS teams. Only Princeton (11) has a longer one, only because the meeting with the Tigers in 2019 — a 27-10 Dartmouth win — was played at Yankee Stadium instead of Hanover.

Finally, the Green have won six consecutive games, the third longest streak in the FCS, trailing only No. 1 Sam Houston (16) and No. 2 Eastern Washington (7).

BROADCASTS

Dartmouth fans who are unable to come to Hanover or the various venues on the road can catch every Big Green football game either on television or streamed over the internet on various services, including five contests on ESPN+ (one of those also on NESN), three on ESPNU, one on ESPN3 and one on FloFootball. To subscribe to ESPN+, visit watch.espnplus.com.

For the 10th straight season, Dartmouth is teaming up with Northeast Sports Network (NSN) to produce the ESPN+ games and provide an enhanced viewing experience in HD. For those who are unable to watch the ESPN+ stream of the game live, an archived broadcast will be available for 30 days on ESPN+.

The three home ESPN+ broadcasts will all feature Matt Corsetti, who will act as play-by-play man for the Sacred Heart game and analyst for the Yale and Cornell contests. He will be joined by several veterans, starting with analyst Matt Goldstein for the home opener. The other two home games will be voiced by former Big Green football talents Bob Lipman and Dick Lutsk, respectively. Lipman was the voice of Dartmouth football for 10 years (2001-10), and Lutsk for the next four (2011-14).

Audio broadcasts of every game will be available through the DartmouthSports.com website. Calling the action is Brett Franklin, now in his third season calling the games on the Dartmouth Sports Network. A local broadcaster, Franklin also serves as the voice of Dartmouth basketball and softball. Providing analysis for a 21st consecutive year is Wayne Young '72, who will team up with Franklin at Memorial Field. A two-sport athlete at Dartmouth, Young was a linebacker on three Ivy League championship Big Green squads from 1969-71 that went 25-2, earning first-team All-Ivy honors as a senior captain. He is also a member of Wearers of the Green. For the road games, Corsetti will join Franklin in the booth.

Kyler Flyers

One game after becoming the 10th QB in Dartmouth history to throw for at least 3,000 yards in a career, Derek Kyler set a personal record with 325 yards through the air at 23rd-ranked New Hampshire on Oct. 16. The fifth-year senior needed just 18 completions in 23 attempts to hit his high-water mark as he was named the Gold Helmet Award winner this week by the New England Football Writers Association. Kyler boosted his career total to 3,395 yards, ninth all-time, and his two touchdown tosses moved him into third on the career list with 34, passing current William & Mary AD Brian Mann '02. Kyler continues to rank among the nation's best in accuracy (72.6 percent, 2nd in the FCS) and efficiency (176.58, 3rd), and is Dartmouth's career leader in both categories by plenty (69.4 percent and 168.99, the latter making him the FCS active career leader as well).

Ivy Defensive Player of the Week

For the second time this season, LB Jalen Mackie has been named the Ivy League Defensive Player of the Week. The senior led a Big Green defense that mostly kept No. 23 UNH in check on Oct. 16, securing 10 tackles, nine of the solo variety. Mackie enters this week as the leading tackler in the Ancient Eight with 41 stops.

Howard Running Toward History

Junior QB Nick Howard has played in six games in his collegiate career — one as a freshman in 2019 and the five this fall — but has already etched his name alongside some pretty elite company. Against Penn, he became just the fourth Dartmouth player in the Ivy League era to rush for 100 or more yards and at least two touchdowns in consecutive games. The other three players just happen to be the top three rushers in Big Green history — Al Rosier '91, Nick Schwieger '12 and Dominick Pierre '14. And with two more rushing touchdowns against Yale and three at UNH, he is the first Big Green back ever to score at least two TDs on the ground in four straight games in one season (Schwieger had four straight bridging the 2010 and '11 seasons).

Davis a Chip Kicker Off the Old Block

Senior PK Connor Davis came up big the past two weeks, which undoubtedly made his father — Judd Davis, the 1993 Lou Groza Award winner as college football's top place kicker while at Florida — quite proud. With Dartmouth trailing Yale by three and only 18 seconds showing on the clock in the fourth quarter, Davis calmly booted a 32-yard field goal from the right hash mark, sending the game into overtime. And when the Big Green scored the go-ahead touchdown, he added his 52nd consecutive PAT, breaking the program record that was set by one of the great scorers in NFL history, Nick Lowery '78. Then at No. 23 New Hampshire, Davis booted a career-long 51 yard field goal, one yard shy of the Dartmouth record and just the ninth field goal of 50 or more yards in program history. He is also the career leader with 95 PATs, and his next one will boost him into the Big Green top-10 scorers of all time.

Quick Hitters

- The Big Green have won their last two games against ranked opponents and three of their last four.
- Since the start of the 2017 season, Dartmouth is 31-4 with all four losses by no more than five points.
- Junior RB Noah Roper made his first career start, filling in for an ill Zack Bair at UNH and nearly doubled his career rushing total by pounding his way to 108 yards on just 16 carries. He now has 219 yards to his credit.
- Senior NB John Pupel recorded his first career interception in the second quarter at UNH, returning it 18 yards to the Wildcat 34 to set up a Dartmouth touchdown.
- The Big Green have scored at least one touchdown in 17 of the 20 quarters this season (plus the one overtime period).
- The three rushing touchdowns for junior Nick Howard at UNH were the most for a Big Green player since Jared Gerbino ran for four against Princeton in the 2017 season finale.
- Derek Kyler aired a pass out at UNH that acted like a Lufthansa jet; it soared high into the air and landed softly, right into the waiting arms of freshman Painter Richards-Baker for a 56-yard connection, the longest completion of the year to go with the receiver's longest name on the team (though Nicholas Schwitzgebel matches the letters without needing a hyphen).
- Nick Howard (6.7) and Zack Bair (6.2) rank 13th and 16th in the FCS, respectively, in rushing yards per carry.
- Jamal Cooney leads the FCS in punt return average at 22.2 yards.
- Don't expect to see Dartmouth return any Columbia kickoffs; the Big Green have only attempted two all season, the fewest in the FCS.
- Sophomore Tevita Moimoi became the eighth player to have a rush of at least 10 yards when he galloped for 22 in the waning minutes at UNH, one his first five career carries that day.
- Derek Kyler has thrown 129 consecutive passes without an interception, still 108 shy of the school record held by Dalyn Williams '16.

ROBERT L. BLACKMAN HEAD COACH

Buddy Teevens '79, who as a player led Dartmouth to the 1978 Ivy League championship, has won four more conference titles in 20 seasons as the Big Green head coach. He first earned consecutive crowns in 1990 and '91 in his first stint, then guided Dartmouth to the top of the standings in 2015 and again in 2019 for the program's league-record 19th conference championship.

A native of Pembroke, Mass., Teevens was a standout quarterback for the Big Green as he was named the Ivy League Player of the Year and an honorable mention All-American while leading Dartmouth to the league title as a senior in 1978. He also lettered in hockey, helping the Big Green to a third-place finish at the 1979 NCAA championship.

Teevens began his coaching career at DePauw before becoming the offensive coordinator at Boston University in 1980. His first head coaching gig came at Maine, posting the first consecutive winning seasons (6-5 in '85, 7-4 in '86) there in 21 years.

After his first tour at his alma mater, he served five years as Tulane's head coach. He was instrumental in building the foundation that allowed the program to achieve perfection in 1998 with an 11-0 record. Teevens then spent two years as the offensive coordinator at Illinois before three bowl seasons with the Florida Gators in 1999-2001. Prior to his return to Dartmouth, Teevens was the head coach at Stanford for three years.

Teevens has been an integral part of the famed Manning Passing Academy since its inception more than a quarter century ago and has been singled out as one of the driving forces behind the camp's success. He extols the virtues of cutting down on full-contact practices by focusing on technique, which in turn limits injuries. And it was his vision that led to the development of the MVP, a robotic tackling dummy that gives players a more realistic moving target, allowing teams to work more effectively on tackling technique without teammates taking hit after hit.

19-Time Ivy League Football Champion

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2021

Mugging for the Cameras

There was a time when Dartmouth did not fare well when appearing on TV, but the Big Green have seemingly overcome their camera shyness. With the 31-7 victory over Penn, Dartmouth has now won nine of its last 10 televised games. That recent success bodes well for this game, which is being televised by ESPN. The Big Green are 6-0 all-time when featured on the network (including the 31-7 win at Penn earlier this year) with the Princeton game still to come.

Stingy Defense

Dartmouth has made quite the name for itself the past few seasons as staunch defenders. In both 2018 and 2019 when the Big Green ended the season ranked among the FCS top 25, only one other team surrendered fewer points per game each season — Colgate in 2018 and North Dakota State in 2019. And Dartmouth was ranked both years in the top 15 in total defense (4th and 14th) as well. Seems like the Green have picked up after the pandemic right where they left off; entering this game, Dartmouth is fifth in scoring defense (13.2) and sixth in total defense (267.4 yards).

Working Overtime on Homecoming

Homecoming is always a busy time of year, so the football team forcing overtime against Yale was in spirit with the rest of the campus. After Connor Davis tied the game with a 32-yard field goal and just 13 seconds left in regulation, Nick Howard supplied the winning score by acting like a bowling ball and treating the Yale defenders like pins at a new Brunswick Lanes for a 7-yard touchdown. The defense then got the stop on a 4th-and-1 play to give the Big Green a 24-17 triumph in their first OT game in four years. The win evens Dartmouth's record in overtime games all-time at 6-6 with victories in its last two.

Unlocking Yale

Although Yale still holds a 54-44-6 lead in the all-time series and enjoyed a personal nine-game win streak against Dartmouth from 2003-11, the Big Green have figured out the combination for beating the Bulldogs with wins in eight of the last nine matchups, including the 24-17 overtime win on homecoming. Dartmouth has now played five of the other seven Ivy teams in overtime at least once, with only Columbia and Harvard missing out.

Boston Arrives in Hanover

Not the city, mind you, but WR Isaac Boston. The sophomore made the first catches of his career in the 24-17 overtime win over Yale on Oct. 9, with the very first one going 32 yards for Dartmouth's first score of the game. The last Big Green receiver to catch a touchdown for his first career reception was ... not that long ago: TE Joe Kramer hauled in a 5-yard scoring strike in the 2019 season opener at Jacksonville. And since 2000, there have been 16 Dartmouth players to catch a TD as their first career haul, including three players who scored on each of their first two: Tom Finnigan '04 in 2000, former TE/now OL Jake Guidone in 2018 and Kramer in 2019.

End Zone Air Raid

With the two touchdown tosses at New Hampshire, Dartmouth has had at least one score through the air in 54 of its last 58 contests. The Big Green had one or more in every game in 2017, while missing out only once in the other four campaigns since 2015.

No Penalties

For the second time in two seasons, Dartmouth played an entire game (and even a little more) without being flagged for a penalty in the 24-17 overtime triumph over Yale on Oct. 9. The Big Green were also blameless at Marist in 2019, a 49-7 victory. The last time it had happened prior to that? The 2007 season finale against Princeton, which ended up a 17-14 defeat. You have to go back to 1985 for another such instance, a 23-7 loss at today's opponent, New Hampshire.

Ivy-Opening Victory

For the fourth straight season, Dartmouth emerged victorious in its Ivy League opener against Penn, besting the Quakers in Philadelphia, 31-7. The 24-point margin was the largest in the series for either team since 2004 when Penn handed the Big Green a 35-0 shutout. The last time Dartmouth enjoyed such a large victory over the Quakers was in 1989, also a shutout, but this one was 24-0. The Green have won six of the last seven meetings and are 38-48-2 all-time in the series.

Crockett the Rocket

One of the heroes of the 31-7 win at Penn on Oct. 1 was Robert Crockett III. With the game a scoreless tie in the first quarter, the senior streaked around the edge on a Quaker punt and blocked the kick, sending the ball high into the air behind the line of scrimmage. It eventually landed at the goal line before anyone could track it, but Crockett was first on the scene, scooping it up like queso with nachos and carrying it into the end zone for an early Big Green lead and his first career touchdown. It was the first blocked punt that turned into a TD since Michael Reilly pulled off the feat at Harvard a dozen years ago on Halloween in 2009.

Defense Denies

The Dartmouth defense was on full display at Penn, holding the host to just 141 yards of offense, the lowest total for an opponent since the 2018 season opener. But the more stunning limitation was how few opportunities the Quakers actually had on offense, running a mere 37 plays all night, the fewest for a Big Green opponent in over 50 years. Based on that knowledge, it shouldn't be a surprise that Dartmouth's time of possession (41:36) is the highest for the team in that time span as well. Then at UNH, the Green held the ball for 38:54, among the 10 highest totals for the team since it has been recorded.

TD Streak Ends at 13 Quarters

Dartmouth reached the end zone in each quarter of the first half at Penn, extending its streak to 13 consecutive quarters with at least one touchdown. But a fumble into the end zone in the third quarter foiled the Big Green's best chance to match the longest streak of the last 90 years (14), achieved by the famed 1970 team. The 1928-29 teams also put together a 14-quarter streak, but the longest of all-time involved the 1925-26 squads that strung together 17 in a row. That 1925 team was also credited with a national championship.

Ivy Players of the Week, Part Deux

Dartmouth had two more hot shots earn Ivy League Player of the Week honors following the 41-3 victory over Sacred Heart on Sept. 25, this time on offense and special teams.

Junior QB Nick Howard barreled through the Pioneer defense for a career-high 154 yards on just nine carries (17.1-yard average) with a pair of touchdowns. His 53-yard score in the third quarter boosted the Big Green lead to 27-3, and he added a 39-yard run to the end zone a few minutes later. All this in just the third game he has played in his college career.

Junior WR/PR Jamal Cooney electrified the home crowd with not one, not two, but three long punt returns, helping to flip the field. His first return in the second quarter was officially only 22 yards due to a penalty, negating the last 40 yards that he traversed to the end zone. But he added returns of 64 yards and 42 yards in the fourth quarter to give him 128 for the game, the most by any FCS player this year. But it's not a Dartmouth record. That belongs to Drew Estrada '20 who had 142 just two years ago against Columbia.

Kyler's Perfect Day

While Nick Howard was getting the accolades, Derek Kyler quietly had a perfect day throwing the football against Sacred Heart, connecting on all 10 of his passes for 106 yards and two touchdowns. It was the second time in his career he did not miss on a pass, having completed 9-of-9 at Columbia back in 2018. He is the only Big Green QB this millennium to complete all of his throws in a game with at least five attempts, also going 5-for-5 against Yale back in 2019.

Seven Sacks for Five Big Green

Not exactly the makings of a musical, but Dartmouth registered the grand total of seven sacks in the 41-3 win over Sacred Heart. Marques White and Bobby Jefferson each contributed two to the cause, while Seth Walter, Hank Knez and DeWayne Terry Jr. each posted one. For both Knez and Terry, it was the first sacks of their careers. The last time the Big Green defense recorded seven sacks? The final game of the 2018 season against Brown, a 49-7 triumph. The program record is 10 set against Cornell in 2010.

Bair of a Ground Game

The Big Green running game against Sacred Heart racked up 286 yards, the team's most since that same Brown game in 2018, coincidentally that the defense recorded seven sacks. Not only did Nick Howard post 154 yards on a mere nine carries, but Zack Bair also topped the century mark with 103 yards on only 11 rushes, the first 100-yard game for either player. The last time Dartmouth had two top 100 was against Harvard (not Brown) in 2018 as Jared Gerbino had 183 and Rashaad Cooper 117 in a 24-17 win.

Opening-Day Win Streak Intact

Dartmouth won its 11th straight season opener (longest since 13 in a row from 1960-72), defeating Valparaiso, 28-18. But the Big Green have a long way to go to set the program record of 49 consecutive opening-day victories from 1895-1943.

Ivy Players of the Week

Dartmouth got some impressive individual performances in the 28-18 victory at Valparaiso on Sept. 18. Senior LB Jalen Mackie posted a dozen tackles — two more than he had in his career entering the game — with two key stops for losses on 3rd-and-short situations that forced the Beacons to punt both times. He also intercepted a fourth-quarter pass to set up the game's final score, giving the Big Green some breathing room in the final minutes. All of that added up to being named the Ivy League Defensive Player of the Week.

Sophomore WR Paxton Scott managed to earn the Ivy's Rookie of the Week honor from the other side of the ball. Making his collegiate debut, he led Dartmouth with eight catches for 87 yards (the most by any player in his collegiate debut this millennium), including a 6-yard touchdown in the second quarter. He is the Big Green's first league rookie of the week in three years (Connor Davis).

Indiana State of Mind

Pretty sure that's Billy Joel's first draft for his song. Dartmouth now has a winning record in the state of Indiana after knocking off Valparaiso on its home field, 28-18, on Sept. 25. The Big Green are now 2-1 within the borders of the Crossroads of America, having defeated Butler back in 2013. The lone loss came during World War II at Notre Dame, where the team stopped off en route to Valparaiso to get an up-close look at the field. Their tour was also filmed and featured during the Notre Dame-Purdue broadcast on NBC.

Safety School

That term is not generally used in association with Dartmouth, but after surrendering a pair of safeties to Valparaiso, don't be surprised to hear it from opposing fans. It was the first time in 85 years that a team danced with the daffodils and scored two safeties in a Big Green game. At least in the last instance, it was Dartmouth scoring the two safeties, victimizing Yale back in 1936. Unlike this time around, those two two-pointers made the difference in an 11-7 Big Green victory.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2021

Co-Captains

For just the fourth time in the program history, and first since 2007, Dartmouth features four captains — LB Tanner Cross, QB Derek Kyler, TE Robbie Mangas and S Niko Mermigas.

Spanning the Country Globe

The Dartmouth football roster is always littered with players from across the 50 states, and this year that includes one player (Jace Henry) from Alaska. All told, the Big Green have players that hail from not only 28 states, but two foreign countries as well — freshmen Zachary Lytle and Konstantin Spörk (Canada and Germany, respectively). Florida leads the way with 18, followed by Texas (11), Illinois and Pennsylvania (10 each).

Coming Off Decade of Success

Dartmouth football returned to prominence throughout the 2010s decade, recording a record of 70-30 (.700) over the 10 years. Only eight teams enjoyed a higher winning percentage in that span, and the Big Green added two more Ivy League titles to boost their conference-record total to 19 crowns since the league first officially formed for the 1956 season.

Still All-Time Ivy Champs

Since the Ivy League began play in 1956, no other school in the conference has won more football titles than Dartmouth with 19. The last time an Ancient Eight squad had more crowns than the Big Green was in 1961 when Yale had a grand total of two. The next season, Dartmouth equaled that amount and has never looked up at another team since. But Penn is right on the Big Green's heels with 18 titles, while Harvard has 17 and Yale 16.

Preseason Poll

The Ivy League Preseason Media Poll was revealed in August with Dartmouth pegged to finish third. But if there is one thing Big Green fans have learned, it is that the media have a tendency to underestimate the Hanoverians; Dartmouth has finished higher than its prognosticated place in 10 of the last 11 years, including 2019 when the team ended up sharing the title after being picked second.

Princeton took the top spot with eight of the 16 first-place votes. Yale, who shared the crown with the Big Green, garnered six first-place votes to claim second, and Dartmouth got one of the remaining two votes, edging out Harvard for third by a single point. Bad news for Princeton: Over the past 23 years, the media have correctly picked the champion just four times — Penn in 2003, Harvard in 2008 and 2015, and Yale in 2019.

DARTMOUTH OVERCOMES RUST, MISCUES TO DEFEAT VALPARAISO, 28-18

VALPARAISO, Ind. — In Dartmouth's first football game in two years, the Big Green overcame a bit of rust and several miscues to earn a 28-18 victory at Valparaiso (0-3) on Saturday afternoon at Brown Field. Fifth-year quarterback Derek Kyler threw for 177 yards and three touchdowns, one of which went to senior running back Zack Bair, who also ran 11 yards for the game's final score, to lead the Big Green (1-0) to their 11th straight season-opening victory and 17th consecutive non-conference win.

Dartmouth piled up nearly 100 more yards of offense (335-236) on the day as Bair ran for a career-high 92 yards on 14 carries and added 57 more yards on three catches. Junior quarterback Nick Howard added 55 more yards on the ground, including a pair of 21-yard bursts and a key fourth-down conversion in the first quarter that seemed to settle the offense and lead to the Big Green's first score.

Kyler, meanwhile, completed 15-of-22 passes for his 177 yards and three scores, and Howard hit on all three of his throws for 31 more yards. Sophomore Paxton Scott, playing in his first collegiate game, was the preferred target with eight grabs for 87 yards and a touchdown, and junior Jonny Barrett caught a pair of tosses for 22 yards, including a 10-yard catch in the end zone.

But it was Valparaiso that put the first points on the board when Trey Psota penetrated the line and sacked Kyler in the end zone for a safety fewer than four minutes into the game. The Beacons then methodically moved the ball 58 yards on 13 plays, taking up more than half of the first quarter before settling for a 29-yard field goal and a 5-0 lead.

The tide turned on the next Dartmouth possession when Howard fought hard for that first down on 4th-and-1 and just crossed the line thanks to his stubborn second effort. Kyler then quickly put the Green on top with a 10-yard pass to Bair, who took it 31 more yards for the first touchdown of the game with under a minute remaining in the first quarter. Junior Cameron Baller, filling in for the injured place kicker Connor Davis, converted the PAT for a sudden 7-5 Big Green advantage.

The offense continued to click on its next possession, marching 78 yards in eight plays, including a pair of 21-yard gains on a Howard run a reception by Scott. Kyler found Scott again on 1st-and-goal, completing the touchdown drive from six yards out to make it a 14-5 game.

Some Big Green miscues late in the second quarter gave the Beacons a terrific scoring opportunity, taking over at the Dartmouth 37. The defense did its job, however, and held Valpo to a 33-yard field goal with 1:42 on the clock, and the 14-8 score held into the break.

Dartmouth started the second half looking strong, covering 75 yards in 11 plays with Kyler finding Barrett in the end zone for a 21-8 lead.

But more mistakes reared their ugly head again when the snap on a punt sailed high and went out the back of the end zone for a second safety. Late in the third quarter, Dartmouth nearly gave up a touchdown on a muffed punt, but Valparaiso was called for kick-catching interference. On the very next play, the Beacons recovered a fumble at the Big Green 28 and took advantage when Teryn Berry hit Ollie Reese for a 14-yard touchdown. Valpo converted the two-point conversion and closed the gap to three at 21-18 with the fourth quarter yet to come.

The running game came into its own in the fourth quarter as Bair picked up 72 of his 92 yards in the final 15 minutes of action. But another fumble, this time at the Beacons 6, kept the Big Green from extending their three-point advantage.

Now it was host's turn to make a costly mistake as senior linebacker Jalen Mackie picked off an errant pass and returned it 28 yards to the Valpo 25. Bair needed just two runs to reach the end zone, scoring on an 11-yard burst for some much-needed breathing room at 28-18.

A fumbled handoff gave the Beacons one last chance to rally, but a pair of penalties pushed them back to midfield, and the defense got a fourth-down stop, allowing Dartmouth to run out the last 4:41 of the game.

Mackie had the biggest day on the defensive side of the ball, posting a career-high 11 tackles, two of which stuffed Valpo on 3rd-and-short situations, and his crucial interception. Marques White had the lone sack for the Big Green, and DeWayne Terry Jr. pitched in eight stops and broke up a pass.

Robert Washington ran the ball 24 times for 117 yards for the Beacons, gaining all but 13 of the team's yards on the ground. Berry finished his afternoon 15-of-24 for 106 yards, the one touchdown and an interception.

Notes: No team had scored two safeties against Dartmouth in at least 50 years ... the Big Green had not lost three fumbles in a game since the 2015 season finale, which was also a Dartmouth victory that clinched the Ivy League title ... Kyler is now tied for fourth at Dartmouth with 28 career touchdown tosses.

BIG GREEN RUN PAST SACRED HEART IN 41-3 VICTORY

HANOVER, N.H. — Dartmouth ran up 286 yards on the ground with junior Nick Howard and senior Zack Bair both topping 100 to lead the Big Green (2-0) to a 41-3 victory over the Northeast Conference preseason favorite, Sacred Heart (2-2), to the delight of 5,121 fans at Dartmouth's home opener on Saturday afternoon at Memorial Field. It was the Big Green's 18th consecutive victory against a non-conference opponent dating back to the 2014 season.

Howard, the second half of Dartmouth's quarterbacking tandem, piled up a career-high 154 yards on just nine carries, two of which were long touchdowns while the running back Bair piled up a career-best 103 yards on only 11 rushes, including a 47-yard jaunt to the end zone. The passing game, though used sparingly, was very effective as senior Derek Kyler was a perfect 10-of-10 through the air for 106 yards and two scores.

The defense was almost as good as the offense, surrendering just the three points on a field goal just before halftime. Of Sacred Heart's 274 yards of offense, 83 came during the final drive that ended at the Big Green 1 when Cam Maddox stuffed a Pioneer rusher on the game's final play, denying the visitors a trip into the end zone.

Dartmouth set the tone for the day on the very first drive, marching 75 yards in nine plays with Kyler completing all four of his passes, the last a 7-yard connection with sophomore Paxton Scott along the Pioneer sideline for the game's first score. The PAT failed, however, leaving the Big Green with a 6-0 lead barely four-and-a-half minutes into the game.

Sacred Heart looked like it would keep pace with Dartmouth when it pushed inside the Big Green 10 on its first possession. But senior linebacker Tanner Cross popped the ball loose from scrambling quarterback Marquez McCray at the 5-yard line, and senior safety Niko Mermigas pounced on the ball to deny the Pioneers.

In the second quarter, Bair broke loose for his 47-yard burst, and on the next Dartmouth possession, Kyler took advantage of a couple of 15-yard penalties on SHU before Kyler zipped a 9-yard strike to junior Jonny Barrett in the end zone for a 20-0 lead. The Pioneers managed to dent the scoreboard with 11 seconds before the intermission on a 39-yard field goal by Sam Renzi.

The second half belonged completely to the Big Green. Malik Grant, who posted 92 rushing yards for Sacred Heart, could not get the one yard he needed to start the third quarter, getting stuffed at the Dartmouth 46 to turn the ball over on downs. Two plays later, Howard outran the Pioneer defense and scored on a 53-yard run.

Even a rare miscue could not slow the Green when they fumbled the ball away near midfield. Junior linebacker Marques White provided one of his two sacks on the afternoon, this one a 12-yard loss, to help keep SHU from advancing the ball. And when Dartmouth began the fourth quarter facing 4th-and-2 at the Pioneer 39, Howard was called on once again and bounced to the outside with plenty of space and breezed the 39 yards for his second score of the day and a 34-0 lead.

A 64-yard punt return by junior Jamal Cooney (who earlier had a 62-yard return for a touchdown shortened by a penalty) set up a 13-yard touchdown scramble by backup quarterback Dylan Cadwallader and extra point by junior Ryan Bloch for the game's final points.

Cross led the strong defensive effort with a career-high 10 tackles while last week's Ivy League Defensive Player of the Week, Jalen Mackie, pitched in nine more. Senior Bobby Jefferson joined White with two sacks as the Big Green registered seven on the day, their most since matching that total in the 2018 season finale against Brown.

McCray finished the day 11-of-15 passing for 115 yards, but thanks to the seven sacks, had negative-31 yards on 12 rushes.

Notes: Dartmouth's 8.9-yard rushing average was its best in at least 50 years ... the last time two Big Green runners topped 100 yards in a game was on Oct. 27, 2018 when Jared Gerbino went for 183 and Rashaad Cooper 117 in a 24-17 victory over Harvard ... this is the second game in Kyler's career that he completed every one of his passes, going 9-for-9 at Columbia on Oct. 20, 2018 ... the failed PAT in the first quarter ended a streak of 51 consecutive made by the team ... Dartmouth has won 22 of its last 24 games.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2021

DARTMOUTH IMPRESSES ON NATIONAL TV IN 31-7 TRIUMPH AT PENN

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Prior to the season, the big question around the Dartmouth football team was how it would handle losing 18 of its 22 starters from an Ivy League championship squad that last played two years ago. The Big Green answered that question tonight at Penn by stating that they are reloading, not rebuilding.

Dartmouth showcased its new talent with the returning veterans on national television in a 31-7 victory over host Penn in the Ivy League opener for both teams. The Big Green (3-0, 1-0 Ivy) racked up 413 total yards, 240 on the ground, while running their offense for more than 41 minutes on the night. The Quakers (1-2, 0-1 Ivy), on the other hand, ran a mere 37 plays for a paltry 141 yards in a dominant showing by Dartmouth on both sides of the ball.

Quarterback Nick Howard topped 100 yards for the second straight game (101 on 19 carries), and running back Zack Bair nearly joined him above the century mark with 91 more on only 13 rushes to lead the Dartmouth ground game. The air attack also spread its wings a bit as Derek Kyler threw for 160 yards on 15-of-22 passes with one touchdown while Howard completed his only pass for 13 yards.

The defense was even better, stifling Penn at just about every turn, whether the Quakers were running or throwing the ball. Quarterback John Quannelly completed only six of his 16 pass attempts for 106 yards, plus was sacked twice and intercepted two other times. On the ground, Penn was only able to muster 35 yards on 21 rushes, a 1.7-yard average.

But it was the Big Green's special teams that got the ball rolling. With Penn punting from its 29-yard line, Dartmouth's Robert Crockett III came around the end and blocked the kick, then scooped up the loose ball and took it in for his first career touchdown. Connor Davis, returning to the field for the first time this season after nursing an injury, split the uprights on the PAT to give the Green a quick 7-0 lead.

That lead was short-lived, however, as the Quakers produced their one big play of the night when wide receiver Ryan Cragun got behind the Big Green defense and caught a long pass from Quannelly. Cornerback Isaiah Johnson was able to run him down at the Dartmouth 7 after a 73-yard gain, but Isaiah Malcome broke through on the very next play for a 7-yard scurry into the end zone. The extra point tied the game at seven fewer than 10 minutes into the game.

The rest of the game belonged to Dartmouth, particularly the second quarter. The Quakers ran a mere seven plays before the intermission and lost a combined 10 yards as the Big Green defense registered a pair of sacks. The Dartmouth offense, meanwhile, methodically marched down the field on three consecutive drives.

The first of those three drives gobbled up over eight minutes, yet it resulted in only a 35-yard field goal by Davis. But the other two drives went all the way to the promised land. First, Howard rumbled in from seven yards out, and with 12 seconds left before halftime, Kyler connected with Bair on an 8-yard score for a 24-7 lead.

Dartmouth had an opportunity to pad its lead early in the third quarter, only to have a fumble at the goal line be recovered by the Quakers for a touchback. It wasn't until the opening minutes of the fourth quarter that the Green pushed through for their final score on a one-yard plunge by Howard. That touchdown was set up on a 20-yard toss to senior tight end Robbie Mangas and an 18-yard Howard run into the red zone.

Penn ran just two plays in Big Green territory all night. The first was Malcome's touchdown run, the second came late in the third quarter that ended with linebacker Tanner Cross intercepting a Quannelly pass. In the fourth quarter, Penn once again ran just seven plays of offense, one of which ended in another interception, this time by safety Niko Mermigas.

Cross and linebacker Jalen Mackie led Dartmouth with four tackles apiece, while Mackie, Marques White, Mick Reese and Shane Cokes contributed to the two sacks.

Notes: The win was a welcome present for Buddy Teevens, Dartmouth's Robert L. Blackman Head Football Coach, who celebrated his 65th birthday on Friday ... the Big Green had a streak of 13 consecutive quarters with at least one touchdown come to an end in the scoreless third quarter, the longest such streak for the program in 51 years ... Davis extended his streak of converting extra points to 49, two shy of the team record held by former NFL great Nick Lowery '78 ... Howard is the first Big Green player to rush for 100 yards in back-to-back games since Miles Smith in 2016 ... the 37 plays run by Penn are the fewest for a Dartmouth opponent in at least 50 years ... the last time the Green scored a touchdown on a blocked punt was 12 years ago against Harvard.

HOME COMING CROWD THRILLED BY 24-17 VICTORY OVER YALE IN OVERTIME

HANOVER, N.H. — Senior Connor Davis converted a 32-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining in regulation, allowing Dartmouth to fend off Yale in overtime, 24-17, in front of 10,079 homecoming fans at Memorial Field on Saturday afternoon. Junior Nick Howard barreled into the end zone from 7 yards out in the extra period, and the Bulldogs failed to convert on 4th-and-1, keeping the Big Green (4-0, 2-0 Ivy) perfect on the season while topping Yale (2-2, 1-1 Ivy) for the eighth time in the last nine meetings.

Dartmouth led for most of the game, but Yale took a 17-14 lead with 2:34 left when Griffin O'Connor connected with Mason Tipton on 4th-and-goal from five yards out, capping a 13-play, 43-yard drive that featured a trio of 4th-down conversions.

On the ensuing drive, the Big Green faced their own 4th-down situation at their own 26, needing just a yard. Though the pass fell incomplete, the hit that jarred the ball loose was flagged for targeting, giving Dartmouth new life. Quarterback Derek Kyler took advantage of the second chance, completing passes of 25 and 10 yards to sophomore Paxton Scott to get into field-goal range.

When faced with another 4th-and-1 at the 18, Buddy Teevens, the Dartmouth's Robert L. Blackman Head Football Coach, had sent his field-goal unit onto the field before calling a timeout to mull over the decision further. He settled on his original call and Davis calmly split the uprights to knot the score.

In the overtime period, Yale won the toss but elected to let the Big Green run their offense first. Senior running back Zack Bair ran for 4 yards and caught a Kyler pass for a first down before Howard powered his way to a pair of 7-yard runs, the last one getting him across the goal line. Davis added the PAT, his 52nd consecutive make to break the school record, and Dartmouth enjoyed a 24-17 lead.

The Bulldogs picked up 7 yards on their first play, but an incompleting and a 2-yard run left them a yard shy of the marker. After a timeout, O'Connor was hurried by linebacker Jalen Mackie, and the throw fell short of his intended target, sending the raucous crowd into a frenzy with the Big Green victory secured.

"It was a frustrating game in that Yale's defense was very effective, and really defended our run game well," Teevens said during the postgame press conference. "But our guys kept believing and the offense rallied at the end of the game to tie it up. It was electric on the sideline, and Derek is unflappable. He was determined to make stuff happen, and he did what he had to do to get us to overtime."

Kyler, ranked second in the FCS in completion percentage and third in passing efficiency entering the game, finished the day 19-of-29 passing for 189 yards and one touchdown. The 189 yards boosted his career total to 3,069, making him the 10th Big Green quarterback to top 3,000 yards.

The beginning of the game started with Yale striking first, gobbling up the first six-plus minutes before settling for a 38-yard field goal by Jack Bosman and an early 3-0 lead.

Late in the first quarter, Dartmouth got on the board when Kyler found sophomore Isaac Boston open on the left sideline for a 32-yard touchdown toss. The Big Green wasted little time in adding to their lead, thanks in part to a 44-yard bomb from Kyler to junior Jamal Cooney on the first play of the second quarter. Four plays later, Howard capped the 8-play, 83-yard drive with a 3-yard run into the end zone for a 14-3 lead with 12:53 left until halftime.

But the Bulldogs answered back, matching the Big Green's first touchdown with a 32-yard score of their own. Melvin Rouse II beat the Dartmouth defense in almost exactly the same spot that Boston did on his touchdown catch, getting his foot down in time for six points. With the PAT, Yale cut its deficit to four at 14-10.

Yale had a chance to close the gap to one before the intermission, but a 41-yard field goal attempt fell short and wide to the left.

The second half was a defensive struggle with neither team making headway on the other until the Bulldogs took over at the Dartmouth 43 with 8:12 to play after a short punt, setting up their go-ahead score.

Dartmouth was limited to a season-low 274 yards of offense while Yale amassed 312. Bair led the ground game for the Green with 62 yards on 16 carries, while Howard posted 41 on 11 attempts and had two touchdown runs for the third straight game. The receiving corps was led by Scott with five catches for 47 yards, and Boston hauled in four throws for a team-high 54 yards and his first career touchdown grab.

O'Connor completed 28-of-42 passes for 194 yards and a touchdown, with the reserve Grooms going 2-for-2 for 37 yards with the other scoring strike. Rouse was Yale's leading receiver with 79 yards on seven catches.

Big Green cornerback Isaiah Johnson and nickelback John Pupel led the defense with eight stops, while Micah Awodiran led Yale with 10 tackles.

Notes: The kicker whose record was broken by Davis was Nick Lowery '78, who still ranks among the top 20 scorers in NFL history over his 18 years in the league ... this was the first overtime game between Dartmouth and Yale ... the last time the Big Green went to overtime was four years ago in a 27-26 triumph over Holy Cross at Memorial Field ... the only Ivy League teams Dartmouth has not squared off against in overtime are Columbia and Harvard.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2021

38-21 WIN AT #23 NEW HAMPSHIRE FIRST IN DURHAM IN 52 YEARS AS BIG GREEN POST OVER 600 YARDS

DURHAM, N.H. — The Granite Bowl Trophy is coming back to Hanover.

Dartmouth (5-0) ran roughshod over 23rd-ranked New Hampshire (3-3) at Wildcat Stadium all afternoon, racking up 604 yards of offense in defeating the Wildcats, 38-21, its first victory in Durham since 1969. The total offense was the most in five years for the Big Green as they won their second straight game in the series, evening the all-time record at 19-19-2 with UNH.

Quarterback Derek Kyler had the biggest game of his career, setting a career-high of 325 yards on 18-of-23 passes with a pair of touchdowns. The running game was just as effective with 263 yards thanks to the other half of the quarterbacking tandem, junior Nick Howard, who ran for 96 yards and three 6-yard scores on 18 carries and running back Noah Roper — playing in place of regular starter Zack Bair — with a career-high 108 yards on 16 carries. Dartmouth also posted 31 first downs, one shy of the program record.

"We came here knowing we would have to play really well to beat a team the caliber of New Hampshire," said Buddy Teevens, the Robert L. Blackman Head Football Coach. "Offensively, we executed almost flawlessly as Kyler was really on his game, making quick decisions and checking off so well on every play, while our line matched the physicality on the other side. And other than the three long plays we gave up, our defense did a wonderful job in containing a high-powered offense."

Dartmouth got right to work in asserting itself, driving 75 yards in 10 plays on the game's opening drive with Howard crossing the threshold on a 6-yard bull run up the middle. With the PAT, the Big Green enjoyed an early 7-0 lead. But when UNH marched deep into Dartmouth territory, it seemed the hosts would answer right back. On 3rd-and-goal inside the 1, however, the Big Green denied Carlos Washington Jr. then forced an incompleteness to get the ball back in the shadow of their own end zone.

Undaunted, Dartmouth drove the length of the field in 13 plays with Howard once again finishing off the possession, this time around the right end untouched for a 14-0 advantage with 11:20 left in the half.

The first of those big UNH plays came shortly thereafter as Dylan Laube broke two tackles on the first play from scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff and bolted for a 75-yard touchdown run, cutting the Wildcats' deficit in half.

A 56-yard bomb from Kyler to freshman Painter Richards-Baker gave Dartmouth another scoring opportunity, only to have an 18-yard sack send the Green back to the UNH 34. Senior Connor Davis came on to attempt a career-long 51-yard field goal and split the uprights, boosting the Dartmouth lead to 17-7. It was the first Big Green field goal of at least 50 yards in 18 years.

Senior nickelback John Pupil picked off a Wildcat pass near midfield and returned it 18 yards to the UNH 34, setting up another score that made it a 24-7 lead. Senior tight end Joe Kramer leaped high above three defenders around him to pull in a 13-yard pass from Kyler in the back corner of the end zone. The score remained at 24-7 into the intermission as New Hampshire drove to the Big Green 30 before time ran out.

Dartmouth picked up right where it left off after the break, stopping UNH on a three-and-out before boosting its lead to 31-7. Kyler connected with Paxton Scott on a short pass, and the sophomore turned it into a 52-yard touchdown, dancing along the sideline before breaking several tackles along the way.

The Wildcats, however, still had some fight in them. Laube broke off another long run, this time going 53 yards for his second touchdown of the day. Little more than four minutes later, UNH pulled a halfback pass out of its bag of tricks with Washington Jr. going deep to Sean Coyne for a 48-yard score, closing the gap to 10 points at 31-21 with 3:42 still to play in the third quarter.

But Dartmouth had an answer in the fourth quarter, gobbling up 66 yards in just seven plays as Howard scored for the third time from six yards out. The key play was a 3rd-and-10 reception by sophomore Isaac Boston to pick up a first down at the Wildcat 9.

Boston led the Big Green with career highs of six catches and 62 yards, while Scott had four grabs for a personal-best 92 yards and his touchdown.

New Hampshire was limited to 372 yards, 139 from Laube with two touchdowns among his seven carries. Quarterback Bret Edwards finished the day 20-of-30 for 131 yards and one interception, and Sean Coyne led the Wildcats with five catches for 55 yards.

The Dartmouth defense was led by linebacker Jalen Mackie with 10 tackles and cornerback Isaiah Johnson nine while Seth Walter had the team's lone sack. Noah Stansbury and Ryan Toscano topped all players with 11 stops apiece for UNH.

Notes: Davis's 51-yard field goal was one yard shy of tying the school record held by Tyler Lavin '05, one week after he broke the school record for consecutive PATs, which he extended today to 57 ... Dartmouth has won consecutive games in the series for the first time since the 1969 and '72 seasons ... Howard has run for at least two touchdowns in each of the last four games, the first Big Green player to do so since Nick Schwiager '12 in the 2010 and '11 seasons ... Dartmouth has won six straight games dating back to last year, a streak longer than all but two FCS teams, and is 31-4 since the start of the 2017 season ... the Big Green have won back-to-back games against ranked opponents (No. 9 Princeton in 2019) and are 4-2 against ranked teams since the start of the 2016 season, beginning with the most recent showdown with UNH.
