Have you ever heard a tuba soloist in an orchestral performance? If not, this is a concert you won't want to miss! Mark your calendars now for an exhilarating afternoon of music starring Eugene Pokorny, principal tuba of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, who joins the Elmhurst Symphony Orchestra in "Brass Fanfare II" on Sunday, November 13, at 3:00 p.m. at Elmhurst Christian Reformed Church. Resounding with magnificent music featuring the powerhouse of the orchestra—the brass—the program includes the exciting world premiere of Terry Everson's Brass Fanfare II, performed by Mr. Pokorny and area high school brass players, commissioned especially for this concert. You will also enjoy Verdi's La Forza del Destino Overture and Vaughan Williams' Concerto for Tuba and Orchestra with Mr. Pokorny as soloist. In honor of Veterans' Day, the orchestra will perform the Armed Forces Salute. Veterans and active duty members of the military are invited to come in uniform. Tickets for all current, retired and former military personnel will be offered at half-price; please call 630-941-0202 to purchase tickets.

Generous sponsors of the concert are Keith and Irmgard Olson (music scores) and Shirley Myers (guest soloist Eugene Pokorny.)

Gene Pokorny has been the tuba player in the Chicago Symphony since 1989. In addition to playing film scores in Hollywood, such as Jurassic Park and The Fugitive, he has played in chamber music ensembles, opera orchestras and orchestra festivals worldwide. He grew up in Downey, CA, about a mile from where the Apollo command modules that first took man to the moon were built. He studied tuba in Southern California and in recent years has returned to that area annually, teaching, playing and lecturing at the Pokorny Seminar given at the University of Redlands. He assisted Rolling Stones' trombonist, Michael Davis, in the production of his "Twenty Minute Warm-Up," along with having solo and educational CDs of his own. He has received an Outstanding Alumnus Award and an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Southern California and University of Redlands, respectively. Pokorny is a member of the Union Pacific (Railroad) Historical Society and spends time as a "foamer" (watching and chasing trains). He is a card-carrying member of The Three Stooges Fan Club (a "victim of soicumstances!") and is an avid enthusiast of his good friend, David "Red" Lehr, the greatest Dixieland sousaphonist in the known universe.

Immediately following the concert enjoy an all-you-can-eat pizza party in the Garden Room of the church, with pizza from DiLeo's for $15 per person. Please call 630-941-0202 or visit www.elmhurstsymphony.org to reserve your spot.
