

NEWS RELEASE

GERARDO TEISSONNIÈRE LAUNCHES BEETHOVEN 2020

Cleveland, Ohio
April 15, 2019

Pianist Gerardo Teissonnière will officially launch BEETHOVEN 2020, his traversal of the music of Beethoven in solo recitals and performances of the complete piano concertos with two performances of the German composer's beloved Piano Concerto no. 5, op.73, ("Emperor") on April 27 and April 28, 2019 with the Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of its Music Director Victor Liva.

During the next two seasons, Mr. Teissonnière will be presented in solo recitals centered around the music of Beethoven and composers he inspired, as well as with orchestra performing all five piano concertos and the Fantasy for Piano, Orchestra and Chorus ("Choral Fantasy"), op.80. As a pupil of two disciples of Artur Schnabel, Gerardo Teissonnière's love for the music of Beethoven will reach a pianistic milestone as we approach the worldwide celebrations of the composer's 250th birthday anniversary in December of 2020.

For news updates related to BEETHOVEN 2020, more information about the project, concert dates and season availability, please visit the Events page or contact Concert Artist Management through the artist's website at www.gerardoteissonniere.com

Cleveland Philharmonic, Victor Liva, Conductor | Beethoven "Emperor" Concerto
First Church Congregational
Painesville, Ohio
Saturday, 27 April 2019 - 7:30 PM

West Shore Unitarian Universalist Church
Rocky River, Ohio
Sunday, 28 April 2019 - 3:00 PM
Presenter: Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra www.clevephil.org
Beethoven: Concerto for Piano no 5 in E flat major, Op. 73 "Emperor"
Artist: GERARDO TEISSONNIÈRE (Piano)

GERARDO TEISSONNIÈRE www.gerardoteissonniere.com
BOOKING CONTACT: Concert Artist Management | info@gerardoteissonniere.com
+1 216 245 2869