

Date: November 5, 2020

Contact: Elmhurst Symphony at esoboxoffice@gmail.com or 630-941-0202

You are invited to join Elmhurst Symphony Orchestra members, friends and musicians for the Symphony's next virtual musical program of the season, beginning Sunday, November 22 at 3:00 p.m. through December 6. Under the baton of Music Director and Conductor Stephen Alltop, the music of Mozart will come to life as the acclaimed pianist Ran Dank performs the elegant Piano Concerto No. 14 in E-flat Major, joining the ESO musicians through an innovative use of video technology. "Mostly Mozart" also showcases compositions of Samuel Coleridge-Taylor, an imaginative composer of delightful and expressive music. You'll make a new musical friend when you hear two charming movements from his Four Noveletten for Strings. Maestro Alltop will provide commentary on the music and composers.

Enjoy this exciting program at a time convenient for you from the comfort of your home—a great way to help celebrate the holiday season.

Tickets for the program are $28 for adults and $25 for seniors and can be purchased on the ESO website, www.elmhurstsymphony.org, or by sending a check to Elmhurst Symphony Orchestra, P.O. Box 345, Elmhurst, IL 60126. For more information email elmhurstsymphonytix@gmail.com

