Ecclesiastes 11

Ecclesiastes 1:2-4, 8-9

Notes:

“Many people die with their music still in them. Why is this so? Too often it is because they are always getting ready to live. Before they know it, time runs out.”

—Oliver Wendell Holmes

Notes:

Ecclesiastes 11:1-2

Life Discovery #1: A meaningful life comes from _____, not accumulation.

Notes:

“Be liberal and generous to as many as you can and then some... is the way we should say it. So, make as many friends as you can, for you never know when you yourself may need some assistance. Instead of becoming miserly just because you fear that the future may hold some evil reversal of your fortunes, leaving you in poverty and want, you should all the more distribute to as many as possible so that you can have the blessing of receiving in the event of such reverses.” —Walt Kaiser

Notes:

Life Discovery #2: A meaningful life is found in your _____, not your circumstances.

Notes:

"Anything worth doing is worth doing poorly."

—Tom Peters

Notes:

Life Discovery #3: A meaningful life is found in trusting God's _____ and accepting our limitations.

Ecclesiastes 11:5

Notes:

"A little philosophy inclineth men's hearts to atheism; but depth in philosophy bringeth men's minds about to religion."

—Sir Francis Bacon

Life Discovery #4: A meaningful life comes from embracing the _____, not just achieving your goals.

Ecclesiastes 11:6

Notes:

Life Discovery #5: A meaningful life is found in _____, not rehearsing our yesterdays or banking on our tomorrows.

Ecclesiastes 11:8

“People ought to enjoy every day of their lives, no matter how long they live.”

Notes:

“Life passes like a flash of light, whose blaze barely lasts long enough to see, while the earth and the sky stand still forever, how swiftly changing time flies across man’s face. O you who sit over your full cup and do not drink, tell me, for whom are you waiting?”
—Herman Hesse
