“Here is the great message of Christianity to every man. The message is that where God has set us, we must live out the Christian life. The circumstances may be all against us, but that only makes the challenge greater. Christianity does not offer us escape from circumstances; it offers us conquest of circumstances.” —William Barclay

“Who you work for is more important than what you do.” —The Gospel at Work, Sebastian Traeger & Greg Gilbert

“The world will tell you that life finds its meaning in success at work, or that work is just a necessary evil on the path to leisure. All those ways of thinking are lies. You do work for someone beyond your boss, you work for Jesus. That fact is the most important thing you can know and remember about your work. It’s much more important than the job itself, regardless of whether you’re a homemaker, a banker, a political staffer, a construction worker, a barista, or a corporate executive. No matter what you are doing, you are doing it to glorify Jesus.” —The Gospel at Work, Sebastian Traeger & Greg Gilbert

Notes:

“It’s not what a man does that determines whether his work is sacred or secular, but why He does it.” —A.W. Tozer

Notes:

Your Job Matters to God Because You Work for _____, not for

Colossians 3:24

Notes:

“Serving is the art and act of focusing on someone else’s interest instead of your own.”
—John Maxwell
