“I haven’t written my own epitaph, and I’m not sure I should. Whatever it is, I hope it will be simple, and that it will point people not to me, but to the One I served.” —Billy Graham

“I am not going to Heaven because I have preached to great crowds or read the Bible many times. I’m going to Heaven just like the thief on the cross who said in that last moment: ‘Lord, remember me.’” —Billy Graham

Notes:

Our aim as the body of Christ isn't to just make people feel welcome; we are to make them feel wanted. It is not enough to say, “We are happy you are here.” We need to let them feel we will miss them if they are not here. That means we have to go beyond southern etiquette and instead, see every person as vital to our church, our lives, and our mission—to worship God.

Notes:

“The highest form of worship is the worship of unselfish Christian service. The greatest form of praise is the sound of consecrated feet seeking out the lost and helpless.” —Billy Graham
