“We live in a culture that cultivates conversations of complaint.”

Notes:

Philippians 2:14-17

Notes:

“When we love a person we are not afraid of what they may do to us, but rather, what we may do to them... The Christian’s greatest fear is crucifying Christ again.” —William Barclay

“Every age develops its own peculiar forms of pathology which express in exaggerated form its underlying character structure.”

—Christopher Lasch, Social Critic

John 17:15-18

Notes:

... “the idea here is to accept that providential plan which God has ordained for your life, live out your salvation without any complaints directed at Him. A joyful heart, a thankful heart, no emotional grumbling, and no intellectual disputing or arguing with God. But rather, without complaint, gratefully we live out our salvation. That is what he calls for Christians to maintain in terms of an attitude that pervades all their living.” —John MacArthur

2 Corinthians 4:3-7, 13-14

Matthew 5:16

Colossians 3:16
