Two combined influences CAN result in greater impact than two separate influences.

¹⁴You are the light of the world... ¹⁶let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. —Matthew 5:14, 16 ESV

04.jpg

For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. —2 Corinthians 4:6 ESV

¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.
¹⁷And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

¹⁸Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.
¹⁹Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh with them.
²⁰Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord. ²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.
—Colossians 3:16-21 ESV

“Family is the core of civilization and a primary influence on the human condition. Family has shaped the fabric of the social, religious and political structures of every civilization. The heart of the family affects the direction of every child and the future of every nation.”

09.jpg

“For centuries, kings and queens, presidents and senates, pastors and priests have attempted to address and resolve issues concerning families, because every wise leader knows that whatever happens in the family makes an impression on the world.” —Reggie Joiner

- There are two powerful influences on the planet—the church and the home.
- They both exist because God initiates them.
- They both exist because God desires to use them to demonstrate His plan of redemption and restoration.

11.jpg

- If they work together, they can potentially make a greater impact than if they work alone.
- They need each other.
- Too much is at stake for either one to fail.
- Their primary task is to build God's kingdom in the hearts of men and women, sons and daughters.

⁴"Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart."

14.jpg

⁷"You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. ⁸You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates."

⁴“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one...¹⁰And when the LORD your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—with great and good cities that you did not build, ¹¹and houses full of all good things that you did not fill, and cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant—”

...and when you eat and are full, ¹²then take care lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ¹³It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear.

⁴We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders.
⁵For he issued his laws to Jacob; he gave his instructions to Israel.

28.jpg

He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children, ⁶so the next generation might know them—even the children not yet born—and they in turn will teach their own children. ⁷So each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles and obeying his commands. —Psalm 78:4-7 NLT
