

Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
streams of mercy, never ceasing,
call for songs of loudest praise.

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of Thy redeeming love.

Here I raise mine Ebenezer; hither by Thy help I'm come;
and I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, interposed His precious blood.

"Revival is a renewed conviction of sin and repentance, followed by an intense desire to live in obedience to God. It is giving up one's will to God in deep humility." —Charles Finney

<sup>9</sup>So Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. And Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him. <sup>10</sup>As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel. But the LORD thundered with a mighty sound that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion, and they were routed before Israel. —1 Samuel 7:9-10 ESV

“We cannot find God without God. We cannot reach God without God. We cannot satisfy God without God—which is another way of saying that all our seeking will fall short unless God starts and finishes the search.”

“The decisive part of our seeking is not our human ascent to God, but His decent to us. Without God’s descent there is no human ascent. The secret of the quest lies not in our brilliance, but in His grace.”

“The biblical gospel is like fuel in the furnace of worship. The more you understand about it, believe it and rely upon it, the more you adore God both for who He is and for what He has done for us in Christ.”

<sup>11</sup>I will remember the deeds of the LORD;
yes, I will remember your wonders of old.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let Thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
here's my heart, O take and seal it,
seal it for Thy courts above.
