Get a Grip (Joseph)

Success in life does not depend on the dreams we dream, but on the choices we make.

“Vision is a mental picture of what could be fueled by a passion for what should be.”

—Andy Stanley

12.jpg

“Leadership is lifting a person’s vision to higher sights, the raising of a person’s performance to a higher standard, the building of a personality beyond its normal limitations.” —Peter Drucker

13.jpg

“A leader is an individual who created an alchemy of vision that moved people from where they were to places they have never been before.” —Henry Kissinger

The Value of a Personal Vision

1. Vision is a perspective that changes the way I see my present reality.

15.jpg

¹¹But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?” ... ¹⁴God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And he said, “Say this to the people of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”

—Exodus 3:11, 14 ESV

15a.jpg

²³Thus says the LORD: “Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, ²⁴but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD.” —Jeremiah 9:23-24 ESV

The Value of a Personal Vision

3. Vision provides a “pilot light” that turns my daily activities into a great life purpose.

18.jpg

“A task without vision is drudgery. A vision without a task is a dream. A task with a vision is hope.”

19.jpg

The Value of a Personal Vision

4. Vision builds partnerships that deepen the quality of life relationships and energizes our productivity.

20.jpg

¹²“Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall speak.” ¹³But he said, “Oh, my Lord, please send someone else.”

—Exodus 4:12-13 ESV
