

KMAD News

January/February 2008

Kids Making A Difference is celebrating its 5th year of operation! This year so far has experienced the most growth with 10 new members in Texas, 3 in New Hampshire and 1 most recently in California. Over the past 2 years, KMAD members have clocked in over 500 volunteer hours!

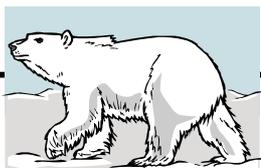

In celebration we will be holding a member drive contest. Tell all your friends who are interested in joining KMAD: to visit our website (www.kmad.org), print and fill out an application mentioning who recruited them, and then mail it in by February 29th. The person with the most recruits will receive a $25 gift card to Border's bookstore.

Did You Know?

- A Polar Bear's skin is actually black.
- Compared to all bears, Polar Bear's have the thickest coat of fur.

Paris' Message

Valentines Day is fast approaching; don't forget to show your furry friends how much you love them.

HUMANE TEEN

Do you have what it takes?

Mission of the Month

Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to stop buying plastic water bottles and buy a reusable one. For one month keep track of the money you save and how much less trash you are throwing out. This simple task can make a big difference.

Just a Thought

"I am a wildlife warrior, and I will fight, fight to the death for wildlife."

- Steve Irwin

Is your pet a hero?
Please send us your story by February 29th and you could see it in the March/April newsletter.
