Dear Potential Vendor:

Our community is preparing for the Bryan County Courthouse Centennial Celebration on Saturday, July 15, 2017 in Downtown Durant. We hope you will make plans to join us as we celebrate history, our roots, and Bryan County at the 100th birthday of the Bryan County Courthouse! Please see the attached flyer for a highlight of activities that will take place during the celebration. A full schedule of events will be available on our website by July 1.

One of the highlights of our celebration will be Trades Day Row featuring booths from local vendors. Our Trades Day Row desires to showcase a variety of vendors, food, and family friendly activities, with a focus on art, handmade goods, antiques, and local products.

Trades Day Row will be located on 4th Street between Main Street and Beech Street, near the Bryan County Courthouse. Booths will range from 10'x10' to 10'x30' spaces. Booths will not be supplied with power, so please make arrangements to supply your own if needed. Vendors are responsible for providing their own tent, table, chair, and anything their booth requires.

Please complete the attached application and return with payment to be considered for one of our vendor booths along Trades Day Row. Application deadline for Trades Day Row vendor applications is Friday, July 7. If your application is approved, you will receive a notification from the Vendor Committee with additional information regarding assigned booth locations. The Vendor Committee reserves the rights to deny applications, as space and product needs are filled. If your application is denied, you will be notified and your payment will be returned. All exhibits are to keep with the overall family-oriented nature of this celebration.

We look forward to seeing you on Trades Day Row at the Bryan County Courthouse Centennial Celebration on July 15!

Sincerely,

Stephanie Gardner, Executive Director
