

Getting a Better Picture of the Old Testament: Joshua 6 - 8

Prepared by Anthony S. Mertz

1. The book of Joshua can be divided into what four parts?
2. How much time does the book of Joshua cover?
3. What is the memory tool for Joshua?
4. Joshua was at least how old at the beginning of the book?
5. Why did God command Jericho taken in the way it was?
6. What was said about Rahab that lets us know the book of Joshua was written sometime during that generation?
7. Why did God allow Rahab to be saved if He had previously commanded everyone in the land killed?
8. How could a loving God command children to be put to death?
9. How does Rahab relate to the promised seedline?
10. The fall of Jericho shows us what concerning grace and faith?

11. Achan and his family were severely punished for his sin. Why?

12. What was Israel allowed to do at Ai that they were not at Jericho?

13. Why?

14. Israel crossed the Jordan, kept the circumcision, kept the Passover, and conquered two cities. In the midst of all of that success, what did Joshua do?
