

Getting a Better Picture of the Old Testament: Joshua 9- 12

Prepared by Anthony S. Mertz

1. The book of Joshua can be divided into what four parts?
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
2. How much time does the book of Joshua cover?
3. What is the memory tool for Joshua?
4. How did the leaders of the land react to Israel's actions?
5. Of what nation were the Gibeonites? Was Israel allowed to make peace with them?
6. Up to this point, Israel had a history of murmuring against their leaders. Why was this time different?
7. How did the Gibeonites react when they were found out?
8. In Deuteronomy 20, God allowed Israel to make peace with far nations; but, concerning the seven nations of the land, they could not make peace with them, but had to utterly destroy them. How, then, could God condone the peace Israel made with the Gibeonites?
9. What is the book of Jasher?

10. Why did God command Israel to hamstring the horses and burn the chariots?
11. Did Joshua obey all the commands given to him concerning the land?
12. How many kings did Joshua defeat?
13. What did every single one of them learn the hard way?
14. Did Israel make some mistakes when taking the land?
15. On the whole, was God with them?
16. Why was this?
