CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

NUTS & BOLTS
Criminal Law Series

PART 1: Accessing Seized Funds for Defence Costs Defence & Federal Crown Perspectives

Presented by ...

Surinder S. Aujla, Senior Council, Public Prosecution Service of Canada | PLA Director
Brian Crothers, Barrister & Solicitor, Criminal Defence

Every defence lawyer should be prepared: Your client has been arrested for serious charges, and during the arrest of your client, police seized a significant amount of money. Your client wants to retain you, but has no financial means to do so as his or her 'liquid assets' are now in the hands of the police. Can you get a vehicle released under a recognizance (like a bail) before the proceedings have finished if the police had seized it as offence related property? Can you access those seized funds to pay for your clients defence? If so, how? What do you need to do as counsel? What does your client need to do? What does your client need to know? This session will go through the individuals' steps necessary to file such a motion, and, what issues can arise, from both a defence, and crown, perspective.

Date: September 13, 2018 ~ 1:05 pm to 2:05 pm    Location: PLA Law Library
