

Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime occasion to celebrate the life of Carroll Shelby & the 50th Anniversary of the Cobra at the 16th Annual Shelby American Collection Party on September 8, 2012

February 1962 - Dean Moon's shop in Santa Fe Springs, CA - Carroll Shelby and a small group of talented people labored over installing a new small-block Ford engine in an AC chassis. The Shelby Cobra was born that day. That first car - CSX 2000 - was the seed for a legend and a dynasty of Shelby cars that would alter the history of sports car racing and help usher in a new performance category in the automotive industry - the muscle car. The Shelby Cobra had a powerful, lasting influence on the automotive world that stands in stark disproportion to the small number actually built.

On May 10, 2012, our friend Carroll Shelby moved on, but many of his friends will be here to help us celebrate this milestone event.

Bob Boundurant, Jack Sears & Allen Grant, drivers from the 1965 World Manufacturers Championship winning team will be here along with mechanical ace Phil Remington and Shelby American drivers Lew Spencer & Tom Yeager, Carroll's close friend and renowned automotive artist, Bill Neale and several other key people from the original Shelby American Team, plus some very special guests.

For the 50th Anniversary of the Cobra, we will feature one of the most significant collections of Cobra racecars ever assembled in one place.

CSX 2002 - the third Cobra built and the first Cobra racecar - the "Riverside Car"

CSX 2026 - the "Bob Johnson Car" - the first race winning Cobra

CSX 2128 - the "Sebring Car" - the "Hey Little Cobra" album car

CSX 2137 - "Cobra Le Mans" - the first Cobra to draw blood with an F.I.A. victory for Shelby American

CSX 2345 - the 1965 F.I.A. World Champion Cobra Roadster

CSX 2431 - the "Ken Miles Car" - 1964 USRRRC Champion

And many other competition and street Cobras, plus an amazing display of Shelby GT-350s and GT-500s and GT40s.
