Please read carefully:

- Insurance - The Auction Company provides no insurance and is not the insurer of any vehicle or other article offered for sale. Seller should provide insurance against all perils and losses. Insurance should be maintained until Seller receives sale proceeds.
- Title - Seller warrants that Seller is the sole owner of the vehicle and/or other article and has the right to sell the vehicle and has good, clear, merchantable title or consent of the lien holder, if any, to sell. Seller agrees to provide copy of title with this consignment form and agrees to bring original title to the auction. Title will be returned if the vehicle does not sell.
- Authorization - By signing this Agreement, I accept and agree to be bound to all the provisions hereof including additional terms provided by the auction company on their website and on the reverse of the formal forms used at the auction site. I authorize the charging of my credit card, if provided, for any consignment fees. Checks should be made payable to Dan Kruse Classics.
