Deceuninck Hosts Future Fabricators

Deceuninck North America welcomed 16 fabricators as part of its fourth annual Future Fabricators workshop.

During the two-day workshop, Deceuninck North America CEO Filip Geeraert and Deceuninck leaders provided insights into the state of the fenestration and construction industries, including product and material innovations as well as manufacturing and building smart facilities.

“These future leaders represent the future of the fenestration industry,” said Filip Geeraert, president and CEO, Deceuninck North America. “This workshop provides an opportunity for us to listen to our customers’ insights and better understand their challenges, as well as share how we are focused on providing practical, yet innovative solutions for next-gen fabricators.”
