The Dynamic Catholic Prayer

Loving Father,
I invite you into my life today
& make myself available to you.
Help me to become the best version of myself by seeking your will & becoming a living example of your love in the world.
Open my heart to the areas of my life that need change.
In order for me to carry out the mission
& experience the joy you have imagined for my life.
Inspire me to live the Catholic faith in ways that are dynamic & engaging.
Show me how to best get involved in the life of my parish.
Make our community hungry for best practices and continuous learning.
Give me courage when I am afraid.
Hope when I am discouraged.
And clarity in times of decision.
Teach me to embrace uncertainty & lead your church to become all you imagined it would be for the people of our times.
Amen.
SESSION ONE: LIFE IS CHOICES .......................................................... 1
Your Choices Matter • The Best Way to Live • God’s Dream for You • Be a Rebel • Decision Point

SESSION TWO: WHAT’S HOLDING YOU BACK? .............................. 29
The Quest for Happiness • Stinking Thinking • Hungry for the Truth • This Is Personal • Decision Point

SESSION THREE: THE JESUS QUESTION ........................................... 57
Who Is Jesus? • The Problem and the Solution • Jesus Was a Radical • Second Chances • Decision Point

SESSION FOUR: THE PRAYER PROCESS ......................................... 85
Why Pray? • The Big Question • The Prayer Process • The Best Way to Learn • Decision Point

SESSION FIVE: THE BIBLE ............................................................... 111
A Map for the Journey • Introduction to the Bible • How Should I Use the Bible? • The Power of Habit • Decision Point

SESSION SIX: RELATIONSHIPS ...................................................... 141
What is the Purpose? • Choose Your Friends Wisely • What Is Love? • Spiritual Friendship • Decision Point

SESSION SEVEN: THE EUCHARIST .................................................. 167
The One Thing • The True Presence • The Power of the Eucharist • Get Close and Stay Close • Decision Point

SESSION EIGHT: THE HOLY SPIRIT ................................................ 189
Who Is the Holy Spirit? • Unopened Gifts • The Fruits of the Holy Spirit • Prompted • Decision Point
It’s time to start thinking about life’s big questions.

This experience, this book, this program—this is an invitation to explore some of the most important questions in life. In the process you will discover the incredible dream that God has for you.

Don’t say, “I’m too young!” Young people are capable of incredible things.

Now is your time. Live up to your potential.

Thank you for the privilege of making this journey with you.

Matthew Kelly
MY LORD GOD, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself... But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. Therefore I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost... I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.
1. LIFE IS CHOICES

Life is Choices. Every day you make hundreds of choices.

What to eat. What to wear. What time to arrive. Whom to hang out with. Whether or not to listen. What to care about.

Many of these choices can seem inconsequential. But one choice builds upon another, and in the end our choices define who we become.

Choices matter.

1.1 Your Choices Matter

Learning to make great choices is one of the most practical skills you can develop. Decision making is central to everything we do.

You are so young and life is before you. Will you live it wisely or squander it?

Life is precious and beautiful. Ask a couple who have just welcomed their first child into the world—they will tell you how precious and beautiful life is.

Life is also fragile and fleeting. Ask someone who has just been told by his doctor that he has only three months to live—he will tell you how fragile and fleeting life is.

Life is before you. What will you do with your life?

This is what Joan of Arc wrote, just before she died at nineteen.

Learning to make great choices is essential.

James is seventeen years old and serving a life sentence in prison for murder. He lost his temper and shot a man who was disrespecting him. For a while James thought he was the victim of one bad decision. Over time he came to the realization that he was not the victim of a bad decision; he was the author of that bad choice. As a few more months passed, he came to understand that it was not one bad decision that led to that life-altering event; it was a long series of choices.

He chose to hang out with gang members. He chose to join the gang. He chose to steal a gun. He chose to spend time in places where drugs and alcohol were used and abused. He chose not to go to school some days. He chose to start drinking. He chose to go out late at night. Then, one night, all these choices exploded together to change his life forever. He chose to lose his temper. He chose to pull the trigger.

Little choices matter.

Jessica is an incredible athlete and is about to graduate Harvard at the top of her class.

She chose to be a conscientious student. She chose not to stay out late at parties. She chose to wake before sunrise and go to training. She chose not to smoke or drink. She chose to eat food that fueled her body. She chose not to hang out with people who were a bad influence. She chose to push herself harder than anyone else at training.

And all these choices have transformed her and her life.

James and Jessica both made many choices, but their choices were very different.

Little choices matter because they become the foundation for bigger decisions.

But sometimes it only takes one decision to change the direction of your life for better or worse.

Martin was an above average student. School didn’t come easy to him, but he worked hard and his hard work paid off. During spring break of his freshman year in college he got drunk, went back to his hotel, slipped in the bathroom, broke his neck, and died.

When he chose to get drunk he probably didn’t think he was making a life or death decision, but he was.

Sometimes it only takes one bad decision to destroy a life. Sometimes it only takes one bad decision to end a life.

That’s the thing about choices. Sometimes what you think is a small decision could end up being the biggest decision of your life.

Every choice you make is proof that you are free.

Free will is one of God’s greatest gifts to humanity.
To guide you in the use of this incredibly powerful gift, God has also given you reason and conscience.

reason (ree-zhun)

Reason is the capacity for logical, rational, and analytic thought.

conscience (con-shuhns)

Conscience is the inner voice that encourages you to do good and avoid evil. God speaks to us through our conscience (CCC 1776–1779).

Reason and conscience work together to help you distinguish good actions from bad ones. Reason and conscience work together to help you discover the best way to live.

All choices are not equal.

Some choices are good choices, and some are bad. And you usually know at the time if you are making a good or bad choice. The inner voice of conscience encourages you toward what is good and right.

Are you good at making decisions?

What’s the best choice you made in the past twenty-four hours?

What’s the worst choice you made in the past twenty-four hours?

How can you make better choices in the future?

God wants you to become a great decision maker. This is one of the reasons he sends us the Holy Spirit. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you and counsel you—and you will find yourself making better choices.

Every day you make hundreds of choices. These choices determine the direction of your life. Sometimes you choose the best-version-of-yourself and sometimes you choose a second-rate-version-of-yourself.

Every time you say yes to something, it changes who you are forever.

It’s time to start taking your choices seriously. Next time you need to make a decision, ask the Holy Spirit to guide you.
IF YOU DON’T KNOW WHO YOU ARE OR WHAT YOU ARE HERE FOR, IF YOU DON’T KNOW WHAT MATTERS MOST OR WHAT MATTERS LEAST, YOU MAY BE EXPERIENCING AN IDENTITY CRISIS. WE ALL EXPERIENCE THIS AT DIFFERENT TIMES IN OUR LIVES. BUT LET ME TELL YOU SOMETHING, GOD WANTS TO SOLVE YOUR IDENTITY CRISIS. I AM BEYOND IDENTITY CRISIS AND YOU WILL BE TOO THE DAY YOU REALIZE THAT YOU ARE A CHILD OF GOD, THAT GOD IS YOUR FATHER, AND THAT YOU ARE HIS SON OR DAUGHTER. YOU GET YOUR IDENTITY FIRST FROM GOD. UNTIL WE REALIZE THIS WE ARE LOST.
Everyone who loves you wants you to live your best possible life. But what is the best way to live?

This is the question that the great thinkers of every age grapple with. It is a question that we all wrestle with in a deeply personal way. We are all searching for the best way to live.

Sometimes it is a conscious search and sometimes it is an unconscious search. We want to help you start searching consciously for the best way to live.

The best way to live is a big question. It's one of life's biggest questions. But you are not too young to start thinking about life's big questions.

Anne Frank was thinking about life's biggest questions when she wrote her diary at just thirteen years of age. You should read it.

It is proof that young people are capable of incredible things.

We want to help you discover the best way to live.

Why does this question matter? The question matters because you matter. It matters because your happiness matters.

In some ways the best way to live is different for every person. The best way for you to live might mean becoming a nurse. For the person next to you it might mean becoming a teacher. For the next person it might mean becoming a priest.

But at a foundational level, the best way to live is the same for us all.

Let's look at three foundational principles that demonstrate that the best way to live is, in some ways, the same for everyone.

THE FIRST PRINCIPLE: THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF

People from different cultures and different countries and different religions may disagree on many things, but none propose that the best way to live is by trying to be something other than who you are.

No religion... no culture... no country says the meaning of life is to be the-worst-possible-version-of-yourself... or that the best way to live is by being a-second-rate-version-of-yourself.

God has not created you to be a-second-rate-version-of-yourself. Nor are you here to be another version of your parents, teachers, friends, or brothers and sisters. You are here to be yourself.

The best way to live is therefore in ways that help you become the-best-version-of-yourself.

This is true not just for you, but for everybody.

THE SECOND PRINCIPLE: VIRTUE

Show me a society that believes that lying and stealing from each other is the best way to live. There are no award ceremonies for the biggest liar or the biggest cheater. Somewhere deep inside we universally despise these things.

Virtue is at the heart of every good human experience.

Think about relationships. In the next decade you will spend enormous amounts of time and energy on relationships, but most people never realize a simple truth: Two patient people will always have a better relationship than two impatient people. Two generous people will always have a better relationship than two selfish people. Two courageous people will always have a better relationship than two cowardly people. Two humble people will always have a better relationship than two prideful people. Two honest people will always have a better relationship than two dishonest people.

Virtue is the best way to live for everyone.
THE THIRD PRINCIPLE: SELF-CONTROL

The opposite of self-control is slavery. If we cannot control our ability to drink, then we are a slave to drink. If we cannot control our temper, then we are a slave to our temper. If we cannot control our ability to get started, then we are a slave to procrastination. If we cannot direct our ability to work hard, then we are a slave to laziness.

God made us free. Anything that enslaves us is not from God, and therefore not the best way to live.

At different times in history some people may have thought that it was OK for other people to be slaves, but no man ever thought it was a good idea that he be made a slave.

Freedom and self-control go hand in hand.

The person who has the self-control to do what is good and right—even when it is difficult or comes at great personal cost—is universally respected.

Self-control is the best way to live for everybody.

These are just three examples of how the best way to live is the same for us all. Throughout your life you will encounter people who say, “There are no absolute truths. What’s true for you is not necessarily true for me!” This is relativism, and it is a lie.

Some things are true for everyone.

1. IN SOME WAYS THE BEST WAY TO LIVE IS THE SAME FOR US ALL. WHICH OF THE THREE PRINCIPLES HAD THE MOST IMPACT ON YOU (THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF, VIRTUE, OR SELF-CONTROL)?

2. HOW WOULD YOUR RELATIONSHIPS IMPROVE IF YOU STARTED TO REALLY LIVE THESE THREE PRINCIPLES?

3. IF AT THE END OF YOUR LIFE YOU COULD BE REMEMBERED FOR JUST ONE VIRTUE, WHICH WOULD YOU CHOOSE? WHY IS THAT VIRTUE IMPORTANT TO YOU?
Four Quotes. One Author.

HOW OLD DO YOU THINK THE AUTHOR WAS?

“LAZINESS MAY APPEAR ATTRACTION, BUT WORK GIVES SATISFACTION.”

“How true daddy’s words were when he said: All children must look after their own upbringing. Parents can only give good advice or put them on the right paths, but the final forming of a person’s character lies in their own hands.”

“The best remedy for those who are afraid, lonely or unhappy is to go outside, somewhere where they can be quiet, alone with the heavens, nature and God. Because only then does one feel that all is as it should be.”

“Whoever is happy will make others happy too.”

All four quotes are from The Diary of a Young Girl written by Anne Frank, one of the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust. The book, which was found and published after her death, documents her experiences hiding from the Germans during World War II. It is available in sixty-seven languages and has sold more than fifty million copies. Anne was thirteen when she began the diary.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and...

1 Corinthians 2:9

Know it: What is Paul talking about?

Think about it: Do you want to go to heaven?

Live it: Are you living a life that leads to heaven?

Everything makes sense in relation to God’s dream.

Are you listening to your navigation?

Have you ever met someone and discovered they were nothing like what you thought they would be?

Before you met them, you knew about them, but knowing about someone is not the same as knowing someone.

Everyone knows something about God, but when we really encounter God, most of us discover that he is not like we thought. You may know about God, but now it’s time to get to know God. And you may discover that much of what you thought you knew was wrong... The first thing you discover when you really encounter God is that God wants good things for you.

Sometimes God wants better things for you than you want for yourself.

In 1 Corinthians 2:9 Paul teaches us, “No eye has seen, no ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love Him.”

What’s Paul saying? You cannot even imagine what God has in mind for you.

God is the ultimate Father. You may have a great father here on earth, and you may not. But whether you do or you don’t, you know a great father when you see one. God is that great Father. When earthly fathers shine, it is because they act like our heavenly Father.

Everything good in this world flows from the goodness of God.

God your Father created the universe for you. This world is his gift to you. He wants you to enjoy it and take care of it. He created all the beauty that surrounds you with you in mind. Then he looked at it and said, “It is good.”

You too. God created you and he created you in his image. Deep in your heart you are good. But staying connected to that goodness is not always easy, and requires real effort.

Like any good father, God has dreams for his children. God has a dream for you. God wants you to become the best-version-of-yourself.

He wants you to become all he created you to be—by living a good and full life. And God wants you to help everyone who crosses your path become the best-version-of-themselves. But more than anything else, God wants to have a dynamic relationship with you.

I never really understood this until my first child was born. After Walter was born I found myself yearning to be with him. He couldn’t walk or talk. All he did was eat, and sleep, and need his diaper changed. But I loved being with him. When I was at the office I could not wait to get home to hold him or roll around on the floor with him. When I had to travel I missed him so much.

Over the years, that hasn’t changed. As my wife and I have had more children, I yearn to be with each of them in the same way.

I love my children so much. It’s crazy, really. And before I had children I just didn’t understand. But as I began to think about this great love I have for my children, the love of God took on a whole new meaning. Because if I can love my children as much as I do, and I am broken and wounded and flawed and limited, imagine how much God loves us.

This was overwhelming to me and took my relationship with God to the next level. And it has made me take God’s dream for me and my life even more seriously.

God wants you to become the best-version-of-yourself. This is his dream for you and everything makes sense in relation to God’s dream.

This is the idea that got me hooked on Catholicism. I was fifteen years old and nothing was making sense.

I grew up in a Catholic family, went to Catholic school, went to Mass every Sunday, but I never really got it. One day a friend of the family let me in on the secret. He talked about the universal call to holiness. He said that God calls everyone to live a holy life, and explained that some things I think, do, and say help me to grow in holiness and others don’t. He also explained that I am happiest when I am doing the things that help me to grow in holiness.

There is a connection between happiness and holiness.

I finally got it. Catholicism finally made sense to me, because I started to see that everything the Church does is designed to help me become more perfectly the person God created me to be and everything I do each day matters.

Everything really does make sense in relation to God’s dream for us.

What makes a good friend? Someone who helps you become the best-version-of-yourself.

What makes a good meal? Food that helps you become the best-version-of-yourself.

The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for:

The dignity of man rests above all on the fact that he is called to communion with God. This invitation to converse with God is addressed to man as soon as he comes into being. For if man exists, it is because God has created him through love, and through love continues to hold him in existence. He cannot live fully according to truth unless he freely acknowledges that love and entrusts himself to his creator.

(CCC #27)
What makes a good book or movie? Those that inspire you to become the best version of yourself.

Why do your parents send you to school? To torture you! No, the word education comes from the Latin verb educare, which means “to draw out.” Education at its best draws out the best version of you. Looking back on my life, I can see that the best teachers, mentors, coaches, and managers were all men and women who were trying to draw the best out of me.

What is the purpose of study? When you study hard you become a better version of yourself.

What is the meaning of work? Making money? No. This is a secondary outcome. The primary value of work is that when we work hard and pay attention to the details of our work, we develop character and virtue—and become the best version of ourselves.

What is the purpose of marriage? Husband and wife challenging and encouraging each other to become the best version of themselves, and raising children and encouraging them to become the best version of themselves.

Life is about saying yes to the things that help you become the best version of yourself, and no to the things that don’t.

Next time you are confronted with a decision, simply ask yourself: What will help me become the best version of myself?

Everything makes sense in relation to God’s dream. When we feel like life is not making sense, it is usually because we have lost sight of God’s vision for our lives.

God wants you to become the best version of yourself. Will you choose God’s dream or the modern culture’s nightmare?

ANTHONY OF THE DESERT

1. HAVE YOU EVER MET SOMEONE AND DISCOVERED THAT PERSON WAS NOTHING LIKE WHAT YOU THOUGHT HE OR SHE WOULD BE LIKE?

2. WHO IN YOUR LIFE IS HELPING YOU BECOME THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF?

3. WHAT ARE TWO THINGS YOU CAN DO TO BECOME A-BETTER-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF THIS WEEK?
WHAT’S ENSLAVING YOU?
Moses was born when his people were increasing in numbers and the Egyptian Pharaoh was starting to fear them. Moses’ mother hid him when Pharaoh decreed that all newborn Hebrew boys be killed. The boy was found and adopted by the Egyptian royal family. After killing an Egyptian slave master, Moses fled across the Red Sea, where he encountered God in the burning bush. God sent Moses back to ask Pharaoh to set the Israelites free. After God sent ten plagues to convince Pharaoh to release the Israelites, Moses led their exodus out of Egypt and across the Red Sea toward Mount Sinai – where he received the Ten commandments. But Moses never made it to the Promised Land. He died within sight of it after wandering in the desert for forty years. Moses was a murderer! But look what he went on to accomplish after he gave his life to God.

It’s probably the last thing that you expected to hear at church, but I really want to encourage you to be a rebel. Jesus was a rebel. But here’s the thing: It’s important to rebel against the right things.

Today’s culture doesn’t want you to become the-best-version-of-yourself. Today’s culture doesn’t want you to think too much about life. Today’s culture doesn’t want you to become hungry for the truth. Today’s culture doesn’t want you to develop your spiritual self. Today’s culture doesn’t want you to have a great relationship with God.

Modern culture just wants you to go along, be a good, obedient little consumer, and not ask too many questions about where the whole experiment is leading.

I want you to rebel against that. I want you to rebel against the modern culture.

Now, let’s compare God’s vision for you and your life with the modern culture’s vision for you and your life.

God loves you deeply and wants you to become the-best-version-of-yourself. The culture doesn’t care about you and usually leads you toward a second-rate-version-of-yourself.

What drives God? Love. What’s driving the culture? Consumption.

Almost everything that happens in today’s culture is aimed at getting you to buy something, or feel inadequate, or both.

Everything has a brand on it today. What did we first use brands on? Correct! We started using brands to make ourselves feel better after we were born. God sees us as his children. He created us free and wants to keep us free. The culture sees us as cattle and wants to turn us into slaves.

Do you want to be a child of God or a slave to the culture?

The problem is most of us spend a lot more time listening to the culture than we do listening to God.

It’s time to rebel.

Reject the world’s vision for your life, because it leads to emptiness and misery, in this life and the next life. Embrace and celebrate God’s vision for your life, because it leads to joy and fullness, now and forever.

They say that every teenager goes through a rebellious stage. But we usually rebel against the wrong things. If you want to rebel against something, rebel against the culture that wants to rob you of your best self and enslave you. Rebel against the things that seek to make you less than who you really are.

The history of our great faith is full of examples of men and women who rejected the culture’s vision for their life.

Anthony of the Desert inherited an enormous fortune as a young man when his parents died. The vision the culture had for him was to live a life of privilege and luxury as a wealthy landowner. He rejected the culture’s vision for his life when he heard the words of Jesus: “If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasures in heaven; and come, and follow me.” (Matthew 19:21). Anthony sold or gave away all his land and possessions, gave the money for the care of the poor, and became a hermit. Over time he developed the monastic way of life, and he is now considered the father of all monks.

Now, this story may seem far from the world you live in. But reconsider it. Was Anthony’s decision a difficult one? Yes. Was it a courageous decision? Yes. Did many of his friends think he was crazy? Yes. Did he have to overcome his own selfish desires? Yes.

Your world is not that different. When you decide to walk with God you will have to make tough choices, courageous decisions. Many of your friends will think you are crazy, and you too will need to overcome your selfish desires.

You and Anthony are not that different.

Reject the modern culture and the world’s empty vision for your life. Embrace God. You will be happier.
1. WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU WATCHED SOMETHING ON TV THAT HELPED YOU BECOME A-BETTER-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF?

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

2. IN WHAT WAYS DO YOU FEEL CALLED TO REBEL AGAINST TODAY’S CULTURE?

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
Life is Choices

1.5 Decision Point

One of the great figures in the Bible is Moses. He led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and toward the Promised Land.

When Moses was about to die he said to Joshua and the people of Israel, “I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity.” (Deuteronomy 30:15)

What was Moses saying to the people? You choose—life or death. You choose—prosperity or adversity.

Throughout our journey together you are going to face many decision points. They matter. They may not seem like life-or-death decisions, but they are.

Jesus said, “I have come so that you may have life, and have it to the fullest.” (John 10:10)

Do you want to live life to the fullest? God will not force fullness of life on you. God has given you free will and he will let you use that free will to live a shallow and empty life if that is what you choose. What do you choose?

I have placed before you today God’s incredible vision for your life and the world’s empty vision for your life. Which do you choose?

The-best-version-of-yourself or some second-rate-version-of-yourself?

Freedom or slavery?

1. Do you want to live life to the fullest? Why or why not?

2. Are you going to choose God’s incredible vision for your life or the world’s empty vision for your life?

3. What is one message from this session that you are going to share with someone else?
Psalm 1: The Two Ways

1 Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

2 but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night.

3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

4 The wicked are not so, but are like chaff which the wind drives away.

5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;

6 for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.
What’s back?

O Lord my God, teach my heart this day where and how to see you, where and how to find you. You have made me and remade me, and you have bestowed on me all the good things I possess, and still I do not know you. I have not yet done that for which I was made. Teach me to seek you, for I cannot seek you unless you teach me, or find you unless you show yourself to me. Let me seek you in my desire, let me desire you in my seeking. Let me find you by loving you, let me love you when I find you. Amen.

St. Anselm
2. WHAT'S HOLDING YOU BACK?

What's holding you back? The question is, how long do you want to be happy for?

If you just want to be happy for an hour, take a nap.
If you want to be happy for two hours, have a great meal.
If you want to be happy for a whole day, go shopping.
If you want to be happy for a week, go fishing.
If you want to be happy for a month, take a long vacation—go down to Australia.
If you want to be happy for a year, inherit a fortune.

But the truth is, you want to be happy forever.

The good news is, God wants you to be happy forever too. God has created us for happiness. And not only does God want you to be happy; he wants to play an active role in your happiness. He doesn't just hope for your happiness from afar. He wants to help you find that happiness.

The problem is, we enjoy things that don’t help us become the best version of ourselves. This is a part of our fallen nature, the disordered desire that exists within every man and woman.

Paul wrote, “I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.” (Romans 7:19)

What was he saying? I want to be the best version of myself, but sometimes I find myself doing things that don’t help me become the best version of myself—even though I don’t want to do these things.

We don’t always choose the best version of ourselves. We don’t always choose virtue. We don’t always choose self-control.

Let’s take a look at what gets in the way, how we get deceived so easily, and what’s holding us back.

2.1 The Quest for Happiness

We are all on a quest for happiness.

You have an enormous desire for happiness. This desire is an incredible gift, and God has placed this desire within you for a reason.

We all do certain things because we believe they will bring us happiness. Sometimes the things we choose bring us happiness, and sometimes they don’t. We have all done things that we thought would make us happy, but that in fact left us feeling empty, unhappy, miserable, used, deceived, or worse.

We want to help you avoid this in the future by teaching you how to choose wisely the things that will truly bring you happiness.

We all want to be happy. The question is, how long do you want to be happy for?

If you just want to be happy for an hour, take a nap.
If you want to be happy for two hours, have a great meal.
If you want to be happy for a whole day, go shopping.
If you want to be happy for a week, go fishing.
If you want to be happy for a month, take a long vacation—go down to Australia.
If you want to be happy for a year, inherit a fortune.

But the truth is, you want to be happy forever.

The good news is, God wants you to be happy forever too.

God has created us for happiness.

And not only does God want you to be happy; he wants to play an active role in your happiness. He doesn’t just hope for your happiness from afar. He wants to help you find that happiness.

When it comes to happiness, the culture wants to sell you a poor substitute: pleasure. God wants you to be happy. The culture wants you to be a slave to pleasure. This is another reason to rebel against the culture.

The world tries to distract and confuse us with pleasure. Our culture says that pleasure and happiness are the same thing. It’s another lie.

Pleasure is good and beautiful, and in the right context God wants us to experience much pleasure in this life. But pleasure is not happiness.

What is the difference between pleasure and happiness? Pleasure cannot be sustained beyond the activity producing it.

Let me give you an example. When we eat we feel pleasure. Stop eating and the pleasure stops. That’s why we don’t stop eating. Seventy-five percent of the time when we are eating we are not actually hungry. But we like the pleasure of eating, so we keep eating—that is the only way to maintain the pleasure. Pleasure cannot be sustained beyond the activity producing it.
What's holding You Back? decision Point but have not become pregnant. Their friends have been telling them about different types of fertility treatments, but they don’t know if these treatments are part of God’s dream for them. Mike and Jessica want to do the right thing, but they are not sure what the right thing to do is. This is a highly specialized and complex area of science and morality. To get to the truth they are going to need to study this issue.

This is a perfect example of why God gave you a beautiful mind. You have the ability to study an issue, search for the truth, think things through, seek out God’s way, and act on the truth you discover.

If you want to make great decisions, just do the next right thing. Don’t worry about what you have to do next week or next year; just do the next right thing right now. Five, ten, fifty, one hundred times a day. Do the next right thing often enough and you will live a life uncommon, a life that is rich with inner peace and happiness.

Happiness is different. Happiness is sustainable.

Here’s another example. I come home from work one day next week, and it is my day to work out, but I don’t really feel like working out. So I have to make a decision: Work out or plant myself in a recliner in front of my 127-inch idiot box with a six-pack of beer and a three-hundred-ounce bag of potato chips?

The choice is mine.

Now, suppose I force myself to work out even though I don’t feel like it. The thing is, whenever I get done working out I am always glad—even if I had to force myself to do it. Happiness can be sustained beyond the activity producing it.

Happiness is more than pleasure. Don’t settle for an empty life of pleasure. Choose more. Rebel against the culture of pleasure and start actively seeking the happiness God created you for.

So, what will really make you happy?

Happiness is the result of right living. Honesty leads to happiness; dishonesty leads to misery. Caring for others leads to happiness; selfishness leads to unhappiness. Patience leads to happiness; impatience will make you miserable.

There are right and wrong ways to live your life. The culture tells us that there is no right and wrong. The culture says that what’s wrong for you might be right for me. This is nonsense. Hitler’s way was wrong. Mother Teresa’s way was right.

But how do you know what is the right thing to do?

At a basic level, you just know. One of God’s great gifts to you is conscience. Your conscience guides you in the way of right living so that you can celebrate the best-version-of-yourself, and live your best life.

Very often we say we don’t know what we should do, but we are lying to ourselves (and to others), because our conscience is telling us the right course of action but we are trying to ignore it.

Our regrets are born when we ignore our conscience.

But there may be a handful of times in your life when you legitimately don’t know what the right thing to do is. It is for these times more than any other that God has given you another of his great gifts: reason.

I had dinner last week with some friends, Mike and Samantha. They have been married for two years and have been trying to have a baby, but have not become pregnant. Their friends have been telling them about different types of fertility treatments, but they don’t know if these treatments are part of God’s dream for them. Mike and Jessica want to do the right thing, but they are not sure what the right thing to do is. This is a highly specialized and complex area of science and morality. To get to the truth they are going to need to study this issue.

This is a perfect example of why God gave you a beautiful mind. You have the ability to study an issue, search for the truth, think things through, seek out God’s way, and act on the truth you discover.

If you want to make great decisions, just do the next right thing. Don’t worry about what you have to do next week or next year; just do the next right thing right now.

Five, ten, fifty, one hundred times a day. Do the next right thing often enough and you will live a life uncommon, a life that is rich with inner peace and happiness.
1. WHAT ARE SOME OF THE THINGS YOU DESIRE THAT ARE GOOD FOR YOU?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

2. WHAT IS SOMETHING YOU THOUGHT WOULD MAKE YOU HAPPY, BUT IN FACT LEFT YOU FEELING EMPTY, UNHAPPY, MISERABLE, USED, DECEIVED, OR WORSE?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3. DESCRIBE A TIME WHEN YOU HAD THE WISDOM AND COURAGE TO FOLLOW YOUR CONSCIENCE, AND YOU WERE GLAD YOU DID.

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
2.2 Stinking Thinking

Even though God has given us incredible minds to reason with, we still do a lot of stinking thinking. Let’s take a quick look at some of the paths that the world proposes for happiness.

Individualism. The creed of the individualist is: What’s in it for me? Individualism is the philosophy of selfishness. The fruits of individualism are greed, selfishness, isolation, and exploitation.

Individualism is stinking thinking.

Hedonism. The creed of the hedonist is: Pleasure is the ultimate goal in life; if it feels good, do it! The fruits of hedonism are laziness, gluttony, procrastination, and lust.

Hedonism is stinking thinking.

Minimalism. The creed of the minimalist is: What’s the least I can do? A minimalist is always seeking to exert the minimum effort and receive the maximum reward. Minimalism is the enemy of excellence and the father of mediocrity.

Minimalism is stinking thinking.

Relativism. The creed of the Relativist is: There is no absolute truth; what’s true for you may not be true for me! Relativism contradicts itself because it claims, “It is absolutely true for everybody that nothing is absolutely true for everybody.” The fruits of relativism are disorientation, intellectual and spiritual confusion, and hopelessness caused by the loss of any meaning in life.

Relativism is stinking thinking.

Great thoughts are beautiful. Great actions are inspiring. Are any of these philosophies beautiful? I think not. When someone embraces these broken ways of thinking and living, do they inspire anything good? Absolutely not.

They may be convenient to your disordered desires and selfishness at a particular moment, but do they really suffice as a philosophy to live your life by?

Reject the world’s vision for your life. It will leave you empty and dissatisfied. Rebel against the culture.

Reject these broken philosophies and watch out for people who live by them, because they will only use you for their own benefit and selfish gratification.

Beyond yourself, these philosophies also mean doom for communities of any size.

What would happen to a community—a family, a parish, or a nation—if everyone lived by these self-centered philosophies? Those communities would grow apart, fall apart, and self-destruct.

In many ways this is what we are witnessing in world affairs today. As modern cultures and nations become increasingly secular, rejecting God and his ways, they begin to implode. Anything that stands against God and his truth cannot last.

Truth, beauty, and goodness: These are what your soul is thirsty for. The philosophies the world wants to pass off to you are deficient in all three.
1. HOW IS “STINKING THINKING” HOLDING YOU BACK FROM BECOMING THE PERSON GOD CREATED YOU TO BE?

2. INDIVIDUALISM, HEDONISM, MINIMALISM, RELATIVISM: WHICH OF THESE ARE THE BIGGEST TEMPTATIONS FOR YOU AT THIS TIME IN YOUR LIFE?

3. DESCRIBE A TIME WHEN YOU EMBRACED ONE OF THESE BROKEN PHILOSOPHIES. WHAT WAS THE OUTCOME? HOW DID YOU FEEL AFTERWARD? DID YOU BECOME A BETTER VERSION OF YOURSELF?
In the book of Exodus we read the story of Moses leading the people out of slavery in Egypt and into the Promised Land. Every person and every culture has questions about what is right and wrong. This is how God answered the Israelites’ questions:

1. You shall love the Lord your God and serve him only.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
4. Honor your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor’s goods.

I know, it may seem a little old-fashioned, but wisdom is never old-fashioned. Let me suggest an exercise. Watch the news tomorrow night with this list in front of you. As each story is presented you will notice that most of the news is bad news. (The culture focuses on what is bad. God invites you to focus on what is good.) After each story is presented in the news program, ask yourself, which of the Ten Commandments was broken?

The truth is, the list is brilliant. It is pure genius. Wherever you find injustice and misery in this world, you will discover that at least one of the Ten Commandments has been broken.

Now ask yourself: How would the world be different if we just lived by the Ten Commandments?

Imagine all the misery and heartache that could be avoided if we all just lived by these ten nuggets of life-giving wisdom.

WHAT IS WISDOM?

Wisdom is not the amassing of knowledge. The sheer volume of information available on the Internet is enough to boggle the mind, and experts say the amount of data will soon double every day. But information is not wisdom. In fact, even if you could commit all this information to memory and claim it as knowledge, knowledge is not wisdom. So, what is wisdom? Wisdom is truth lived.

TRUTH & HAPPINESS ARE CONNECTED

The Book of Exodus

The Book of Exodus is the second book in the Old Testament. It tells the story of how the people of Israel, led by Moses, left slavery in Egypt. They journeyed through the wilderness to Mount Sinai, where God promised them the land of Canaan (“the Promised Land”) in return for their faithfulness. Israel entered into a covenant with God, who gave them laws to live by and instructions for the Tabernacle. It was in the Tabernacle that God promised to live among them, lead them to the Promised Land, and give them peace.
1. Describe a time when you were not “hungry for truth,” when you didn’t want to know the truth. Why were you avoiding it?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. Think about a disturbing story you have seen in the news recently. What happened? Which of the ten Commandments were broken?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. When we examine the ten Commandments, the obvious ways of violating them are apparent, but what are some of the more subtle ways we can break them? For example, most people will never be in a situation in which they are tempted to break the Fifth Commandment (You shall not kill). But most of us have killed someone’s reputation with gossip. Go through the commandments one by one and discuss the not-so-obvious ways each can be broken.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
The boy replied, "No. I know what you are. You're a rattlesnake. At any moment you could strike out and hurt me, even kill me."

The rattlesnake said to the boy, "You look hungry, boy."

"Ahh," the boy groaned, "I'm starving. I haven't eaten in almost a week."

The snake said to the boy, "I know where we can find food. If you lead me down the mountain I will lead you to food."

The boy said, "No. You're a rattlesnake and you could hurt me."

The snake said to the boy, "If you lead me down the mountain, I promise I will lead you to food and I promise I will not hurt you."

The boy thought for a moment, and then he said to the snake, "Do you promise?"

"I do," replied the snake.

So the boy led the snake down the mountain, and when they got to the bottom the snake led the boy to food. The snake laid before the boy every type of food he could imagine, a banquet fit for a king. The boy ate and he drank, and he felt like a king.

Then the snake began to dance, and when the snake danced it was beautiful. So, the boy began to dance also. The boy danced and the snake danced, and they ate some more and drank some more, and then all of a sudden the snake struck out and bit the boy.

The boy fell to the ground screaming and crying. The snake slithered over to the boy. The boy looked at the snake, and the snake looked at the boy, and the boy screamed, "You promised! You promised you wouldn't hurt me."

The snake looked deep into the boys eyes, smiled and laughed, and said, "You knew what I was when you picked me up."

What is it that sooner or later is going to turn on you and bite you? And what are you going to do about it?

The rattlesnakes we encounter in life are always making promises they cannot keep. It is the very nature of these things to turn on us and strike us down.

In a world filled with so much cynicism, the supernatural virtues—faith, hope, and love—are often laughed at and dismissed as foolish and naive. Some people say that hope only sets you up for disappointment, and because of that hope is a bad thing.

Hope is a good thing, maybe the best of things. Hope is one of those things that you can’t buy, but that will be freely given to you if you ask. Hope is the one thing people cannot live without. Hope is a thing of beauty.
Life is a journey. Where is your journey taking you at the moment? Is it time to make a change? If it is, I hope you will have the courage to make the change.

Courage is a prerequisite for the life God has envisioned for you.

Everything in life requires courage. Whether it is playing football or coaching football; crossing the room to ask a woman on date, or rekindling a love that has grown old; whether it’s your first day at college or your first day back at college after twenty years, life requires courage. It takes courage to say yes at the right times and it takes courage to say no at the right times. Your first day at work or starting a business, battling a potentially fatal disease, getting married, struggling to overcome an addiction, apologizing for something you have done, or coming humbly before God in prayer and asking: God, what do you think I should do? All require courage.

Life requires courage. Courage animates us and is therefore essential to the human experience.

The most dominant emotion in our society today is fear. We are afraid. Afraid of rejection and failure, afraid of certain parts of town, afraid of certain types of people, afraid of criticism, afraid of suffering, afraid of change, afraid to tell people how we really feel, afraid of losing the things we have worked hard to buy, afraid of what our friends will think . . . We are afraid of so many things. Often, we are afraid to be the best-version-of-ourselves.

But before too long we are going to meet someone who will banish our fears and fill us with courage to live an incredible life.
If you ask people what the main message is in the Bible, they might tell you it’s Love or Forgiveness. But what is the phrase that appears more times than any other message in the Bible?

DO NOT BE AFRAID. Over and over throughout history, God’s message to humanity has overwhelmingly been Do not be afraid. This phrase (or some variation of it) appears more than one thousand times in the Bible. WHY?

Because God senses that we are in fact afraid. Afraid to trust Him. Afraid to love others. Afraid to love ourselves. Afraid to embrace and celebrate the best version of ourselves. Afraid to ask the big questions and see where they might lead us. AFRAID.

God wants to liberate you from these fears.
What’s holding You Back?

Just like with Gideon, a decision point is before you today. God is asking you to tear down the altar of Baal that the culture has built in your heart. Tear it down.

And now, build in your heart an altar to the Lord.

Anyone or anything that doesn’t help you become the best-version-of-yourself is just too small for you.

Decide today not to let anything get in the way of becoming the best-version-of-yourself.

Don’t let anything hold you back from becoming the person God created you to be.

In the book of Judges we read about how the Israelites had turned away from God, choosing idolatry and immorality. As a result they fell into slavery again. Then God called on Gideon and he had to make a choice.

Gideon was a young man that God chose to free the people of Israel from their worship of idols.

Gideon was asked to tear down the altar of Baal and to build an altar to the Lord. Was he afraid? Yes. Did he have doubts? Yes. Was he concerned what his friends would think? Yes.

But . . . he listened to the voice of God—above his doubts, fears, and friends. He trusted in God’s word. And he chose good over evil, right over wrong, and bravery over cowardice.

So Gideon, under God’s instructions, destroyed the altar of Baal. This is where the Israelites were worshiping false Gods.

The Israelites had:

- Gone looking for happiness in the wrong places
- Fallen into stinking thinking
- Turned their back on the truth
- Been too proud to admit their wrongdoing

Life is choices. Today’s culture wants to build an altar of Baal in your heart. In fact, the construction of this altar probably started long ago. I know, because I tore down that altar many years ago, and yet it is amazing how often I notice that the world has started building a new altar to Baal in my heart, and I have to tear it down all over again.

Because like the Israelites, we have all:

- Gone looking for happiness in the wrong places
- Fallen into stinking thinking
- Turned our back on the truth
- Been too proud to admit our wrongdoing

The Book of Judges is the seventh book of the Bible. It tells the stories of a series of divinely inspired leaders (judges). These judges were sent by God to help the Israelites live faithful lives. Gideon was one of these leaders. There is a pattern to the stories: The people are unfaithful to God and thus fall into the hands of their enemies. The people repent and call on God for mercy. God’s merciful response is to send them a new leader (a judge), who delivers the Israelites from oppression, and they prosper again. But before too long, they get carried away with their prosperity, forget their promises to God, become unfaithful, and repeat the cycle.
1. If God called you to a great mission like He did Gideon, do you think you would say yes? Why? Why not?

2. Like the Israelites, we have all gone looking for happiness in the wrong places, fallen into stinking thinking, turned our backs on the truth, and been too proud to admit our wrongdoing. When was the last time you acted like the Israelites?

3. What does our culture worship?
What’s Holding You Back?

Crossword Puzzle

1. a philosophy centered on the question, “What’s in it for me?”
2. disordered desire that exists in every person.
3. a philosophy that believes pleasure is the ultimate goal in life.
4. poor short-term substitute for happiness.
5. the dominant emotion in our culture today
6. a philosophy focused on doing only the bare minimum.
7. the mistaken belief that what is true for one person might not be true for everyone.
8. the moral strength to venture, persevere, and withstand danger, fear, or difficulty
9. happiness is the result of
10. the power of the mind to think and understand in a logical way.
11. the idea that some things are true for everybody.
12. you have an enormous desire for
13. to desire something good and expect it with confidence.

Psalm 62

1 For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation. 2 He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will you set upon a man to shatter him, all of you, like a learning wall, a tottering fence? 4 They only plan to thrust him down from his eminence. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse.

5 For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him. 6 He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken. 7 On God rests my deliverance and my honor; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.

8 Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us.

9 Men of low estate are but a breath, men of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath. 10 Put no confidence in extortion; set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them.

11 Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God; 12 and that to thee, O Lord, belongs steadfast love. For thou dost requite a man according to his work.
Lord, catch me off guard today. Surprise me with some moment of beauty or pain. So that at least for the moment I may be startled into seeing that you are here in all your splendor, always and everywhere, barely hidden, beneath, beyond, within this life I breathe. Amen.

Frederick Buechner
Who is Jesus? The first thing to get really clear about is that Jesus walked the earth. This is indisputable. The culture tries sometimes to present Jesus in the same category as Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny. This is ludicrous. You are smarter than that. We need to start thinking about Jesus on a deeper level than the popular culture.

How do we know Jesus actually existed?

The most comprehensive presentation of Jesus’ life is in the Gospels, and the Scriptures clearly establish Jesus as living at a particular time and place in history. They are not vague about when he lived or where he lived. They go to great lengths to establish his birth in the context of world history.

But the best evidence to establish that Jesus walked the earth is not in Christian writings, but in secular writings and other religious traditions. Secular historians of his time wrote about Jesus, and Jewish writers agree that Jesus walked the earth at the same time and place that the Gospels establish.

It is also worth noting that the other major world religions all acknowledge Jesus. This is important because all these other religions are rivals of Christianity. The easiest way for these rival religions to disprove Christianity would be to demonstrate that Jesus never actually lived. But they are unable to do that.

Jesus is not a figment of Christian imagination. He lived in a place and time, walking the earth just as you do today.

But let’s go deeper.

Who do you say that I am?

I call this The Jesus Question, and everyone has to answer it for themselves. You cannot avoid the question—not answering the question is an answer.

Jesus is the one who changed everything. Lots of people talk about changing the world, but Jesus did. All of human history revolves around him. It is impossible to measure his impact on the world. And your life will never really make sense until you place Jesus at the center of it.

Jesus made the lame walk, taught the simple, set captives free, gave sight to the blind, fed the hungry, healed the sick, comforted the afflicted, and afflicted the comfortable. Then, in the ultimate act of love, Jesus laid down his life for us - dying on the cross for our sins. Then he did something that nobody had ever done before, and nobody has done since – he rose from the dead.

The more I get to know Jesus, the more I get to know my true self. And this is what I discover:

I am the lame that Jesus makes walk.
I am the simple that Jesus patiently teaches.
I am the captive that Jesus wants to set free.
I am the blind that Jesus wants to give sight to.
I am the hungry that Jesus wants to feed.
I am the sick that Jesus wants to heal.
I am the afflicted that Jesus wants to comfort, and at other times,
I am the comfortable that he wants to afflict.
Jesus is the healer of my soul . . . and my soul needs healing.
I think if you are honest with yourself, you will discover that your soul needs healing too.

Jesus is the friend you have been yearning for your whole life.
The Jesus Question

Decision Point

The Jesus Question

Easily discredited. If they could have proved he was a lunatic, they would have had no reason to feel threatened by him, and no reason to kill him. But he was considered by both the secular and the religious authorities of his time to be much more dangerous than a simple lunatic.

Who is Jesus? He is the Galilean carpenter who became an itinerant preacher. A miracle worker. The Son of God. The King of Kings. The Christ. The Savior of the world. The chosen one. The Messiah.

C. S. Lewis, one of the great Christian writers of the twentieth century and the creator of the Narnia series, says we only really have three choices when it comes to Jesus: He is either a liar, a lunatic, or the Messiah he claims to be.

Other major world religions acknowledge Jesus as a great teacher or a great prophet—which seems very accommodating and tolerant—but there are several problems with this position.

First, Jesus never claimed to be a great teacher or a great prophet. He claimed to be the long-awaited Messiah. If he isn’t the Messiah, he is either a liar or a lunatic—but not a great teacher and prophet. These things are incongruent.

Let’s get clear. If Jesus is not the Messiah, he is the biggest liar who ever lived. You cannot be the biggest liar in history and still be a great teacher and prophet. These things are incongruent.

And more than being a liar, if Jesus is not the Christ, he perpetrated the biggest fraud in human history.

There is the option that he was a lunatic, that he was mentally ill. Asylums are full of people with the “Messiah complex,” but there is no historic record of anyone of any credibility claiming to be the Messiah before Jesus, and I suspect you cannot name someone who has claimed to be the Savior of the world since. The Messiah complex is a post-Jesus phenomenon.

If Jesus was a lunatic, could the early Christians have kept that a secret? The scale of the conspiracy that would be required to conceal Jesus as a lunatic makes it more than improbable. And if he was just a lunatic, they could have easily proved that and simply locked him up. There would have been no need to crucify him, as he would have been Notice Jesus didn’t ask the disciples who they thought he was the first day he met them. By the time he asked, they had been at his side for almost three years.

So perhaps before you answer the Jesus question, we should take another look at Jesus, who he is, why he came, what he really taught, and what all of that means to you in the modern world.

The culture wants to reduce Jesus to just a nice guy. This is tragic. So, who is Jesus?

As Christians we believe that Jesus is the Messiah. Throughout the Old Testament, references are made to the Messiah, the holy one of God, who would come and save God’s people. As Christians we believe that Jesus is the Messiah.

Now let’s take a look at what all this means to you.

What is a Prophet?

A person who announces the will of God.

What is a Messiah?

Throughout the Old Testament, references are made to the Messiah, the holy one of God, who would come and save God’s people. As Christians we believe that Jesus is the Messiah.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the miracle worker.

 Miracle Worker

The Messiah

King of Kings

Galilean

Jew

Son of God

The chosen one

Itinerant preacher

Savior of the world

The Jesus Question

Decision Point

What is a Prophet?

A person who announces the will of God.

What is a Messiah?

Throughout the Old Testament, references are made to the Messiah, the holy one of God, who would come and save God’s people. As Christians we believe that Jesus is the Messiah.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the
1. HOW DID THIS SESSION CHANGE THE WAY YOU SEE JESUS?

2. HOW DID JESUS CHANGE THE WORLD?

3. THE JESUS QUESTION IS, “WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?” (MARK 8:29) IF JESUS CAME TO YOUR HOUSE TO VISIT TODAY AND ASKED YOU THIS QUESTION, WHAT WOULD YOUR ANSWER BE?
In Session 2 we talked about Gideon from the book of Judges. This whole book of the Bible is a series of stories that illustrate the Israelites’ turning away from God, and then turning back to God. Each time they embraced sin and turned away from God their lives became miserable. Each time they turned their backs on God they fell into another form of slavery.

Sin always leads to slavery of one kind or another.

But each time the Israelites turned back to God they experienced peace and prosperity.

The same thing happens to us. When we turn away from God our lives become miserable. Sure, there may be pleasure to be had in the moment, but the pleasure is fleeting, it’s not sustainable, and after the pleasure of sin has faded there is just the misery it inevitably leaves behind. And every sin makes the world a little bit more of a mess.

Sin and evil are real. And they are not something that is “out there.” They are in you and me. We each have the capacity for tremendous virtue and good, but we also have the capacity for sin and evil. These things are in us and we have to come to terms with them if we are going to live life to the fullest the way God wants us to.

So, what is sin?

Sin is usually spoken about as a behavior that is wrong or immoral. And it is, but the only way to truly understand sin is in the context of the relationship between God and humanity.

“God is infinitely good and all his works are good.” (CCC 385) It is out of his goodness that God created us in his image and for good (Genesis 1:27–31).

Sin is more than just bad behavior. It is the rejection or destruction of something good. You cannot reject or destroy something that is good without rejecting goodness itself. God is goodness, and so, every sin is in some way a rejection of God. This is why the most devastating dimension of sin is separation from God (CCC 385–390). Sin breaks down our relationship with God, puts obstacles between us and Him.

We have a long history of turning away from God, offending God, and rejecting his goodness—this is where Jesus enters the story.

The central claims of Christianity are that God became man in Jesus, that he died on the cross to atone for our sins, and that he rose from the dead to liberate us from death. But Jesus also came to show us the best way to live. Nobody can teach you more about the best way to live than Jesus.
The Jesus Question

Decision Point

1. In MANY WAYS THE WORLD IS AN INCREDIBLE PLACE, BUT IN LOTS OF OTHER WAYS IT IS A MESS. IN WHAT WAYS IS THE WORLD A MESS?

2. HOW DID THE WORLD GET TO BE SUCH A MESS?

3. WHAT IS SIN? HOW DOES IT AFFECT YOU?
There have been lots of famous people throughout history. Neil Armstrong was famous for being the first man to walk on the moon. Rosa Parks was famous for standing up for justice. Pablo Picasso was famous for his paintings. Mozart and Beethoven were famous for their music. Christopher Columbus was famous for discovering the Americas. Shakespeare, Dickens, Tolstoy, and Austen were famous for their writings. But all their fame came during their lives or after they died. And it was largely the result of what they did.

Jesus was famous before he was born, and he was famous because of who he was—the long-awaited Messiah. Lots of people get written about while they are alive or after they die, but Jesus was written about hundreds of years before he was born.

ISAIAH 11 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be a descendant of David. MATTHEW 1:1 shows that this prophecy was FULFILLED.

GENESIS 49 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be born of the tribe of Judah, one of the twelve tribes of Israel. MATTHEW 1: FULFILLED.

MICAH 5 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. MATTHEW 2: FULFILLED.

ISAIAH 7 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be born of a virgin mother. LUKE 1: FULFILLED.

PSALM 72 PROPHESIED that kings would come and adore the Messiah. MATTHEW 2: FULFILLED.

PSALM 41 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be betrayed. MATTHEW 26: FULFILLED.

ZECHARIAH 11 PROPHESIED that the Messiah would be sold for thirty pieces of silver. MATTHEW 26: FULFILLED.
3.3 JESUS WAS A Radical

If you really want to work out who Jesus is and discover what that means for you and your life, you need to delve deeply into his life and teachings.

Sometimes when you get familiar with something, you stop seeing it for what it really is. Jesus and his teachings have been a victim of this familiarity. Every Sunday we go to church and we hear a reading from the Gospel. Over time this can create the illusion that we know the Gospel, when in truth, most of us have barely scratched the surface of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Once we really get into his life and teachings we discover quickly that Jesus was a radical. If you haven’t encountered Jesus the radical lately, I’d encourage you to take another look. His life was radical. His teachings were radical. His love is radical. His invitation is radical.

His teachings were radical two thousand years ago, and they are just as radical now. Radical as they may be, they contain the answer to the question we began to explore in Session 1: What is the best way to live?

Even if you could prove to me indisputably that Jesus never existed, there is no God, and there is no life after death, no Heaven to look forward to, I would still believe that the teachings of Christianity (and those of Catholicism in particular) are the best way to live. I am absolutely convinced that there is no sure path to happiness in this life than embracing the teachings of Jesus Christ as set forth by the Catholic Church.

The radical nature of Jesus’ life, teachings, and love is a constant source of inspiration. Let’s explore some examples.

“This you have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” (Matthew 5:43–44)

This was radical teaching two thousand years ago. What was the teaching before this? An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth (Exodus 21:34, Leviticus 24:20, Deuteronomy 19:21).

Jesus came along and with one sentence on some dusty road or in a crowded synagogue wiped away the justification of revenge, and the moral, ethical, and spiritual development of humanity took a right turn.

This teaching is still radical two thousand years later. When was the last time you went out of your way to love someone who despises you, opposes you, or makes your life difficult?

And we are all persecuted in different ways by different people. Bullying is persecution. Excluding people is persecution. Ridicule, sarcasm, and negative humor are all persecution. When we are persecuted, our first reaction is probably not to pray for the person who is persecuting us. Our natural reaction is most likely some form of revenge. But Jesus wants to raise us above our natural reactions, and teach us to respond with grace.

In preparing the way for Jesus, John the Baptist said, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.” (Luke 3:11)

Think about that when you look in your wardrobe to get dressed tomorrow. Then consider that there are seven billion people on the planet today, one billion don’t have enough clothes and more than two billion of them are hungry just for bread. On our watch!

Speaking of radical, you probably have lots of people talking to you about chastity and encouraging you not to have sex before marriage. In our hypersexual culture these messages might seem radical, but Jesus’ teaching is much more radical.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.” (Matthew 5:27–28)

Guys, think about it—how often do you look at a girl lustfully? Ladies, how often do you look at a guy lustfully? Jesus said that to look at someone lustfully is to commit adultery in our hearts. That’s radical.

Jesus calls us to a freedom that gives us the self-control to direct every aspect of our being—including where we turn our gaze and what we ponder when we look at something or someone.

These are just a few of the many examples of Jesus’ radical teachings. But what was most radical was what he taught us about love. He taught us this not only with words, but also with his life.

The world portrays love as a selfish thing, there for our own pleasure and satisfaction. Jesus presents agape. Agape is selfless, sacrificial, unconditional love. This is the love we all yearn for and usually go looking for in all the wrong places. He laid down his life for others—for us. That is a monumental love, a generous love that places the good of the other person above any selfish desire.
1. Who do you know who takes the teachings of Jesus seriously, allowing those lessons to direct the way they live their lives?

2. How do the teachings of Jesus challenge you to radically change your life?

3. What is agape love? How is it different from the way movies, music, and the media portray love?
Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
2 he makes me lie down in green pastures.
   He leads me beside still waters;
3 he restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil;
   for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff,
   they comfort me.
5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil, my cup overflows.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
I try to go once a month. I need the grace. I need to take an honest look at myself. I need to be held accountable; it brings the best out of me. I need the spiritual coaching and guidance that I get in the sacrament of Reconciliation.

It’s good for me and I love the peace that fills my heart when the priest says the words of absolution:

“God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

The peace that comes from having our sins forgiven is a peace the world cannot give us. Do you have that peace? If you don’t, maybe it’s time you made a good confession.

3.4 SECOND CHANCES

We spoke earlier about God’s dream for you to become the best-version-of-yourself. We also spoke about how sometimes we want to do the right thing, but we find ourselves doing the complete opposite.

You may be too young right now, but there will come a time in your life when you will try to overcome a bad habit but cannot. You will try and try again, but over and over you will fail. And then you will discover that some things cannot be done merely by willpower and your own strength and abilities. On this day you will discover your need for grace.

What is grace? Grace is the help God gives us to respond to his call, and to do what is good and right.

Grace gets us beyond the Paul dilemma: “I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.”

Ask an alcoholic who has tried to stop drinking and he will tell you that he tried and tried on his own, and failed. Finally, he surrendered to God, and grace allowed him to quit drinking and stay sober.

We all come up against bad habits we cannot shake at different times. These are the great intersections of our lives, the moments when we choose to surrender to God’s grace or hold on stubbornly to our old self-destructive ways.

The truth is, you cannot become the best-version-of-yourself on your own. You need grace. The fullness of the invitation is to become the best-version-of-yourself in Jesus.

Without grace nothing is possible.

With all the talk of sin in the previous section, you may not be feeling so good about yourself. That’s good. Seriously, that’s really good. It means that you are in touch with your conscience. This is a sign of spiritual life.

Fortunately as Christians we believe in the forgiveness of sin. This is where grace and sin intersect.

We all need a fresh start from time to time.

One of the greatest sources of grace is the sacrament of Reconciliation. I am not going to give you a long lecture about it. I am just going to encourage you to go to Reconciliation . . . and to go regularly.
1. GRACE IS THE HELP GOD GIVES US TO RESPOND TO HIS CALL AND TO DO WHAT IS GOOD AND RIGHT. IN WHAT PART OF YOUR LIFE DO YOU NEED GOD’S GRACE MOST TODAY?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

2. HOW DO YOU IMAGINE YOU WOULD BE DIFFERENT IF YOU WENT TO RECONCILIATION ONCE A MONTH?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3. WE ALL NEED TO BE FORGIVEN BY GOD AND OTHERS, AND WE ALL HAVE PEOPLE WE NEED TO FORGIVE. IN THE OUR FATHER WE PRAY, “FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US.” WHOM IS GOD CALLING YOU TO FORGIVE TODAY?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
The Gospel of Matthew is my favorite. Maybe it is because my name is Matthew. Maybe it’s because so many times I decided I would read the New Testament from start to finish and didn’t get much past Matthew, so it is the Gospel I am most familiar with. But I think the reason is because the images, parables, and practicality of Matthew’s Gospel resonate with me deeply.

In the ninth chapter we come across the story of the call of Matthew. It simply says:

“As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, ‘Follow me.’ And he got up and followed him.” (Matthew 9:9)

Matthew woke up and went to work as a tax collector that day just like he did on any other day. He didn’t know his whole life was about to change. That’s how God works. Our God is a God of surprises.

Jesus’ invitation to Matthew is one he makes to us all. There is no great fanfare; he simply says, “Follow me.”

Will you?

Will you follow Jesus?

Maybe you’re not ready to make that decision. That’s OK. But if that is the case, you have a responsibility to learn more about who Jesus is, so that you can decide to follow him or not. If you are really not sure if you want to follow Jesus, read the Gospel of Matthew, and get to know him more.

But don’t just avoid the question. God doesn’t like that. We read in the book of Revelation, “You are neither hot nor cold… So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to spew you out of my mouth.” (Revelation 3:15–16)

Like Matthew the tax collector, today might feel like a regular day for you. But it isn’t. Deciding to follow Jesus—or not to follow Jesus—is one of the biggest decision points you will come to in your life.

Invite Jesus into your heart and into your life, decide today to follow him, and many years from now, you will look back and know that today was a turning point in your life.
He was born in an obscure village
The child of a peasant woman
He grew up in another obscure village
Where he worked in a carpenter shop
Until he was thirty when public opinion turned against him

He never wrote a book
He never held an office
He never went to college
He never visited a big city
He never traveled more than two hundred miles
From the place where he was born
He did none of the things
Usually associated with greatness
He had no credentials but himself

He was only thirty three
His friends ran away
One of them denied him
He was turned over to his enemies
And went through the mockery of a trial
He was nailed to a cross between two thieves
While dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing
The only property he had on earth

When he was dead
He was laid in a borrowed grave
Through the pity of a friend

Nineteen centuries have come and gone
And today Jesus is the central figure of the human race
And the leader of mankind’s progress
All the armies that have ever marched
All the navies that have ever sailed
All the parliaments that have ever sat
All the kings that ever reigned put together
Have not affected the life of mankind on earth
As powerfully as that one solitary life

BY JAMES ALLAN FRANCIS
The Jesus Question

ACROSS

1. Purity and self-control in thought, conduct, and intention in the area of sexuality
4. Sexual relations with someone who is not your spouse
6. God wants to flood our hearts with
10. A state of pain or distress
11. Being treated unfairly because of your beliefs
12. The help God gives us to respond to his call, and to do what is good and right
13. The first four books of the New Testament that share the life and teachings of Jesus Christ

DOWN

2. To offend God by rejecting what is good, right, and true
3. Selfless, sacrificial, unconditional love
5. The new and counter cultural teachings of Jesus were
7. The long-awaited Messiah
8. Devoid of connection to things religious or spiritual
9. Profoundly immoral
14. The Sacrament God gives us for the ongoing forgiveness of our sins

The Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting hardships as the pathway to peace, taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it, trusting that you will make all things right, if I surrender to your will, so that I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with you forever in the next. Amen.

Session Four
The Prayer Process

Decision Point

In the summer of 1845, Henry David Thoreau left Concord, Massachusetts, because he believed it had become too busy and too noisy. He built himself a little hut out by Walden Pond and began a two-year experiment in living a simple life. During his time there in the woods, he wrote these words:

“I went to the woods because I wanted to live life deliberately . . . I wanted to live deep and suck out all the marrow of life . . . to put to rout all that was not life . . . and not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived.”

In some ways, I pray for the same reason Thoreau went to the woods. I pray because I want to live life deliberately. I pray because I want to live life deeply and suck all the marrow out of life! I pray because I want to work out what really matters in this life and spend my time on those things. I pray because I don’t want to come to the end of my life and discover that I have not really lived.

I have tried life with and without prayer, and found that life without prayer is unbearable. Without prayer, life doesn’t make sense. I don’t know how people live without prayer. I don’t know how you could remain sane in this crazy, noisy, busy world without prayer. Living without prayer is like choosing to be blind, lame, deaf, and dumb.

But I didn’t always feel this way. It all changed for me when I was about fifteen.

Prayer helps us to discover who we are and what we are here for.

4. THE PRAYER PROCESS

Some things help you to become the-best-version-of-yourself and some things don’t. Prayer is one of the things that help.

Prayer may sound boring to you, but I can assure you if you feel that way you have never really experienced prayer.

As a human being you are a delicate composition of body and soul. You are not just a body. You have a soul, and throughout your life you will decide to fill your soul with something. The question is: What are you going to fill your soul with? God or the world? Joy or misery? Peace or turmoil?

Once again, you get to decide.

The world denies your spiritual self and treats you as if you are just a body. I want you to rebel against that lie.

In this session I simply want to encourage you to nurture your spiritual self, to pay attention to it in a world full of distractions, and to set aside a few minutes each day to spend in quiet prayer.

I want to convince you to feed your soul.

4.1 Why Pray?

Why Pray? The answer is actually very simple: because you want to be happy. If there is a God, and if that God has a plan for your life, then trying to find happiness outside of that plan is impossible. Discovering God’s beautiful plan for your life is essential to your happiness—and should be your highest priority.

I know you have lots of other priorities at the moment, but a day will come in your life when you’ll realize that everything you thought was important is second to discovering God’s plan for your life. The sooner that day comes, the better your life will be.

You will never be happy doing something other than God’s will. So the question becomes: How do we discover God’s will for our lives?

One of the ways we discover God’s will is through regular prayer.

In the summer of 1845, Henry David Thoreau left Concord, Massachusetts, because he believed it had become too busy and too noisy. He built himself a little hut out by Walden Pond and began a two-year experiment in living a simple life. During his time there in the woods, he wrote these words:

“I went to the woods because I wanted to live life deliberately . . . I wanted to live deep and suck out all the marrow of life . . . to put to rout all that was not life . . . and not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived.”

In some ways, I pray for the same reason Thoreau went to the woods. I pray because I want to live life deliberately. I pray because I want to live life deeply and suck all the marrow out of life! I pray because I want to work out what really matters in this life and spend my time on those things. I pray because I don’t want to come to the end of my life and discover that I have not really lived.

I have tried life with and without prayer, and found that life without prayer is unbearable. Without prayer, life doesn’t make sense. I don’t know how people live without prayer. I don’t know how you could remain sane in this crazy, noisy, busy world without prayer. Living without prayer is like choosing to be blind, lame, deaf, and dumb.

But I didn’t always feel this way. It all changed for me when I was about fifteen.

Prayer gives us strength for great ideals, for keeping up our faith, charity, purity, generosity; prayer gives us strength to rise up from indifference and guilt, if we have had the misfortune to give in to temptation and weakness. Prayer gives us light by which to see and to judge from God’s perspective and from eternity. That is why you must not give up on praying!”

—Pope John Paul II
1. WHOM DO YOU TALK TO EVERY DAY? WHY?

2. DO YOU PRAY? HOW OFTEN? HOW DO YOU FEEL AFTER YOU PRAY?

3. DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD BE HAPPIER IF YOU MADE TIME TO PRAY EACH DAY?
The Prayer Process

Decision Point

My life changed one Sunday afternoon when I was about your age. I didn’t know it at the time. It seemed like another ordinary day, and the guy who changed my life I found pretty annoying at the time. This is what happened...

At the time I was in high school. Everything at school was going very well—I had a great group of friends, a wonderful girlfriend, and a good part-time job. On the outside everything seemed fine, but on the inside a growing restlessness was building up.

One Sunday afternoon I was at a barbecue with some of my mates when I bumped into a family friend. He asked me how school was going. “Fine.” I replied. But he was a doctor and doctors are good at asking questions, and he just kept asking me questions. Each question and each answer led us a little closer to his diagnosis. Then after about fifteen minutes, he paused briefly, looked deep into my eyes, and said, “You’re not really happy, are you, Matthew?”

He knew it and I knew it, but I was ashamed to admit it at first. But our lives seem to flood with grace at unexpected moments, and I began to tell him about the emptiness and restlessness I was experiencing. After listening to me carefully he suggested I stop by my church for ten minutes each morning on the way to school.

I listened, smiled, nodded politely, and immediately dismissed him as some sort of religious fanatic. As he expanded on his idea and how it would transform my life, I wondered to myself, how is ten minutes of prayer each day going to help me? Before he had finished speaking I had resolved to completely ignore everything he said.

In the coming weeks I threw myself into my studies, my work, and my sporting pursuits with more vigor than ever before. I had done this to appease my restless heart at other times in my life. But achievement in these areas no longer brought the fulfillment it once had.

One morning about six weeks later the emptiness had become so great that I found myself stopping by church on the way to school. I crept quietly into the church, sat near the back, and began to plan my day. Just planning the day ahead of me lifted the clouds of hurried confusion. For the first time in my life I tasted a few drops of that wonderful tonic we call peace—and I liked it.

The next day, and every day, I returned. Each morning I would simply sit toward the back of the church and move through the events of the day in my mind. With each passing day a sense of peace, purpose, and direction began to fill me.

Then one day as I sat there it occurred to me that “planning my day” wasn’t really prayer. So I began to pray: God, I want this... and I need this... and could you do this for me... and help me with this... and let this happen... and please, don’t let that happen...

For the next few weeks, this is how it went. Every morning I would stop by church, sit toward the back, plan my day, and tell God what I wanted. For a while this was the depth of my prayer life. And then one day I had a problem. That morning I came to the church and with a simple prayer in my heart, I looked up toward the tabernacle and began to explain, God, I’ve got this problem... This is the situation... These are the circumstances... Then I stumbled onto the question that would change my life forever: God, what do you think I should do?

With that question my life began to change. Asking that question marked a new beginning in my life. Before that day, I had only been interested in telling God what my will was. Now for the first time I was asking God to reveal his will.

God, what do you think I should do? I call this the Big Question. It is the question that changed my life forever, and the question that continues to transform my life on a daily basis when I have the courage to ask it.

There is only one question and one course of action that leads to lasting happiness in this changing world: God, what do you think I should do? It is a mistake to think that we can find happiness without asking this question.

Our lives change when our habits change. Are you ready for your life to change?

What is Prayer?

An Expression of Thanks or a Solemn Request for Help from God.

“Prayer is the raising of one’s mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God.”
—Saint John Damascene

God, what do you think I should do?

4.2 The Big Question

To pray is to talk to God about anything that is in your heart: the things that bring you joy and the things that bring you sorrow; the successes you encounter, your strengths and talents; your faults and weaknesses; your hopes and dreams.

In prayer you talk to God about everything.
1. Describe a time when someone challenged you to do something that would help you become the best version of yourself. How did you respond?

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
4. PEACE: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or Him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.

5. FREEDOM: Speak with God about how He is inviting you to change your life so that you can experience the freedom to be the best version of yourself.

6. OTHERS: Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

7. Pray the Our Father.

The Prayer Process is quite simple and, like most things, easy to talk about. But the best way to understand it is to practice it!

Teresa of Avila (1515–1582) was a Carmelite nun. She was a great Catholic author and mystic, and a champion of prayer. Teresa wrote extensively about the importance of having intimate and personal conversation with God. This is known as mental prayer. Her feast day is October 15.

GETTING STARTED

The hardest part of anything is getting started. Prayer is no different. If you are having trouble, use the Psalms to pray. The Psalms are a powerful collection of prayers. Use them to get started—they will teach you how to pray, and before too long your own words will begin to flow.

A space shuttle uses 96% of its fuel at takeoff.
1. HAS ANYONE EVER TAUGHT YOU HOW TO PRAY? WHO? WHEN?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. WHICH OF THE SEVEN STEPS IN THE PRAYER PROCESS INTRIGUED YOU THE MOST? WHY?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. IF YOU WERE GOING TO SET ASIDE TEN MINUTES TO PRAY AT THE SAME TIME EVERY DAY, WHAT TIME OF DAY WOULD BE BEST FOR YOU?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
44 The Best Way to learn

You get good at riding a bicycle, not by reading a book about bikes or listening to a lecture about riding techniques, but by actually riding a bicycle. Sure, the book and the lecture can be helpful, but ultimately you will hone your skills by spending time on the bike.

The same is true for prayer. It’s good to talk about it and to read books about it, but at some point the best thing to do is just try it and see what you learn from actually praying.

There are two reasons most people don’t pray: nobody ever taught them and they don’t know where to start. The Prayer Process solves both of these problems. It teaches us how to pray and it gives us a simple step-by-step process, so we know exactly where to start.

What I would like to do now is to walk you through the process while you actually practice it. I’ll keep talking to you, guiding you through the process, but there won’t be anything to watch here on the screen. So, let’s start by closing our eyes.

Now, get comfortable, so that you can be still and quiet for a few minutes, and take some deep breaths. Breathe in deep, and breathe out any stress or anxiety that you have in your life today.

Now, let’s begin…

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The first step in The Prayer Process is… GRATITUDE: Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.

What are you grateful for at this time in your life? Talk to God about that. Don’t just think about it. Have a mental conversation with God about everyone and everything you are grateful for today.

The second step in The Prayer Process is… AWARENESS: Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the-best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.

Recall a time in the past twenty-four hours when you were the best-version-of-yourself, even if it was just for a moment… Talk to God about that situation… tell him if it was easy or difficult… and how you felt…

Now bring to mind a time in the past twenty-four hours when you were not the-best-version-of-yourself… Talk to God about why you did what you did… tell him how you felt at the time… and how you felt after… and talk to him about how you are going to try to handle situations like that differently in the future…

The third step in the process is… SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS: Identify something you experienced in the past twenty-four hours and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event (or person).

How have you experienced God in the past twenty-four hours? Did you sense that God was trying to tell you something through a person or something that happened? Talk to God about that now… again, try to go beyond just thinking about these things and have a mental conversation with God…

The fourth step in the process is… PEACE: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or Him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.

Are you carrying around guilt or shame over something? God is your Father and he loves you deeply, ask him right now to forgive you and fill you with a deep, deep peace.

The fifth step in The Prayer Process is… FREEDOM: Speak with God about how He is inviting you to change your life so that you can experience the freedom to be the-best-version-of-yourself.

God loves you as you are today, but he loves you too much to let you stay this way. How do you sense God is calling you to change and grow? Talk to him about that… now ask him to give you the courage and strength to make this change in your life…

The sixth step in the process is… OTHERS: Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

Who do you want God to bless in a special way today? Talk to God about each of these people… and vocalize the specific ways you would like God to bless them… Take your time… Slowly pray for the people in your life… one at a time…

The final step of The Prayer Process is to pray the Our Father. It is a prayer most of us have been praying all our lives, but if we really comprehended the words of this prayer we would not be able to finish it without weeping for joy. So, let’s pray it together, out loud, slowly and deliberately…

Our Father…

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
You can open your eyes now. Thanks for praying with me. For four years I have been working on this Confirmation program, and for four years I have been praying for you — the young men and women from all over the world who will experience it. I’m going to continue to pray for you every day. And I hope you will pray for me, and all the team at Dynamic Catholic, as we continue to work to develop resources to help you and others to have powerful encounters with God.

We cannot pray every minute of every day. We have things to do. What was Paul saying? He was encouraging us to transform every moment of every day into a prayer. How? By offering each hour of study or work to God as a prayer, offering inconveniences and suffering to God as a prayer, and offering every thing we do each day to God, we transform the ordinary realities of everyday life into prayer.

When I was a child I was taught to start my day by offering everything that was going to happen that day to God. This prayer is called a morning offering. There are many different versions; this is the one I was taught:

O Jesus, through the most pure heart of Mary, I offer you the prayer, works, joys, and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of your divine heart.

Amen.

There is genius in Catholicism. It may not always be apparent on the surface, but behind each and every Catholic tradition are glimpses of the genius of Catholicism.
STEP 1: GRATITUDE
Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.

STEP 2: AWARENESS
Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the-best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.

STEP 3: SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS
Identify something you experienced in the past twenty-four hours and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event (or person).

STEP 4: PEACE
Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or Him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.

STEP 5: FREEDOM
Speak with God about how He is inviting you to change your life so that you can experience the freedom to be the-best-version-of-yourself.

STEP 6: OTHERS
Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

STEP 7: PRAY THE OUR FATHER
Over and over throughout the Gospels we read about Jesus going to quiet places to pray.

Mark 1:35: “In the morning, while it was still dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.”

Matthew 14:23: “After he had dismissed the crowds, he went up a mountain by himself to pray.”

Luke 5:16: “Now more than ever the word about Jesus spread abroad; many crowds would gather to hear him and be cured of their diseases. But he would withdraw to deserted places and pray.”

Luke 9:28: “Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and went up on a mountain to pray.”

Why did Jesus withdraw so often to pray? He was God, right? True. But he was also man. Imagine the distractions. The fame. The people who were trying to convince him to be a political or worldly leader. The people who were trying to use him for their own benefit. He withdrew to pray so that he could stay focused on his mission, to remember what really mattered.

We all get confused about what really matters from time to time. Prayer helps us to keep things in perspective.

We live in a noisy, busy world. If you are going to work out who you are and what you are here for, you need to step back from it all for a few minutes each day to reconnect with yourself and with God.

What place does prayer have in your life today? Is prayer at the center of your life or on the periphery of your life. Give prayer a central place in your life. Place prayer at the center of your life and amazing things will begin to happen.

Find a place where you can spend a few minutes with God each day. Set aside a time at the same time each day for prayer. Make this place and time a sacred part of your day, and God will fill you with his wisdom so you can make great decisions every day.

To pray or not to pray? That’s your decision point today.

Here’s my challenge for you: Practice The Prayer Process every day for thirty days. After thirty days I hope you are convinced that prayer should remain a daily habit for the rest of your life.
Do you pray only for yourself? If so, your geography of prayer is pretty small—tiny, in fact! As Christians, we believe we are called to pray for the whole world, and as such, the geography of our prayer should take in the whole world. When I was in high school I was given a rosary. Each of the five decades was a different color and represented a different region of the world. The idea was to offer each decade for the people in those different regions, thus praying for the whole world.

First decade (green beads): Pray for Africa
Second decade (red beads): Pray for the Americas
Third decade (white beads): Pray for Europe
Fourth decade (blue beads): Pray for the South Pacific
Fifth decade (yellow beads): Pray for Asia

Prayer is powerful. If we love our neighbor, we will pray for our neighbor. As Catholics, the geography of our prayer even reaches beyond this world when we pray for our loved ones who have died, that they may be united with God in paradise.

The geography of prayer is just one of millions of beautiful realities that make up our faith.
Psalm 63

1 O God, thou art my God, I seek thee, my soul thirsts for thee; my flesh faints for thee, as in a dry and weary land where no water is.

2 So I have looked upon thee in the sanctuary, beholding thy power and glory. 3 Because thy steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise thee.

4 So I will bless thee as long as I live; I will lift up my hands and call on thy name.

5 My soul is feasted as with marrow and fat, and my mouth praises thee with joyful lips,

6 when I think of thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the watches of the night;

7 for thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings I sing for joy. 8 My soul clings to thee; thy right hand upholds me.

9 But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth;

10 they shall be given over to the power of the sword, they shall be prey for jackals.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall glory; for the mouths of liars will be stopped.

ACROSS

2. The absence of noise
3. A state of great unhappiness that comes from turning our backs on God
5. A state of being thankful and showing appreciation
6. The immense happiness that comes from walking with God in all things
9. The strength of character to do what is good and right
11. People, besides yourself, whom you feel inspired to pray for
12. A conversation with God
13. The spiritual or immaterial part of a human being
14. Something that is more important than other things and needs to be done first

DOWN

1. The ability to perceive what is really happening within us and around us
4. To do something again and again to get good at it
7. A state of being that is free from stress and anxiety
8. A state of great disturbance, confusion, or uncertainty
10. Important, meaningful
Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will.

—St. Ignatius of Loyola
5. THE BIBLE

Albert Einstein said, “I want to know the thoughts of God, the rest are details.”

The Bible is not just another book. It’s the Word of God. You have probably heard that a lot. But what does it really mean? For one thing, words have value based on who speaks them. If you knew someone who was always telling lies and he told you something, you would discount what he said because you know from experience that he has a habit of lying.

Some people’s words should be discounted. But this here—the Bible, the Word of God—is not to be discounted. God should be taken at his word. The Bible should be taken very seriously. Your happiness in this life and the next life depends in large part on how seriously you take the Word of God.

Here’s the mysterious thing about the Bible: It has the power to transform our lives. That’s why so many people don’t read it! Seriously.

God wants to transform you and your life. Too often when we pray, we pray for tweaking. We want God to tweak this and tweak that. But God is not interested in tweaking. God is in the business of transformation. He wants to turn your life upside down, which as it turns out is right side up. He wants to transform the way you think about yourself, he wants to transform the way you think about relationships, he wants to transform the way you think about money and career, and he wants to transform the way you think about the world and the culture.

If you want to see something incredible, start praying for transformation. Ask God to transform you and your life. Most people have never prayed a prayer of transformation.

The truth is, your happiness depends upon discovering God’s will for your life, and the Bible can help you with that. But too often we are not interested in discovering the will of God. Usually we are more interested in “my will be done” than “thy will be done.” Think about it: When was the last time you actively sought out God’s will in a situation?

The Bible leads us to God’s mysterious and fabulous plan for our lives—and that is always transformational. This is not just another book.

5.1 Map for the Journey

Many years ago, I read an article in a travel magazine about the Camino. The Camino is a pilgrimage, a five-hundred-mile walk that begins in the South of France, crosses the Pyrenees into Spain, and then works its way west across northern Spain, finishing in Santiago de Compostela—where Saint James, one of the twelve apostles, is buried.

I remember reading the article and thinking that it would be an amazing adventure . . . but I also remember thinking that it was the kind of thing that I would never do. Why? Two main reasons: I am not really the outdoors type and I didn’t figure I would ever take a month off. But ten years later, I decided to make the pilgrimage.

A pilgrimage is a spiritual journey to a holy place. Sometimes people go on a pilgrimage in search of answers to questions, and sometimes they do it to thank God for a special favor. I was going for both reasons. I was grateful for all the blessings God had given me, but I had questions about what I should do with the rest of my life.

I blocked a whole month on my schedule (a year in advance) and began to research everything I needed to know for the trip. I read books, studied the route, looked into where to eat and where to stay along the way, what the weather would be like, what clothes to bring and what boots to wear, what to pack and what to leave behind, and I talked to people who had made the journey.

My biggest question was: How will I know if I am going the right way? I had read that an image of a seashell was used to direct pilgrims along the path. But I had also heard that in many places this symbol was faded, which often caused pilgrims to take the wrong path.

Then, I met a couple who had made the pilgrimage seven times. They told me, “If you’ve got to get a copy of this particular guidebook! It’s the bible of the Camino.” I immediately ordered a copy.

The book was amazing. It had maps and routes, suggested starting and ending points for each day, elevations and distances. It showed you where fresh water was available to fill your water bottle, and warned you not to drink the water in certain places. It showed you options for where to stay and where to eat. It marked spots on the map where the signs were faded, and gave specific instructions about what to do in those places. And at every stop along the way, it told you how far to the next place for food, water, or sleep. That guidebook was invaluable. It gave me confidence for the journey.

The Bible is that guidebook for your life.
Whether you realize it or not, you are on a sacred journey. Life is a pilgrimage and you are a pilgrim. Remember, a pilgrimage is a spiritual journey to a holy place. A pilgrim is someone on a journey to a holy place. The holy place we are journeying toward is Heaven.

The world doesn’t want you to be a pilgrim on a spiritual journey. The world wants you to be a tourist. A pilgrim travels with purpose. A tourist travels only for pleasure. You have to decide—do you want to be a tourist or a pilgrim?

There is more to life than life. You will die one day and it is healthy to think about that from time to time. If you died today and had to account to God for the way you have lived your life, how would you fare?

God wants you to live a rich, full, and happy life—and he provides the Bible as a map for that.

WHAT IS A HOLY PLACE?

A PLACE SET APART FOR GOD BECAUSE OF SPECIAL RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE. JERUSALEM IS A HOLY PLACE BECAUSE JESUS LIVED, TAUGHT, DIED, AND ROSE FROM THE DEAD THERE. YOUR LOCAL PARISH CHURCH IS A HOLY PLACE BECAUSE IT IS THE CENTER OF WORSHIP FOR YOUR COMMUNITY.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE HOLY PLACE?

Where do you think was Mary’s favorite place to pray?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. DO YOU THINK OF THE BIBLE AS A GUIDEBOOK? IF NOT, WHAT IS YOUR PERCEPTION OF THE BIBLE?

2. IN WHAT WAYS ARE YOU A TOURIST AND IN WHAT WAYS ARE YOU A PILGRIM?

3. HOW COMFORTABLE WOULD YOU BE IF YOU DIED TODAY AND HAD TO ACCOUNT FOR THE WAY YOU HAVE LIVED YOUR LIFE?
God is love
One of the ways God loves us is by revealing himself to us. He does not remain a distant, anonymous God; he allows us to know him. Not only does God reveal himself to us but he also reveals his loving plans. We call this Divine Revelation.

There are many things we can know just by observing the natural world, such as the law of gravity and the regularity of the seasons from one year to the next. But there are some things we can only know because God reveals them to us; for example, the Trinity, the fact that God is three persons in one: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We only know this because God has revealed it to us.

God reveals himself to us in two ways, through Sacred Scripture and through Sacred Tradition. Sacred Scripture is the Bible. Sacred Tradition is the teachings that have been handed down from the apostles to their successors through preaching, example, and life of worship, even before the New Testament was written.

Both Scripture and Tradition make up the Word of God, and both were entrusted to the Church to interpret and share with the people of every place and time. If you separate the Scriptures from Tradition, the Scriptures begin to die. They are kept alive through their connection with Sacred Tradition. Separate the Scriptures from Tradition and it becomes very easy to misinterpret them.

The first generation of Christians didn’t have a written New Testament; the Church existed before it was written. The New Testament itself is the fruit of Sacred Tradition, and a beautiful demonstration of the role Tradition has always played in the lives of Christians from the very beginning. It is impossible to truly appreciate the Bible unless we understand the connection between the Bible and the Sacred Tradition of the Catholic Church.

The books of the Bible are:
The Bible was originally written in Hebrew and Greek, and has been translated into more languages than any other book. It was written by hundreds of different authors between approximately 1500 BC and 100 AD.

In the Old Testament God reveals himself as the Creator who is deeply interested in a relationship with humanity. In the New Testament he reveals his mercy and overwhelming desire that all people experience his love—more proof of God’s incredible yearning for a relationship with us.

If you want to get a sense of what the Old Testament is all about, read Genesis. The book of Genesis demonstrates that there is a great cause-and-effect relationship between obedience to God and happiness, and between disobedience and misery. Genesis shows us, over and over again, what happens if you follow the ways of God and what happens if you follow the ways of the world. In Genesis we see an in-depth study of the human condition.

The New Testament presents the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and the life of the early Church. All this might lead you to ask, where did the Bible come from?

It did not fall from Heaven as a single book. Nor did God dictate it mechanically to scribes. God chose certain people whom he inspired to write down what he wanted to convey to humanity. The Bible came together over the course of more than sixteen hundred years, and hundreds of authors were involved in writing the Bible as we know it today.

You could spend your whole life just studying Sacred Scripture and it would be a life well spent. And truth be told, very few lives are really well spent. I hope you spend yours well and I hope this program is helping to prepare you for that.

But if you did spend your whole life studying the Bible you would discover that it is not just a theological book. The Bible is immensely practical. It can show you how to get to Heaven, but it can also show you how to live on earth. In many ways it is a guide to a happy life.

1. WHAT NEW THING DID YOU LEARN ABOUT THE BIBLE IN THIS SECTION?

2. WHAT’S YOUR FAVORITE BOOK IN THE BIBLE? WHY?

3. IF YOU COULD BE ONE PERSON IN THE BIBLE, WHO WOULD YOU WANT TO BE? WHY?
You may be saying to yourself, "I am too young to be thinking about all this serious stuff!"

But that would be a mistake. Mozart was eight years old when he wrote his first symphony. Jesus was twelve years old when he first taught in the temple. Anne Frank was thirteen when she wrote her diary. Ralph Waldo Emerson was fourteen when he enrolled at Harvard. Joan of Arc was seventeen when she led the French army. Bill Gates was nineteen when he co-founded Microsoft.

You are not too young to start thinking about these things. You are not too young to start thinking seriously about your life.
When you read your chapter, approach it with an open heart, listening for what God is saying to you. As you read, identify a word, phrase, or idea in each chapter that jumps out at you, something that taps you on the shoulder.

For example, you might be reading the first chapter of Matthew’s Gospel. The first seventeen verses are the genealogy of Jesus—not the most interesting reading for a Bible rookie. But the phrase that often strikes me when I read this first chapter of Matthew is verse 23: “Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means ‘God is with us.’”

“God is with us.” There may have been times in your life when God has felt very far away. There have almost certainly been times when you have wandered far from God. I hope there have also been some times in your life when you have felt God was near. But here is the elemental truth: God is with us.

And each day, before you begin reading the Bible, pray asking God to help you to listen to what he is trying to say to you. It could be something as simple as:

“Loving Father, I know you have good plans for me. Open my heart and my mind so that I can hear clearly what you are trying to say to me through the Scriptures today.”

The process is quite simple.

1. Begin with a short prayer.
2. Read a chapter of the Bible.
3. Pick out a word, phrase, or idea that jumps out at you.
4. Talk to God about it.

If you read the same chapter many times, you might be drawn to different phrases or ideas on different days.

Even if you pick the same phrase, you may have very different conversations with God about that same phrase. Perhaps you pick the phrase “God is with us.” You may have a conversation with God about how you sense his presence guiding you and encouraging you. But you may come back in a couple of years and read the same chapter, pick out the same phrase, and have a conversation with God about how he feels far from you at that time.

Talk to God about the word or phrase that strikes you, and listen for what he is trying to say to you through it. Just as we discussed with The “Seek first the kingdom of God and his justice, and all else will be given in addition.” Matthew 6:33

You will be amazed the clarity that this one line of Scripture can bring to decision-making. We are making hundreds of choices every day, and each choice celebrates the kingdom of God or rejects it. Happiness comes from seeking God and his kingdom. If we put that first in our decisions, so many of the other things of this world will take care of themselves.

“What does the Lord require of you? But to live justly, love tenderly, and to walk humbly with your God.” Micah 6:8

This is almost like a mini-Gospel. We could spend our whole lives just reflecting on this one passage, examining ourselves each day: Am I living justly? Am I loving tenderly? Am I walking humbly with my God?

Finally, I would like to encourage you to have a favorite Psalm. Read it often, but also memorize it. There will be times in your life when you are too tired, too distracted, or too conflicted to form your own words for prayer. At these times you will find yourself praying your Psalm.

My favorite is Psalm 23: “The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want . . .”

There are a hundred ways to invite the Scriptures into our lives. I hope you will make reading the Bible part of your daily routine. If you do, I am confident you will find it a life-changing habit.

Prayer Process, it is important that you don’t just sit there and think about it. The point is to have a conversation with God about whatever that particular Scripture stirs in your heart.

Another great way to connect with the Scriptures is to bring your Bible to Mass. Sure, most churches have those booklets that have the readings in them, but there is something very powerful about holding a Bible. It’s different. Try it and you will see.

This requires some advance preparation. I like to mark the readings with Post-it notes before I go to Mass. Otherwise, I am distracted looking for the readings in my Bible during Mass. Next week’s readings are usually published in the bulletin, or you can find them online.

Spend some time preparing for Mass next week, and bring your Bible—you will have a completely different experience.

I also want to encourage you to bring your Bible to these classes. Throughout the rest of this program we will be referring to passages from the Bible. Each time we do, find the passage in your Bible and mark it with an asterisk or underline it.

Don’t be afraid to write in your Bible. It’s yours. It’s there to help you learn and grow spiritually, and sometimes highlighting a passage or underlining a phrase can be very helpful. This will also help you over time to see what parts of the Bible you have spent time with.

The last thing I want to encourage you to do in this section is to identify some favorite Bible passages. Memorize them. These will be of great comfort and guidance to you throughout your life.

Here are some of mine:

*Be still and know that I am God.” Psalm 46:10

Life is busy and noisy and distracting, and that can all be overwhelming at times. Sometimes it helps just to sit down, be quiet, sit still, and recognize God’s presence.

Another of my favorite Scripture passages is:

“If you don’t have time to pray and read the Scriptures, you are busier than God ever intended you to be.”

SAINT JEROME

Who Was Saint Jerome?

Saint Jerome (347–420) was a priest, confessor, theologian, and historian. He is most famous for translating the Bible into Latin. It took him twenty-three years to complete the translation. Can you imagine translating the whole Bible? Jerome wrote, “Ignorance of Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.” He is the patron saint of librarians and his feast day is September 30.
1. HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT THE CHALLENGE TO READ THE BIBLE FOR A FEW MINUTES EACH DAY?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. HOW DO YOU THINK YOUR LIFE WOULD CHANGE IF YOU DID READ THE BIBLE FOR A FEW MINUTES EACH DAY?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. OTHER THAN READING THE BIBLE, WHAT OTHER HABITS COULD HELP YOU BECOME THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Albert Einstein also said, “Compound interest is the most powerful force in the universe.” You might be thinking, what on earth does compound interest have to do with the Bible. Let me explain.

To demonstrate the power of compound interest, let’s take a look at an example.

If from your eighteenth birthday you saved just three dollars a day, every day, until your sixty-fifth birthday, you would have saved $51,465. But if you invested that money at a compounding interest rate of 10 percent, you would have more than a million dollars—$1,017,046, to be exact.

But most people don’t retire with anywhere near that much money. In fact, the latest data shows that at age sixty-five the average American has a net worth of just $66,740. Most people never engage the power of compounding interest. Most wait until far too late in life to start saving for retirement—and it matters.

In the example we discussed, if everything else remained the same except you waited until you were thirty to start saving your three dollars a day, instead of retiring with more than a million dollars, you would have just $316,115.

What’s the lesson here? The earlier you start saving the better.

Habits are even more powerful than compounding interest, and they have the same powerful compounding impact on our lives. The earlier you develop some foundational positive habits, the better.

What are your habits? What are the things you do every day or every week with unrelenting consistency? Are they helping you or hurting you?

Tell me what your habits are and I will tell you what your future looks like. Thoughts become choices, choices become actions, actions become habits, habits become character, and your character is your destiny. Your life is running in the direction of your habits much faster than you might think.

Life is choices. Make a choice often enough and it will become an ingrained habit.

You can, of course, be on the wrong side of compound interest. Run up some credit card debt that you can’t pay off and you will discover that many of those cards have 21 percent interest rates. You will then find yourself very much on the wrong side of compounding interest.

The same can happen with habits. No drug addict or alcoholic ever set out to become a slave to their addiction. It happened one step at a time, one choice at a time, and before they knew it they were trapped. Habits are incredibly powerful—for better or for worse.

How would you like your life to be different this year than it was last year? Our lives change when our habits change. If you want your life to be different this year, change your habits. If you want to do better academically, change your habits. If you want to do better in a sport, change your habits. If you want to have more fulfilling relationships, change your habits.

You may be quite content with your life today, but there will be times when you will encounter profound discontentment. When you come to those moments, I want you to remember: Our lives change when our habits change.

Throughout this program I am trying to help you to establish some foundational habits in your life. In Session 4 we explored the habit of daily prayer. Now I want to encourage you to add the habit of reading the Bible for a few minutes each day. Perhaps you could start your day reading a chapter from the Bible and end your day with The Prayer Process. There are going to be a few defining foundational habits in your life. I hope prayer and reading the Bible are among them.

There are so many habits, good and bad, that can impact the direction of your life. You know the habits that will help you become the best-version-of-yourself and the ones that will not.

What will be the defining habits of your life?

Let me share with you something I have learned from trying to read the Bible each day for twenty years: It is never convenient. It is always inconvenient. There are always other things you could be doing, and often there will be other things you would rather be doing. There will be those days when you yearn to read the Bible and talk with God about what you discover. But those days will likely be quite rare. There are going to be times when you feel like you are getting nothing out of it. When you encounter those times I want to encourage you to persevere. At those times I want you to hear me whispering into your ear, “Press on. Press on. The effort will be worth it in the long run.”

One day you will be glad you did. I promise you.
“SEEK FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS JUSTICE, AND ALL ELSE WILL BE GIVEN IN ADDITION.”

MATTHEW 6:33

The inconvenience of having the discipline to read the Bible daily is a microcosm of a much larger truth: Christianity is inconvenient. But it will bring you a joy that you have not even imagined yet. So embrace the life and teachings of Jesus like you would a good friend whom you have not seen for a long time. Embrace the genius of Catholicism and you will live a life uncommon.

You matter, your happiness matters, and that’s why habits matter.

You may be saying to yourself, “I am too young to be thinking about all this serious stuff!” But that would be a mistake. Mozart was eight years old when he wrote his first symphony. Jesus was twelve years old when he first taught in the Temple. Anne Frank was thirteen when she wrote her diary. Ralph Waldo Emerson was fourteen when he enrolled at Harvard. Joan of Arc was seventeen when she led the French army. Bill Gates was nineteen when he co-founded Microsoft. You are not too young to start thinking about these things. You are not too young to start thinking seriously about your life.

"Seek first the kingdom of God and his justice, and all else will be given in addition."

Matthew 6:33

You matter. Your happiness matters. And that’s why habits matter.

Know it: God’s priorities are clear.
Think about it: How clear are you about your priorities? Are they good priorities?
Live it: Do something today that puts God’s priorities at the center of your life.

1. WHO DO YOU KNOW WHO HAS GREAT HABITS? WHAT ARE THOSE HABITS?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. HAVE YOU EVER SEEN BAD HABITS DESTROY A PERSON’S LIFE?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. WHAT WILL BE THE BIGGEST OBSTACLE TO YOU ESTABLISHING THE HABIT OF READING THE BIBLE FOR A FEW MINUTES EACH DAY?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
For ever, O Lord, thy word is firmly fixed in the heavens.

Thy faithfulness endures to all generations; thou hast established the earth, and it stands fast.

By thy appointment they stand this day; for all things are thy servants.

If thy law had not been my delight, I should have perished in my affliction.

I will never forget thy precepts; for by them thou hast given me life.

I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.

The wicked lie in wait to destroy me; but I consider thy testimonies.

I have seen a limit to all perfection, but thy commandment is exceedingly broad.

Oh, how I love thy law! It is my meditation all the day.

Thy commandment makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers, for thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the aged, for I keep thy precepts.

I hold back my feet from every evil way, in order to keep thy word.

I do not turn aside from thy ordinances, for thou hast taught me.

How sweet are thy words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Psalm 119: 89–105
Thirty minutes to speak about the most important book in the world is nothing. So as I prepared to speak to you about the Bible, I asked myself, “What do you hope to accomplish with this session?” I came to the conclusion that I could teach you very little about the Bible in such a short time. So I set out with two objectives:

1. To give you a starting point so that you would feel comfortable picking up the Bible and beginning to read it.
2. To give you an appetite for reading the Bible.

So, I want to encourage you to get yourself a good Bible and make reading it a part of your day. When you go looking for a Bible, remember, not all Bibles are the same—so get yourself a good Catholic Bible. The Catholic Bible has seventy-three books, but many other Christian Bibles have removed books and those Bibles usually contain only sixty-six. Visit DynamicCatholic.com and we will help you find a good Catholic Bible.

If you really want to surprise your parents, ask them to get you a Bible as an early Confirmation gift.

Last week I was speaking to my friend Brian in San Diego, and he was talking about his Bible. He has had it for years, reads from it every day, and it is well worn. Something he said to me struck me particularly: “You need a good Bible to do life with.”

Here’s my challenge: Wear out a Bible in your lifetime. Get a really good one, and wear it out with prayer and reflection.

Dozens of voices are influencing you and the direction of your life every day. But how often do we pause and allow God to speak into our lives? Reading the Bible for a few minutes each day is a great way to allow the voice of God to speak into the situations and circumstances we are dealing with.

If I were going to spend the rest of my life on a deserted island and I could only take one book with me, I would take the Bible. I hope in time you will come to feel the same way.

The Bible is a map and an instruction manual, but it is also an invitation to get to know God and his Church. Will you accept the invitation to get to know God? Or will you reject it? What role are you going to allow the Bible to play in your life?

You get to decide.

Get yourself a Bible. Take a few minutes each day to read it. I’m telling you, it will change your life in the most incredible ways.
ACROSS
1. The twenty-seven books of the Bible that tell the story of the life of Jesus and his followers and include the Gospels, Catholic Letters, Acts of the Apostles, and Letters of Saint Paul
4. A picture or chart used to find one’s way that shows rivers, mountains, streets, etc.
6. A pattern of behavior that is acquired through frequent repetition
10. A thorough or dramatic change
14. A spiritual journey to a holy place

DOWN
2. The course or path in which someone is moving
3. The teachings that have been handed down from the apostles to their successors
5. The first of Saint Paul’s Letters
7. God reveals himself to us in two ways, through Sacred ______ and through Sacred Tradition.
8. The first forty-six books of the Bible
9. What God wants us all to experience after we die
11. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
12. Every day you make thousands of______.
13. The Word of God
Lord of all pots and pans and things, since I’ve no time to be a great saint by doing lovely things, or watching late with thee, or dreaming in the dawnlight, or storming heaven’s gates, make me a saint by getting meals, and washing up the plates. Warm all the kitchen with thy Love, and light it with thy peace; forgive me all my worrying, and make my grumbling cease. Thou who didst love to give men food, in room, or by the sea, accept the service that I do, I do it unto thee. Amen.

Brøther Lawrence
6. RELATIONSHIPS

My father died of cancer when I was thirty. It was very painful, but I have many great memories of him. He was a wise and patient man who always had practical insights into the situations of my life. I often find myself thinking about some of the unforgettable conversations we had. One of those conversations was about friendship.

One Saturday we were watching one of my brothers play soccer, and the stands were quite empty. Dad asked me how things were going at school and I was telling him about some problems I was having with a friend.

I remember as if it happened yesterday: He turned to me, held up his hand, stretched out his fingers, and said, “Matthew, true friendship is rare. Much rarer than most people think. If you find five true friends in this life you will be a very blessed man.”

At the time I thought to myself, “Five! I’ve got tons of friends.” But as time has passed, life has revealed the wisdom in my father’s words. True friendship is incredibly rare.

We all need a few great friends to do life with. We need friends who will challenge us when we need to be challenged, encourage us when we need to be encouraged, and be genuinely happy for us when we succeed. We all need a handful of friends who can help us to become the-best-version-of-our-selves.

Finding that handful of friends is not just going to happen. It requires patience, self-control, trust, and some great decisions. God wants to help you to develop fabulous relationships.

The truth is, a great deal of your happiness and a great deal of your misery in this life will probably come from relationships—so it is important to get this right!

6.1 Purpose

Developing great relationships is like constructing a great building.

The first stage is design, and design is driven by purpose. The best warehouse in the world would not serve very well as a family home, and the best family home in the world would not serve very well as a warehouse.

Everything has a purpose. If you want to succeed at something, the first thing you need to get really clear about is purpose. The purpose of golf is to shoot your lowest possible score, the purpose of football is to score more points than the other team, the purpose of business is to be profitable by adding value to your customers’ lives so that they will continue to purchase your products and services, and the ultimate purpose of life is to get to Heaven.

But what is the purpose of relationships?

The sad thing is, too many people never really explore this question. As a result, when we look around society today we don’t see too many dynamic and healthy relationships.

Lots of people think the purpose of relationships is just to have fun. Relationships should be fun, but they are not going to be fun all the time, and fun is not the main purpose. If you think it is, you will fail in relationships.

So, what is the purpose of relationships?

To answer this question, we must first revisit the purpose of life.

We have already spoken about God’s dream for us to become the-best-version-of-ourselves. Everything makes sense in relation to God’s dream for us—including relationships. In our discussion of the Bible we talked about being pilgrims. This world is not our final destination; we are just passing through here. We have talked time and time again about God’s overwhelming desire for a relationship with us. God wants us to walk with him in this life and be with him for eternity in Heaven.

God gives us relationships to help us become the-best-version-of-ourselves. He gives us relationships so that we can help each other get to Heaven.

My number one job in my marriage is to help my wife Meggie get to Heaven. My number one job as a parent is to help my kids to know and love God and get to Heaven. My number one job as a friend is to help my friends get to Heaven. My number one job here, right now, is to help you get to Heaven. So each day I encourage my wife, my children, and my friends to become a better-version-of-themselves. Why? Because it is impossible to grow in virtue and character and not draw nearer to God. It is impossible to become a better-version-of-yourself and not be one step closer to Heaven.

The purpose of every relationship is two people helping each other become the-best-version-of-themselves. It doesn’t matter if a relationship is between husband and wife, boyfriend and girlfriend, brother and sister, parents and children, manager and employee, coach and player, teacher and student. The purpose of every relationship is to help each other become the-best-version-of-yourself. I am here to help you become the-best-version-of-yourself, and you are here to help me become the-best-version-of-myself.
The world says that the secret to having great relationships is common interests. Common interests are good, but they are not the key to great relationships. Your interests ten years from now will most likely be very different from your interests today. Throughout our lives our interests are constantly changing and evolving. And if you build a relationship on common interests, if you make common interests the most important thing, and your interests change—the relationship will change. And it will very often fall apart.

Purpose matters. The foundation you choose to build your relationships upon matters. Think about the story from Matthew’s Gospel. Jesus said:

“Everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock. And every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it.” (Matthew 7:24–27)

Fun is great, but it is not enough. Common interests are fabulous, but they are not enough. Building relationships upon fun or common interests is like building a house on sand. Great relationships need common purpose. Building relationships upon the common purpose of helping each other become the best-version-of-ourselves is like building a house on rock.

If you want to build your relationships on sand, choose your friends based on whether or not they are good-looking, fun, athletic, rich, and popular. If you want to build your relationships on rock, choose friends of good character, who are striving for virtue, who help you become the best-version-of-yourself, and lead you closer to God.

The more closely we align ourselves with the purpose of anything, the more success we will have. Relationships have a purpose. God gives us relationships to help us become the best-version-of-ourselves.

The beautiful thing about the purpose of relationships is that it is unchanging. Like the rock that the wise man built his house on, common purpose is a solid foundation to build your relationships upon. Many things may change in your life over the next month, year, or decade, but the purpose of relationships will not.

Are you ready to start building your relationships on a solid foundation?

Matthew 7:24–27

KNOW IT: There is a difference between the wise and the foolish.

THINK ABOUT IT: Are you building your life on a solid foundation like the wise man?

LIVE IT: What one thing can you do each day to strengthen the foundation you are building your life upon?

1. WHO ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT PEOPLE IN YOUR LIFE? WHY?

2. WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF RELATIONSHIPS?

3. WHAT ARE YOU PRETENDING NOT TO KNOW ABOUT YOUR APPROACH TO RELATIONSHIPS?
Nothing is more practical than finding God, than falling in Love in a quite absolute, final way. What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you do with your evenings, how you spend your weekends, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything.
6.2 Choose your friends wisely

Many of the most important decisions you will make in your life will be around relationships. Here are five examples:

1. FRIENDS. The friends you choose to surround yourself with now and throughout your life will have an enormous impact. Sooner or later, we all rise or fall to the level of our friendships. If your friends take their studies seriously, chances are you will too. If your friends get into drugs and alcohol, chances are you will also. If your friends waste endless hours sitting around playing video games, chances are you will too. Friends are a powerful habit, for better or for worse. Are your friends helping you become the best-version-of-yourself? Are you helping them to become the best-version-of-themselves?

You are going to make a lot of friendship decisions throughout your life. Get into the habit now of asking the Holy Spirit to guide your friendship decisions.

2. PARENTS. Your relationship with your parents is a central relationship in your life. It is now, and it always will be. My dad has been dead for ten years, and there are still days when I think to myself, “I should call Dad and tell him that . . .” and then I catch myself and remember he is not with us anymore. A week does not pass when I don’t think about my dad and how he would advise me in a situation. Whether they are alive or not, whether you live with them or not, your bond with your parents is powerful.

This relationship is so important that it is the first human relationship to be mentioned in the Ten Commandments. The fourth commandment is: Honor your father and your mother. I heard a great story a couple of weeks ago that made me realize how powerfully and practically God uses his commandments to lead us to happiness and the fullness of life he desires for us.

Caitlin was fifteen years old when her parents thought it would be a good idea for her to go on a mission trip to serve the hungry and the homeless. She didn’t want to go and didn’t want to hear why her parents thought she should. Finally, her parents came to her one night and said, “We have prayed about it and we have a strong sense that you should go on this mission trip.” That Saturday as they put her on the bus she was sobbing in anger because they were making her go. A week later, when she got back, she was happier than her parents had ever seen her. Her eyes had been opened to how difficult life is for so many, but she had also met Scott. Caitlin and Scott dated all through high school, all through college, and just three weeks ago, they got married. Her parents had a strong sense that Caitlin should be on that trip because God was inspiring them to send her.

3. MARRIAGE. Some of you will become priests or enter religious life, but most of you will get married. Whom you decide to marry will have an enormous impact on your life and happiness. What criteria will you use to make that decision? Looks? Personality? Character? Looks matter to a certain extent. It is important that you be attracted to the person you marry. Personality matters more. But character matters most. Is this person committed to growing in godly character? Are you committed to growing in godly character? If not, then the truth is, sooner or later your marriage will most likely find itself in a very difficult place.

Marriage is a beautiful thing. It really is, and I didn’t fully understand that until I was married. But marrying the right person for the right reasons is critical. Marriage may seem like something in the very distant future for you, but what I want you to know now is that the decisions you are making around relationships today will affect your marriage, no matter how far it is in the future.

4. COMMUNITY. We all need people to do life with—friends, family, and community to encourage us and challenge us. When we are young we find ourselves involved in various communities—school, parish, sports, and neighborhood. But as we get older we have to actively seek out community. Part of the genius of Catholicism is the parish community. Parish life provides a natural and powerful opportunity for us to encourage, challenge, and support each other.

I’m not going to lie to you. Some parish communities are better than others. But I want to encourage you to get involved in your parish more each year. Join the youth group, become a reader or a Eucharistic Minister, or get involved in any of the many groups and ministries that make up your parish community. You might say, “The youth group is lame at our parish!” Maybe it is. So do something about it. Get involved and make it better. It is easy to criticize from the sidelines.

Don’t ask what your parish can do for you; ask what you can do for your parish. It is through service and sacrifice that we are very often led to the beautiful plan God has for our lives.

5. GOD. I put your relationship with God last on the list, but it is the most important. Unless you make your relationship with God a priority, your chances of getting the other relationship decisions right are next to zero.

Caitlin was resistant to her parents’ guidance. Little did she know that God was working through them.

God works in powerful ways through his commandments. So next time your parents ask you to do something, or encourage you to consider something, you may want to politely and humbly say yes.

Are you striving for goodness?
How do you feel when you behave in ways that are good, virtuous, and morally excellent?
Who is one person in your life that models goodness for you?
The Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - is the most dynamic relationship, and your relationship with God will have an enormous influence on every other relationship in your life.

Every yearning you have for good things is in some way a yearning for God. Your longing for relationship is a yearning for God. God is relationship. So, no wonder you yearn for relationships so much.

Throughout your life you are going to make lots of relationship decisions. You are already making dozens every day. Are you making good relationship decisions? What can you do to make better relationship decisions? Do you understand how some of the decisions you make today will impact your life in the future?

There is a great Scripture I want to invite you to reflect upon today. When we really think about what it takes to have great relationships, it can be overwhelming. In John’s Gospel, Jesus says, “the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. . .” (John 14:26) The Holy Spirit will teach you everything . . . including how to have great relationships.

Open yourself up to the Holy Spirit’s guidance. Try it. Don’t take my word for it. At least once a day for the next week, pray to the Holy Spirit and ask him to guide you in a specific situation. Follow your conscience and the guidance of the Holy Spirit and you will notice that you are less anxious and more joyful.

This Catholic stuff really works. It’s real. It’s true. It’s just that most people have never really given it a chance in their life. Give the genius of Catholicism a chance in your life. You will be glad you did.

The Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - is the most dynamic relationship, and your relationship with God will have an enormous influence on every other relationship in your life.

Every yearning you have for good things is in some way a yearning for God. Your longing for relationship is a yearning for God. God is relationship. So, no wonder you yearn for relationships so much.

Throughout your life you are going to make lots of relationship decisions. You are already making dozens every day. Are you making good relationship decisions? What can you do to make better relationship decisions? Do you understand how some of the decisions you make today will impact your life in the future?

There is a great Scripture I want to invite you to reflect upon today. When we really think about what it takes to have great relationships, it can be overwhelming. In John’s Gospel, Jesus says, “the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. . .” (John 14:26) The Holy Spirit will teach you everything . . . including how to have great relationships.

Open yourself up to the Holy Spirit’s guidance. Try it. Don’t take my word for it. At least once a day for the next week, pray to the Holy Spirit and ask him to guide you in a specific situation. Follow your conscience and the guidance of the Holy Spirit and you will notice that you are less anxious and more joyful.

This Catholic stuff really works. It’s real. It’s true. It’s just that most people have never really given it a chance in their life. Give the genius of Catholicism a chance in your life. You will be glad you did.

1. WHAT’S THE BEST FRIENDSHIP DECISION YOU HAVE MADE IN THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS?

2. HOW DO YOU FEEL GOD IS CALLING YOU TO IMPROVE YOUR RELATIONSHIPS WITH YOUR PARENTS?

3. ARE YOUR FRIENDS HELPING YOU TO BECOME THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-YOURSELF? ARE YOU HELPING THEM TO BECOME THE-BEST-VERSION-OF-THEMSELVES?
To thee, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

1 O my God, in thee I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

2 Yea, let none that wait for thee be put to shame; let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

3 Make me to know thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me, for thou art the God of my salvation; for thee I wait all the day long.

5 Be mindful of thy mercy, O Lord, and of thy steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

6 Remember not the sins of my youth, or my transgressions; according to thy steadfast love remember me, for thy goodness’ sake. O Lord!

7 Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.

8 He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

10 For thy name’s sake, O Lord, pardon my guilt, for it is great.

11 Who is the man that fears the Lord? Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose.

12 He himself shall abide in prosperity, and his children shall possess the land.

13 The friendship of the Lord is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant.

14 My eyes are ever toward the Lord, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn thou to me, and be gracious to me; for I am lonely and afflicted.

16 Relieve the troubles of my heart, and bring me out of my distresses.

17 Consider my affliction and my trouble, and forgive all my sins.

18 Consider how many are my foes, and with what violent hatred they hate me.

19 Oh guard my life, and deliver me; let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in thee.

20 May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for thee.

21 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.
What is love? It is one of life's biggest questions. We all yearn for opportunities to love and be loved. Love matters. Whom and what you decide to love matters.

“What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you do with your evenings, how you spend your weekends, what you read, whom you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything.” These are the words of Father Pedro Arrupe (1907–1991). Whom and what you decide to love is going to have an enormous impact on your life. So let’s take a look at what love is and is not.

One of the most beautiful passages in the Bible is in the First Letter of John, Chapter 4:7–21. From this passage we get one of the most quoted phrases of all time: “God is love.” These three words are usually quoted on their own. But the whole verse reads, “Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.” If you read this carefully you discover that God gives us a fabulous clue right here.

John tells us that people who don’t love don’t know God. He implies that if they knew God they would love. Which tells us that getting to know God is the best way to learn how to love. So, what does God teach us about love?

The most quoted verse in the Bible is John 3:16. At baseball games and football games, you will often see someone holding up a sign that says JOHN 3:16. That verse reads, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.” This is the love of God the Father.

Then, there is the love of the Son. What does Jesus teach us about love? The first thing he teaches us is the position love has in the whole scheme of things. When he was asked, “Which is the greatest of the commandments?” he replied, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and all your soul, and all your mind.” This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like it: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” (Matthew 22:36–39) Love is the most important thing.

Jesus also teaches that the essence of love is self-donation: “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15:13) He teaches us further that love is not words, but action, by laying down his life for us on the cross. He backs up his words with action. Jesus doesn’t just talk about love; he models it for us. Love is selfless.

Finally, he instructs us on how we should love: “This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.” (John 15:12) Notice Jesus didn’t say, “This is my suggestion to you . . . .” It wasn’t a suggestion; it was a command. He commands us to love one another in the same way he loves us—that is, by laying down our lives for each other. But it is important to point out that he didn’t lay down his life so that we could have more of our selfish desires and worldly pleasure; Jesus laid down his life so that we could have eternal life. In the same way, he wants us to lay down our lives for others in ways that lead them to eternal life. You will come across many people in your life who want you to make sacrifices so that they can have more of their selfish desires and worldly pleasure. That’s not love. That’s manipulation.

God’s vision of love is beautiful, selfless, and radical. By contrast, the world’s vision of love places a disproportionate focus on physical pleasure and having fun. God’s vision of love is others-focused selflessness; the world’s vision of love is me-focused selfishness.

More than anything, the world tells us that love is a feeling. God tells us that love is a choice. In my marriage there are times when I feel overwhelmingly in love with my wife, but there are also times when I don’t feel that way. It’s when I don’t have those fabulous feelings that I really prove my love for Meggie. It is in those moments when I don’t have those fabulous feelings that I choose to love her. Love is a choice, not a feeling – and it’s a choice that proves itself with action. Feelings are fleeting, while love lives on.

Love rearranges our priorities. It shows us what really matters, and in the process, banishes selfishness.

The world pretends that love is a mutual giving and taking. But that is not love. In love there are times when I feel overwhelming love for my wife, but there are also times when I don’t feel that way. When he was there. He loved it. He could look across its silver surface when He spoke His parables. And on a rolling plain not far away He fed five thousand people.

There are two seas in Palestine. One is fresh, and fish are in it. Splashes of green adorn its banks. Trees spread their branches over it and stretch out their thirsty roots to sip of its healing waters. Along its shores the children play, as children played when He was there. He loved it. He could look across its silver surface when He spoke His parables. And on a rolling plain not far away He fed five thousand people.

The River Jordan makes this sea with sparkling water from the hills. So it laughs in the sunshine. And men build their houses near to it, and birds their nests; and every kind of life is happier because it is there.

—Christopher Robin to Pooh
1. WHAT DID YOU LEARN ABOUT LOVE IN THIS SESSION?

2. WHO MODELS SELFLESS LOVE IN YOUR LIFE?

3. HOW DOES YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD INFLUENCE YOUR RELATIONSHIPS WITH OTHER PEOPLE?

AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD AND THE LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME. AMEN.
What does the Bible say about friendship?

LOOK IT UP!

John 15:12-15

Proverbs 13:20

1 Corinthians 15:33

Luke 6:31

Romans 12:10

Ephesians 4:29-32

Proverbs 22:24-25

---

6.4 Your Quest for LOVE

We are all on a quest for love. We have a deep yearning to love and be loved. So what should you be looking for when it comes to love? How will you know if someone really loves you? What is the evidence of love?

The first thing we need to be clear about is that there are different types of love. There is the love we have for all men and women of goodwill. There is the love of friendship. There is romantic love. And there is agape, unconditional love.

During adolescence and early adult life, we tend to focus on romantic love. So, let’s explore what it really means to love someone.

First, at the most basic and natural level, love desires what is best for the other person. You cannot want someone to do something that prevents her from becoming the-best-version-of-herself and at the same time claim that you love her. Love desires what is good for the other person. Along with this desire for what is best for the other person also comes the desire to share every good thing we have with that person.

Next, on a very human and practical level, love is a willingness to inconvenience yourself for another person. This does not mean that we should constantly inconvenience ourselves for those we love, but from time to time this is called for. Is this person willing to inconvenience himself for you? This could be something as simple as going to a Chinese restaurant when he really wanted to eat Mexican food, or as significant as caring for you when you are sick and cannot take care of yourself.

Then there is the love that Paul describes in Corinthians: “Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.” (1 Corinthians 13:4–7) If you are looking for love, this is what you should be looking for. Ask yourself: Could I put this person into this passage?

Jose is patient; Jose is kind; Jose is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.

—or—

Samantha does not insist on her own way; Samantha is not irritable or resentful; Samantha does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.

And even more important, can you place yourself in this passage? Replace every reference to love with your name. Does it ring true or do you have some work to do?

Finally, in your quest for romantic love, reflect on this line from the Scriptures: “Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.” (Ephesians 5:25)

Gentlemen, in marriage we are called to love our wives as Christ loved the Church. We are called to lay down our lives in sacrifice for them. Every day there are times in my marriage when I have to choose between being selfish and laying down my life for my wife and children.

Ladies, when it comes time to find a man to spend your life with, this is the caliber of man you should be looking for—one who loves you so much that he is willing to lay down his life for you the way Jesus did, one who is capable of selflessness.

Today’s culture takes the trivial things and makes them important, and then takes the important things and makes them trivial. Start focusing on the important things. You are not too young to really start thinking about life’s big questions. The sooner you do, the better. Most people don’t start thinking about these questions until after they have made all of life’s big decisions. Start exploring these big questions now, and allow the answers you find to direct the big decisions you will make in your life.

Love is important. You are right to make a big deal of it. It is a big deal.

But we tend to focus on the wrong things in our quest for love. Allow God to guide you in your relationships. Pause from time to time to ask yourself: Are these people helping me become the-best-version-of-myself? Am I helping them to become the-best-version-of-themselves? If the answer is no, do something about it.

Anyone or anything that doesn’t help you become the-best-version-of-yourself is too small for you. And anything you do that doesn’t help other people become the-best-version-of-themselves is too small for you too.

What can we learn about love from Mary?
1. IN WHAT WAYS HAVE YOU GONE LOOKING FOR LOVE IN THE WRONG PLACES?

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
1. WHO OR WHAT ARE YOU WILLING TO LAY DOWN YOUR LIFE FOR?

2. WHO LOVE YOU IN THE WAY GOD ENVISIONS LOVE?

3. HOW IS GOD CALLING YOU TO LOVE YOURSELF DIFFERENTLY SO THAT YOU CAN LOVE OTHERS MORE FULLY?
ACROSS

1. The Creator of Heaven and earth
3. Mutual affection between two or more people
4. A commitment between a man and a woman by which they become husband and wife
6. The prosperity of plentiful and overflowing goodness
8. Like houses, relationships need to be built upon a solid ______.
11. Choose your friends ______.
13. God’s vision of ____ is beautiful, selfless, and radical.
15. A group of people who share common attitudes, interests, and goals

DOWN

2. The reason for which something exists
5. Love is a _____, not a feeling.
7. Love rearranges our ______.
9. The only apostle recorded as being at the foot of the cross with Mary
10. There are two ___ in Palestine.
12. God gives us _____________ so that we can help each other get to Heaven.
14. Relationships are not just about having ____.
16. Concerned more with the needs and wishes of others than with one’s own
My Lord and my God, I firmly believe that you are present in the Eucharist. Take the blindness from my eyes, so that I can see all people and things as you see them. Take the deafness from my ears, so that I can hear your truth and follow it. Take the hardness from my heart, so that I can live and love generously. Give me the grace to receive the Eucharist with humility, so that you can transform me a little more each day into the person you created me to be. Amen.
7. THE EUCHARIST

For most of Jesus’ public life people crowded around him. If he was teaching in the synagogue, they crowded around him. If he was walking in the street, they crowded around him. If he was having a meal in a home, they crowded around him.

But there were two times when people fled from Jesus.

The obvious one was after his arrest and crucifixion. Where were all the crowds that had followed him? Where were all the people who witnessed his miracles? Where were all the people he had cured and fed? Nowhere to be found.

The other time people fled from Jesus was when he spoke to them about the Eucharist. He said, “I am the bread of life. . . . Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.” (John 6:48, 53)

Immediately after this, we read in the Gospel: “When many of his disciples heard it, they said, ‘This is a difficult teaching; who can accept it?’” (John 6:60) And a few lines later we read, “After this, many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.” (John 6:66)

Notice Jesus didn’t say, “Oh, come back. I was only kidding. Let’s talk about it. Maybe I was wrong. Perhaps we can change this teaching. We can work something out.” No, he turned to his disciples, just as he turns to you and me today, and said, “Do you also wish to leave me?”

Will you flee from Jesus or remain by his side?

The Eucharist is at the core of our faith. Let’s explore what it is and what it means to you.

7.1 THE ONE THING

There are a lot of things I love about being Catholic, but at the top of the list is the Eucharist. Most people have never really stopped to think about it, but the Eucharist is amazing.

I was asked once: What would have to happen for you to leave the Catholic Church? I thought about the question for a long time. I combed through the lowest moments in Catholic history, testing each to see if one of them would have been the breaking point that made me leave. But after thinking it through I decided I could never leave the Catholic Church. The reason is because I believe that Jesus is truly present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—in the Eucharist. Where else can I get the Eucharist?

Sure, some other churches might have better music, but in the whole scheme of things music is trivial compared to the Eucharist. Other churches might have more engaging preachers, but these are trivial compared to the Eucharist. When we go to Mass on Sunday the danger is in thinking that the music and the homily are the most important things. Don’t take the trivial and make it important. That’s the way of the world. Get clear about what’s really important, what matters most, and life will be a lot simpler and more joyful.

At Mass on Sunday, the homily could be in a language I don’t understand, the music could be a complete train wreck, there could be kids running up and down the aisles screaming at the top of their lungs, throwing crayons and eating snacks (or eating crayons and throwing snacks), and that’s OK—because the moment when I receive the Eucharist is a pivotal moment in my week. It’s a moment of transformation, a moment when I get to receive who and what I wish to become. And I could never leave that. It doesn’t matter how good the music or preaching is elsewhere; I cannot leave the Eucharist. I will not leave Jesus. I hope you won’t either.

When I reflect on the gift of faith I have been given, I am led to the conclusion that once we believe in the Eucharist we are given the grace to look beyond a bad homily and the grace to look beyond a good homily; the grace to look beyond uninspiring music and the grace to look beyond music that elevates our hearts, minds, and souls. For it is beyond all of these things, way beyond all of these things, that we find Jesus in the Eucharist.

This sets the Catholic Church apart: Jesus truly present in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is uniquely Catholic.

Let me ask you a question. If you had to spend the rest of your life on a deserted island, and you could only take five people with you, whom would you take?

I can tell you a priest would be on my list of five people. No priest, no Mass, no Eucharist. I can’t live without the Eucharist. More important, I don’t want to. And once you come to understand the power of the Eucharist, you won’t want to either.

I was born Catholic and I will die Catholic. There are lots of reasons for that, but none more compelling than the Eucharist.
1. What is your favorite thing about being Catholic?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. Which of Jesus’ teachings do you find most difficult to live?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. If you had to spend the rest of your life on a desert island and you could only take five people with you, whom would you take?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
7.2 the True Presence

You might be thinking to yourself, “I’m not sure if I believe that Jesus is truly present in the host I receive at Mass on Sunday.” You wouldn’t be the first person to have doubts. Great faith and great doubt often go hand in hand. There was a priest who lived in Lanciano, Italy, around the year 700, who was plagued with doubts about the true presence. . . until one day. After that day he never again doubted that Jesus was truly present in the Eucharist.

What happened on that day? I’m glad you asked.

On that day, the priest was celebrating Mass in the small church, even though he was filled with doubts about the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. As he said the Words of Consecration (“Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my body which will be given up for you.”) the bread changed into living flesh and the wine changed into blood, before his eyes.

Today, you can go to Lanciano and see the flesh and blood that has remained there for more than thirteen hundred years. The flesh and blood have been studied by scientists on a number of occasions, and the following conclusions have been drawn: The flesh is real human flesh and the blood is real human blood, the flesh is muscular tissue from the heart, and there is no evidence of preservatives or any other chemical agents present.

This is one of thousands of Eucharistic miracles that have been documented throughout the life of the Church.

At the Last Supper Jesus “took the bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’” (Luke 22:19) We take Jesus at his word. At Mass on Sunday the priest extends his hands over simple bread and wine and asks the Holy Spirit to transform them into the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

If the Holy Spirit can do that to bread and wine, imagine what he can do with you if you open yourself up to the experience of Confirmation.

You are not just a body. You are a delicate composition of body and soul. If you haven’t already, one day you will discover you need to feed your soul in order to live a full and happy life. And when that day comes I want you to remember today, because there is no better way to feed your soul than with the Eucharist.

The Eucharist is astonishing. God himself wants to nourish us. God himself wants to feed us spiritually. God wants to dwell in you.

Some people say that the bread and wine are just a symbol of Jesus’ body and blood, but that is not what we believe as Catholics. And the evidence found in Divine Revelation suggests that it is not just a symbol. The Scriptures don’t suggest the symbol. Jesus didn’t say, “Unless you eat a symbol of my flesh and drink a symbol of my blood you will not have life.” And remember there are two aspects of Divine Revelation: Scripture and Tradition. And from the earliest times, Christians have believed that the Eucharist was the body and blood of the Risen Jesus, and not just a symbol.

Can I prove it to you scientifically? No. Not everything can be explained or proven scientifically. If you could prove everything scientifically, there would be no need for faith. There is such a thing as mystery. We human beings don’t know everything. If we did we would be God, and there is plenty of evidence in our daily lives that confirms that human beings are not God. Life is full of mystery, and mystery is a beautiful thing.

At the heart of the mystery that is the Catholic faith is the Eucharist. I hope with every passing year of your life you will explore and embrace the mystery of the Eucharist more.

The wiser you become, the closer you will want to be to God. And God wants to be close to us. Saint Francis de Sales wrote, “In the Eucharist we become one with God.” To be one with God is a beautiful thing, and whether you are aware of it or not, it is your deepest yearning. You have an insatiable yearning to be one with God. I hope you will start listening to that yearning.

If you want to have a life-changing experience, find an Adoration Chapel in your area and visit it. Sit there in Jesus’ presence for one hour. You will be amazed how powerful Jesus’ presence is, and how much he will teach you about yourself and your life in one hour.

The Eucharist is astonishing. God himself wants to nourish us. God himself wants to feed us spiritually. God wants to dwell in you.

Some people say that the bread and wine are just a symbol of Jesus’ body and blood, but that is not what we believe as Catholics. And the evidence found in Divine Revelation suggests that it is not just a symbol. The Scriptures don’t suggest the symbol. Jesus didn’t say, “Unless you eat a symbol of my flesh and drink a symbol of my blood you will not have life.” And remember there are two aspects of Divine Revelation: Scripture and Tradition. And from the earliest times, Christians have believed that the Eucharist was the body and blood of the Risen Jesus, and not just a symbol.

Can I prove it to you scientifically? No. Not everything can be explained or proven scientifically. If you could prove everything scientifically, there would be no need for faith. There is such a thing as mystery. We human beings don’t know everything. If we did we would be God, and there is plenty of evidence in our daily lives that confirms that human beings are not God. Life is full of mystery, and mystery is a beautiful thing.

At the heart of the mystery that is the Catholic faith is the Eucharist. I hope with every passing year of your life you will explore and embrace the mystery of the Eucharist more.

The wiser you become, the closer you will want to be to God. And God wants to be close to us. Saint Francis de Sales wrote, “In the Eucharist we become one with God.” To be one with God is a beautiful thing, and whether you are aware of it or not, it is your deepest yearning. You have an insatiable yearning to be one with God. I hope you will start listening to that yearning.

If you want to have a life-changing experience, find an Adoration Chapel in your area and visit it. Sit there in Jesus’ presence for one hour. You will be amazed how powerful Jesus’ presence is, and how much he will teach you about yourself and your life in one hour.

The Eucharist is astonishing. God himself wants to nourish us. God himself wants to feed us spiritually. God wants to dwell in you.

Some people say that the bread and wine are just a symbol of Jesus’ body and blood, but that is not what we believe as Catholics. And the evidence found in Divine Revelation suggests that it is not just a symbol. The Scriptures don’t suggest the symbol. Jesus didn’t say, “Unless you eat a symbol of my flesh and drink a symbol of my blood you will not have life.” And remember there are two aspects of Divine Revelation: Scripture and Tradition. And from the earliest times, Christians have believed that the Eucharist was the body and blood of the Risen Jesus, and not just a symbol.

Can I prove it to you scientifically? No. Not everything can be explained or proven scientifically. If you could prove everything scientifically, there would be no need for faith. There is such a thing as mystery. We human beings don’t know everything. If we did we would be God, and there is plenty of evidence in our daily lives that confirms that human beings are not God. Life is full of mystery, and mystery is a beautiful thing.

At the heart of the mystery that is the Catholic faith is the Eucharist. I hope with every passing year of your life you will explore and embrace the mystery of the Eucharist more.

The wiser you become, the closer you will want to be to God. And God wants to be close to us. Saint Francis de Sales wrote, “In the Eucharist we become one with God.” To be one with God is a beautiful thing, and whether you are aware of it or not, it is your deepest yearning. You have an insatiable yearning to be one with God. I hope you will start listening to that yearning.

If you want to have a life-changing experience, find an Adoration Chapel in your area and visit it. Sit there in Jesus’ presence for one hour. You will be amazed how powerful Jesus’ presence is, and how much he will teach you about yourself and your life in one hour.

The Eucharist is astonishing. God himself wants to nourish us. God himself wants to feed us spiritually. God wants to dwell in you.

Some people say that the bread and wine are just a symbol of Jesus’ body and blood, but that is not what we believe as Catholics. And the evidence found in Divine Revelation suggests that it is not just a symbol. The Scriptures don’t suggest the symbol. Jesus didn’t say, “Unless you eat a symbol of my flesh and drink a symbol of my blood you will not have life.” And remember there are two aspects of Divine Revelation: Scripture and Tradition. And from the earliest times, Christians have believed that the Eucharist was the body and blood of the Risen Jesus, and not just a symbol.

Can I prove it to you scientifically? No. Not everything can be explained or proven scientifically. If you could prove everything scientifically, there would be no need for faith. There is such a thing as mystery. We human beings don’t know everything. If we did we would be God, and there is plenty of evidence in our daily lives that confirms that human beings are not God. Life is full of mystery, and mystery is a beautiful thing.

At the heart of the mystery that is the Catholic faith is the Eucharist. I hope with every passing year of your life you will explore and embrace the mystery of the Eucharist more.

The wiser you become, the closer you will want to be to God. And God wants to be close to us. Saint Francis de Sales wrote, “In the Eucharist we become one with God.” To be one with God is a beautiful thing, and whether you are aware of it or not, it is your deepest yearning. You have an insatiable yearning to be one with God. I hope you will start listening to that yearning.

If you want to have a life-changing experience, find an Adoration Chapel in your area and visit it. Sit there in Jesus’ presence for one hour. You will be amazed how powerful Jesus’ presence is, and how much he will teach you about yourself and your life in one hour.

The Eucharist is astonishing. God himself wants to nourish us. God himself wants to feed us spiritually. God wants to dwell in you.

Some people say that the bread and wine are just a symbol of Jesus’ body and blood, but that is not what we believe as Catholics. And the evidence found in Divine Revelation suggests that it is not just a symbol. The Scriptures don’t suggest the symbol. Jesus didn’t say, “Unless you eat a symbol of my flesh and drink a symbol of my blood you will not have life.” And remember there are two aspects of Divine Revelation: Scripture and Tradition. And from the earliest times, Christians have believed that the Eucharist was the body and blood of the Risen Jesus, and not just a symbol.

Can I prove it to you scientifically? No. Not everything can be explained or proven scientifically. If you could prove everything scientifically, there would be no need for faith. There is such a thing as mystery. We human beings don’t know everything. If we did we would be God, and there is plenty of evidence in our daily lives that confirms that human beings are not God. Life is full of mystery, and mystery is a beautiful thing.

At the heart of the mystery that is the Catholic faith is the Eucharist. I hope with every passing year of your life you will explore and embrace the mystery of the Eucharist more.

The wiser you become, the closer you will want to be to God. And God wants to be close to us. Saint Francis de Sales wrote, “In the Eucharist we become one with God.” To be one with God is a beautiful thing, and whether you are aware of it or not, it is your deepest yearning. You have an insatiable yearning to be one with God. I hope you will start listening to that yearning.

If you want to have a life-changing experience, find an Adoration Chapel in your area and visit it. Sit there in Jesus’ presence for one hour. You will be amazed how powerful Jesus’ presence is, and how much he will teach you about yourself and your life in one hour.
1. IS THERE A PERSON IN YOUR LIFE WHOSE PRESENCE JUST MAKES YOU FEEL CALM AND SAFE?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

2. WHEN DID YOU FIRST LEARN ABOUT JESUS BEING PRESENT IN THE EUCHARIST?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3. HOW DO YOU THINK YOUR LIFE WOULD CHANGE IF YOU SPENT ONE HOUR EACH WEEK SITTING QUIETLY IN JESUS’ PRESENCE?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
1. When was the last time you did something that you knew wasn’t good for you? Why did you do it if you knew it wasn’t good for you?

2. Have you ever tried to quit a bad habit and failed? If you haven’t already, the day will come when you will try to end a self-destructive habit and find yourself powerless over it. You will use all the willpower you can summon, but you will find yourself failing over and over again. These moments in life can be very humbling—and that’s good, because they make us realize our need for God and his grace.

3. When you’re in a situation and you want to do what is good and right but are attracted to the wrong choice, do you call on God and ask for his help?

Grace is the assistance God gives us to do what is good, true, noble, and right. And there is no better way to receive God’s grace than through the Eucharist.

There is a lot of talk these days about superfoods. Superfoods are high in nutrients and rich with antioxidants, and they keep your immune system strong to fight off disease. Some examples include pomegranate juice, salmon, alfalfa sprouts, sweet potatoes, kale, prunes, beets, apples, and beans.

The Eucharist is the ultimate superfood for the soul, loaded with grace to keep you spiritually healthy, give you the wisdom and strength to choose the right path, and fight off diseases like selfishness and other related vices and bad habits. And that is just a tiny fraction of the power the Eucharist holds.

When you go to Mass next Sunday, keep in mind, the Eucharist is not just a symbol. This is Jesus. The same Jesus who healed people with a touch. The same man who taught with more wisdom than any person who ever walked the earth. This is the guy who fed five thousand people with five loaves and two fishes. The same Jesus who rose from the dead.

We’ve all got problems. We all have struggles. But whatever you’ve got, he can handle. You need grace. You may not know it yet, but the sooner you realize it the better. And the Eucharist is the supreme source of the grace you need.

Isn’t it time you allowed God to unleash the power of grace in your life?
As Catholics we believe that Jesus Christ—body, blood, soul, and divinity—is truly present in the Eucharist, and as such, we believe that being in the presence of the Eucharist is powerful. Eucharistic adoration is the practice of praying in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Simply to sit quietly before Jesus in the Eucharist can be incredibly powerful and has changed many people’s lives. In the silence and in his presence great clarity begins to emerge about who we are, what we are here for, what matters most, and what matters least.

Transubstantiation is the changing of simple bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus Christ. This takes place at the consecration during Mass.

How many hours of her life do you think Mary spent in adoration of Jesus?
In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart. In the first chapter of Mark’s Gospel we read, “In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.” (Mark 1:35) If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most.

It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the great gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries—over the centuries the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.

Once again, I want to encourage you to establish the habits of daily prayer in your life. This is a foundational habit that will serve you well for the rest of your life. The sooner you start taking your spiritual life seriously, the happier you will be.

Get close to God, and stay close to God.

If you live until you are eighty-five years old, how many Sundays do you have left?

God has declared Sunday—the Sabbath day—as a day of rest.

Mark 1:35

KNOW IT: It seems that Jesus was always looking for quiet places to spend a few minutes in prayer.

THINK ABOUT IT: How hard is it for you to find a quiet place to pray each day? Is there one place that is most convenient?

LIVE IT: Renew your commitment to spending ten minutes each day in the classroom of silence.

In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart. In the first chapter of Mark’s Gospel we read, “In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.” (Mark 1:35) If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most.

It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the great gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries—over the centuries the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.

Once again, I want to encourage you to establish the habits of daily prayer in your life. This is a foundational habit that will serve you well for the rest of your life. The sooner you start taking your spiritual life seriously, the happier you will be.

Get close to God, and stay close to God.
1. If you could visit one of the beautiful churches mentioned in this section, which would you choose?

2. At this time in your life, what question would you like Jesus to answer for you? (Your question should be about something that applies directly to you.)

3. What quiet places have you found to spend a few minutes in each day?
Every Sunday morning you make a decision. It’s the biggest decision of your week. To go or not to go, that is the question.

You might say that Mass is boring. I was bored at Mass for a long time, but then something happened. I started listening to what God was trying to say to me. I got myself a little journal and took it to Mass with me, and each week I wrote down the one thing that I felt God was saying to me. I have been doing this for fifteen years now. Each year I get a new journal. At home in my study, where I write, I have these fifteen journals on a shelf. When I get writer’s block I pick one up and just start reading. Some days when I don’t feel like praying I take one of these journals and just talk to God about some of the things he has said to me over the years. It is amazing the things God will say to us when we start listening.

I hope you go to Mass every Sunday for the rest of your lives so that God can nourish you with the Eucharist, but I also hope you will start to appreciate the bigger picture.

God has declared Sunday—the Sabbath day—as a day of rest. In Genesis 2:2 we read about God resting on the seventh day. Why? Why did God rest? Was he tired? No. God is a pure spirit and as such does not experience fatigue like we human beings do. So, why did he rest? He rested because he foresaw our need for rest. He wanted to show us how to live. He wanted to demonstrate that rest is a good thing, and something that we all need.

You have a legitimate need for rest. The Sabbath is God’s response to your physical and spiritual need for rest and renewal. And nothing will renew you like receiving the Eucharist. It is literally food from Heaven.

On average you will live for another seventy years. That means you have 3,640 Sundays left. Don’t waste a single one. It may seem like a lot, but you will be amazed at how quickly life passes. It feels like six months ago I was sitting where you are preparing for Confirmation . . . but that was twenty-five years ago.

You have a lot of decisions to make. Getting yourself to Mass on Sunday and receiving the Eucharist will help you make better decisions in every area of your life.
Psalm 63

O God, thou art my God, I seek thee, my soul thirsts for thee; my flesh faints for thee, as in a dry and weary land where no water is.

So I have looked upon thee in the sanctuary, beholding thy power and glory.

Because thy steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise thee.

So I will bless thee as long as I live; I will lift up my hands and call on thy name.

My soul is feasted as with marrow and fat, and my mouth praises thee with joyful lips,

when I think of thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the watches of the night;

for thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings I sing for joy.

My soul clings to thee; thy right hand upholds me.

But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth;

they shall be given over to the power of the sword, they shall be prey for jackals.

But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall glory; for the mouths of liars will be stopped.
ACROSS
1. The changing of simple bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus Christ
4. Uncertainty about something
5. A place that houses the Eucharist outside of Mass, where it can be kept for adoration
9. Trust and confidence in God and what he has revealed to us
11. What God has revealed about himself to humanity
12. The assistance God gives us to do what is good, true, noble, and right
15. The real presence of Jesus

DOWN
2. The ability to control oneself and direct one’s actions
3. A town in Italy where a Eucharistic miracle took place around the year 700
6. One of the ways Catholics honor God and the Sabbath is by attending ____.
7. The seventh day of the week, observed as the day of rest and worship
8. Hard to do or accomplish
10. Worship with a profound love
13. An event that surpasses all human and natural powers
14. Something that is beyond human understanding

The eucharist Crossword Puzzle

Come, Holy Spirit, I invite you into the very depths of my being. Lead me, guide me, coach me, encourage me, and challenge me. Direct me in all things. Teach me to become a great decision maker, so that in every moment of every day I can choose what is good, right, noble, and just. Amen.

Matthew Kelly

SESSION EIGHT
8. THE HOLY SPIRIT

Have you ever noticed the difference between a person who is inspired and one who is not? Sometimes when you watch two teams compete in sports, you can tell one team is inspired and the other isn’t. Inspiration makes a huge difference.

For twenty years I have been working with people of all ages and from all walks of life, and one thing that I have noticed over and over again is that people don’t do anything until they are inspired, but once they are inspired there is almost nothing they cannot do.

The disciples are a perfect example. Before Pentecost they were full of fear. After Pentecost they were full of courage. What changed? They got inspired. They got filled with the Holy Spirit. Just like you are going to at Confirmation.

Think about those times in your life when you have felt inspired to do something really great. Where does that inspiration come from? The Holy Spirit. God inspires us to do great things with our lives.

Jesus didn’t leave us to face the world alone. He promised he would be with us and that he would send the Holy Spirit to guide, inspire, and encourage us. Jesus made that promise not just to the disciples, and not just to other people; it was a promise he made to you. And in Confirmation Jesus is going to make good on his promise.

So let’s take a look at who the Holy Spirit is and what he means to your life.

8.1 WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT?

One of the shortest Christian prayers is the Sign of the Cross. Sixteen words. (In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.) It’s not just the way we begin and end prayer; it is a prayer unto itself. And it contains one of the most sublime mysteries of our faith: the Trinity.

The Trinity is three Persons in one God. We don’t worship three different gods, but one single being who is threefold and yet remains one. Confusing? It should be a little confusing if we really think about it.

But to get us started, think about water. Water can take different forms: liquid, ice, or steam. It is still H2O; it is just taking different forms. Now, God does not change from one form to another at different times; God is always three and always one. Still confused? That’s OK.

You see, you cannot come to the conclusion of the Trinity by reason alone. It would not matter how much you thought about it; you would never arrive at the Trinity through reason alone. And science cannot prove or disprove the Trinity. We know about the Trinity through Revelation. If God had not chosen to reveal himself to us we would not know about the Trinity. This is one of the beautiful mysteries of our faith.

You cannot know everything through reason and science, some things we only know because God has revealed them to us. And if there were no mystery there would be no need for faith, because without mystery religion would be simply an intellectual pursuit . . . and it is so much more than that.

In the Scriptures God is revealed as the Father who creates us (Genesis 1), his Son who redeems us (Matthew 1), and the Holy Spirit who inspires us (Acts 1). The whole history we find in the Bible is the story of God’s ongoing concern for the human family, and for each of us individually as his children.

The Holy Spirit is the Third Person of the Trinity. He is the one whom Jesus promised the Father would send to guide and encourage us. When you think of it, the Holy Spirit is incredibly practical. How often in your life do you need guidance and encouragement? Whether you are aware of it or not, you need these things every day, and the Holy Spirit is within you to provide them.

But it would be a mistake to think that the Holy Spirit just came into being after Jesus died and rose from the dead. The Spirit has always been with the Father and the Son. Open your Bibles to the very beginning and you will discover the Holy Spirit in the second verse. Genesis 1:2 reads, “In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.”

But what does all this mean to you? Why should you care about the Holy Spirit?

Think about it like this. In the previous session we talked about the power of Jesus’ presence. Well, listen to what Jesus says in John 16:7: “I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away.” Now, why would it be to our advantage for Jesus to go away? Jesus continues, “For if I do not go away the Spirit will not come to you.”

How powerful must the Spirit be? Are you ready to have that power unleashed in your life? What will unleashing the Holy Spirit in your life mean to you?

The Holy Spirit will help you find and understand truth, and you will never have more happiness in your life than you have truth. The more truth you allow into your heart, mind, and soul, the happier you will be. But if you allow the truth to be crowded out with lies and deceit, you
The holy Spirit

decision point

1. In your own words, who is the holy Spirit?

2. Describe a time in your life when you felt inspired by the holy Spirit.

3. Would you like to learn how to experience joy even in the midst of great suffering like Saint Paul? What do you think his secret was?

The Holy Spirit wants to help you build a throne for truth in your heart. The Spirit of God is within you. This is good news. It means that you have a power within you that you have not even begun to comprehend.

The Holy Spirit will give you the courage to face difficult situations.

The Holy Spirit means that you are never alone. He is always with you, ready to guide you, encourage you, comfort you, and challenge you.

The Holy Spirit is a true friend who always wants what is best for you.

The Holy Spirit gives you the wisdom to know what is right and what is wrong, and leads you in the path of what is good and right.

The Holy Spirit empowers you to do things you would not otherwise be able to do.

The Holy Spirit is transformational. Think about Peter, who denied Jesus three times before his death out of selfish fear. But after Pentecost he literally risked his life just to let people know about Jesus.

The Holy Spirit doesn’t change us into someone else; he just brings the best and the most out of us.

The Holy Spirit will help you know and do God’s will.

But here is my favorite: The Holy Spirit will allow you to maintain joy even in the midst of suffering. Suffering is an inevitable part of life. It is easy to be joyful when things are going well, but the Holy Spirit brings us joy in times of suffering, and that is a thing of beauty.

Saint Paul is a perfect example here. Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon are called the “prison” epistles because they were written during Paul’s first imprisonment, mentioned in Acts 28. Throughout these writings he talks about his joy and all the things he rejoices about. When you think about the fact that he was in prison for being Christian and you consider the filthy conditions of prisons at the time, you have to ask yourself: What did he have to be joyful about?

He was joyful even in the midst of suffering because he was filled with the Holy Spirit.

All this is what the Holy Spirit wants to do for you.

I don’t know how seriously you are taking this whole Confirmation thing, but trust me, it is worth taking a little more seriously. You will never regret it. But if you don’t take it seriously, I can guarantee you there will come a time when you will regret that.

This is important stuff. I want to encourage you to take it seriously. You’ll be glad you did.

“This is a prayer we need to pray every day, every day:
Holy Spirit may my heart be open to the Word of God, may my heart be open to good, may my heart be open to the beauty of God, every day.”
—Pope Francis
The goal of our life is to live with God forever. God, who loves us, gave us life. Our own response of love allows God's life to flow into us without limit.

All the things in this world are gifts from God, presented to us so that we can know God more easily and make a return of love more readily. As a result, we appreciate and use all these gifts of God insofar as they help us to develop as loving persons. But if any of these gifts become the center of our lives, they displace God and so hinder our growth toward our goal.

In everyday life, then, we must hold ourselves in balance insofar as we have a choice and are not bound by some obligation. We should not fix our desires on health or sickness, wealth or poverty, success or failure, a long life or a short one. For everything has the potential of calling forth in us a deeper response to our life in God.

Our only desire and our one choice should be this: I want and I choose what better leads to God's deepening His life in me.

St. Ignatius of Loyola
Matthew 6:33

KNOW IT: Seek first the things of God.

THINK ABOUT IT: What are your priorities? Are they worldly priorities or godly priorities?

LIVE IT: Make God’s priorities your own today.

8.2 UNOPENED GIFTS

If God appeared to you in a vision and said, “Ask me for anything and I will give it to you,” what would you ask him for? Think about it for a moment. Would you ask for money, a long life, success in a career, victory for your favorite sports team?

This is exactly what happened to Solomon, the son of King David. Biblical scholars believe that Solomon was probably only around twelve years old when he became king. In 1 Kings 3:5–15 we read about God appearing to Solomon in a dream and asking what he would like God to give him. Solomon asked for wisdom. In particular, he wanted the wisdom to discern right from wrong, good from evil. This pleased God so much that he granted Solomon wisdom in abundance, but he also granted him riches, honor, and a long life.

Here we find a connection between how God treated Solomon and Jesus’ teachings. In Matthew 6:33 we read, “Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these other things will be given to you in addition.” This is what Solomon did, and God responded lavishly.

God is a giver of gifts.

One Christmas when I was a child, I half-unwrapped gifts to see what they were, and if the gift was not the one thing I was looking for, I wouldn’t even finish unwrapping it; I would just move on to the next parcel. I remember opening one of those half-unwrapped gifts a few days later and realizing that I had misjudged the importance and value of the gift.

At Baptism you received the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, but you may not have fully unwrapped them yet. At Confirmation these gifts will be strengthened in you; the question is, how will you respond to them?

I could put a million dollars in a bank account for you, but if you ignored it and never used it, it wouldn’t do you any good. The gifts of the Holy Spirit are worth more than many millions of dollars, but if you don’t engage them and nurture them, you will not experience all that they have to offer.

How was Mary different from Solomon?

So, what are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit?

1. Wisdom: The ability to discern what is true, right, and lasting. Wisdom enables us to see life from God’s perspective. It helps you to establish the right priorities in your life, and leads you to think and act in mature ways.

2. Understanding: Allows you to look beyond the shallowness of the world and see the lasting truth in every situation, by recognizing how God is working in our lives.

3. Counsel: The right judgment that allows us to see what is right and what is wrong, and the prudence to act accordingly.

4. Fortitude: The courage and strength of will to do what you know is right and what is wrong, and the prudence to act accordingly.

5. Knowledge: The ability to see things from a supernatural viewpoint. In particular, to know what God is asking of you.

6. Piety: A loyalty to God that manifests as generous love and affectionate obedience. This is the gift that allows you to love and worship God as he deserves to be loved and worshipped.

7. Fear of the Lord (Reverence): Helps us to grasp God’s greatness and our dependence on him. As a result, we are filled with enormous respect for God and we dread above all offending him or being separated from him. Our Jewish ancestors believed that fear of the Lord was the beginning of wisdom. Of course, it is not a fear like we usually think of fear today. It is more like an overwhelming sense of not wanting to disappoint the One who has done (and continues to do) so much for us.

These are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. When the bishop prays over you at your Confirmation, he will be praying that you are filled with them. Each of these gifts helps you to become the best-version-of-yourself and live the life God created you to live.

Every day you face situations that require these gifts. We have taken a few minutes to explore them, but I want to encourage you to delve into them more. If you don’t know what they are, you won’t use them. Knowing them is essential if you are going to activate them in your daily life.

Solomon was the son of David and King of Israel from c. 970 to 931 BC. The Bible credits Solomon with building the first temple in Jerusalem and portrays him as the wisest man of his time. Biblical scholars believe that Solomon was probably only around twelve years old when he became king.

This is exactly what happened to Solomon, the son of King David. Biblical scholars believe that Solomon was probably only around twelve years old when he became king. In 1 Kings 3:5–15 we read about God appearing to Solomon in a dream and asking what he would like God to give him. Solomon asked for wisdom. In particular, he wanted the wisdom to discern right from wrong, good from evil. This pleased God so much that he granted Solomon wisdom in abundance, but he also granted him riches, honor, and a long life.

Here we find a connection between how God treated Solomon and Jesus’ teachings. In Matthew 6:33 we read, “Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these other things will be given to you in addition.” This is what Solomon did, and God responded lavishly.

God is a giver of gifts.

One Christmas when I was a child, I half-unwrapped gifts to see what they were, and if the gift was not the one thing I was looking for, I wouldn’t even finish unwrapping it; I would just move on to the next parcel. I remember opening one of those half-unwrapped gifts a few days later and realizing that I had misjudged the importance and value of the gift.

At Baptism you received the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, but you may not have fully unwrapped them yet. At Confirmation these gifts will be strengthened in you; the question is, how will you respond to them?

I could put a million dollars in a bank account for you, but if you ignored it and never used it, it wouldn’t do you any good. The gifts of the Holy Spirit are worth more than many millions of dollars, but if you don’t engage them and nurture them, you will not experience all that they have to offer.

How was Mary different from Solomon?
1. Have you ever given someone a gift and he or she was ungrateful? How did that make you feel?

2. Which of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit do you feel most in need of at this time in your life?

3. How would your life be better if you really opened yourself up to the gifts of the Holy Spirit?
8.3 The Fruits of the Holy Spirit

How do we know if we are filled with the Holy Spirit? How will you know if you are seeking God’s loving plan for your life and responding to it? Jesus advises us that we can judge a tree by its fruits. “A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.” (Matthew 7:18) What fruit is your life bearing today? What fruit do you want your life to bear in the future? What fruit do you think God wants you to bear?

If we are really allowing the Holy Spirit to flourish within us, the fruits should be bubbling forth in our lives. Those fruits are: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.

You might not know it yet, but these are the things you want. You want these fruits more than anything else you have ever wanted. In fact, every yearning you have is for these things. We try to substitute other things for them, but it never works.

Embracing and engaging the gifts of the Holy Spirit that we spoke about earlier—wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord—is the path that leads to the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Let’s take a look at the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit.

Love: To love God above all things and to love others as God calls us to.

Joy: This is more than just being happy. It is a feeling awakened by the possession or expectation of something good. And this joy can be present deep within us even when things don’t go our way.

Peace: The serenity and tranquility that flows from order. The world can make our lives disordered and chaotic. God wants to bring order to our lives—and with that order comes a deep and abiding peace.

Patience: Enables us to endure inconvenience, difficulties, and hardship without complaint.

Kindness: Concern for others who are in trouble or in need.

Goodness: Doing what is good and right in every circumstance.

Generosity: To give freely of our time, talent, and treasure beyond what justice requires.

Gentleness: To be submissive to God and considerate of others.

Faithfulness: To be reliable and trustworthy.

Modesty: The moderation of our speech, dress, and behavior.

Self-control: The control of our desires so that we can focus them on what is good and right.

Chastity: The moderation of desire for sexual pleasure according to right reason, faith, and state in life.

If you really take the time to consider what you want from life, you will discover that a life filled with the fruit of the Holy Spirit is what you are yearning for. If you consider the opposite of each of the fruits, you will discover that they lead to a life of slavery and misery.

When we reject the fruit of the Holy Spirit we fall into a life of sin. Sin rejects God’s design for who we are and the way we should live our lives. In doing so, sin rejects order and embraces the chaos of disorder. This disorder robs us of the tranquility and peace that God desires for us. When your room is tidy and things are in the places they belong, there is a certain peace and tranquility that comes from that. If your room is a mess, with things scattered all around, the chaos of that environment robs you of peace and tranquility and creates anxiousness.

The way of God is one of peace and order. The way of sin is one of chaos and anxiousness. Which will you choose?

Who do you know who exemplifies the virtue of gentleness?

In what ways is God calling you to be gentle with others?

How is God inviting you to be gentle with yourself?

“DO NOT BE AFRAID. DO NOT BE SATISFIED WITH MEDIOCRITY. PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP AND LET DOWN YOUR NETS FOR A CATCH.”

—John Paul II
1. WHICH PERSON IN YOUR LIFE WOULD YOU LIKE TO FILL WITH JOY?

2. HOW WOULD A LACK OF SELF-CONTROL MAKE IT HARDER TO EXPERIENCE THE OTHER ELEVEN FRUITS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT?

3. CAN YOU SEE HOW GOD’S WAYS ARE DESIGNED TO BRING ORDER TO OUR LIVES AND LIBERATE US FROM WORLDLY CHAOS?
Daily prayer is an opportunity to strengthen our connection with God. The stronger the connection, the more clearly we will hear the promptings of the Holy Spirit. The more we follow those promptings, the happier we will be.

In Session 4 we practiced The Prayer Process. Have you been using it each day in your daily prayer? I hope so. It is a game changer.

The reason I bring it up again now is because it is perfectly suited to teach us to listen to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Let’s walk through it again quickly and I will explain.

You will remember there are seven parts to the Prayer Process. The first part is Gratitude.

1. GRATITUDE: Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.

Here we are asking the Holy Spirit to remind us of all the people, things, experiences, and opportunities we have to be grateful for today.

2. AWARENESS: Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the-best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.

Now we are asking the Holy Spirit to inspire us to learn from the events of the past twenty-four hours.

3. SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS: Identify something you experienced in the past twenty-four hours and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event (or person).

We don’t always recognize the signs God places in our path at the time. Here we ask the Holy Spirit to let us know if we missed any significant signs today.

4. PEACE: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.

Here the Holy Spirit enlightens us to the mistakes we have made along the way, so that we can avoid them in the future.

5. FREEDOM: Speak with God about how he is inviting you to change your life, so that you can experience the freedom to be the best-version-of-yourself.

Now the Holy Spirit challenges us and encourages us to change.

So, how do we learn to recognize the promptings of the Holy Spirit?

A great place to start is with a few minutes of prayer each day. Prayer creates a stronger connection between you and God. The stronger the connection, the clearer the message. We have all been on phone calls when the connection is horrible and you either can’t hear the other person at all, or you only get every second or third word. How is your connection with God? Is it a good, strong, clear connection? Or is it a weak and jumbled connection? How can you increase the number of bars you have in your connection with God?
6. OTHERS: Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

Here the Holy Spirit reminds us of all those who need our love, support, and encouragement.

7. Pray the Our Father.

Allowing the gifts and fruit of the Holy Spirit to animate us is an everyday job. With every choice you either embrace or reject the Holy Spirit—and the fruits and gifts he wants to fill you with.

Take a few minutes out of each day to connect with God in prayer. This will strengthen your connection with him and allow you to hear the promptings of the Holy Spirit more clearly. Listen to those promptings and you will discover something I have learned over the years: Every regret in life comes from not listening to the voice of God in our lives. You will never regret following your conscience and the promptings of the Holy Spirit. All of life’s regrets come when we ignore our conscience and the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

“LET’S ASK OURSELVES: ARE WE OPEN TO THE HOLY SPIRIT?”
—POPE FRANCIS

What is Pentecost?

Pentecost is the feast commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles of Jesus as described in Acts of the Apostles 2:1–31. For this reason Pentecost is referred to as the Birthday of the Church.

1. IF YOU WERE GOING TO GO ON A PILGRIMAGE AND WALK THE CAMINO, WHOM WOULD YOU TAKE WITH YOU? WHY?

2. WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU FELT THE HOLY SPIRIT PROMPTING YOU TO DO SOMETHING? OR NOT TO DO SOMETHING?

3. WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE PART OF THE PRAYER PROCESS? WHY?
Psalm 139

O LORD, thou hast searched me and known me!

6 Thou knowest when I sit down and when I rise up; thou dost discern my thoughts from afar.

7 Thou seest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

8 Even before a word is on my tongue, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

9 Thou dost beset me behind and before, and layest thy hand upon me.

10 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain it.

11 Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

12 If I ascend to heaven, thou art there! If I make my bed in Sheol, thou art there!

13 If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

14 I praise thee, for thou art fearful and wonderful. Wonderful are thy works!

15 I praise thee, for thou art fearful and wonderful. Wonderful are thy works!

16 Thy eyes beheld my unformed substance; in thy book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious to me are thy thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

18 If I would count them, they are more than the sand.

19 If I would count them, they are more than the sand.

20 When I awake, I am still with thee.

21 Do I not hate them that hate thee, O LORD? And do I not loathe them that rise up against thee for evil!

22 Do I not hate them that hate thee, O LORD? And do I not loathe them that rise up against thee for evil!

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts!

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!
You have another decision to make. Are you going to welcome the Holy Spirit into your life or ignore and reject him?

If you are going to welcome the Holy Spirit, then prepare yourself to receive him. If you had an important visitor coming to your home, you would tidy up and make special preparations.

In the previous session we talked about the beautiful churches all around the world and why we build such beautiful churches. The reason is because they are Jesus’ home. But visit a great cathedral in any major city in the world and you will find two types of people. The first type is there to pray. The second is just there to look around. The first recognizes that Jesus is present. The second does not. Pilgrims and tourists. Don’t be a tourist!

The Scriptures teach us that you are a temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19). The Holy Spirit is always present within us. Embrace that. Celebrate that. The Holy Spirit is the ultimate adviser.

You are of course free to ignore or reject the Holy Spirit. But keep in mind that there are consequences if you do. The consequences of embracing the Holy Spirit are peace, joy, order, and purpose. The consequences of rejecting the Holy Spirit and his direction in your life are anxiety, chaos, and the despair of purposelessness.

If you do choose to welcome the Holy Spirit into your life, he will invite you to join in his work. The Holy Spirit is the great encourager. Life is not easy and everyone needs daily encouragement, because the world is full of discouragement and bullying.

I hope you will live an inspired life. I hope you will live in the Spirit. If you do, I know you too will become a great encourager.

What do you think was the best conversation Mary ever had with the Holy Spirit?
ACROSS
1. Mildness of speech, temperament, and behavior; kindness and tenderness
3. Virtue; moral excellence
7. Something that is in accordance with fact or reality
9. Three persons in one God: Father, Son, Holy Spirit
11. When the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples after the Ascension of Jesus
12. Filled with a desire to do something that is good
14. Friendliness, generosity, and considerateness

DOWN
2. Behavior, manner, or appearance intended to avoid impropriety or indecency
4. The third person in the Trinity, sent by God to guide and encourage us
5. What God has allowed us to know about him that cannot be discovered by reason alone
6. Giving more of something than is strictly necessary or expected
8. Followers and students of Jesus
10. The capacity to accept or tolerate delay, trouble, or suffering without getting angry or upset
13. Loyalty, constancy, and steadfastness
Lord Jesus, you prayed that your people would be one; forgive us Lord and take away the pride and arrogance which divides your Church. Break down the walls which separate us; unite us with your bonds of love and accomplish your will. I pray that by the power of your Spirit your healing would work in the body of your Church and through me, to bring about the purpose of your will. Amen.

Author Unknown
9. THE CHURCH

I like to think of the Catholic Church as a big family—a family of faith; the biggest family in the world. There are more than 1.2 billion Catholics in the world, and more than eighty million Catholics in the United States alone. That’s a big family!

This family—the Church—is made up of people like you and me. We are pilgrims on a journey together. When we are at our best, we form dynamic communities. People need community. We need people to do life with, others who can encourage and challenge us. We need others to live for so we don’t get swallowed up by our own selfishness.

Paul tells us in Romans 12:5 that we are all one body. The right hand cannot leave the body. It needs the body and the body needs it. Without the body, it is useless. In the same way, we need each other.

We need the Church — and the Church needs us.

We are the Church. So when you don’t show up, something is missing. When you don’t show up, the Church can’t fulfill its mission. So I hope you will continue to show up or start showing up. And more than just showing up, I hope you will get involved by sharing your talents, your energy, and your compassion with your spiritual family – the Church.

LIVE IT: Find three small ways to deny yourself today.

Matthew 6:24

KNOW IT: Deny yourself. Take up your cross. Follow Jesus.

THINK ABOUT IT: Believe it or not, this is the path to the happiness you have been seeking your whole life.

THINK ABOUT IT: Believe it or not, this is the path to the happiness you have been seeking your whole life.

LIVE IT: Find three small ways to deny yourself today.

What is Christian Persecution?

The act of harassing, annoying, bullying, torturing, excluding, or killing someone because he or she is Christian.

9.1 THE FIRST CHRISTIANS & THE EARLY CHURCH

On any Sunday you can just wander into your local church for Mass, but the first Christians didn’t have it so easy. The early Christians were persecuted by both the Jews and the Roman Empire. From the earliest times, Christians have been discriminated against, tortured, and murdered for their faith. You may be tempted to think that this is all behind us now, but that would be a mistake. This is still happening in many parts of the world today. Google “persecution of Christians today” and what you discover will surprise and sadden you.

That’s right. More than two thousand years later, Christians are still being beaten and murdered because of their faith. And in modern nations, like America, that are becoming increasingly secular, public policy is being used to discriminate against Christians more with every passing day.

Life for the first Christians was not easy, so why were so many people attracted to their way of life?

The ancient world was brutal, cold, and impersonal. By contrast, Christianity was warm, caring, and deeply personal. The first Christians modeled a more humane, compassionate, noble, and loving way of life—and it was phenomenally attractive. This is why people were joining them a thousand at a time, even though joining meant risking their lives.

In the first century the Church was organized around agape love. What is agape love?

Agape love is a choice we make to love another person regardless of whether he loves us back or not. It means that you choose to love someone even if he is your enemy. Agape love is not based on emotion in any way. In fact, it may at times be contrary to every emotion you have. It is a choice, an act of the will. Agape love is unconditional love. It is the love that sets aside self-interest. It is the love that Jesus modeled for us and calls us to.

This kind of love was profound, revolutionary, countercultural, and attractive two thousand years ago, and it is profound, revolutionary, countercultural, and attractive today. In some way the Church has lost this, and we need to get this agape love back at the center of our communities. The Church needs your help to do that.

Life for the early Christians was not easy, and life for a modern Christian is not easy. It’s difficult to love people who ridicule or hurt you. It’s difficult to be discriminated against because of your beliefs. It’s difficult to stand up for objective truth in a society that thinks truth is whatever the majority decides.

It’s difficult to be a good Christian. But that shouldn’t be a surprise. Jesus didn’t say, “Follow me and you will have a comfortable life.” He didn’t teach, “Follow me and I will make things easy for you so you never have to worry about anything.” No, he didn’t mince his words; he made it very clear from the very beginning: “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.” (Matthew 6:24) He did, however, offer this path as a way to fullness of life now and for eternity – and promise to send us the Holy Spirit to guide, encourage, and inspire us.

The world needs more agape love. This is the love Jesus calls us to. Just as the ancient world of the first Christians was brutal, cold, distant, impersonal, and ruled by self-interest, so too is the modern world. As modern society abandons Christianity, the world becomes more and more like it was before the birth of Christianity. All around us there... is plenty of evidence that the harsh, impersonal, cold brutality of the pagan world is taking hold of modern society.

The rise of Christianity changed the world with agape love. When Christianity is truly lived it is warm, inviting, caring, deeply personal, and phenomenally attractive, and it sets self-interest aside. The world needs a new and massive wave of agape love. Are you willing to be part of that? We are at another decision point.

Agape loves was profound and revolutionary two thousand years ago and remains so today. How many of your peers are walking the halls lonely and depressed? How many don’t feel loved? Where is their hope? What gets them through the day?

Agape love is not just a concept. It’s a revolutionary invitation for you to reach out to others and share with them the love of God.

1. WHEN YOU THINK OF CHURCH, WHAT COMES TO MIND?

2. IF YOU COULD ASK A GROUP OF EARLY CHRISTIANS ONE QUESTION, WHAT WOULD YOU ASK?

3. WHY IS IT DIFFICULT TO PRACTICE AGAPE LOVE?
I am the daughter of a great King. He is my father and my God. The world may praise me or criticize me. It matters not. He is with me, always at my side, guiding and protecting me. I do not fear because I am His.
9.2 One, Holy, Catholic, & Apostolic

At Mass on Sunday when we pray the Creed, we say, “I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.” What does that mean? These are known as the four marks of the Catholic Church and can be traced back to early Christian times. Let’s take a look at them one at a time, and explore what they mean for you.

What does it mean that the Church is “one”?

Jesus only started one Church. When we talk about the oneness of the Church we are talking about the unity of God’s people. The Church is often referred to as the Body of Christ. Paul speaks about this beautifully in 1 Corinthians 12. He speaks about how we are all given different gifts, but these gifts are given to us not for our own gratification but for “the common good.” And he speaks about how we are all part of one body, each part of the body plays a unique and vital role.

What are your gifts? How is God calling you to use them for the common good? What unique and vital role is God calling you to play in the Church?

God’s vision for the Church is that all men and women be united in belief, agape love, and mission. God’s vision for the Church is that it be one. This is what Jesus prayed for right before he was arrested and crucified. He prayed for his disciples—and he prayed for you and me. We read about this in chapter seventeen of John’s Gospel. It is a beautiful prayer for unity, but Jesus also explains why he is praying for unity. In verse 13, he prays his reason: “so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.” He wants our joy to be complete. He wants your joy to be complete.

Then he prays to God the Father, “I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word that they may be one.” Let’s take one more look. Jesus prays, “I ask not only on behalf of these [the disciples], but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word [that’s you and me] that they may be one.” He wants there to be unity among every Christian—from the first disciples to the last believer at the end of the world.

This is one of the most beautiful passages in the Bible, and perhaps the greatest prayer in the New Testament. It is God praying to God. Jesus asks the Father to give us each perseverance, holiness, joy, and unity.

Over the centuries the oneness of the Church has been attacked, questioned, and undermined. As a result Christianity is massively divided today—but the Catholic Church remains one. It is the one church that Jesus started.

People sometimes ask me, “Why should I stay in the Catholic Church?” There are lots of reasons you should stay Catholic and grow in your faith every day, but what is more compelling than to say, “You should stay because Jesus prayed you would?” There in the garden of Gethsemane two thousand years ago Jesus agonized over every person who would think about leaving his Church, and he prayed that they would remain one.

The Church is one—this is the first mark.

The second mark of the Church is “holy.” What does it mean that the Church is “holy”?

One definition of the word holy is, “set apart for a special purpose by God and for God.”

When we speak about the Church being holy, it does not imply that the members of the Church are free from sin and selfishness. This is a common misconception. The holiness of the Church is not derived from the holiness of its members, but rather from the holiness of Jesus.

God created the Church for a reason. So, what is the purpose of the Church? Jesus founded his Church to continue his redemptive and sanctifying work in the world. You might be wondering what this means.

Jesus’ redemptive work liberates us from sin, puts us back in right relationship with God, and leads us to Heaven. His sanctifying work helps us to grow in holiness and become the best-version-of-ourselves by playing the unique role he calls us to play in his divine plan.

The Church is holy because Christ is holy—this is the second mark.

The third mark is “catholic.” Not big C Catholic, but little c catholic. What does it mean that the Church is “catholic”?

The word catholic with a small c means “universal.” In this sense the Church is for everyone, just as Christ died on the cross and rose from the dead for us all. The Church is also catholic (or universal) in the sense that she has been sent out by Jesus on a mission to the whole of the human race. This small c catholic is what we are speaking of in the Creed, and the third mark of the Church.

When we speak of someone being Catholic with a big C we are speaking of a baptized Christian who accepts and believes the teachings of the Church, strives to live in communion with the Church through the Catholics have been making incredible contributions to the world for 2,000 years. What will your contribution be?

Matthew 16: 16–19

Know it: Peter was the first pope, and the papacy is the rock that Jesus chose to build his Church upon.

Think about it: We can trace our spiritual heritage back through 265 popes. That is a beautiful thing.

Live it: Being pope is difficult. Pray for the pope today.

Sacraments and her teachings, and embraces the life Christ calls them to. We are all called to catholic unity as God’s children, but not everyone responds to this call. The call is small c catholic; the response is big C Catholic.

The fourth and final mark of the Church is “apostolic.” What does it mean that the Church is “apostolic”? On the day of your Confirmation the bishop will extend his hands over you, pray that you receive the Holy Spirit, and anoint you with the sacred oil (chrism) and the Sign of the Cross.

Why? What gives him the right? Who gives him the authority to do that? This is one of the great questions of Christian history. If you can develop a clear understanding of this, a lot of other things will fall into place. Let’s turn to the Scriptures for some insight.

Jesus was walking down the road one day, talking with his disciples, answering questions, and asking questions. Toward the end of these discussions he asks the disciples who they think he is. Peter replies, “You are the Christ, the son of the living God.” (Matthew 16:16) What seemed like a very spontaneous conversation then turned into something very formal when Jesus said, “You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church.” Jesus goes on to say, “I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” (Matthew 16:18–19)

Jesus gave Peter the authority to lead the Church, and through Peter he gave the other apostles authority. As Catholics we can trace a direct line from your bishop back two thousand years to Peter. Pope Francis is the 265th successor of Peter.

This is what we mean when we say the Church is “apostolic.” The apostles were the foundation that Jesus chose to build his Church upon. They were the witnesses whom Jesus chose to send out on a mission to the whole world. The Church celebrates and defends the teachings passed on by the apostles, continues to be guided by the apostles, and carries on the mission entrusted first to the apostles.

Your bishop is a successor to the apostles. That’s profound and beautiful.

So at Mass next Sunday you will probably hear some people mindlessly mumbling the Creed. Don’t be one of them. Say it loud and proud: “I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.”
Psalm 16

Preserve me, O God, for in thee I take refuge.

2 I say to the Lord, "Thou art my Lord; I have no good apart from thee."

3 As for the saints in the land, they are the noble, in whom is all my delight.

4 Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows; their libations of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.

5 The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup; thou holdest my lot.

6 The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I bless the Lord who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.

8 I keep the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also dwells secure.

10 For thou dost not give me up to Sheol, or let thy godly one see the Pit.

11 Thou dost show me the path of life; in thy presence there is fulness of joy, in thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.
Our past is not without blemish. There have been some horrible moments in Catholic history. But it is important to recognize that these moments are the result of individuals wandering away from the teachings of Christ and his Church.

Here we find one of the central mysteries of God’s plan: The Church is made up of human beings like you and me, who are in many ways weak and imperfect.

Some people look at the failings of the Church and use them as an excuse to leave. I see it very differently. All of the lowest moments in Church history are examples of what happens when we don’t live the Catholic faith authentically. I have studied these low moments, and what I’ve found is immorality and personal weakness, selfishness and abuse of power. I’ve found Christ’s teachings misunderstood and misrepresented. But the scandals that stain our history do not exist because we lived our Catholicism, but rather, because we tailored it to live it. And what I find most of all in the Church’s history is a reflection of my own fragile and broken humanity.

When we behave as second-rate versions of ourselves bad things happen. That’s true for us as individuals and it’s true for the Church.

The Ugly

One of the ugliest scandals surrounding the Catholic Church is also one of the most recent: the sexual abuse scandal among priests. There is never any excuse for the abuse of a child. It is not only immoral and unchristian, but it is criminal in every civilized society. The abuse and the scandal were also mishandled in some cases by Church officials.

Scandals like this rock people’s faith. When the Church fails to live up to her mission and the values she invites others to live by, the faith of millions of ordinary people is affected. Why? The Church is supposed to help people get closer to God. But when she gets caught up in a scandal it can stand as an obstacle between God and the people.

The first e-mail Pope John Paul II sent was an apology to everyone who had been abused by a priest or religious. Benedict XVI also apologized to the victims.

There have been some truly ugly moments in Catholic history. They are inexcusable. We should pray for the victims of these parts of our history.

Sometimes we have to suffer for the Church, just as Mary suffered watching her son being ridiculed and tortured.
The Lies

History is also full of lies about the Catholic Church. These lies are often perpetuated by modern popular culture. Let’s take a look at some.

One lie is the idea that the Church is against science and wants to keep everyone ignorant so they can be controlled. This is nonsense. Many of the great scientific discoveries were made by Catholic priests. And if the Church wanted to keep everyone ignorant why did it develop universities and become the champion of education for the common man?

Another lie that is perpetuated about the Church is that it is opposed to progress and is an obstacle to progress. This is also an absurd lie. The Church has been a champion of progress from the very beginning, and this is a tradition that has continued throughout our rich history of contribution. The Catholic Church has nurtured and encouraged progress in education, law, art, music, architecture, science, philosophy, theology, language, and human rights. In fact, many of the best minds of our times believe that Western civilization is almost completely indebted to the Catholic Church.

Today one of the biggest lies surrounds the priesthood. The media would have you believe that every priest sexually abuses children. In a recent poll, when asked what percentage of priests were pedophiles, respondents said between 33 and 50 percent. In fact, 1.8 percent of priests were involved in the scandal. The great majority of priests are good men who have given their lives to help you and me grow spiritually, become the best-version-of-ourselves, and get to Heaven.

The world tends to ignore the goodness of the Church and blow our mistakes out of proportion to make them all-encompassing. At the beginning of this section we talked about some of the Church’s great contributions—how many of those did you already know about? I’ve met many Catholics who didn’t know any of those things.

The last lie I want to explore briefly with you is the idea that the Church is always behind the times. Not so. It is easy to present the Church as being old-fashioned and out of date, but this is a lie. The Church is a prophet and as such is ahead of the times.

One modern example of this can be found in the papal encyclical “Humanae Vitae.” In it Pope Paul VI explained what would happen if artificial contraceptives became widely used in society. It was written in 1968, before you and I were born. It was written in a time very different from the world we live in today. But it is full of prophecy, and what Paul VI predicted would happen is exactly what has happened.

Pope Paul VI predicted artificial contraception would be bad for marriage, bad for families, and in particular, that it would lead to the objectification of women.

He was an unwelcome prophet of his times, and remains an unwelcome prophet in our times—but he is modern proof that the Church is ahead of the times, not behind the times.

The bottom line is this: Don’t believe everything you hear about the Church. When someone criticizes the Church, ask them to prove it. If you have doubts about something, delve into the issue yourself so that you can really understand the great history of the Catholic Church. It is not a perfect history, but the Church has always been a force for incredible good in the world.

There have been some regrettable moments in the life of the Catholic Church, but a fair look at history demonstrates that violence and abuse are not the overarching story of Catholicism. Our story is primarily one of agape love, incredible contribution, and the relief of human suffering.

I’m proud to be Catholic, and the more I learn about our history, the prouder I become.
1. WHAT MAKES YOU PROUDEST TO BE CATHOLIC?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. IN WHAT WAYS HAS THE CHURCH DISAPPOINTED YOU?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. WE ALL MAKE MISTAKES, AND WE ALL SIN AGAINST GOD. DO YOUR OWN FAILINGS HELP YOU TO UNDERSTAND WHY THERE HAVE BEEN SCANDALS AT DIFFERENT TIMES IN THE HISTORY OF THE CHURCH?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
I love being Catholic, and there are an infinite number of great reasons to be Catholic, but let’s take a look at ten of them.

1. You don’t say no to God when he invites you. There are some invitations we don’t turn down.

2. The Eucharist. Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist.

3. You need to be part of something bigger than yourself. Life is not about you. It’s about laying down your life in the service of others out of love for God. You could lay down your life for a sport, a career, money, things . . . and people do. But what a waste! The Catholic Church has the most important mission in the world—and you are invited to get involved and be a part of that great mission!

4. The Catholic Church is the premier defender of human rights.

5. It's the same all around the world. I took a group on a pilgrimage a few years ago and we all went to Mass in Florence. That night I asked the group about the experience of attending Mass in Italian. They said, “Even though I don’t speak Italian, I still knew what was going on.” Catholicism is the same everywhere, and that’s a beautiful thing.

6. We believe in the power of prayer. At every moment of every day Mass is being prayed in thousands of places around the world. That’s our family praying for the whole world. We don’t just pray for Catholics; we pray for everyone. Imagine how different the history of the world would have been if the Catholic Church had never offered a single prayer.

7. We have the Saints. These are the great heroes and heroines of Christianity. They are the most diverse group of people in history. Some were rich and some were poor; some were very well educated and some had no formal education; some were young and others were old. They have lived in every century, on every continent, in every country—and they all tried to be the best version of themselves. Now they are in Heaven, cheering you on.

8. We have history and mystery. To really understand Christianity you need a historical perspective, and the history of Christianity is Catholic. For more than fifteen hundred years there were no Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Anglicans, Pentecostal Christians, Lutherans, Mormons, Evangelical Christians, Non-Denominational Christians. Today, there are more than twenty-five thousand different Christian denominations, but they all lack the rich and beautiful history we have as Catholics. We have history, and we have mystery. We know it’s all right not to have the answer to everything. Some things are a mystery, and that’s OK.

9. The Catholic Church has relieved more suffering than any other group of people in the history of the world. We care for the sick, the hungry, the lonely, the homeless, the uneducated, and the imprisoned. I love being part of that.

10. This is the Church that Jesus Christ started and sent the Holy Spirit to guide. It is unique and original.

I can come up with great reasons to be Catholic all day long, but ultimately you need to come up with your own. I can’t give you my love of the Church. I wish I could. In the end you have to make Catholicism your own.
Discussion Questions

1. WHAT DO YOU THINK IS THE BEST REASON TO BE CATHOLIC?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. WHAT DID YOU LEARN IN THIS SESSION THAT REALLY MADE YOU STOP AND THINK?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. HOW DID THE TOP TEN REASONS TO BE CATHOLIC CHANGE THE WAY YOU VIEW CATHOLICISM?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

There are a lot of people who turn their backs on Catholicism simply because it is old. Catholicism is old; I admit it. But let me ask you a question: If you found an ancient treasure map, would you throw it away just because it was old? No, I don’t think you would. You would go looking for the treasure. The age of a map doesn’t determine its value. What matters is whether or not the map leads to treasure.

Catholicism is a treasure map. It may be old, but it still leads to treasure. I hope you have the courage and the wisdom to seek out the treasure that is Catholicism. And once you find it, I hope you spend the rest of your life marveling at its beauty and applying it to your life.

Do that and you will live an uncommon life filled with purpose and happiness.

If you could invite Mary to give a lecture at your school, what would you ask her to speak about?

1. How do you think your life might be better if you followed the map the church invites us to follow?

2. In what ways is God calling you to be countercultural like the first Christians were?

3. How purposefully are you living your life? Give yourself a score between one and ten.
ACROSS

1. The celebration of the Eucharist
2. The rich story of how our faith has been lived and passed along
3. The act of harassing, annoying, and bullying someone because they are Christian
4. The improper treatment of another human being
5. Liberation from sin that puts us back in right relationship with God
6. A group of people who support each other in living out their faith
7. Successor of the Apostles
8. A truth that can only be known by revelation and cannot be fully understood
9. The killing of more than six million Jews and others by the Nazis during World War II
10. The process of improving something
11. Set apart for a special purpose by God and for God
12. Of or relating to the succession of spiritual authority of the original Twelve Apostles
13. The Bishop of Rome
14. Not exclusive or elitist, but for everyone
15. A man or woman of heroic virtue

DOWN

1. The celebration of the Eucharist
2. The rich story of how our faith has been lived and passed along
3. The act of harassing, annoying, and bullying someone because they are Christian
4. The improper treatment of another human being
5. Liberation from sin that puts us back in right relationship with God
6. A group of people who support each other in living out their faith
7. Successor of the Apostles
8. A truth that can only be known by revelation and cannot be fully understood
9. The killing of more than six million Jews and others by the Nazis during World War II
10. The process of improving something
11. Set apart for a special purpose by God and for God
12. Of or relating to the succession of spiritual authority of the original Twelve Apostles
13. The Bishop of Rome
14. Not exclusive or elitist, but for everyone
15. A man or woman of heroic virtue
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is error, truth; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

St. Francis of Assisi
10. CONFIRMATION

Over and over throughout the Bible we read about God choosing people and calling them to a new life. God called Noah, Abraham, Moses, Gideon, Joshua, David, Jeremiah, Jonah, Mary, John the Baptist, Peter, James, John, Matthew, Zechariah, the rich young man, and now God is calling you.

You are called and chosen.

God has a plan for you and your life. We read in Jeremiah 29:11, “I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.”

God is deeply interested in every aspect of your life—and that’s why he does everything he can to encourage you to develop a powerful spiritual life.

You are called and chosen. God has chosen you and now he is calling you to a new life.

10.1 What is Confirmation?

Confirmation is a great opportunity to start taking your spiritual self seriously. So much is going to happen in your life that you will have little or no control over. We can plan and dream, and we should. But life is not easy and often delivers unwelcome experiences that test us in ways unexpected. Education can prepare you for a career, and exercise can prepare you to compete athletically, but developing your spiritual self is the real preparation for life, and Confirmation is part of that preparation.

What is Confirmation? Confirmation is a sacrament. What is a sacrament? Good question. A sacrament is an encounter with Jesus Christ. Jesus gave us the Sacraments to transform us spiritually. There are seven sacraments, and through them we receive the grace necessary to live the life God invites us to. And all seven are deeply rooted in the Scriptures and Tradition.

The seven sacraments are: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation, Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, Marriage, and Holy Orders.

Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation are all sacraments of initiation. At your baptism you became a new creation spiritually. The Eucharist feeds you spiritually. In Confirmation you will be strengthened for your spiritual journey throughout the rest of life.

Confirmation will unleash the Holy Spirit in your life, just as it did in the lives of the disciples at Pentecost. In this way Confirmation perpetuates Pentecost in the Church, so that the work of Jesus can be continued in every age.

How long has Confirmation been a part of the Christian experience? From the beginning. In chapter 8 of Acts we read about Peter and John traveling to Samaria to confirm those who had only been baptized: “Now when the Apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. . . . Then Peter and John laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.” (Acts 8:14–17).

Just as Peter and John went to Samaria, their successor (your bishop) is coming to confirm you. He will do just as Peter and John did in Samaria: pray for you and lay his hands on you that you might receive the Holy Spirit.

God chose you from the beginning. At baptism your parents responded to God and stood up for you. Now you have to make a choice for yourself, and stand up for yourself.

Just as Jesus chose the first twelve disciples, he is choosing you today. Just as God chose Jeremiah and Joshua, Moses and Abraham, he is choosing you today.

Will you accept God’s blessing on your life? Will you allow God to anoint you and become a disciple.

If Mary was your sponsor for Confirmation, what would you ask her to pray for as you prepare to be confirmed?

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father.
1. DO YOU BELIEVE THAT GOD HAS GOOD PLANS FOR YOU?

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________

2. WHAT CAN YOU DO TO FIND OUT THE PLANS GOD HAS FOR YOUR FUTURE?

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________

3. HOW HAS YOUR IDEA OF CONFIRMATION CHANGED SINCE WE BEGAN OUR TIME TOGETHER?

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________

____________________________________________________
For months now you have been preparing for Confirmation. Some of the preparation has probably been fun, and some of it has probably just been hard work. Winning an Olympic gold medal is fun; preparing to win it is mostly hard work.

We prepare for everything we consider important. You wouldn’t show up to play a soccer game and expect to win if you hadn’t been training. We don’t expect to excel in exams if we haven’t studied. And people in the business world wouldn’t show up unprepared to give a presentation and expect to get the contract. Preparation is essential for any great experience.

This preparation for Confirmation has not been just to ready you for a single day, but to prepare you for life. Now, as we draw closer to the actual day, I want to encourage you to prepare yourself in these two ways:

1) Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We all need a fresh start from time to time, and Confirmation is a perfect opportunity to have a fresh start with God. I do things every day that are incongruent with the best-version-of-myself. In doing so I betray my true self and God. These are things I have to work on. If I don’t work on them they will become habits. And bad habits drag us down. I’ve got sins and you’ve got sins. And the thing about sins is they are heavy. Do you want to carry them around? I don’t. The good news is God wants to lighten your load.

I love watching the Olympics. It’s amazing how disciplined and dedicated the athletes are. Many of them spend four, eight, or even twelve years preparing for a single event—and sometimes that event only lasts ten seconds.

The one thing that really struck me during the most recent Olympics was that all the athletes had coaches. Some of them had three, four, or even five different coaches. These athletes are the best in the world at what they do and still they value coaching.

So here’s my question for you. Whom are you getting your spiritual coaching from? You see, nobody achieves excellence at anything without coaching. So if we really want to cast off the mediocrity of the world and grow in spiritual excellence we need coaching.

My wife and I try to go to Reconciliation once a month. We realize we need the spiritual coaching. And no surprise, I am a better husband, a better father, a better son and brother, a better boss and colleague when I make a habit of going to Reconciliation regularly.

The other thing I notice about world-class athletes is that they want to know what their faults, defects, and weaknesses are. This is a sign of excellence.

Too often in the spiritual life we don’t want to know our faults, defects, and weaknesses. This is a classic sign of mediocrity. And it’s sad, because the truth is, it is by facing and wrestling with our weaknesses that we are transformed by God into the person he created us to be, and prepared for the mission he has designed just for us.

So before your Confirmation, get to Reconciliation. Allow God to unburden you of your sins and give you a fresh start. And more than that, think about making reconciliation a regular part of your life. Seek the spiritual coaching you need to thrive spiritually. Don’t settle for mediocrity. Seek excellence in the spiritual life.

2) Pray every day. You need a few minutes each day to connect with yourself and to connect with God. Without this you won’t work out who you are and what you are here for . . . and then you will just end up living a life of “quiet desperation.”

Have you been using The Prayer Process? How has it changed the way you look at yourself and the world?

The older I get, the more I value prayer. When I was young I used to pray for my will, as I have gotten older I have learned to pray for God’s will. When I was young I saw getting what I wanted as the path to happiness, but as I have gotten older I see getting what God wants as the path to happiness. I want to encourage you and challenge you to make a place for prayer in your daily routine. Set a time for it. Build it into a habit. Lots of days you are not going to feel like doing it, just like Olympic athletes don’t feel like getting up for training on lots of days. Develop the discipline of daily prayer and I promise you great things will come from it.

I know you are busy, and I know how hard it is to sit down for a few minutes in silence. I get it. But I’m not sure you understand how much this can change your life. So, I’ll say it again. Take a few minutes each day to pray. Not just leading up to Confirmation, but every day for the rest of your life. This is the ultimate good habit.
Our lives change when our habits change. If you make daily prayer and regular Reconciliation habits in your life, I know you will grow in ways you never imagined, which in turn will open you up to opportunities you never dreamed about. Great spiritual habits connect you with the dreams God has for you, and God always has better dreams for us than we have for ourselves. I wonder what God is dreaming for you?

When I started working on this Confirmation program I made a commitment to pray every day for the people who will experience it. So I want you to know that I am praying for you.

Confirmation is getting close. Whether you are aware of it or not, the Holy Spirit is going to change you through Confirmation. But the more you prepare yourself and cooperate with God throughout this experience, the more powerful it will be. Allow the Holy Spirit to unleash his power in your life and you will be amazed by what happens.

What does it mean to be anointed?

To be anointed is to be set apart for God, to be chosen by God for a special mission.

GOD CHOSE YOU FROM THE BEGINNING.

JUST AS GOD CHOSE JEREMIAH AND JOSHUA, MOSES AND ABRAHAM, HE IS CHOOSING YOU AGAIN TODAY.

What date were you BAPTIZED?

What date did you receive First Holy Communion?

What advice do you think Mary would give you about preparing for Confirmation?

1. WHAT EVENT IN YOUR LIFE HAVE YOU PREPARED FOR MORE THAN ANY OTHER?

2. WHO HAVE BEEN YOUR SPIRITUAL COACHES AND MENTORS THROUGHOUT YOUR LIFE?

3. HOW HAS THE WAY YOU PRAY AND WHAT YOU PRAY FOR CHANGED OVER THE PAST FEW MONTHS?
OUR FATHER

WHO ART IN HEAVEN

Hallowed be thy name;

THY KINGDOM COME;

Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.

GIVE US THIS DAY

OUR DAILY BREAD;

AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESOASSES

As we forgive those who trespass against us;

And lead us NOT into TEMPTATION.

BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL.

AMEN.
10.3 How Will Confirmation Change You?

How will Confirmation change you? That depends a lot upon you. Open yourself up to the Holy Spirit. Respond to the grace God is pouring out upon you at this time in your life, and something wonderful will happen.

When the bishop traces the sign of the cross on your forehead and prays, “Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit,” something very powerful is going to happen to you. At that moment an indelible and permanent mark will be placed on your soul. Throughout your life that moment will influence you in a thousand ways. Some of them you will be aware of and others you will be completely oblivious to.

My daughter, Isabel, has absolutely no fear of anything. This is a problem. She is two years old and she will stand up on the couch, start walking across it, and then walk straight off the edge of it. But I am there to catch her and put her safely on the floor. This is just one of a dozen ways my wife and I protect her every day from things that she is completely oblivious to.

God does the same thing for us. We are mostly oblivious to his workings in our lives. But one day, in this life or the next, we will look back and see that all along his hand has been guiding us.

Confirmation is going to change you in wonderful ways. Here are just a few examples of how it will profoundly influence you if you open yourself up to it:

1. Better relationships. Confirmation is going to help you have better relationships by increasing your emotional intelligence, self-knowledge, and spiritual intelligence.

2. A sense of mission. Confirmation is going to fill you with a sense of mission by revealing the true meaning of life.

3. The perfect career path. Confirmation will help you choose a career that is perfectly suited to you by encouraging you to explore your God-given talents and abilities.

4. Inner peace. Confirmation will fill you with a sense of inner peace, even when the world around you is crazy, by teaching you to make time for quiet prayer and reflection each day.

5. Great decision making. And as we have been discussing all along, Confirmation will help you to make better decisions as you open yourself up to the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

6. Discipleship. Confirmation will affirm that you are a disciple of Jesus Christ, and send you out to bring the love of God to the world.

How will all this come about? As God releases the gifts of the Holy Spirit into your life and you cooperate with them.

This might be a good time to revisit the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. These gifts will change your life... —if you let them. God is a perfect gentleman, and so he will not force even these good things on you. He offers them to you freely for you to embrace or reject.

1. Wisdom: The ability to discern what is true, right, and lasting. Wisdom enables you to see life from God’s perspective. It helps you to establish the right priorities in your life, and leads you to think and act in mature ways.

2. Understanding: Allows you to look beyond the shallowness of the world and see the lasting truth in every situation, by recognizing how God is working in your life.

3. Counsel: The right judgment that allows you to see what is right and what is wrong, and the prudence to act accordingly.

4. Fortitude: The courage and strength of will to do what you know you should do, even if that means personal loss or suffering.

5. Knowledge: The ability to see things from a supernatural viewpoint. In particular, to know what God is asking of you.

6. Piety: A loyalty to God that manifests as generous love and affectionate obedience. This is the gift that allows you to love and worship God as he deserves to be loved and worshipped.

7. Fear of the Lord (reverence): Helps you to grasp God’s greatness and your dependence on him. As a result, you are filled with enormous respect for God and you dread above all offending him or being separated from him. Our Jewish ancestors believed that fear of the Lord was the beginning of wisdom. Of course, it is not a fear like we usually think of fear today. It is more like an overwhelming reverence that we allow to direct our words and actions.

Confirmation is going to change your life in wonderful ways. I’m excited for you. You are so fortunate that someone loves you enough that they want you to have this experience. I’d like to encourage you to thank that person sometime this week. Whoever it is that loves you enough that they want you to be confirmed, take a moment to show your appreciation for all they do for you.

Augustine of Hippo

Confirmation Decision Point

- When I was young I used to pray for my will: As I have gotten older I have learned to pray for God’s will.
- When I was young I saw getting what I wanted as the path to happiness: But as I have gotten older I see getting what God wants as the path to happiness.

---

WE PREPARE FOR

WE CONSIDER IMPORTANT.

TO HAPPINESS.

If you keep silence, do it out of love.

If you cry out, do it out of love.

---

THROUGH HIM ALL THINGS WERE MADE. FOR US MEN AND FOR OUR SALVATION HE CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN, AND BY THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS INCARNATE OF THE VIRGIN MARY, AND BECAME MAN. FOR OUR SAKE HE"
1. In what practical ways do you think confirmation will change you?

2. Which of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit could you most use at this time in your life?

3. When did you last pray to the Holy Spirit, asking for help to make a decision?
With many of the most important events in our lives, we don’t realize their importance until they are over, and sometimes not until many years later. And even when we know an event is important and we really try to be present and absorb it for all it is, it still passes us by so quickly.

Before I got married, so many people told me that their wedding day was a blur because there was so much happening. So on my wedding day I really tried to be present, to fully grasp the moment, but still I found it slipping away so quickly.

Sometimes I will hold my boy, Walter, or my daughter, Isabel, or baby Harry, and it will be a perfect moment . . . and I will try to completely absorb that moment. But as hard as I try, the moment slips through my fingers.

The day of your Confirmation will pass very quickly. Try to be present. On the day of your Confirmation, find ten minutes before the ceremony to reflect on what is about to happen.

It also helps to understand what will happen on that day so that when it is happening you can be present to it. Let’s go step by step through the Confirmation experience.

The Rite of Confirmation has five parts, which will take place at different times during the Mass:

- the presentation of candidates
- homily
- renewal of baptismal promises
- laying on of hands and anointing with chrism
- general intercessions

The Mass will begin, as always, with the Sign of the Cross, which is itself one of the shortest and most powerful prayers of all time.

The bishop will then lead us in the Opening Prayer. Here is an example:

Lord, fulfill the promise given by your Son and send the Holy Spirit to enlighten our minds and lead us to all truth.
After a short prayer the bishop will invite you and your sponsor to come before him for the Laying on of hands and Anointing with chrism. Your sponsor will place his or her hand on your right shoulder, you or your sponsor will tell the bishop your Confirmation name, then the bishop will trace the sign of the cross on your forehead with the sacred oil chrism and say, “Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.” You respond, “Amen.” Then the bishop will extend to you a sign of peace, saying, “Peace be with you.” You respond, “And with your spirit.”

After all the candidates have stood before the bishop, the Mass continues with the General Intercessions. This is that time in the Mass when we pray for all the needs of every member of the community, and for the whole world.

You will experience a special unity as we pray together the Lord’s Prayer, offer each other a Sign of Peace, and receive Holy Communion.

The bishop will then bring the Mass to a close with a Solemn Blessing and send you into the world to witness to God’s love by living out the mission he has entrusted to you.

I want to encourage you in a special way to be mindful of that moment when the bishop lays his hands on you and anoints you with the chrism. That is going to be one of the most powerful moments of your life. Focus in that moment and ask God to open your heart, mind, and soul to every good thing he wants to bestow upon you.

---

Discussion Questions

1. If you could ask the bishop one question, what would you ask?

2. Are you nervous about your Confirmation?

3. How are you preparing for Confirmation?

---

WHO WAS JOHN THE BAPTIST?

John the Baptist was an itinerant preacher and one of the great religious figures of all time. Jesus and John the Baptist were cousins, through their mothers, Mary and Elizabeth. John was the child who danced for joy in Elizabeth’s womb when Mary visited, which we remember in the Second Joyful Mystery of the Rosary (Luke 1:39–56). John challenged people to repent, to turn away from their sinful and selfish ways and turn back to God (Matthew 3:1–17). John’s mission was to prepare the way for Jesus. What’s your mission? We celebrate John the Baptist with two feast days: June 24 (birth) and August 29 (death).
Psalm 117

1 Praise the Lord, all you nations!
Extol him, all you peoples!

2 For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.
Praise the Lord!
On the day of your Confirmation the bishop is going to confront you just as Joshua confronted the people of his time. The bishop is going to invite you to turn away from everything that is false in your life and renew your covenant with God, just as Joshua did for the Israelites. What will you choose?

You get to decide for yourself, but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord. I have worshiped at these other altars. They left me empty and unfulfilled, but serving God fills me with joy and purpose.

Congratulations on making this journey toward Confirmation. I know it can be the beginning of incredible things for you.

Joshua 24:15

KNOW IT: We all serve something or someone with our lives.

THINK ABOUT IT: Are you serving God with your life? If not, whom or what are you serving?

LIVE IT: Look for one way to serve God better today than you did yesterday.

Who or what are you going to serve?

Child of God

—or-

Slave to the World?

Open yourself up to the Holy Spirit.

What would you like Mary to teach you?
1. HOW WILL THIS EXPERIENCE INFLUENCE YOU TEN YEARS FROM NOW?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. IN WHAT WAYS DO YOU SENSE PREPARING FOR CONFIRMATION IS CHANGING YOU?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. HOW IS THIS EXPERIENCE HELPING YOU TO CLARIFY YOUR VALUES?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
CONFIRMATION CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

1. Helps you to grasp God’s greatness and your dependence on him
4. The ability to see things from a supernatural viewpoint—in particular, to know what God is asking of you
6. The right judgment, which allows you to see what is right and what is wrong, and the prudence to act accordingly
8. To trace the Sign of the Cross with holy oil on the forehead
11. Our lives change when our _______ change.
12. During the Confirmation ceremony, the bishop will trace the sign of the cross on each candidate’s forehead, anointing them with this holy oil.
14. An encounter with Jesus Christ

DOWN

2. Loyalty to God that manifests as a generous love and affectionate obedience
3. A sacrament in which God unburdens you of your sins and gives you a fresh start
5. The short talk given by a priest during Mass after the Gospel reading
7. The courage and strength of will to do what you know you should do, even if it means personal loss or suffering
9. Allows you to look beyond the shallowness of the world and see the lasting truth in every situation
10. The ability to discern what is true, right, and lasting
13. A prayer to God on behalf of someone else
15. Confirmation is a great opportunity to start taking your _______ self seriously.
16. Someone preparing to receive the sacrament of Confirmation

Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will. Amen.

St. Ignatius
11. MADE FOR MISSION

I got a new iPhone the other day and on the back it says, “Designed by Apple.” The phone came with an instruction manual. The sensible thing to do would be to study the instruction manual so that I will know exactly how the device works. But because I have a rough sense of how it works, I just start using it. Over time I will learn more and more features, but unless I study that instruction manual I will never use it exactly as it was intended . . . and I will miss out on many features that I don’t even know exist.

Sometimes we forget that as human beings we have been masterfully designed by God. Sure, you can tumble your way through life and you will learn many of the features of the human being. But if you really want to understand exactly what God had in mind when he created you, if you really want to understand what you were designed for, you need to study the instruction manual.

God has given us his moral law, his son Jesus, the Bible, the Ten Commandments, the teachings of the Church, and the Sacraments all to help us understand that we have been masterfully designed for a purpose. And every Sunday God holds a seminar at your parish to explain features that you didn’t even know you had—it’s called the Mass.

Designed by God. You don’t have a sticker on you that says it, but it’s true. Nobody knows what an iPhone is capable of like Apple does. And nobody knows what you are capable of like God does.

If you use an iPhone in ways it was not intended for, it will most likely break down and stop working. In the same way, if you live in ways counter to what God designed you for, over time you will break down.

Everything has its purpose. Use things for what they were intended, and all will be well. Start using things for something they were not intended, and they will break down.

You have been designed by God with a purpose. Ignore how he has designed you and you will experience unimaginable joy, even when things don’t go your way.

Part of God’s design is mission. You have been designed for mission, created for mission. You have been placed on this earth at this time to fulfill a specific mission. If you don’t embrace and fulfill your mission, it will be left undone. Nobody else has been assigned that mission. Just you.

You were made for mission.

11.1 THE WORLD IS A MESS

The world is incredible in many ways. But in lots of other ways, it is a mess, and the mess causes a lot of suffering for a lot of people.

This is one thing everyone can agree on. Nobody thinks, “The world is in great shape, all is well, we just need to keep it moving in the direction it’s going!” No. There is a universal sense that all is not well, and that the world needs changing.

And these problems are not in some far-off corner of the world. They’re right here, in our cities and suburbs, and in our homes. But I don’t need to tell you that. You are more aware of these things than I was at your age. That’s because in many cases, sadly, you have been exposed to them.

The world needs changing. But the real question is: What are you going to do about it?

Don’t say, “I am too young to do anything about it.” Young people are capable of incredible things. And if you hide behind that excuse you will end up being one of those people who spend the first half of their lives saying, “I am too young” and the second half saying, “I am too old.”

Now is the time to start thinking about what you are capable of. Now is the perfect time to start thinking about your mission in life.

The first step is to recognize that most of the mess—and most of the suffering—in this world is caused by sin. When we reject God’s plan and pursue our own selfish agenda, we leave behind us a trail of heartache and suffering. Sin makes us unhappy, and it brings misery to others. We saw this earlier in the program when we explored the Ten Commandments and asked the question: How much suffering would be avoided if everyone lived in alignment with the Ten Commandments?

The first step in living a purposeful life is to align ourselves with God and his plans for us and the world. The more I am aligned with God, the less mess, heartache, and suffering I cause.

There is a great story about the boy Samuel in the Bible. When he was about thirteen years old he worked for Eli in the temple. One night Samuel heard a voice calling his name. He thought it was Eli, so he

YOU WERE MADE FOR MISSION.

You have a unique blend of talents and abilities that are perfectly suited to carry out whatever mission God has assigned to you on this earth.

YOU WERE MADE FOR MISSION.

You have a unique blend of talents and abilities that are perfectly suited to carry out whatever mission God has assigned to you on this earth.

DECISION POINT

SPEAK YOUR SERVANT LISTENING

MADE FOR MISSION
1. In what ways do you think the world is a mess?

2. How do you sense God is calling you to make the world a better place?

3. What's one thing you can do today that will make the world a better place?

went to him and asked what he needed. But Eli said he had not called Samuel and sent him back to bed. This happened three times, and then Eli realized it was the voice of God that was calling Samuel. Eli instructed Samuel, “Go, lie down, and if he calls you again say, “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.”’ (1 Samuel 3:1–21). The Lord called Samuel again and told him he was going to do great things through him. Samuel went on to become one of the great prophets, guiding the people of Israel with courage and wisdom.

If you listen carefully, I think you will discover that God is calling you to do something about the mess in the world. How will you respond? “Not now God, I’m busy”? or “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.”

The world is a mess in many ways, but the beautiful thing is, you and I can do something about it. Deep down you know the world is not as it should be. So let’s get busy doing something about that.

1 Samuel 3:1–21

KNOW IT: God kept calling Samuel until he responded.

THINK ABOUT IT: What is God calling you to?

LIVE IT: From time to time, use some of your prayer time to ask God what he is calling you to now.

What did Mary teach us about letting our light shine?
FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS
God has been using ORDINARY PEOPLE to do EXTRAORDINARY THINGS.

God delights in dynamic collaboration with humanity. He doesn’t necessarily choose the people who are the BEST EDUCATED or those who are good-looking; he doesn’t choose people because they are in POSITIONS OF POWER AND AUTHORITY; and he doesn’t always choose the most eloquent and persuasive.

There is ONE TYPE OF PERSON that God has used POWERFULLY over and over again throughout history. It is the prerequisite FOR MISSION.

God does INCREDIBLE THINGS with the people who MAKE THEMSELVES AVAILABLE TO HIM.

How Available ARE YOU TO GOD?
A WORLD WITHOUT NEIGHBORS

If your next-door neighbor had a child who was starving, what would you do? Would you help? Give the child some of your extra food? Find a way to get the child some food? Go without food yourself so that the child could be fed?

There is another great story, in Luke’s Gospel. A man came to Jesus and asked him what he needed to do to get to Heaven. Jesus replied by asking a question himself: What is written in the law? (The Jewish people strove to live by “the law,” which is found in the Torah, the first five books of the Bible.) The man replied, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” To this Jesus said, “You have given the right answer, do this, and you will live.” (Luke 11:25–28) But the man pressed Jesus for clarification, asking, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” The man said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.” (Luke 11:29–37)

In many ways we live in a world without neighbors today. Many people don’t even know who their next-door neighbors are, and too often if a child were starving next door we wouldn’t even know.

So, who is my neighbor?

Lately, I have been thinking a lot about this. My wife and I have three beautiful children and we do all we can to see to it that they have all they need physically, emotionally, intellectually, and spiritually. We are blessed materially and financially. But 22 percent of children in America live in poverty—that’s more than sixteen million children. And while they may not live next door, they are my neighbors—and more than that, they are my brothers and sisters in Christ. And this is just America.

There are 2.2 billion children in the world, and one billion of them live in poverty.

Twenty-one thousand children die from poverty around the world every day. That’s one child every four seconds, fourteen children dying every minute . . . and thirty-one children who have died since we began talking about it just over two minutes ago.

“They die quietly in some of the poorest villages on earth, far removed from the scrutiny and the conscience of the world. Being meek and weak in life makes these dying multitudes even more invisible in death.” Unicef

They are our neighbors, yes, but more than that they are our family, our brothers and sisters. They are God’s children.

What’s the difference if the starving child lives next door or across the ocean? They are still God’s children. And as always, God has a plan for his children. But he needs your help to fulfill his plan.

Will you set your plan aside and embrace his? If enough people do that, the world will become more just and much kinder, and be rid of so much unnecessary suffering.

—Unicef

KNOW IT: The Samaritans were looked down on in Jesus’ time.

THINK ABOUT IT: Whom do you exclude, ignore, or look down upon?

LIVE IT: Go out of your way this week to include someone you would usually exclude.
1. Jesus calls us to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. Whom do you consider to be your neighbor?

2. Why do you think so many children die from lack of food?

3. Are you willing to make sacrifices to reduce the amount of suffering in the world?
If you don’t breathe you will die even quicker. God has created you with legitimate needs. You have these legitimate needs in all four aspects of the human being: physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual. Physically you have legitimate needs for food, sleep, exercise, clothing, shelter, and many other things. Emotionally you have legitimate needs for opportunities to love and be loved. Intellectually you have legitimate needs to learn new things and stimulate and expand your thinking. Spiritually you have legitimate needs for silence, solitude, Scriptures, and sacraments.

The world says you will be most fully alive when you get what you want, but it’s not true. In your lifetime you will encounter hundreds of people who are obsessed with getting what they want, but getting what they want won’t make them happy. The reason is profoundly simple: You never can get enough of what you don’t really need.

God has given you these legitimate needs. They are clues about how to live life to the fullest.

The second ordinary voice of God is: talents and abilities.

You have a unique blend of talents and abilities that are perfectly suited to carry out whatever mission God has assigned to you on this earth. There are two types: universal and unique. Universal talents are those that we all have. For example, we all have the ability to make a difference in other people’s lives. Unique talents are those that everyone does not have. For example, the ability to paint like Van Gogh, write a symphony like Mozart, or be the best basketball player in the world.

The world is obsessed with unique talent, but when you consider the ability to make a difference in other people’s lives alongside the ability to throw a great fastball, the baseball thing seems trivial. The reason it seems trivial is because it is. The world takes the trivial and makes it important, and takes the important and makes it trivial.

God has given you a unique blend of talents and abilities, and your talents and abilities are vocational. What does that mean? Well, they hold clues about your mission, your genius, your vocation, and the best way for you to live.

The third ordinary voice of God is: deepest desire.

Deep in your heart you have desires for good things, and God has placed those desires in your heart to guide you to the life he envisioned for you.

At lunchtime I often have a desire for chocolate doughnuts. But the desire for doughnuts is not a deep desire; in fact it is a fairly shallow desire for doughnuts is not a deep desire; in fact it is a fairly shallow desire. God wants us to get beyond our shallow desires, which are often selfish or pointless, and uncover the deepest desires of our hearts.

When I am the best-version-of-myself, I say no to the doughnuts and I have a salad for lunch instead. To the world this is a simple choice between doughnuts and a salad. But as we grow spiritually, God shows us that there are many layers and dimensions to every decision.

On one level, yes, it’s just a choice between doughnuts and a salad. On another level it’s a choice between doughnuts and being healthy. That’s a different perspective. On another level it’s a choice between doughnuts and being alive and healthy enough to walk my daughter down the aisle when she gets married . . . to be alive to see her life unfold . . . and meet the person she will spend her life with . . . and meet my grandchildren . . .

When we embrace God and his way of life, he reveals many dimensions of everyday life that we have never seen or thought about before. God is speaking to you through your deepest desires. Seek out your deepest desires for good things and have the courage to pursue them.

The most common preface to any sentence in the Bible is “God said . . .” God said to Adam, Noah, Moses, and Abraham. God spoke to everyone. It isn’t that he has stopped speaking, but that humanity has stopped listening. God speaks to us in so many ways—through prayer, the Scriptures, the sacraments; through the life, teachings, and history of the Church; through other people, events, and circumstances.

You have been designed by God for a specific mission. This is what John Henry Newman wrote, “God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me, which he has not committed to another. I have my mission.” God has assigned a mission to you. If you don’t fulfill your mission it will go undone. The world is a mess because too many people have abandoned their God-given mission.

Find your mission. It will change your life in the most wonderful ways . . . forever!

1. WHO DO YOU KNOW WHO HAS FOUND AND FOLLOWED THEIR MISSION IN LIFE?

2. HAVE YOU EVER ASKED GOD WHAT MISSION HE HAS FOR YOU?

3. HOW DO YOU THINK WHAT YOU WANT FOR YOURSELF IS DIFFERENT FROM WHAT GOD WANTS FOR YOU?

How can Mary help you find and live out your mission?
Psalm 141

I call upon thee, O Lord; make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice, when I call to thee!

Let my prayer be counted as incense before thee, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice!

Set a guard over my mouth, O Lord, keep watch over the door of my lips!

Incline not my heart to any evil, to busy myself with wicked deeds in company with men who work iniquity; and let me not eat of their dainties!

Let a good man strike or rebuke me in kindness, but let the oil of the wicked never anoint my head;
for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.

When they are given over to those who shall condemn them, then they shall learn that the word of the Lord is true.

As a rock which one cleaves and shatters on the land, so shall their bones be strewn at the mouth of Sheol.

But my eyes are toward thee, O Lord God;
in thee I seek refuge; leave me not defenseless!

Keep me from the trap which they have laid for me, and from the snares of evildoers!

Let the wicked together fall into their own nets, while I escape.
Two months to the day before he died, Martin Luther King Jr. gave a speech in Atlanta, in which he said, “Everybody can be great, because everybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You don’t have to make your subject and your verb agree to serve. You don’t have to know Plato and Aristotle to serve. You don’t have to know the second law of thermodynamics in physics to serve. You don’t have to know the heart full of grace, a soul generated by love.”

The world says greatness is reserved for a few, God says everyone can be great. The world says if you are great everyone will serve you. God says if you are great you will serve everyone.

One of the greatest lessons I have learned in life is that getting outside myself is the starting point for good things to happen. When we get beyond ourselves and serve others we start down a sure path to happiness.

You can search the whole world for happiness, but it will elude you until you realize that it is only by bringing happiness to others that we ever find happiness for ourselves. Serving others is the surest path to happiness in this world, to discovering who you are and what you are here for. Serving others is at the core of the mission God has designed just for you.

But it is so easy to get caught up in ourselves, our plans, and our selfish desires. And when we are all caught up in ourselves, it is easy to ignore the suffering that is going on all around us.

There is a story in Luke’s Gospel that makes me very uneasy every time I hear or read it. It is the story of Lazarus and the rich man. It goes like this:

There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away. He called out, “Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.” But Abraham said, “Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.”

This parable makes me uncomfortable because like the rich man I have nice clothes and plenty of them, and I have plenty to eat every day, and there are a lot of people suffering in this world. They might not be on my doorstep, but they are not far away. It makes me uncomfortable because this is Jesus speaking. This story is straight from the mouth of God. And from what Jesus describes of the afterlife, I know where I want to end up.

Our Christianity is constantly challenging us to assess our relationship with the poor. For a long time I would give money to the poor. I would donate to organizations that help the poor and I would give people on the street a few dollars. These things are good, but they don’t give us personal contact with the poor. Our relationship with the poor can become very transactional if we are not careful. God calls us to more than that.

When it comes to helping the poor—and more than that, when it comes to being with the poor—our family, the Catholic Church, has an incredible track record. I have spoken often about the genius of Catholicism, and here we find it expressed in one of its most beautiful and practical ways.

Have you ever heard of the Works of Mercy? As Christians we bring the love and mercy of God to others by performing these works. That’s a thing of beauty. Think about it: You get to bring the love and mercy of God to other people.

So, what are these works of mercy? They are divided into two categories: the Corporal Works of Mercy, which concern the material needs of others, and the Spiritual Works of Mercy, which concern the spiritual needs of others.

The Corporal Works of Mercy are:
- To feed the hungry
- To give drink to the thirsty
- To clothe the naked
- To shelter the homeless
- To visit the sick
- To visit the imprisoned
- To bury the dead

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are:
- To bury the dead
- To comfort the sorrowful
- To counsel the doubtful
- To distribute religious works
- To instruct the ignorant

As the world becomes more and more consumed with material things, we must remember our primary mission is to serve others. We are called to be generosity expressed in practical ways.

“JEALOUSY IS THE TRIBUTE MEDIOCRITY PAYS TO GENIUS.”
–FULTON SHEEN

IS TECHNOLOGY GOOD OR BAD?
Like many things in this world, including material possessions and money, technology is morally neutral. It is neither good nor bad. What makes it good or bad is how we use it. Are you using technology in ways that are good or bad? Are you using it to help you become a better version of yourself?
The Spiritual Works of Mercy are:
- To instruct the ignorant
- To counsel the doubtful
- To correct sinners
- To bear wrongs patiently
- To forgive offenses willingly
- To comfort the afflicted
- To pray for the living and the dead

How would the world be different if everyone practiced just one work of mercy each day? How would the world be different if these works of mercy defined the way we live our lives? There is genius in Catholicism, but sadly it is little known and little practiced.

So here is my challenge for you. Each day for the next thirty days I want to encourage you to intentionally practice one of these works of mercy. You will be amazed how this thirty-day challenge can change you, the way you see the world, and your life.

You are so young and your lives are before you, so I want to beg you not to waste your single years waiting for life to happen. You will never have a better opportunity to serve than while you are young and single. Too many people spend their single years trying to wish them away. Singleness, like everything else, has a purpose. It is a time to discover who you are, what you are here for, what matters most, and what matters least. Nothing will help you develop this kind of personal clarity like service.

So, get outside yourself. Stop thinking that it is all about you. Find meaningful ways to serve. You will be so glad you did.

Vocation means “call.” It’s an invitation from God. There are many ways to live your life, but God has given you a unique blend of talents, abilities, and personality to carry out a mission that he has not assigned to anybody else. God may call you to the vocation of marriage, he may call you to live a single life, or he may call you to live as a priest or religious. Finding your vocation is like coming home after a long journey. It brings with it an indescribable joy.

1. WHO DO YOU KNOW WHO IS GREAT AT SERVING OTHER PEOPLE?

2. WHAT DOES THE STORY ABOUT THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS MAKE YOU THINK ABOUT?

3. DO YOU THINK YOU WILL BE HAPPIER IF YOU FIND AND FOLLOW YOUR MISSION?
The Road Not Taken
by Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
1. WHAT ARE YOU AFRAID OF?

2. ONE DAY, WHEN YOU ARE DYING, WHAT DO YOU WANT TO SEE WHEN YOU LOOK BACK ON YOUR LIFE?

3. HOW AVAILABLE ARE YOU TO GOD?
ACROSS

2. Done with purpose; deliberate
4. A native or inhabitant of Samaria
6. A disorderly or dirty accumulation, heap, or jumble
7. Everybody is a ______ in their own way.
8. A necessity
11. To feed the _____ is a corporal work of mercy.
14. To willingly _____ someone who has wronged you is a spiritual work of mercy.

DOWN

1. A short story that uses familiar events to illustrate a point
3. Abilities you have been given to help fulfill your God-given mission
5. To go out of your way to be of assistance to someone else
9. Something that is desired but not necessarily needed
10. You have been masterfully designed for a _____
12. To be kind, caring, compassionate, and forgiving is to show _____
13. The law of God as revealed to Moses and recorded in the first five books of the Hebrew Scriptures
15. God made you for _______.
We thank you for this day and for all your blessings. Help us to remain always grateful for all you do for us and in us. Watch over in a special way today anyone who is hungry, lonely, depressed, addicted, unemployed, or just in need of the human touch, and inspire us to realize that we are your partners in the work you wish to do in the world. Help us to remain ever mindful of the great love you have for each and every one of us, and give us the courage to respond with the bold enthusiasm of a little child. We ask all this in Jesus’ name. Amen.
12. HOLINESS IS POSSIBLE

We are almost at the end of our time together, and now it’s time for us to put all the pieces together.

When we play football, we know the goal is to score as many points as possible. In business the goal is to produce high-quality goods and services and produce a profit. The goal of golf is to finish with the lowest score. We approach almost everything we do with a goal or a desired outcome in mind.

So, what is the goal of the Christian life? It’s amazing how many people have no idea. Henry David Thoreau wrote, “In the long run, men hit only what they aim at. Therefore, they had better aim at something high.” What are we aiming at? What is the goal we are moving toward?

Holiness is the goal of the Christian life. I know. Huge concept. Serious stuff. But I want you to keep three things in mind:

First, what you think holiness is and what it actually is might very well be two quite different things. Second, you want holiness. You may not realize it yet, but you do. Finally, it may be a big concept and serious stuff, but a little bit of seriousness is highly agreeable to the soul. As I have said to you time and time again throughout this series, you are not too young to start thinking about life’s big questions. You are not too young for a little bit of seriousness. In fact, the sooner you embrace some seriousness, the more fruitful and fulfilling your life will be.

12.1 THE HOLY MOMENT

So, what is holiness? Our culture makes holiness seem boring. Nothing could be further from the truth. The culture pretends that anything religious encroaches on our freedom, when in fact authentic spirituality sets us free. Some people think that if you are to be holy you can never have any fun. Another lie. Nobody lived more fully than the saints. The truth is, there is nothing more attractive than holiness. And perhaps the biggest surprise of all is that you want to live a holy life more than you want anything else.

You have an enormous yearning for happiness. Almost every decision you make is based on this yearning. The reality is the more you grow in holiness, the happier you will be. Happiness and holiness are linked. God wants you to be happy and he wants you to live a holy life; the two cannot be separated.

You also have an enormous desire for relationships. But what kind of relationships do you want? Do you want relationships that are filled with lying, cheating, and gossip, in which you always have to have your guard up? That stuff is exhausting, because we can never relax in relationships like those.

Life has taught me that in great relationships we can relax because we know our friends want what is good for us. They are helping us to become the best version of ourselves, and no matter what happens, we know that they have our best interests at heart.

Do you want to be in relationships with people who are patient or impatient? Humble or prideful? Generous or stingy? Thoughtful or careless? Faithful or unfaithful? Whether you are aware of it or not, you want holiness—and you want to be around other people who are striving to live holy lives.

The problem is, most Christians have never considered holiness as a possibility. Most Christians don’t actually believe that holiness is possible. That’s the lie. It’s the most devastating lie in the history of Christianity. The tragic thing is, this is not a lie that gets told about Christians, it’s a lie we tell ourselves. It is subtle, deceptive, and disorienting.

We might believe that holiness is possible for someone else, like Mother Teresa or our grandma, but not for us. We know our faults and failings and weaknesses, we know the horrible thoughts we have at times, and we know what we are capable of because we know the dark things we have done.

But I am here to let you in on a life-changing secret: Holiness is possible. It’s possible for you to live a holy life. This changes everything. This opens up incredible possibilities.

It’s easy to say, but let me prove it to you.

If I said to you, “I want you to create one holy moment today,” you would probably ask me, “What is a holy moment?”

A holy moment happens when you are being the person God created you to be and doing what he wants you to do in that moment. Examples of holy moments include being patient with your little brother or sister, helping someone in need, being a good friend, welcoming someone who has been rejected by others, and avoiding gossip.

Anyone can create a single holy moment. If you really set your mind to it, you could create a holy moment today. And if you can create one holy moment today, you can create two tomorrow, and four the next day. Once you know how to create a single holy moment, you can duplicate the process.
The saints were not born saints, and they weren’t perfect. They were men and women like you and me who realized that the world’s vision for them was bankrupt, so they turned to God and his vision for their lives. They created one holy moment at a time, and over the course of their lives they strung together thousands of holy moments to create a holy life. You can do that too.

Holiness is possible, and once we come to that realization everything changes and possibilities we never considered before open up before us.

Discussion Questions

1. Who is the holiest person you know? What makes that person holy?

2. Who is your favorite saint? Why?

3. What’s one thing you have learned throughout the Decision Point experience that surprised you?

HE SUFFERED DEATH AND WAS BURIED, AND ROSE AGAIN ON THE THIRD DAY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE
"IT IS JESUS THAT YOU SEEK when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; HE IS THE beauty TO WHICH you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you SETTLE FOR COMPROMISE; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; IT IS HE WHO READS in your heart YOUR MOST GENUINE CHOICES, THE CHOICES THAT OTHERS TRY TO STIFLE. IT IS JESUS WHO STIRS IN YOU THE DESIRE TO DO SOMETHING GREAT WITH YOUR LIVES, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves TO BE GROUND DOWN BY MEDIOCRITY, the courage to commit yourselves humbly AND PATIENTLY TO IMPROVING YOURSELVES AND SOCIETY, making the world more human and more fraternal."

POPE JOHN PAUL II
Sometimes people fall into the trap of thinking that holiness is about doing something extraordinary. But most of the time holiness is just about doing the ordinary things of everyday life really well.

People used to ask Mother Teresa for advice, asking her what they should do with their lives, and she would tell them, “Do something beautiful for God!”

When she became a nun Mother Teresa chose her name because she had been influenced and inspired by Saint Therese of Lisieux, a nineteenth-century Carmelite nun. Saint Therese was famous for what she called “the little way.”

The Little Way suggests that we can grow in holiness just by doing the ordinary things of everyday life well. For example, Therese wrote that simply picking something up off the ground when it is inconvenient or when you would rather not and offering that small action to God could help you grow in holiness. In the same way, giving your full attention to the person you are with (rather than texting someone else) is a way you can grow in holiness, as is doing your chores without being asked, or doing your brother’s or sister’s chores because you know they are having a tough day. The little way is everywhere.

Holiness doesn’t necessarily mean doing extraordinary things. God invites us to do the little things of everyday life with great love. When is the last time you did something with great love? And even when holiness does involve something extraordinary, that extraordinary thing usually comes as a culmination of a thousand small things done with great love.

Once we discover the little way, we begin to recognize that opportunities to grow in holiness are everywhere. Everything that happens every day is an opportunity for holiness. The way we interact with people, the way we work or study, and how we use our free time are all opportunities to grow in holiness.

Have you ever known someone who was holy? Who is the holiest person you have ever met? The man who encouraged me to pray for ten minutes a day was a holy man. When I first met him I was about fifteen years old, and I have never forgotten what he taught me about life. He gave me dozens of insights, but what he taught me about work and study I have used every day.

“When you study,” he said to me, “put the initials of someone at the top of each page of notes, or at the top of each page you read in a book. Then, in a very short prayer, offer the work on that page to God as a prayer for that person. Perhaps your dad is having a hard time at work or your grandmother is sick, or maybe you have a friend or a sibling who needs your prayers. Place their initials at the top of a page, and offer that work to God as a prayer for that person. In this way, we can transform every hour of study into an hour of prayer.”

At the time I had a job after school working at a pharmacy, riding around delivering packages to the elderly. He taught me the same thing about my work. Back then I had a watch that would chime on the hour. He said to me, “Each time your watch chimes, offer the next hour of your work to God for a particular person or intention. In this way we transform every hour of work into prayer.”

Saint Paul wrote, “Pray without ceasing.” But we cannot all just go to church all day long and pray, so what did Paul mean? He was encouraging us to transform everything we do into prayer.

Everything is an opportunity to grow in holiness. One thing that is beautifully unique about Christianity is our belief that suffering has value. Life is difficult. Life is wonderful and beautiful, but it is also difficult. And suffering is an inevitable part of life. The question is, how are you going to respond to suffering?

Even suffering is an opportunity to grow in holiness. Jesus said, “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24) I visited with a good friend of mine last week, an old priest who has been in horrific pain for months with back problems. When I visited he told me he had been sitting in the chair he was in for twenty-three hours a day for more than a week while he was waiting to have an operation. He smiled a huge smile and said, “But I’m not wasting any of my suffering. I am offering it up to God as a prayer for all the young people who will experience the Confirmation program.” How cool is that? He is offering his suffering as a prayer for you!

We all have our crosses to carry. What cross are you carrying right now? Are you trying to carry it alone or are you letting Jesus help you? He wants to help. And as you carry your cross are you offering your suffering up to God as a prayer?

Each Sunday at Mass the offertory gifts are being brought up I place any sufferings or challenges I have in my life on the altar. I give them to God. I offer them up. I also place my marriage on the altar, and my children, and my health, my money and work, my things. I place everything on the altar, my whole life and my whole self. I offer it all to God.

Everything is an opportunity to grow in holiness. I hope this session will help you to recognize the opportunities each day. The Church needs a whole new generation of people committed to living holy lives.
1. WHO DO YOU KNOW WHO DOES LITTLE THINGS WITH GREAT LOVE?

2. WHAT LITTLE THINGS CAN YOU DO WITH GREAT LOVE TODAY?

3. WHAT DOES TODAY’S CULTURE THINK ABOUT DOING LITTLE THINGS WITH GREAT LOVE?

WHAT ARE YOU trying to FILL YOUR EMPTINESS with?

1 Thessalonians 5:17
"pray constantly"

KNOW IT: We are called to transform every moment into a prayer.

THINK ABOUT IT: How can you transform your daily activity into prayer? For whom can you offer these prayers to God?

LIVE IT: Offer each hour of work or study to God as a prayer for a specific intention.

Throughout your life there are going to be times when you feel like there must be more to life or that something is missing. We all have the same kind of empty feeling from time to time. You see, we all have a hole in us that needs to be filled.

We try to fill that hole in lots of different ways. When I was a child I thought the hole would be filled if Santa brought me just what I wanted or if I won enough soccer games and golf matches. As I grew older I tried to fill that hole with other things.

We try to fill the hole with pleasure, but that doesn't work. We tell ourselves, "Maybe I can fill it with stuff!" So we get a car, a house, clothes, a watch, handbags, jewelry, shoes—everything the material world has to offer. But that doesn't fill the hole either, and the empty feeling remains. So we go off to see the world and find ourselves, but that doesn't fill the hole. Next we chase accomplishment, "If I can just achieve enough, perhaps that will fill the hole." We achieve great things, but the emptiness continues to reign. The hole is still there.

We are slow learners, so we usually cycle through several rounds of each of these attempts at filling the hole. More pleasure, more travel, more stuff, more accomplishments, the right friends, sex, drugs, fame, status . . . but time and time again the emptiness continues. In fact, the more you try to fill the hole with these things, the bigger the hole seems to be.

We all experience the same kind of emptiness. Why? The reason is profoundly simple. We each have a God-sized hole in us. Only God can fill the hole. Try anything else you want, but it won't work. It never has and it never will.

My favorite line in the Catechism is the opening line in Chapter One, which reads: "The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and the happiness he never stops searching for."

You have a God-sized hole in you. What are you trying to fill it with? Are you ready to let God take away that emptiness once and for all? Life is choices. You get to decide.

It's amazing how a simple yes or no can change your life.

One of the most practical things about growing spiritually is that we get really good at saying no. Most people are bad at saying no. Every day we find ourselves saying yes to things that we know we should be saying no to. We do this because of peer pressure, fear of missing out on something, a false feeling of obligation, or just to stay busy so we can distract ourselves from really thinking about life and what God is calling us to. But here's the thing: When we say yes to stuff we know is not for us, we miss out on the stuff that is uniquely ours.

Let me give you an example. I was talking to a friend of mine the other day and I asked him how his girlfriend, Julie, was. He said she was great, so I asked him if he thought she was the one for him. He said no. So I asked him when they were going to break up. He said they weren't going to break up. I asked why and he said that he really liked her and they had fun together.

“What are you doing Friday night?” I asked.

“Taking Julie to that new movie.”

On Friday night, when he was out at the movies with Julie, that might have been the night when he was going to meet the woman that God had created just for him. When we say yes to stuff that is not for us, we miss out on the stuff that God created just for us.

Get really good at saying no to anything that you know is not for you. And the only way to say no to anything, is to have a deeper yes. As we grow spiritually—through prayer, the Scriptures, and the Sacraments—we get really clear about: who we are, what we are here for, what matters most, and what matters least. This personal clarity allows us to be really good at say yes to the right things and no to the stuff that just isn't part of God's plan for us.

If you have been practicing The Prayer Process each day I’m sure you are already getting a clearer sense of who you are, what you’re here for, what matters most, and what matters least. And that personal clarity is a beautiful thing.

From the beginning it has been my hope that this program will help you become a great decision maker, because decision making is so central to our experience of life. Learning to say yes to the right things and no to the wrong things is essential.

Now it’s time to face the decision at hand. At baptism your parents and godparents made a choice for you. Now you have to decide for yourself—and make no mistake, it is one of the biggest decisions of your life. God has chosen you. The question is: How will you respond?

We have been making this journey toward Confirmation, and now we are almost there. It’s time to commit. Say yes to Confirmation, but much more than that, decide today to say yes to Jesus and his Church. Choose them, for they have chosen you. Open your workbooks and sign the pledge. Read it slowly, pray about it, and sign it. Say yes to God and his Church, and say yes enthusiastically. Not just a whimpering, passive yes, but a wholehearted and enthusiastic YES.

Your Catholic faith will always be a part of you. You get to decide if it is going to be something powerful and positive, or something negative and misunderstood.

God has a plan. When we don’t play our part, the whole thing falls apart. It’s all connected. Imagine if Mary had said no. Her yes has touched every person who has lived for two thousand years. You see, every decision made by every person echoes down through history.

Sometimes I wonder if the reason we don’t have a cure for cancer, AIDS, and Alzheimer’s is because the people who were going to find those cures were among the fifty-five million children who have been aborted in the United States since Roe v. Wade. God had a plan for every one of those children, just as he has a plan for you. You have a part to play in God’s plan for the world.

You might be tempted to think, “Oh, I’m nobody special; God doesn’t have any special plans for me.” But that would be a mistake. Read Chapter 17 of the first book of Samuel for a great example. David’s father sent him to take food to his brothers, who were in the army. When he got there Goliath, the enormous and much feared Philistine, was daring the Israelites to fight him, but they were all too afraid. David said to king Saul, “I’ll fight him.” Saul told him he could not because David, who was little more than a child, was too young. David and Saul went back and forth and finally the king agreed. The rest is history. David slew Goliath, and in time God made this lowly shepherd boy the king of his people.

David made himself available.

God uses the most unlikely people to do his greatest work. As you read the Bible, you’ll discover that he almost never uses those in positions of power and authority; he doesn’t necessarily use the most educated, or the best looking, or even the most qualified. Whom does God use to do his most powerful work here on earth? He uses the people who make themselves available to him. How available are you to God? Ten percent, 50 percent, 95 percent? Or are you 100 percent available for whatever God calls you to today?

Want to see something truly incredible? Make yourself available to God.

Who Was David?

David was an ancestor of Jesus (c. 1040 BC–970 BC) and perhaps the most brilliant leader of ancient Israel. He had the mind and charisma to inspire a great nation. In other ways he was a very ordinary man who struggled with destructive passion and was motivated at times by political gain. Yet through it all he had a deep love of God. The Bible describes David as a man after God’s own heart (Acts 13:22).

When David was just a boy he was summoned to play music for King Saul in order to cure his melancholy. David also gained fame in his youth when he killed the Philistine Goliath with his slingshot. After Saul died, David rose to power and became King of Israel, uniting the twelve tribes.
God, the Father of infinite love and mercy,
I pledge to walk with you.

Thank you for the gift of life;
I pledge to live it to the fullest.

Thank you for sending your Son Jesus to redeem us;
I pledge to be his disciple.

Thank you for sending your Spirit to lead and direct us;
I pledge to follow his guidance.

Thank you for the gift of the Catholic Church;
I pledge to allow her to teach and inspire me to live life to the fullest.

Help me to be patient with anything that I don’t understand about our incredible faith.

Fill me with joy so that I can always be a good witness to your love and mercy in the world.

Give me wisdom, grace, and courage to live up to this pledge I make to you today.

Amen.

___________________________
Sign Here
We have covered tons of material throughout this program. Many of the ideas we have talked about with you are going to be part of your daily experience for the rest of your lives. I suspect you will spend the rest of your lives unpacking what we have discussed here in our short time together. So, I hope you will keep your workbook and that it will become a touchstone for your life. There will be times when you come to a decision point, and at those times I hope you will take out your workbook and review some of the key principles we have shared together as you have been preparing for Confirmation. I hope our paths cross somewhere along the way . . . and whether it is five, ten, or twenty years from now, I hope you will take out that workbook and show it to me. And as I flip through the pages I hope to find it dog-eared and worn out, with notes and highlighting everywhere. That will tell me that you have found that book to be a worthy companion for your journey.

Now let’s take a look at some key messages from each of the sessions we have already experienced.
Wow, we have covered a lifetime of ideas. Now it’s time to draw it all together.

Our lives change when our habits change. Throughout our time together I have been encouraging you to develop strong positive habits in your life. We spoke about using the Prayer Process to establish the habit of daily prayer. We explored dedicating a few minutes each day to reading the Bible. We spoke about getting to Mass each Sunday and honoring the Sabbath as a day of rest. We also explored how powerful frequenting the sacrament of Reconciliation can be. And we discussed how good friendships are one of the most powerful habits we can develop. Every habit we discussed was chosen because it will help you develop a dynamic relationship with God and become the best version of yourself.

Many years ago I was in Austria, and one night there was a huge storm. The next day I took a walk and there were trees down everywhere, and huge limbs ripped from other trees. But not far from where I was staying there was a park with soccer fields, and in the middle of the park there was a huge tree that looked like the storm hadn’t even touched it. I stood there looking at it for a while.

That tree taught me this powerful lesson: A tree with strong roots can weather any storm.

There are going to be storms in your life. I don’t know when, and you don’t know when. They come mostly unannounced and unexpected. If we knew when they were coming we would prepare for them. But the storms of life don’t announce themselves in advance. They rush upon the shores of our lives when we least expect them.

The habits we have discussed throughout this series are like strong roots. Sink them deep into your life and you will weather any storm. Don’t wait for the storms to arrive, because by then it will be too late to sink the roots. On that day you either have strong roots or you don’t.

These habits will also help you to become a great decision maker. You will discover that there are few life skills more practical than this one. We have discovered many decision points in our time together, and you will discover many more in the years ahead. I hope you are better equipped to make those decisions now.

Whatever habits you choose to make your own, whatever decisions you make along the way, they will determine the type of life you live.

Don’t live a small life. That doesn’t mean you need to do extraordinary things. To do the ordinary things extraordinarily well and with great love is to live the full measure of life. To live a small life is to be mean, fearful, greedy, distrustful of God and humanity, unhappy, and selfish. Don’t live a small life. Live a life large enough to match your birthright as a son or daughter of God. Live joyfully and generously, with the kindness of the saints, trusting always in God, who loves you and wants good things for you.
DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. WHAT NEW HABIT HAVE YOU DEVELOPED SINCE YOU STARTED THIS PROGRAM?

2. WHAT IS THE BEST IDEA YOU HEARD DURING THE ENTIRE EXPERIENCE?

3. WHAT IS ONE THING YOU CAN DO THIS WEEK TO BETTER PREPARE YOURSELF FOR CONFIRMATION?

My Thoughts
When I got married I was thirty-five years old, and for fifteen years I had been on the road, traveling from one city to the next. One of the things that I love about being married is that I have someone to pray with. There is something wonderful and powerful about praying with other people. Jesus said, “Wherever two or more are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” (Matthew 18:20) Here we are, gathered in Jesus’ name. If it weren’t for him, we wouldn’t be here right now. So let us close our eyes, and end our time together with prayer:

Loving Father,
We thank you for this day and for all your blessings.
Help us to remain always grateful for all you do for us and in us, watch over in a special way today anyone who is hungry, lonely, depressed, addicted, unemployed, or just in need of the human touch, and inspire us to realize that we are your partners in the work you wish to do in the world.
Help us to remain ever mindful of the great love you have for each and every one of us, and give us the courage to respond with the bold enthusiasm of a little child.
We ask all this in Jesus’ name as we pray as he taught us to.

On behalf of everyone at Dynamic Catholic, I want to thank you for participating in this journey toward Confirmation. We hope we can serve you in powerful ways throughout your life. Don’t let this be the end. Make a commitment to do something every day for the rest of your life that will help you grow spiritually. And I look forward to meeting you somewhere along the way as our pilgrimage continues...
1. WHAT ARE YOUR DREAMS?

2. WHAT CROSS ARE YOU CARRYING AT THIS TIME IN YOUR LIFE?

3. WHAT DO YOU HOPE YOUR LIFE WILL BE LIKE FIVE YEARS FROM NOW?
Psalm 27

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When evildoers assail me, uttering slanders against me, my adversaries and foes, they shall stumble and fall.

Though a host encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent, he will set me high upon a rock.

And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies round about me; and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud, be gracious to me and answer me!

Thou hast said, “Seek ye my face.” My heart says to thee, “Thy face, Lord, do I seek.”

Hide not thy face from me. Turn not thy servant away in anger, thou who hast been my help. Cast me not off, forsake me not, O God of my salvation!

For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the Lord will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord; and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.

Give me not up to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and they breathe out violence.

I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living!

Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; yea, wait for the Lord!

---

HOLINESS IS POSSIBLE

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

1. Contains answers about the teachings of the Catholic Church
2. To accept or support willingly and enthusiastically
3. Showing consideration for the needs of other people
4. ______ is possible, and once we come to that realization everything changes and possibilities we never considered before open up before us.
5. Going beyond your own selfishness to give of your time, talent, and treasure to benefit others
6. We all have a _____ to carry.
7. Anyone can create a single ______ moment.
8. Experiencing pain, distress, or hardship
9. A conclusion or resolution reached after consideration
10. Showing modesty of one’s self-importance
11. Someone who believes that Jesus is the Messiah, that he walked the earth, was brutally murdered, and rose from the dead. Someone devoted to living as Jesus invites us to live.
12. Our ability to ______ is an astounding gift.
13. Able to accept or tolerate delays, problems, or suffering without becoming annoyed or anxious
14. God uses the people who make themselves ______ to him.
15. Nobody lived more fully than the ______.
DECISION POINT is different from other programs in a hundred ways.

One way it is different is that it is always changing and improving.

We need your help with this.

Whether you find a typo or think of some fun way to improve the program, please email us and tell us about it so that year after year DECISION POINT can become even more dynamic.

feedback@dynamiccatholic.com Mission

To re-energize the Catholic Church in America by developing world-class resources that inspire people to rediscover the genius of Catholicism.

Vision

To be the innovative leader in the New Evangelization helping Catholics and their parishes become the-best-version-of-themselves.

DynamicCatholic.com

Be Bold. Be Catholic.

2200 Arbor Tech Drive • Hebron, Kentucky 41048
United States of America
phone: 1–859–980–7900
e-mail: info@DynamicCatholic.com

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

GOD FROM GOD, LIGHT FROM LIGHT,
TRUE GOD FROM TRUE GOD,
BEGOTTEN, NOT MADE, CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER;
THROUGH HIM ALL THINGS WERE MADE.
FOR US MEN AND FOR OUR SALVATION he came down from heaven,
AND BY THE HOLY SPIRIT
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
AND BECAME MAN.
FOR OUR SAKE HE WAS CRUCIFIED UNDER PONTIUS PILATE,
HE SUFFERED DEATH AND WAS BURIED, and rose again on the third day
IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SCRIPTURES.
HE ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN
AND IS SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER.
HE WILL COME AGAIN IN GLORY to judge the living and the dead
AND HIS KINGDOM WILL HAVE NO END.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
WHO PROCEEDS FROM THE FATHER AND THE SON,
WHO WITH THE FATHER AND THE SON IS ADORED AND GLORIFIED, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church.
I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
AND THE LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME.

Amen.