

Hudson River School Art Trail

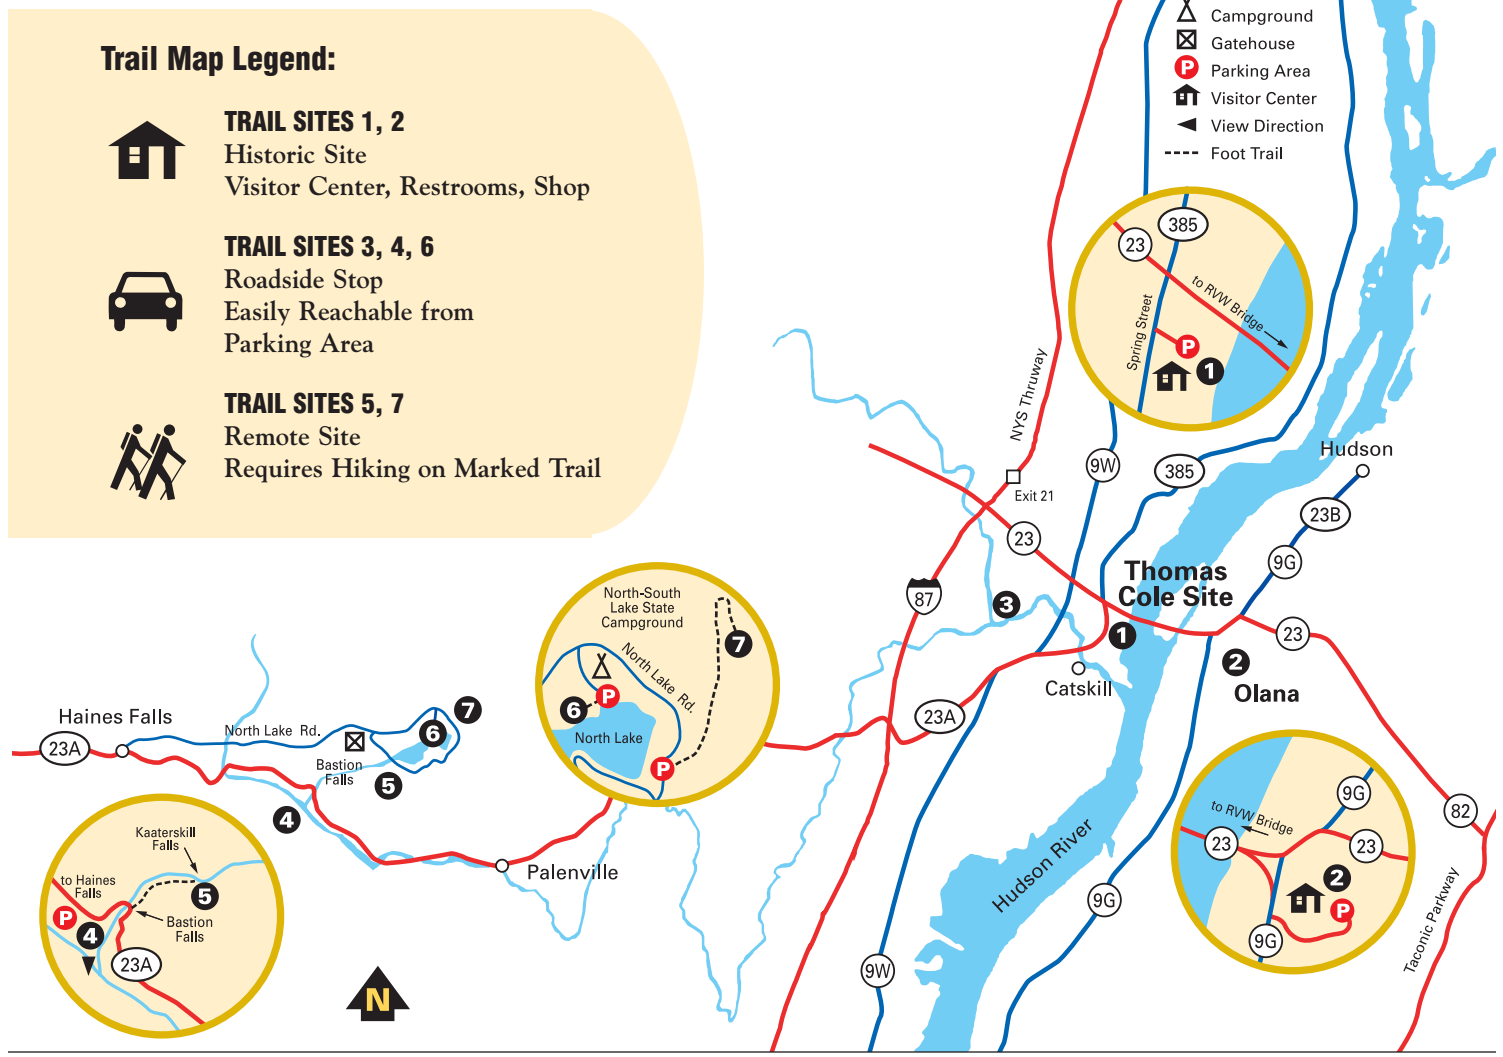

Trail Map

Follow the Hudson River School Art Trail to the places that sparked a distinctly American artistic identity.

Seeing the sites on The Hudson River School Art Trail will be a memorable and rewarding experience, but be prepared to give it some time as the trail stops are located over a fairly wide area. Some of the stops are easy to get to by car while others can be reached only on foot, and range from an easy walk to a fairly strenuous hike. Use this Map in conjunction with the detailed Trail Site Directions pages.

Please use caution and common sense while on the Trail.

Outdoor recreational activities are by their nature potentially hazardous. All participants in such activities must assume the responsibility for their own actions and safety. Exercise caution on the roads and trails, wear appropriate dress for the weather conditions and the activities you wish to pursue. No printed materials can replace good judgment.

The Hudson River School Art Trail is a project of

