

Living Species and Habitat

Did you know that there are lots of species that share the watershed of the Delaware Estuary with us?

In the list below are some fish that swim in our rivers, birds that fly in our air, and animals that inhabit our land. The rivers, air, parkland, city and residential areas near Philadelphia are the habitats that these creatures inhabit.

Can you color in all of these birds, fish and animals hidden in the picture?

- |   |                  |   |                     |   |                     |   |                        |   |                         |
|---|------------------|---|---------------------|---|---------------------|---|------------------------|---|-------------------------|
|   | Bat       |  | Brown Trout  |    | Chipmunk     |  | Duck            |  | Gray Squirrel    |
|   | Blue Crab |  | Canada Goose |    | Cormorant    |  | Eel             |  | Great Blue Heron |
|  | Blue Jay  |  | Catfish      |    | Crow         |  | Freshwater Clam |  | Great Horned Owl |
|   |                  |   |                     |  | Garter Snake |   |                        |   |                         |

