

Out of Harm's Way

Wednesday, August 1st, 2012

Delaware History Museum, 504 N. Market St., Wilmington, DE

Time	Topic	Speaker
9:00	Check-in and coffee
9:15	Welcome	Secretary Collin O'Mara, DE Dept. of Natural Resources and Environmental Control (DNREC)
9:45	Planning for Resilience
	Preparing for Tomorrow's High Tide: Sea Level Rise Vulnerability and Adaptation in Delaware	Susan Love, DNREC Coastal Programs
	Getting to Resilience	Dorina Frizzera, NJ Coastal Management Program
	Ecological Assessment of the Delaware Riverfront	Lance Butler, Philadelphia Water Dept. Office of Watersheds
	BREAK
11:00	Delivering Adaptation Actions
	Plant-Mussel Living Shoreline Tactic	Dr. David Bushek, Rutgers Haskin Shellfish Research Laboratory
	Camden Stormwater Management and Resource Training (SMART)	Andy Kricun, Camden County Municipal Utility Authority
	Enhancing and Harnessing Nature for Climate Resilience in the Delaware Estuary	Dr. Danielle Kreeger, Partnership for the Delaware Estuary (PDE) and Drexel University
12:00	Lunch
12:30	Local Experiences Panel	Lewes (Dr. Wendy Carey, DE Sea Grant), Chester (Dr. Jaclyn Rhoads, PA Sea Grant), Maurice River Township (Bill Stowman, Land Use board), Wilmington (Matt Miller, Water Quality Manager)
	Recognition of communities taking action for Weathering Change	Jennifer Adkins, PDE Executive Director, and Shawn Garvin, EPA Mid-Atlantic Regional Administrator
1:30	Adapting to Climate Change in the Delaware Estuary	Dr. Danielle Kreeger, PDE
1:45	Prioritizing actions for our region- group work instructions	Sari Rothrock, PDE
2:00	Break-out Groups	Facilitated by PDE Staff
2:45	Report-out	Facilitated by PDE Staff
3:30	Synthesis	Jennifer Adkins, PDE
4:00	Adjourn
4:00	WeTable demonstration ( must be pre-registered )	Facilitated by Ed Lewandowski, Delaware Sea Grant