

A Moment with Donna....Living the Dream

<https://1funny.com/woman-wind-turbines-living/>

We live in wonderful times when a woman pretty much can engage in any kind of professional work she wishes to pursue. Over 50% of entrepreneurs are women and more women are attending college than men. Fascinating and wonderful changes have evolved in less than 100 years here in America. We have a lot more to do though.

Now it is time to evolve into the thinking and understanding that we judge people in the working world not by race, financial status, gender, or age, but according to their ability to do a job well. Too, we need to realize that regardless of age, we never stop learning and our skill sets can be upgraded to fit the changes in the industry we choose to be in.

As a mature woman I have very strong feelings about adults working with younger men and women and sharing, showing what we have learned, giving them the support they need to grow into strengths and skills they have. The age gap that so often is referred to doesn't have to exist. Youth don't have the experience that an older person typically has gained through the challenges life has put them through. The older individual can be of great help to the younger by giving patience and understanding of how to avoid pitfalls, giving valuable structure and knowledge. Youth in turn may give a new perspective to the mature individual, enthusiasm with new ideas that can inspire them, enabling the opportunity to step into new areas of thinking and learning. It is a win-win.

Jessica Killroy, the wind climber, I am not...however, she should be an inspiration to anyone who dares to step into a new environment that can use skills one already has in a new way. You are only limited by your willingness to try something new.

When I think back to my working experiences they seemed to always involve communication on one level or another. When I was 17 years old I never dreamed that I would be involved in media as I am today. My working path took me into the areas of police work, receptionist positions, insurance and even an executive secretary position prior to my becoming a minister and counselor. Then circumstances brought me the opportunity to do guest appearances on radio and television.

Slowly but surely, I became aware that I loved the environment of broadcasting and that it enabled me to reach large groups of people no matter where I was. I could share with thousands my skills and talents. One day, during the late 80's I was standing outside a hotel talking with a producer friend and shared with her my dream to have my own daily radio show reaching internationally via the Internet. She said, "Donna, I know you'll accomplish what you desire but it is a bit early to do it now. The cost is prohibitive. Wait and you'll be able to do what you see yourself doing." She was correct. I started my daily radio programming at a little station in my neighborhood, graduating to a Seattle 50,000 watt station. 10 years ago I embarked into the Internet, and finally 4 years ago developed my own network. My achievement involved working with people of all ages, experience, and knowledge, through the years.

I am truly living the dream/desire I had so long ago and I encourage you to realize that sometimes the journey takes a while and may lead you through various paths you never thought you could or would venture to explore. In the process you'll find new friends, ideas, failures, and much more that will make your life story a much richer one so you can pass on your legacy to someone who has a dream too.

Have a magnificent day.

The Recipe Box...Valentine's Special – Cherry Chocolates

Would you like to do something special for that special person in your life? Why not make the chocolates instead of buying them. Here is a super simple recipe that I think you'll want to try. Let me know how it works for you.

Ingredients: 12 candied cherries, 2 Tbsp. rum or brandy, 9 oz. marzipan, 5 ½ oz. dark chocolate, extra mild, dark, or white chocolate to decorate (optional).

Directions: Line a cookie sheet with baking parchment. Cut the cherries in half and place them in a small bowl. Add the rum or brandy and stir to coat. Set the cherries aside to soak for a minimum of 1 hour-stirring occasionally. Divide the marzipan into 24 pieces and roll into a ball. Press half a marinated cherry into the top of each marzipan ball. Break the chocolate into pieces and melt in a double boiler. Dip each candy into the melted chocolate, allowing the excess to drip back into the pan. Place the coated cherries on the baking parchment and chill until set. If desired, melt a little extra chocolate and drizzle it over the top of the coated cherries. Let set.

Special Comments

A special 'thank you' to the many people who join me weekdays to hear 'The Donna Seebo Show' and 'Warriors for Peace' from around the country and the world. Your emails, calls and wonderful letters make my day. It is always a joy to share the talents and information from people and other sources that can make our lives better. Should you have recipes, ideas and/or information you think my listeners might be interested in, please email the information to me. Due to the tremendous amount of material received, I cannot promise that I will use it on my show but I do review everything that is sent.

For authors who are interested in being interviewed on my program, please send a copy of your book/CD/audio tape publication along with your press kit to the address noted below. All materials are reviewed for content and if accepted, you will be called to schedule a date for an interview. Currently my interviews are booked two to three months in advance. It is always advisable to follow up with a phone call to be sure that your materials are received by my office.

You are always welcome to share this newsletter and if you have someone who would like to be added to the subscriber list, just send his/her name and email address to donna@delphiinternational.com or donnaseebo@comcast.net. Past newsletters are archived on my website, and you are welcome to review them at any time. If you desire to be deleted from the mailing just type unsubscribe in subject line.

For scheduling of private appointments (by telephone or in-person), information on gift certificates, speaking engagements, private parties, classes, etc., please contact my office at the telephone number listed at the bottom of this newsletter.

Do you know of children between the ages of 3 to 12 who love to read? Then you'll want to order "God's Kiss" my award winning illustrated book and audio tape. Go to my website, fill out the information and I will be delighted to personalize the book for that special child. We are celebrating our 22nd anniversary of 'Classics' publications and now have a website showing 'God's Kiss' and other products. Both e-books and audio e-books are now available as well.

My new children's publication, "The Magic Hat" is available in e-book and e-audio book format. It is also available in book form and I am happy to personalize it for you. You can go to my website to order directly or Amazon, Create Space, and Kindle. This book is beautifully illustrated by Carol Ann Johnson and you can listen to a 'free' preview of the audio book and view some of the art as well on Mrs. Seebo's Classics website.

Go to www.mrsseebosclassics.com to find out more about these wonderful publications. Be sure to like us on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter.
