

A Moment with Donna.....A Mother's Power

One day as a small child Thomas Edison came home from school and gave a letter to his mother. He said to her, "Mom, my teacher gave this paper to me and said that only you should to read it. What does it say?" Her eyes swelled with tears as she read the letter to her child. "Your son is a genius. This school is too small for him and doesn't have enough good teachers to train him. Please teach him yourself."

Many years later, after Edison's mother had died, he became one of the greatest inventors of the century. One day he was going through a closet and found the letter the teacher had written so many years before. He opened it...the letter said, "Your son is mentally deficient, we won't let him come to school anymore." Edison became very emotional upon reading it and wrote in his diary... Thomas A. Edison was a mentally deficient child whose mother turned him into a genius of the 20th century.

After you read this editorial I hope you can find the video. This video was submitted by one of our readers, B.G., California and I am so grateful for it. However, I wasn't able to find the source of the MP4 file so I wasn't able to get the exact link but the story is so powerful and holds a very deep meaning.

Women around the world need to understand how powerful they really are. How what we do, how we think, how we choose to live our lives has a significant effect on those around us, no matter what our age or life experiences we have had...we can choose to be the warriors of truth, right action, or we can choose to hide in fear, ignorance, and the societal attitudes of victimization.

This is the month we celebrate Mom's around the world. To repeat the quote in the video, "A positive word of encouragement can change anyone's destiny." This is the power of not just a mom, but for any of us if we just choose to remember it.

Abundant blessings to all of you and have a magnificent month.

Power Thought for May

General George ("Old Blood and Guts") Patton was fond of quoting poetry to his men. One of his favorites was: The Lord gave us two ends to use, One to sit with, One to think with, The war depends on which we choose, Heads we win, tails we lose. ~Author Unknown

May's Chuckle

A tramp went up to an expensive looking house and knocked gently on the front door. The rich owner answered and the tramp asked if he could supply him with some food. The wealthy man said, "I didn't become rich by giving stuff away for free but I tell you what – if you go out the back and paint my porch, in return you will receive a fine meal."

After about twenty minutes, the tramp returns and knocks at the front door and the owner says, "Wow! Finished already? That was quick. Take a seat and my cook will bring you the food."

"Thanks" said the tramp, "But you should know one thing – that's a BMW you have out back, not a porch!"

The Recipe Box.....Chef Le Tips Beef Broth Special

In the kitchen with Chef Le Tips! Today - home-made bone broth! First he roasts the beef shanks and knuckle bones in the oven at 400 degrees till the marrow bubbles, then, he soaks them in filtered water and apple cider vinegar for 30 min - them off to the stove top for 24-72 hours of low cooking! Yum and so good for you!!! Toodles from Tippy!!

Special Note: Tippy’s assistant, Debrah was gracious enough to share this oh, so special recipe, by Chef Le Tips. He wanted us to know that food for dogs can be nutritious and delicious. Of course, food made at home is touched by love and that makes it even better.
