^{1994:} Pursuant to P.L. 103–6, § 7 (Mar. 4, 1993, 107 Stat. 33, at 35), the pay adjustment was denied to Members of Congress. P.L. 103–123 (Oct. 28, 1993, 107 Stat. 1226) eliminated an adjustment to General Schedule base salaries. Under the provisions of 2 U.S.C. 31, 5 U.S.C. 5318, and 28 U.S.C. 461, the officials in all three branches are limited to the effective dates of adjustment to the General Schedule base pay (P.L. 101–194, § 704, Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1716, at 1769). ^{1998:} Pursuant to P.L. 101–194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, and P.L. 103–356, § 101 (Oct. 13, 1994, 108 Stat. 3410), the January 1998 pay adjustment went into effect, but was limited to the 2.3% adjustment to General Schedule base pay effective at the same time. P.L. 105–119 (Nov. 26, 1997, 111 Stat. 2440, at 2493) authorized the pay adjustment for judges.

^{1999:} Pursuant to P.L. 105–277, § 621 (October 21, 1998, 112 Stat. 2681–518) there was no pay adjustment for federal officials.

^{2000:} Pursuant to P.L. 101–194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries were adjusted at a rate of 3.4%. Judicial increases were authorized by P.L. 106–113, § 1000(a)(1), Division B, § 304 (Nov. 29, 1999, 113 Stat. 1535). Implemented via Executive Order 13144, Dec. 21, 1999, 64 Federal Register 72235.

P.L. 106–553, § 309 (Dec. 21, 2000, 114 Stat. 2762A–89), the pay adjustment for judges. Implemented via Executive Order 13182, Dec. 23, 2000, 65 Federal Register 82879.

^{2002:} Pursuant to P.L. 101–194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries were adjusted by a rate of 3.4%.

2004: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries were temporarily adjusted by a rate of 1.5%. The scheduled rate of 2.2% was reduced to accommodate the lower rate of adjustment in General Schedule basic pay, effective January 2004. The judges were authorized to receive the 2004 adjustment under P.L. 108-167 (Dec. 6, 2003, 117 Stat. 2031). Pursuant to P.L. 108-199, Division F, Sec. 640 (Jan. 23, 2004, 118 Stat. 3), salaries adjustment rate was restored to 2.2% retroactively, through the action of setting the General Schedule adjustment at a higher rate.

2005: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries were adjusted by a rate of 2.5%.

2006: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries were adjusted by a rate of 1.9%.

2007: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 2.0%, which automatically was revised downward to 1.7%, in order to match the annual base pay adjustment of GS employees. That adjustment was announced in the President's alternative pay plan of November 30, 2006, which also provided an additional 0.5% average locality pay adjustment for GS employees. By law, Members may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. Members do not receive locality pay. Congress subsequently delayed the 1.7% annual increase for Members until February 16, 2007 (P.L. 109-383, Dec. 9, 2006). In February 2007, Congress acted to deny the adjustment for 2007 (P.L. 110-5, Feb. 15, 2007). Pursuant to language in P.L. 109-383, P.L. 110-5, and P.L. 79-850 (section 601(a)(2)), as amended (2 U.S.C. 31), the delay in the Member salary adjustment deferred the salary adjustments also scheduled for the Speaker of the House, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and the Majority and Minority Leaders of the House and Senate. Judicial officials did not receive the 1.7% pay adjustment because both houses did not authorize it in law, as required.

2008: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members, federal officials, and judges were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 2.7%. The percent increase was automatically revised downward to 2.5% to match the annual base pay adjustment of GS employees. By law, Members, federal officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The adjustment was announced in Executive Order 13454 on January 4, 2008, which also provided an additional 1.0% average locality pay adjustment for GS employees. Members, federal officials and judges do not receive locality pay. As required by law, P.L. 110-161, Division D, Sect. 305 (Dec. 26, 2007, 121 Stat. 1844), provided the authorization for the pay raise for the judges.

2009: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, salaries for Members and federal officials were adjusted by a rate of 2.8%. The adjustment was announced in Executive Order 13483 on December 18, 2008. 2010: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members, federal officials, and judges, were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 2.1%. This adjustment was automatically revised downward to 1.5% to match the annual base pay adjustment of GS employees. By law, Members, executive schedule officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The adjustment for Members was prohibited by P.L. 111-8, Division J, § 103 (Mar. 11, 2009, 123 Stat. 988). The adjustment for the Executive Schedule was announced in Executive Order 13525 on December 23, 2009. Judicial officials did not receive the 1.5% pay adjustment because both houses did not authorize it in law, as required.

2011: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members, federal officials, and judges, were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 0.9%. This adjustment was automatically revised downward to 2010 levels to match the freeze in base pay rates for GS employees. By law, Members, executive schedule officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The adjustment for Members was prohibited by P.L. 111-165 (May 14, 2010, 124 Stat. 1185). The freeze in pay rates for the Executive Schedule and Judicial officials was announced in Executive Order 13561 on December 22, 2010.

2012: Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members, federal officials, and judges, were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 1.3%, which automatically would have been revised downward to 1.1% in order to match the lower projected adjustment of GS employees. This adjustment was automatically frozen at 2010 levels to match the freeze in base pay rates for GS employees through December 31, 2012, mandated by P.L. 111-322 (December 22, 2010, 124 Stat. 3518-3519). By law, Members, executive schedule officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The freeze in pay rates for the Executive Schedule and Judicial officials was announced in Executive Order 13561 on December 22, 2010, and Executive Order 13594 on December 19, 2011.

P.L. 112-175, § 114 (Sept. 28, 2012, 126 Stat. 1316), extended the pay freeze enacted by P.L. 111-322 through the duration of the continuing resolution (March 27, 2013). Executive Order 13635, December 27, 2012, implemented a 0.5% adjustment for the Executive Schedule and Vice President, effective on the first day of the first applicable pay period beginning after March 27, 2013. Although the executive order originally indicated an adjustment in pay for Members of Congress, this adjustment was subsequently prohibited pursuant to P.L. 112-240, § 802 (Jan. 2, 2013). Pursuant to P.L. 113-6, § 1112 (March 26, 2013) and Executive Order 13641 dated April 5, 2013, the adjustment for the Executive Schedule and Judicial officials was prohibited and frozen at the January 2010 levels.

The adjustment for Members was prohibited by P.L. 113-46 (Oct. 17, 2013, 127 Stat. 565). According to the Office of Personnel Management, "Certain senior political officials may not receive a pay increase in 2014 or receive the 2014 established pay rates due to section 741 of title VII of division E of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014 (Public Law 113-76, January 17, 2014). Section 741 freezes 2014 pay rates for the Vice President and certain senior political appointees [paid under the Executive Schedule] at applicable 2013 levels from the first day of the first pay period that begins after January 17, 2014, through the end of the last pay period that begins in 2014 (January 26, 2014, through January 10, 2015, for those on the standard biweekly pay period cycle). However, the officially established and posted pay rates (or pay ranges) for 2014 are in effect and used for determining pay for other employees." The adjustment for Members was prohibited by section 8 of title II of division Q of the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (Public Law 113-235, December 16, 2014). According to the Office of Personnel Management, "Certain senior political officials may not receive a pay increase in 2015 or receive the 2015 established pay rates due to section 738 of title VII of division E of the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (Public Law 113-235, December 16, 2014). Section 738 continues the freeze on the payable pay rates for the Vice President and certain senior political appointees [paid under the Executive Schedule] at applicable 2013 levels. The new pay freeze period commences on the first day of the first pay period that begins in January 2015 through the end of the last pay period that begins in 2015 (January 11, 2015, through January 9, 2016, for those on the standard biweekly pay period cycle). However, the officially established and posted pay rates (or pay ranges) for 2015 are in effect and used for determining pay for other employees." This adjustment was automatically revised downward to 1.0% to match the annual base pay adjustment of GS employees. By law, Members, executive schedule officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The adjustment for Members was prohibited by P.L. 114-113 (Dec. 18, 2015). According to the Office of Personnel Management, "Certain senior political officials may not receive a pay increase in 2016 or receive the 2016 established pay rates due to section 738 of title VII of division E of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016 (Public Law 114-113, December 18, 2015). Section 738 continues the freeze on the payable pay rates for the Vice President and certain senior political appointees [paid under the Executive Schedule] at applicable 2013 levels. The new pay freeze period commences on the first day of the first pay period that begins in January 2016 through the end of the last pay period that begins in 2016 (January 10, 2016, through January 7, 2017, for those on the standard biweekly pay period cycle). However, the officially established and posted pay rates (or pay ranges) for 2016 are in effect and used for determining pay for other employees." The adjustment for the justices and judges was announced in Executive Order 13715 on December 18, 2015.

⁶ Pursuant to P.L. 101-194, § 704 (Nov. 30, 1989, 103 Stat. 1717, at 1769), as amended, Members, federal officials, and judges, were scheduled to receive an adjustment of 1.6%. By law, Members, executive schedule officials, and judges may not receive an adjustment greater than the adjustment in the base pay of GS employees. The adjustment for Members was prohibited by P.L. 114-254 (Dec. 10, 2016). According to the Office of Personnel Management, "The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2017 (Public Law 115-31, May 5, 2017), contains a provision that continues the freeze on the payable pay rates for certain senior political officials at 2013 levels during calendar year 2017. Unless extended by new legislation, the pay freeze will end on the last day of the last pay period that begins in calendar year 2017 (i.e., January 6, 2018, for those on the standard biweekly payroll cycle). However, the officially established and posted pay rates (or pay ranges) for 2017 are in effect and used for determining pay for other employees." SENIOR EXECUTIVE SERVICE SALARIES

(Effective January 1, 2017)

Basic Pay Range	Minimum	Maximum
Agencies with a certified SES performance appraisal system	$124,406	$187,000
Agencies without a certified SES performance appraisal system	$124,406	$172,100

NOTE.—Pursuant to P.L. 108–136 §1125 (Nov. 24, 2003), salaries paid to members of the Senior Executive Service will be set administratively by the agency heads and will reflect individual performance, contributions to the agency's performance, or both, as determined under a rigorous performance management system. The maximum rate is equal to the salary at Level III of the Executive Schedule. At such time that the Office of Personnel Management certifies that the agency has an appropriate performance appraisal system in place, the maximum allowable rate for senior executives within that agency will increase to a rate equal to Level II of the Executive Schedule. See 69 FR 2048–2052 for interim regulations and 69 FR 70355–70367 for final regulations. According to the Office of Personnel Management, “The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2017 (Public Law 115–31, May 5, 2017), contains a provision that continues the freeze on the payable pay rates for certain senior political officials at 2013 levels during calendar year 2017. (See section 738 of division E of the Act.) Unless extended by new legislation, the pay freeze will end on the last day of the last pay period that begins in calendar year 2017 (i.e., January 6, 2018, for those on the standard biweekly payroll cycle). However, the officially established and posted pay rates (or pay ranges) for 2017 are in effect and used for determining pay for other employees.”

This appropriation contains funds for salaries, agency contributions, office expenses and official mail expenses of Senators. The Senators' Account is comprised of three statutory allowances and an allocation for official mail.

The allowance for Administrative and Clerical Assistance for a Senator's office is based on the population of the State beginning with states with a population of less than five million to states with a population of 28 million or more as authorized by Public Law 90-57 as amended [2 U.S.C. 61-1(d)]. The amount authorized for Legislative Assistance is based on three times the maximum salary payable in the Senator's office and is the same for each Senator as authorized by Public Law 95-94 as amended [2 U.S.C. 61-1 note]. The Official Office Expense Account is based primarily on the distance between Washington, D.C. and the State as authorized by Public Law 92-607 as amended [2 U.S.C. 58(b)(3)]. The allocation for Official Mail is determined by regulations promulgated by the Committee on Rules and Administration, based on available appropriated funds.

In addition, each of the amounts provided for in the Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account are completely interchangeable and the only statutory limitation is the $50,000 limitation each fiscal year for Mass Mailings pursuant to Public Law 103-283 [39 U.S.C. 3210].

OFFICIAL MAIL COSTS

For expenses necessary for official mail costs of the Senate, $300,000. (Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 2017.)

Authorizations as follows:

This appropriation reimburses the United States Postal Service for official mail sent out by the administrative offices of the Senate. Public Law 101-163, dated November 21, 1989, provided separate funding for Official Mail Costs for each House of Congress. Public Law 105-275; dated October 21, 1998, provided funding for official mail costs directly to the Senator's Official Personnel and Office Expense Account no longer funding Senator's offices from the appropriation.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

REQUIRING AMOUNTS REMAINING IN SENATORS' OFFICIAL PERSONNEL AND OFFICE EXPENSE ACCOUNT TO BE USED FOR DEFICIT REDUCTION OR TO REDUCE THE FEDERAL DEBT *

SEC. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any amounts appropriated under this Act under the heading "SENATE" under the heading "CONTINGENT EXPENSES OF THE SENATE" under the heading "SENATORS' OFFICIAL PERSONNEL AND OFFICE EXPENSE ACCOUNT" shall be available for obligation only during the fiscal year or fiscal years for which such amounts are made available. Any unexpended balances under such allowances remaining after the end of the period of availability shall be returned to the Treasury in accordance with the undesignated paragraph under the center heading "GENERAL PROVISION" under chapter XI of the Third Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1957 (2 U.S.C. 4107) and used for deficit reduction (or, if there is no Federal budget deficit after all such payments have been made, for reducing the Federal debt, in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury considers appropriate).

*The following provisions were included in the FY2017 Act, but were not included in the FY2018 President's Budget due to timing.

AUTHORITY FOR TRANSFER OF FUNDS

SEC. 2. Section 3(c)(3) of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 2004 (2 USC 2108(c)(3)) is amended—

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(D) TRANSFERS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—The Commission may, for individual conservation or restoration projects estimated to cost greater than $100,000, transfer amounts in the fund to the Architect of the Capitol for the cost of conservation or restoration, in whole or in part, by the Architect of the Capitol of works of art, historical objects, documents, or material relating to historical matters placed or exhibited, or to be placed or exhibited, within the Senate wing of the United States Capitol or any Senate Office Building.

“(ii) AVAILABILITY.—Amounts transferred to the Architect of the Capitol under clause (i) and not subject to return under clause (v) shall remain available until expended.

“(iii) APPROVAL AND OVERSIGHT OF CONSERVATION OR RESTORATION.—Before authorizing transfers under clause (i), in whole or in part, the Commission, or the chairman and vice chairman acting jointly on behalf of the Commission and after giving notice to the Commission, shall review and approve a conservation or restoration project for which such amounts are intended (referred to in this section as the ‘Project’). The Commission may require updated reports on the Project before any additional amounts are transferred for the Project. No disbursements may be made from funds transferred under clause (i) that are inconsistent with the Project approved by the Commission upon which the relevant transfer is based.

“(iv) ACCEPTANCE OF DONATIONS.—The Commission retains the discretion whether or not to approve the acceptance of any donation to the fund regardless of whether the donation is intended for a conservation or restoration Project under clause (i).

“(v) ISSUANCE OF GUIDELINES.—The Commission may prescribe such guidelines as it deems necessary for the approval and transfer of any amounts under clause (i) and the return of any undisbursed amounts.

“(vi) RETURN OF UNUSED FUNDS.—The Commission may require the return of amounts transferred to the Architect of the Capitol under clause (i) and not disbursed pursuant to an approved Project within five years of the transfer. Such amounts will be returned to the fund for use or disposition as the Commission shall determine appropriate. For purposes of this subsection, the Commission may, at any time, specify a date of return greater than five years from the transfer.

“(vii) DISBURSEMENT AND AUDIT RESPONSIBILITY.—Once amounts are transferred pursuant to clause (i), disbursements from transferred funds shall be made by the Architect of the Capitol upon review of vouchers by the Architect of the Capitol and not subject to the audit provisions of clause (c)(6) of this section. Such disbursements shall be limited to purposes for which funds may be disbursed pursuant to this section.

“(viii) TERMINATION.—The authority to transfer amounts to the Architect of the Capitol under clause (i) shall expire ten years after the date of its initial enactment. NOTE.—2 U.S.C. 4531(B)(i) gives the Clerk of the House authority to adjust the clerk hire allowance by the percentage increase as recommended by the President to the Congress, which is either the cost-of-living adjustment or the President's alternative pay plan pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 5305.

The clerk hire allowance may also be increased through the legislative process of the Committee on House Administration and through passage of such legislation by the full House.

NOTE.—Immediately prior to 1919, Members got an annual allowance of $2,000 paid to them monthly, to cover such expenses.

² Pub. L. 91-510, effective Jan. 3, 1971, changed the "basic" salary system to a gross system with the gross annual salary established at $133,500 for 15 clerks. The allowance for districts over 500,000 was established at $145,000 for 16 clerks. H. Res. 1264 (Pub. L. 91-665) increased the number of clerks allowed for the districts under and over 500,000 from 12 and 13, respectively, to 15 and 16.

⁴ Pub. L. 91-656, the Federal Pay Comparability Act of 1970, increased the gross annual salary as follows: Under 500,000, 15 clerks, $141,500; over 500,000, 16 clerks, $148,900.

⁷ Effective May 1, 1973, the Committee on House Administration directed under Committee Order No. 5 that upon written request to the committee, a Member may employ in lieu of 1 of the 16 clerks allowed under his clerk hire allowance, a research assistant at such salary as the Member may designate. The Member's annual clerk hire allowance will then be increased at the rate of $20,000. The additional research assistant funds increase with cost-of-living increases.

⁸ Effective Mar. 6, 1975, the Committee on House Administration directed under Committee Order 16 that each Member, the Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico, and the Delegate from the District of Columbia be entitled to 18 employees. The Delegates from Guam and the Virgin Islands were entitled to 11 under that order. Effective May 27, 1975, Pub. L. 94-26 allowed the Delegates from Guam and the Virgin Islands the same clerk hire allowances as Members, thus allowing 18 employees. The Committee on House Administration further directed in its Order 20, that the basic clerk hire allowance be raised an additional $22,500 effective June 1, 1975.

² U.S.C. 4314 now requires allowances to be fixed or adjusted only by adoption of a resolution by the House except for certain changes due to overall prices or technological changes.

In accordance with a directive from the Committee on House Administration dated April 13, 1977, the Clerk of the House was required to disclose monthly payroll certifications beginning with January 1977.

¹⁰H. Res. 359, July 20, 1979 entitled each Member to 4 nonpermanent positions to be paid from the clerk hire allowance and the total salary payment from the clerk hire allowance for a monthly pay period shall not exceed one-tenth of the single per annum gross rate and no more than one-fourth of the annual allowance shall be used in any one quarter.

NOTE.—Pub. L. 97-357, Sec. 401 authorizes the Delegate from American Samoa, previously entitled to 50 percent of the basic allowance, to 100 percent of the basic allowance.

NOTE.—Effective May 1, 1983, Committee Order No. 35 authorized Members to allocate not to exceed $30,000 from the basic Clerk Hire allowance each session, which may be used to supplement the Official Expenses allowance. Members may also allocate not to exceed $30,000 from the Official Expenses allowance to supplement the basic Clerk Hire allowance, provided however that monthly payroll disbursements do not exceed 10% of the basic Clerk Hire allowance.

¹¹Retroactive to January 1, 1984.

¹²NOTE.—The Clerk of the House implemented necessary measures and Members were notified on December 15, 1989 of the provisions contained in the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Pub. L. 99-177). Pursuant to this Act, Members' Clerk Hire appropriations were reduced by the 1.4 percent FY 1990 sequester for an adjusted individual Clerk Hire allowance of $441,120.

¹³Sec. 104 of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act of 1991 (Pub. L. 101-520) States: "Effective as of the beginning of the 102d Congress, the authorization for the Clerk Hire Allowance, as established by the Committee on House Administration, is increased by $50,000." Effective January 3, 1991 the Clerk Hire Authorization is $515,760. Due to funding restraints the Committee on House Administration provided $475,000 for each Member Clerk Hire Allowance.

NOTE.—Effective August 1, 1985, Committee Order No. 38 increased to $40,000, the amount a Member may allocate from the Clerk Hire Allowance to supplement their Official Expenses Allowance.

NOTE.—Clerk of the House implemented necessary measures and notified Members on February 3, 1986 of the provisions contained in the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Pub. L. 99-177). Pursuant to this Act, Members' Clerk Hire appropriations were reduced by the 4.3 percent sequester for the first nine months of 1986.

NOTE.—Effective March 15, 1990, Committee Order No. 39 authorized Members to allocate not to exceed $50,000 from the basic Clerk Hire allowance each session, which may be used to supplement the Official Expense allowance. Members may also allocate not to exceed $50,000 from Official Expense allowance to supplement the basic Clerk Hire allowance, provided however that monthly payroll disbursements do not exceed 10% of the basic Clerk Hire allowance.

NOTE.—Effective May 8, 1991, Committee Order No. 40 authorized Members to allocate not to exceed $75,000 from the basic Clerk Hire allowance each session, which may be used to supplement the Official Expense allowance. Members may also allocate not to exceed $75,000 from Official Expense allowance to supplement the basic Clerk Hire allowance, provided however that monthly payroll disbursements do not exceed 10% of the basic Clerk Hire allowance.

NOTE.—Effective January 1, 2009, pursuant to the Speaker's Pay Order of 2009, the maximum salary of a Clerk Hire employee is $168,411.

NOTE.—There was no Speaker's Pay Order for 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017.

The Congressional Accountability Act of 1995 (CAA) established an independent Office of Compliance to apply the rights and protections of the following labor and employment statutes to covered employees within the Legislative Branch: the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, chapter 71 of title 5 of the U.S. Code (relating to Federal service labor-management relations), the Employee Polygraph Protection Act of 1988, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and chapter 43 of title 38 of the U.S. Code (relating to veterans' employment and reemployment). The Act was amended in 1998 to apply the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act. In 2008, the CAA was amended to apply the Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act of 2008.

The Office provides employees and employing offices with an independent, neutral dispute resolution process, as an alternative to the court system, through which they may adjudicate claims under the laws applied by the CAA. The Office is headed by a five-member Board of Directors, who are appointed jointly by the House and Senate majority and minority leadership.

AWARDS AND SETTLEMENTS FUND

Section 415 of the Congressional Accountability Act (CAA) established "an account of the Office in the Treasury of the United States for the payment of awards and settlements under this Act," and further authorized to be appropriated "such sums as may be necessary to pay such awards and settlements." Section 415 stipulated that awards and settlements under the CAA should only be paid from that account, which was to be kept separate from the operating expenses account of the Office of Compliance.

The Legislative Branch Appropriations Acts have appropriated funds for awards and settlements under the CAA by means of the following language:

Such sums as may be necessary are appropriated to the account described in subsection (a) of section 415 of Public Law 104-1 to pay awards and settlements as authorized under such subsection.

The Congressional Budget Office (CBO) was established as a non-partisan office of Congress by Title II of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (2 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). CBO provides objective economic and budgetary analysis and information to assist Congress in the fulfillment of its responsibilities. That information includes forecasts of the economy, analyses of economic trends and alternative fiscal policies, long-term projections of Federal spending and revenue, and, upon request, studies on budget-related issues. In addition, CBO provides Congress with multi-year cost estimates for reported bills, as well as analyses of the costs of state, local, tribal, or private sector mandates.

Office of the Librarian.—The Office of the Librarian provides leadership and policy direction to the Library, overseeing the implementation and management of the Library's mission to support the Congress in fulfilling its constitutional duties and to further the progress of knowledge and creativity for the benefit of the American people. It also ensures that the Library's infrastructure provides the necessary services and compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements in the areas of human capital, budget and finance, contracts and grants, information technology, facilities logistics, asset management and protection, emergency preparedness, and personnel security, health, and safety. The Librarian of Congress, Deputy Librarian of Congress, Chief of Staff, and Chief Operating Officer provide executive management to the Library service units.

Library Services.—The mission of Library Services is to acquire, organize, provide access to, maintain, secure, and preserve the Library's collections, which document the history and further the creativity of the American people as well as record and contribute to the advancement of civilization and knowledge throughout the world.

National and International Outreach (NIO).—National and International Outreach serves the public and contributes directly to the nation's educational and intellectual life through programs and activities that interpret and promote the Library's resources and the use of its unparalleled collections onsite as well as via the internet. It also supports literacy programs, creates partnerships for digital collaboration, catalyzes public-private partnership networks to jointly sustain at-risk cultural heritage content, and administers a national program to provide reading material for blind and physically handicapped residents of the United States, its outlying areas, and for U.S. citizens residing abroad, circulating at no cost to users approximately 23 million items a year. It oversees the preservation of sound and film material of national significance, and administers two high profile Library events: the Gershwin Prize for Popular Song and the National Book Festival. It manages programs that deliver fee-based services to other federal agencies or to the public. It also oversees the Library's national programs for education outreach, encouraging kindergarten through twelfth grade educational use of the Library's online primary sources.

Law Library.—The Law Library of Congress (LAW) is the world's largest law and legislative library. Its primary mission is to provide the United States Congress, Executive Branch agencies, federal courts, the legal community, and others with legal research and/or reference services in foreign, international, and comparative law. LAW's core research capacity includes foreign and U.S. trained attorneys and librarians. They use LAW's collection of comprehensive legal materials, a total of more than 5 million items including nearly 3 million books and periodicals. These cover approximately 240 legal systems and jurisdictions. LAW acquires, maintains, and preserves its collection in both analog and digital formats, and draws on technology to make the collections accessible through various systems and products. The Law Library ensures public access to congressional resources for Congress.gov, which includes full texts of bills, resolutions, the Congressional Record, legislative calendars, committee information, treaties plus a full range of other congressional material. Additional LAW-supported systems and products provide access to historic legislative documents which focus on legal research techniques, events and issues. The Law Library assists Congress and other constituents with a forum for the exchange of legal sources online.

Office of the Inspector General.—The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) functions within the Library of Congress as an independent, objective office with authority to: conduct and supervise audits and investigations relating to the Library; provide leadership and coordination in recommending policies to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness; and inform the Librarian of Congress and the Congress fully about problems and deficiencies related to the administration and operations of the Library. The OIG specializes in auditing and analyzing the design of and compliance with the Library's systems of internal control, with special emphasis on deterring waste, fraud, and abuse. Through its audit operation it recommends corrective actions to improve financial, operational, technological, and managerial activities. In its investigative capacity, it performs administrative, civil, and criminal investigations concerning fraud, conflict of interest, and other misconduct involving Library employees, contractors, and grantees. As part of its oversight role, OIG continually reviews and provides recommendations about the effects of existing and proposed legislation and Library policies. The OIG also coordinates relationships within the Library and with outside organizations regarding OIG matters. The designed objective of the office's efforts are to assist the Library in accomplishing its mission in the most effective and efficient manner.

The Copyright Office operates the largest database of copyrighted works and copyright ownership information in the world, and through its work contributes significantly to the development of the copyright law, the national economy, and the cultural heritage of the United States. Approximately sixty percent of the Office's operations are funded by fees paid by authors and other copyright owners for services rendered, and the remainder is funded by appropriated dollars. The amount requested is more than offset by projected fee receipts plus the value of books and other materials deposited with the Office in accordance with the Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. subsections 407 and 408) and transferred annually to the Library of Congress for its permanent collections. The receipts and obligations for 2016, and estimates for 2017 and 2018 are as follows:

Registration, recordation, acquisitions, copyright records, public information, and expert advice on copyright issues.—The Copyright Office is responsible for administering the national copyright registration system. In 2016, the Office examined and registered 414,269 claims to copyright in original works of authorship, and it expects to register an estimated 400,000 copyright claims in both 2017 and 2018. Additional responsibilities of the Office include: recording assignments and other copyright-related documents; acquiring books, films, sound recordings, and other works for possible inclusion in Library of Congress collections under the mandatory deposit provision of the copyright law; creating and making available records of copyright ownership; providing copyright information to the public; and providing expert advice to Congress, executive agencies, and the courts on domestic and international copyright law and policy.

Licensing Division.—The Licensing Division handles administrative provisions of statutory licenses and obligations under the copyright law, including those involving secondary transmissions by cable television systems and satellite carriers and the importation, manufacture and distribution of digital audio recording devices and distribution media. The division collects specified royalty fees for distribution to copyright owners upon determinations rendered by the Copyright Royalty Judges. Distribution occurs after deduction of administrative costs incurred by the Licensing Division and the Copyright Royalty Judges, as specified by this appropriation.

Copyright Royalty Judges (CRJ).—The Copyright Royalty Judges and their staff, who operate under the Librarian of Congress, determine royalty distributions and adjust the royalty rates in terms of copyright statutory licenses.

This schedule covers: (1) funds received as gifts for immediate expenditure, funds received as trust funds for expenditure, and receipts from the sale of recordings, publications, and other materials financed from capital originally received as gifts; (2) income from investments held by or for the Library of Congress Trust Fund Board; and (3) interest paid by the Treasury on the principal funds deposited therewith as described under "Library of Congress Trust Fund, Principal Accounts." The Library has seven program areas related to Gift and Trust funds:

Library Services.—Library Services acquires and catalogs materials for the Library's collections; manages and maintains the collections; preserves materials for use now and in the future; and serves the public.

Law Library.—The Law Library of Congress maintains a global law collection of over 2,910,000 volumes and approximately 2.9 million microforms and digital items as well as legal information websites, and provides legal research and reference services, covering more than 240 foreign jurisdictions, to the Congress, the Judiciary, federal agencies, and the public—serving approximately 100,000 users and receiving over 7,000,000 queries and website visits and page views in fiscal year 2016.

Copyright Office.—The Copyright Office administers the U.S. Copyright Laws; provides expert advice to the Congress on matters relating to copyright law and policy; provides information and assistance to the executive branch and the courts; and promotes international protection of U.S. copyrighted works.

Congressional Research Service.—The Congressional Research Service (CRS) serves all Members and committees of the Congress. CRS experts provide Congress with authoritative, confidential, non-partisan, and objective expertise across the full range of legislative policy issues.

National and International Outreach (NIO).—National and International Outreach serves the public and contributes directly to the nation's educational and intellectual life through programs and activities that interpret and promote the Library's resources and the use of its unparalleled collections onsite as well as via internet. NIO also administers the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, which manages a free national reading program for blind and physically handicapped people—circulating at no cost to users approximately 23,000,000 items a year. It also operates gift revolving activities that provide traveling exhibits, publishing services and special programs for the benefit of other libraries, institutions and the general public.

The Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents operate under a separate appropriation that provides funds (salaries and expenses) for: (1) the distribution of certain tangible publications to Members of Congress and other Government agencies, as authorized by law; (2) the distribution of Government publications to designated Federal depository libraries, as authorized by law, including tangible Government information products and online access to more than 1.5 million titles via GPO's Federal Digital System (FDsys) and its successor system govinfo (www.govinfo.gov); (3) the compilation of catalogs and indexes of Government publications, as authorized by law; and (4) the distribution of Federal Government publications to foreign governments via the International Exchange Service. These four functions are related to the publication activity of Federal agencies and the demands of the public, Members of Congress, and depository libraries. Following is a description of these four functions:

Distribution for other Government agencies and Members of Congress (By-Law Distribution).—The Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents maintain mailing lists and distribute, at the request of Government agencies and Members of Congress, certain publications specified by public law.

Federal Depository Library Program.—Established by Congress to ensure the American public has access to its Government's information, the Federal Depository Library Program (FDLP) involves the acquisition and dissemination of government information in all formats to Federal depository libraries across the country.

The mission of the FDLP is to coordinate with depository libraries, almost 1,100 nationwide, to disseminate information products from all three branches of the Government. Libraries that have been designated as Federal depositories maintain these information products (as provided by GPO) as part of their existing collections and are responsible for assuring that the public has free access to the material provided by the FDLP.

Included in this program is the maintenance and expansion of free, electronic access to information products produced by the Federal Government via FDsys/govinfo. Electronic information dissemination and access have greatly expanded the number of publications offered to the Federal depository libraries as well as increasing public use of the FDLP content. As the FDLP continues its transition to a primarily electronic program, the costs of the program are increasingly related to identifying, acquiring, cataloging, linking to, authenticating, modernizing, and providing permanent public access to digital Government information.

Cataloging and indexing.—The Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents are charged with preparing catalogs and indexes of all publications issued by the Federal Government that are not confidential in character. The principal publication is the Web-based “Catalog of U.S. Government Publications” (CGP). GPO’s goal is to expand the CGP to a more comprehensive title listing of public documents, both historic and electronic, to increase the visibility and use of Government information products.

International exchange.—Under the direction of the Library of Congress (LC), the Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents distributes tangible Government publications to foreign governments that agree to send the United States similar publications of their governments for the LC collections.

GOVERNMENT PUBLISHING OFFICE BUSINESS

OPERATIONS REVOLVING FUND

All GPO activities are financed through the agency's Business Operations Revolving Fund, established by section 309 of Title 44, U.S.C. This business-like fund is used to pay all GPO costs in performing congressional and agency publishing, printing and information product procurement, and publications dissemination activities. It is reimbursed from payments from customer agencies, sales to the public, and transfers from GPO's two annual appropriations: the Congressional Publishing Appropriation and the Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents Appropriation. Reimbursements to the Fund from appropriations constitute approximately 16% of GPO's annual revenues; the balance is generated by reimbursements from customer agencies for work performed, sales of publications and information products to the public, and miscellaneous sales of scrap, waste, and surplus property. The largest single component of GPO's annual expenses is publishing work procured from the private sector. In FY 2016, the cost of this work totaled $325.9 million, or about 41% of total expenses. The second largest component was personnel compensation and benefits. These totaled $206.7 million, or about 26% of all expenses.

GPO's Business Operations Revolving Fund functions as the agency's checking account with the U.S. Treasury. GPO pays its expenses from this account and the Fund is reimbursed when the Treasury Department transfers money from customer agency appropriations accounts to the Fund when they pay GPO's invoices. This procedure also applies to the payment of transfers from the Congressional Publishing and Public Information Programs appropriations, and to deposits of funds collected from sales to the public. GPO maintains a cash balance in the Business Operations Revolving Fund that is used to pay all expenses. The cash balance fluctuates daily as payments are received from agency reimbursements, customer payments, and transfers from GPO appropriations.

Under GPO's system of accrual accounting, annual earnings generated since the inception of the Fund have been accumulated as retained earnings. Retained earnings make it possible for GPO to fund a significant amount of technology modernization. However, appropriations for essential investments in technology and facilities upgrades are requested when necessary.

GPO is accountable for its finances. Each year, the agency's finances and financial controls are audited by an independent outside audit firm working under contract with GPO's Office of Inspector General. For FY 2016, the audit concluded with GPO earning an unmodified, or clean, opinion on its finances, the 20th consecutive year GPO has earned such an audit result.

The Open World Leadership Center, under the direction of its Board of Trustees, supports the identification of emerging leaders from foreign countries selected by the Board of Trustees and oversees the development of an intensive program in the United States to link up to 3,000 participants each year with U.S. counterparts. The Center's mission entails enhancing the understanding and capabilities for cooperation between the United States and participating countries by developing a network of leaders who have gained significant, first-hand exposure to America's democratic, accountable government and its free-market system. The Center has also administered a program to enable cultural leaders from the Russian Federation to gain exposure to the operations of American cultural institutions.

The Center is authorized to solicit and accept federal and private funds, in addition to receipt of this appropriation, and to invest appropriated funds in par value securities at the U.S. Treasury. The Center is governed by an eleven-member board of trustees, composed of the Librarian of Congress, Members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives and representatives of the private sector. The Center is authorized to obtain a wide range of administrative support, including space, from the Library of Congress.

FY 2018 funding supports U.S. grants and logistical services for hosting in communities throughout the United States as well as other operating expenses of the Center.
