

Amendment to House Republican Conference Standing Orders for the 118th Congress

Offered by: Mr. Reschenthaler (PA)

At the end, add the following:

Policy on Amendments Made in Order and Supporting Final Passage of a Measure

It is the policy of the House Republican Conference that if a member of the conference submits an amendment to the Rules Committee that is made in order under the rule, that member shall support final passage of the underlying measure.